

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

THIS volume contains the Catalogue of the Additions to the Department of MSS. during the years 1894-1899, arranged under the heads of Additional MSS., Additional Charters, Detached Seals, Papyri, Egerton MSS., and Egerton Charters. The total number of manuscripts acquired during this period is eighteen hundred and seven; of charters, four thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven; of detached seals, four thousand five hundred and ninety-three; and of papyri, two hundred and eighty.

The Department has during the six years covered by this Catalogue been largely benefited by donations from various sources.

Special mention should be made of the valuable bequest of 1899 by Baron Ferdinand Rothschild, M.P., of fourteen illuminated MSS. (Add. 35,310-35,324) consisting of three Books of Hours of the Virgin, executed in Flanders in the 15th cent.; three similar Books, executed in France in the 15th and 16th cent.; a Breviary, executed for John, Duke of Burgundy (1404-1419), parts of which are in Harley MS. 2897; another executed at Piacenza in 1480; two Offices of the Virgin, executed in Italy in the 15th cent.; an Exposition of the Apostles' Creed in Latin verse, executed for Charles VIII. of France, 1483-1498; Boccace, Le Decameron, late 15th cent., formerly owned by the Protector Somerset; Boccace, Des Nobles Malheureux, late 15th cent., illustrated by a French artist; and drawings of Funeral Processions of English Sovereigns and nobility, early 17th cent.

By a special grant of Parliament in the year 1895 were purchased from Viscount Bridport the papers and correspondence of Admiral Viscount Nelson, in ninety-one volumes (Add. 34,902–34,992), supplemented by a further purchase in 1897 of twelve additional volumes (Add. 35,191–35,202), consisting altogether of above six thousand letters, eleven autograph diaries, and numerous miscellaneous papers.

By another special grant in the year 1896 were acquired the military correspondence, letter-books and other papers of General Rowland Hill, 1st Baron and Viscount Hill, chiefly during the period of his service in the Peninsular War, and as second-in-command of the Army of Occupation in France in 1815–1818. A large number of autograph despatches and letters addressed to him by the Duke of Wellington are included. In nine volumes (Add. 35,059–35,067).

The Centenary Exhibition in the King's Library in 1894 of works and relics of Edward Gibbon the Historian led to the purchase early in 1895 of his will, bills for books, and a catalogue of his library written on the backs of playing cards, all of which are partly or wholly autograph (Add. 34,715; 34,716). These were obtained from M. W. de Charrière de Sévery of Lausanne, a descendant of W. de Sévery, Gibbon's friend and executor. Subsequently in 1895 and 1896 were acquired from the Earl of Sheffield the whole of the autograph MSS. of Gibbon which had belonged to his grandfather, the 1st Earl, the historian's most intimate friend. They include six autobiographical sketches with variations, five journals, four volumes of correspondence, and a number of autograph essays and miscellaneous works, together with correspondence of the first Lord Sheffield and of others (Add. 34,874–34,887).

In the years 1898 and 1899 were acquired two portions of the Buckler collection of topographical drawings made early in the late century, and illustrating ecclesiastical and secular architecture throughout England and Wales. They consist of about ten thousand pencil-drawings interleaved in forty-two large folio volumes. The majority of the drawings are by John Chessell Buckler and his father, John Buckler, the remainder by his son,

PREFACE.

Charles Alban Buckler. (These will be described and indexed with the third and last portion in the Sexennial Catalogue for 1900-1905.)

In 1899 were purchased from the Earl of Hardwicke the Correspondence, Papers, and Legal and Historical Collections of the first three Earls of Hardwicke, now arranged in nine hundred and thirty volumes, viz. four hundred and sixty-five of correspondence and four hundred and sixty-five of papers, etc. (Add. 35,349-36,278).

The correspondence between members of the family occupies fifty-five volumes, and includes many confidential expressions of opinion upon political topics. The political correspondence proper, in one hundred and seventy-eight volumes, is especially ample for the period 1740-1790. It includes not only the correspondence of the 1st Earl of Hardwicke, Lord Chancellor (1737-1756), whose intimate relations with the Pelhams are well known, and his sons, Lord Royston (afterwards 2nd Earl), the Hon. Charles Yorke (Solicitor and Attorney-General and for three days Lord Chancellor), and Sir Joseph Yorke (Lord Dover, British Minister at the Hague), with the Principal Ministers of State, but also an extensive series of the correspondence of Robert Keith, successively Secretary under the Earl of Stair, commanding the forces in the Low Countries in 1742-1743, and under the Earl of Sandwich as Plenipotentiary at Aix-la-Chapelle, and afterwards himself Ambassador to Vienna 1748-1757, and to St. Petersburg 1757-1762; and of his son, Sir Robert Murray Keith, Ambassador to Denmark 1771-1772, and to Vienna 1772-1792. It will be observed that the Hardwicke Papers form the counterpart to the Newcastle Papers (presented by the Earl of Chichester in 1886), which contain the other side of the correspondence between the Pelhams and the Yorkes.

The general and local correspondence fills one hundred and seventeen volumes. It includes in the time of the 1st Lord Hardwicke's tenure of the Great Seal much correspondence about ecclesiastical patronage, the appointment of Sheriffs and Justices of the Peace, etc. The Irish correspondence under the Lord-lieutenancy of the 3rd Earl, 1801-1806, fills eighty-seven volumes, and relates, among other matters, to Emmet's rebellion in 1803. Correspondence relating to Post-office business during the 4th Earl's tenure of the Postmaster-Generalship, 1852-3, occupies twenty-six volumes.

Of the papers, etc., fifty-five volumes are historical collections, including important original State papers of the 16th and 17th centuries, an autograph Latin letter-book of Roger Ascham as Secretary to Queen Mary, etc. Sixty-six volumes are filled by political papers, including Lord Chancellor Hardwicke's autograph drafts for King's Speeches, his secret political memoranda, and notes taken at the Cabinet, many original Orders in Council, and extensive Parliamentary, Scottish, Colonial and Diplomatic collections.

The legal collections in two hundred and ninety-three volumes include ninety volumes of law reports, many of which are of the 15th-17th centuries, many legal treatises, the Lord Chancellor's judicial note-books, and bulky collections of opinions, briefs and appeal cases of the Lord Chancellor and the Hon. Charles Yorke, together with a number of original warrants to the Lord Chancellor and Law Officers of the Crown.

A series of twenty volumes relates to the family estates in cos. Cambridge, Gloucester, Hertford, etc., and another of twenty-three volumes deals with personal and miscellaneous matters. There are also eight boxes of deeds, and one hundred and forty-nine separate charters.

In the case of a large correspondence, a general description of the papers, with an enumeration of the principal writers, has been thought sufficient, but the omitted names appear in the Index.

By an examination of the Class-headings may be obtained a general view of the nature and extent of the further acquisitions. I need here only indicate the most important among them.

Of special interest are :—

1. The papyri (485-603) discovered by Prof. Flinders Petrie in the Fayyûm, including portions of Euripides' lost play of Antiope and of Plato's Phædo, both written in the 3rd century B.C., and consequently the earliest known MS. remains of Greek Classical literature.

Also the papyrus (733) of the poems of Bacchylides, of the 1st century B.C. This is the only known MS. of this poet, whose works had been lost for over a thousand years. It is written in a fine uncial hand, and contains twenty poems (six belonging to a class of Greek poetry of which no complete specimen has hitherto been known); six of the poems are complete, and nine are represented by substantial portions, while five are mere fragments. An annotated edition of the poems has been published, together with a photographic facsimile of the papyrus.

2. The most valuable of the Illuminated MSS. in addition to those mentioned on p. iii. are:—

The so-called Gospels of St. Grimbald (Add. 34,890), a fine copy of the Four Gospels, written and illuminated in Newminster (afterwards Hyde Abbey) at Winchester, early in the 11th cent. It is decorated with miniatures of the Evangelists and elaborate borders in gold, silver and colours in the best style of English art of the time.

And the Apocalypse (Add. 35,166) with commentary, in Latin, supplemented by a collection of Miracles of St. John the Evangelist, the whole illustrated by seventy-six finely illuminated miniatures of English art, occupying the upper half of each page; latter half of 13th century.

3. Among historical MSS. and collections of State Papers and Correspondence are the following:—

Add. 35,168. Chronicle of English History from the Creation to A.D. 1225. Compiled chiefly from Marianus Scotus, Florence of Worcester, Benedict of Peterborough, Roger of Hoveden, and the Barnwell Chronicle (in the College of Arms). The latter part was used by Walter of Coventry. Belonged to Croyland Abbey. 13th century.

Add. 34,888, 34,889. Original letters and papers of the family of Paston, of co. Norfolk; 15th century. Comprising the portion of the collection published by Sir John Feun in Vols. III. and IV. of his edition, 1789.

- Add. 34,563. Transcripts by Sir Henry Bedingsfield of his correspondence with Queen Mary and the Privy Council, concerning his custody of the Lady Elizabeth, with the Queen's instructions, and other original papers; 1554-1558.
- Eg. 2813. Letter-book of Sir Dudley Carleton, Viscount Dorchester, when English Ambassador at Venice; 1615.
- Add. 35,097. Register of letters of John, 1st Viscount Scudamore, when Ambassador to France, chiefly addressed to Sir John Coke, Secretary of State; 1635-1639.
- Add. 34,702. Political and private correspondence of Sir Richard Browne, English Resident at Paris 1641-1660, consisting mainly of letters to his son-in-law, John Evelyn, his daughter Mary, Evelyn's wife, and Sir G. Radcliffe; 1621-1683.
- Add. 35,099. Original correspondence of Sir Robert Southwell, Envoy to Portugal, etc.; 1654-1699.
- Add. 35,125. Correspondence of John Maitland, 2nd Earl and 1st Duke of Lauderdale, Secretary of State for Scotland; 1661-1682. (The volume is supplementary to the large collection of Lauderdale papers acquired in 1859 and 1860.)
- Add. 35,100, 35,101. Letter-books of Francis Parry, Envoy to Portugal; 1668-1680.
- Add. 34,773-34,778. Official correspondence and papers of Sir Robert Southwell, Edward Southwell his son, and Edward Southwell his grandson, successive Secretaries of State for Ireland; 1686-1741.
- Add. 35,105, 35,106. Original official correspondence of Dr. John Robinson, Envoy to Sweden, with William Blathwayt, Secretary at War; 1692-1701.
- Add. 34,677. Letters from Sir Robert Harley, Secretary of State, to the same Envoy; 1704-1707.
- Add. 34,634-34,647. Correspondence and papers of Cardinal Henry Benedict Stuart, styled Duke of York, including letters from and to his brother the Pretender Charles Edward Stuart and others of his family; 1754-1807.
- Add. 34,685-34,688. Correspondence and papers of Sir Robert Palk, Governor of Madras (including letters of Warren Hastings); 1759-1789.
4. Under the head of Music is a large series (Add. 34,996-35,028, 35,038-35,040) of the musical compositions collected by Samuel Wesley, with numerous original MSS. of his own works; 18th-19th centuries. Among them are twenty-one preludes and fugues in the autograph of Johann Sebastian Bach.
- Also the collection (Add. 35,263-35,279) of Scotch, Welsh and Irish songs composed for, and mostly published by, George Thomson of Edinburgh, the friend of Burns; with letters addressed to him in connection with the same publication, 1793–1847, and his own letter-books, 1803–1851.

Some small collections and single volumes have also been acquired, among which may be noticed the autograph musical compositions of Sir W. G. Cusins, Master of the Music to Queen Victoria (Add. 34,537–34,544), and Attila, an autograph opera by Giuseppe Verdi (Add. 35,156).

5. Among small collections and single volumes, the following may be selected for their rarity or their literary value:—

Add. 35,109. Sallust's Catilinarian and Jugurthine Wars. Written in Italy in 1192.

Add. 34,761, 35,093, 35,114, 35,115, 35,181, 35,182, 35,184, 35,185, 35,187, 35,291–35,294, 35,328; Eg. 2806, 2814. A series of wardrobe-books and household-books of English Sovereigns, Edward I.—George I.

Add. 35,298. The English version of the Legenda Aurea of Jacobus de Voragine (the most perfect of the known MSS. of this version); middle of the 15th cent.

Add. 35,290. The York Mystery Plays: the unique MS. of forty-nine plays, forming a series from the Creation and the Fall of Lucifer to the Last Judgment and the Coronation of Our Lady, performed on Corpus Christi Day by the Crafts of York; 15th cent.

Add. 35,288. Romance of Partonopeus de Blois, translated from the French into English Verse; late 15th cent.

Add. 34,791. History of the Patriarch Joseph, a poem by William Forest, chaplain to Queen Mary, dedicated to William Parr, Earl of Essex; 1545. With a curious preface, containing references to Chaucer, Gower, Lydgate, and especially John Heywood. Hitherto only known from a later version of 1569.

Add. 35,139. "Garden Kalendar" of the Rev. Gilbert White of Selborne; 1751–1767. The continuation of this Kalendar, 1768–1793, under the title of the "Naturalist's Journal," was acquired in 1881.

Add. 34,806, 34,891–4, 34,897, 35,135–7. Collections of rubbings of Brasses, English and Foreign, and incised slabs.

Add. 34,798, 35,165. Collection of rubbings of sculptured stones in Scotland by Miss Christian MacLagan.

PREFACE.

The compilation of the Catalogue is the work of the staff of the Department. The Papyri have been described by Dr. Kenyon, the Charters and Seals by Dr. Birch, and the Music by Mr. Hughes-Hughes. The work of revision has been done by Mr. Warner, Assistant-Keeper, and (as regards the Index) by Mr. Bickley.

ADDITIONAL MANUSCRIPTS

1894.

- 34,527. 1. "THE BRAMINE'S JOURNAL": a journal addressed by Laurence Sterne to Eliza Draper, wife of Daniel Draper, of Bombay, after her departure for India, and extending from 13 April to 4 Aug. [1767]. It was then discontinued, on the return of Mrs. Sterne from France, but a postscript (partly torn away) was added on 1 Nov. Holograph. ff. 1-41.

At the beginning is a note by the author (apparently written with a view to publication) stating that the names of "Yorick" and "Draper," "Bramin" and "Bramine," are fictitious and the whole translated from a French MS., being "a Diary of the miserable feelings of a person separated from a lady for whose society he languished." Under 17 June (f. 25 b) is the entry: "I have brought your name Eliza and picture into my work [The Sentimental Journey, 1768, in his Works, ed. J. P. Browne, 1873, vol. ii., p. 276], where they will remain when you and I are at rest for ever," etc. For letters to the same lady preceding this Journal (which is called a "continuation," f. 1), see Works, as above, vol. iv., pp. 259-280.

Included also are the following letters, etc., relating to Sterne's relations with Mrs. Draper:—

2. L. Sterne to [Commodore William] James, afterwards Knt. and Chairman of the East India Company, and Anne, his wife; Coxwold, 10 Aug. 1767, York, 28 Dec. 1767. They are nos. xcvi. and cix. of Sterne's printed Letters, 1775, reprinted in his Works, as above, vol. iv., pp. 299, 319 (nos. cv., cxx.), where, however, they are given with some omissions and alterations and the incorrect dates of 13 Aug. and 23 Dec. ff. 42, 44.

MSS.—1894.

Paper. ninth cent. Quarto.
- 34,553. TREATISES on the art of war, viz. :—
1. "A booke off certayne offices and orders in warfare," consisting of the orders and duties pertaining to the offices of High Marshal, Provost Marshal, Master of the Ordnance, Serjeant-Major, Lieutenant of the Horsemen, and Scout-master. f. 1.
2. "A declaration of certeyn orders of Battayles," containing directions for five battles and two camps, with coloured plans. f. 16.

For copies of the same tracts, with some variations and without the plans, see Harley MSS. 846 and 847, f. 50, in the latter of which they are attributed to Sir Robert Constable, 1576-1578. Paper; ff. 33. Late xvith cent. Folio.

34,554. LIVES OF SAINTS, theological discourses and tales in late Greek. At the beginning five articles and part of the sixth have been lost.

1. Life of S. Ephraem Syrus; imperfect at the beginning. The substance is apparently an extract from the life in Migne, Patrologia Graeca, cxiv 1256. f. 3.
2. "Περὶ ἀγάπης καὶ διακρίσεως λόγος": tale of a decision of a dispute between reapers about wages, beg. "ἐναν καιρὸν ὑπήγαν τρεῖς ἀδελφοί." f. 4 b.
3. "Βίος καὶ πολιτεία τοῦ ἁγίου καὶ δικαίου φιλαρέτου τοῦ ἐλεήμονος, τοῦ γενομένου πάππου μαρίας τῆς βασιλείσης κωνσταντίνου τοῦ βασιλέως [Constantine V.], τοῦ καὶ νέου ἰωβ χρηματίσαντος": life of S. Philaretus of Paphlagonia, 1 Dec., beg. "βίον εὐάρεστον τοῦ θεοῦ καὶ ζωὴν καθάρια." f. 6.
4. "Βίος καὶ πολιτεία τοῦ ἁγίου ἀποστόλου θωμά": life of S. Thomas, beg. "κατὰ τοὺς καιροὺς ἐκείνους," and usually agreeing with that in Add. 10,073 (f. 128). f. 26 b.
5. "Τοῦ ἁγίου ἀποστόλου ἐπιστηθίου φίλου ἡγαπημένου καὶ παρθένου ἰωάννου τοῦ θεολόγου": life of S. John the Evangelist, beg. "οὗτος ὁ ἀπόστολος," and agreeing generally with Add. 10,073 (f. 259 b). f. 43 b.
6. "Βίος καὶ πολιτεία τοῦ ἐν ἁγίοις πατρὸς ἡμῶν ἰωάννου τοῦ καλυβήτου": life of S. John Calybite, beg. "βίος καὶ πολιτεία ἀνδρὸς δικαίου βούλωμαι." It corresponds rather with the life attributed to Symeon Metaphrastes (Migne, cxiv. 568, cf. Bolland, ii. 317, and Add. MS. 25,881, f. 208) than with Add. 10,073, f. 107. f. 59.
7. "Βίος καὶ πολιτεία τοῦ ὁσίου πατρὸς ἡμῶν ὑπατίου": life of S. Hypatius, described as Archbishop of Gangra in the reign of the Emperor "Θεοκλάνος," not in that of Constantine the Great, as in the Greek Menologium, 14 Nov. The date here is given as "Μαρτίῳ," i.e. 31 Mar.: see the Bollandists under that date (they reserve notice of the Bishop for 14 Nov.), and cf. Stadler's Heiligen Lexikon. Another copy is at Vienna (Lambecius, Comm. de Bibl. Cæs. Vindob., lib. viii., no. 36), and another life is in the Bibl. Nationale, 1492. Beg. "Κατὰ τοὺς καιροὺς ἐκείνους." f. 71 b. Imperfect, leaves being lost after f. 81.
8. "Βίος καὶ πολιτεία τοῦ ἁγίου ἀλεξίου τοῦ ἀνθρώπου τοῦ θεοῦ": life of S. Alexius [17 July], beg. "εἰς ταῖς ἡμέραις τῆς βασιλείας ὀνουρίου," and agreeing with Add. 25,881 (f. 216 b). f. 84 b.
9. "Βίος καὶ πολιτεία τοῦ ἐν ἁγίοις πατρὸς ἡμῶν νύμφωνος τοῦ ἐρημίτου

- λόγος ὠφέλιμος": discourses of Nephon the hermit on angels, judgement, etc., beg. "ὁ μακαρίος καὶ δούλος τοῦ θεοῦ." f. 95 b.
10. "Ἐν τοῖς χρόνοις ὅπερ ἐμαρτύρησεν ὁ ἅγιος μεγαλομάρτυς μαρκούριος": moral tales, etc.:—(a) Of a drunken priest. f. 117 b. Imperfect at the end by loss of leaves after f. 118;—(c) End of a tale apparently of a murder. f. 119;—(c) Tale of a thief. f. 119;—(d) Of a dog revealing thieves. f. 120;—(e) Version of the story of Arion. f. 121 b;—(f) Of the head of a dead man that miraculously punished him who abused it. f. 122 b;—(g) Of a priest who appropriated a deposit of money. f. 123.
11. "Περὶ τοῦ ἀσκητοῦ ὅπου ἔκαμεν δέξιν μετὰ τινὸς θέλει κατοικήσει εἰς τοὺς αἰώνιους μονὰς": story of a hermit and the Emperor Theodosius, beg. "γάρων τίς ἐκάθετον εἰς τὴν ἔρημον." f. 125.
12. "Μαρτύριον τοῦ ἁγίου ἐνδόξου μεγαλομάρτυρος καὶ ἰδματικοῦ νικίτα": martyrdom of S. Nicetas [Nicomediensis], beg. "ὁ τῆς ἀληθείας λόγος." See an epitome of two Latin versions in Bolland, xlv. 7. f. 129 b.
13. "Ἐρώτησις πέτρου μοναχοῦ πρὸς τὸν μακαριώτατον γρηγόριον τὸν διᾶλογον πάπας ρώμης τῆς πρεσβυτέρας. Τὶ δύνονται αἱ λειτουργίαι νὰ ὠφελήσουν τῆς ψυχᾶς τῶν ἁμαρτωλῶν μετὰ τῶν θάνατον αὐτῶν": apparitions bearing on the subject, beg. "ἐὰν τὰ ἁμαρτήματα τοῦ ἀνθρώπου." f. 138.
14. "Τοῦ ὁσίου πατρὸς ἡμῶν νικολάου μοναχοῦ τοῦ στρατοῦ": life of S. Nicolas Stratiota, a December saint, who lived under the Emperor Nicephorus, beg. "οὗτος ὁ ἐν ἁγίοις πατὴρ ἡμῶν." f. 141 b.
15. "Περὶ τοῦ ἀνησταμένου ἐγράφω τὸν χριστόν· καὶ συνετάχθη εἰς τὸν δάββαλον· καὶ ἐσώθη ὑπὸ τοῦ ἁγίου βασιλείου": miracle of S. Basil, from the life attributed to S. Amphilochius (see Bolland, xxiii. 428), beg. "οὗτος ὁ μέγας βασιλεὺς." f. 144 b.
16. "Λόγος ὠφέλιμος, ὅτι ἐὰν θέλει ὁ δαίμων δύναται νὰ σωθῇ," beg. "ἵνας ἀπὸ τοὺς ἁγίους πατέρες." f. 152.
17. "Διήγησις ὠφέλιμος τοῦ ὁσίου πατρὸς ἡμῶν ἡσαίου τοῦ ἀναχωριτοῦ": report by S. Esaias [Asceta?] of a discourse on monastic life by S. Macarius [Aegyptius?], beg. "εἶπεν ὁ ἅγιος ἰσαίας ὅτι ἐκάθου." f. 157.
18. "Βίος καὶ πολιτεία τῆς ὁσίας μητρὸς ἡμῶν μαρίας τῆς μετονομασθῆσης μαρηνος": life of S. Maria, who lived disguised in male clothes under the name Marinus, beg. "εἰς τὸν καιρὸν ἐκείνον ἦτον τις ἄνθρωπος." See a Latin version in Bolland, xxxi. 286. Imperfect at the end by loss of leaves after f. 169. f. 164 b.
19. Narrative (imperfect at the beginning, after f. 180, and again at the end) of the foundation by the Empress Helena of temples, etc., in Judaea and Cyprus, with lists of archbishops and bishops of Cyprus and of saints whose tombs are in the island. The account of the Invention of the Cross, stated to be taken from S. Judas Cyriacus, is somewhat different from the Latin life in Bolland, xxiii. 428. The latter part carries the history of Cyprus to about the 9th century. f. 170.

At f. 1 b is a table of contents added in a recent hand when the volume was bound, and after the loss of the missing leaves.

Paper; ff. 186. Rubricated initials and headlines. xvith cent. Small quarto.

34,555. "LAW-BOOK" of the Iron Mills at Winlaton, etc., co. Durham, founded circ. 1690 by Sir Ambrose Crowley, Knt. (ob. 1713), containing one hundred and thirteen regulations for the working of the mills, the behaviour and government of the workmen, the education of their children, provision for them in time of sickness, poverty or old age, etc. The original laws were framed by Sir A. Crowley, and were augmented by his son John Crowley, whose confirmation of his father's general rules for the "good government" of the mills is entered on f. 90. Additional entries, however, were made as late as 1782 and 1807 (ff. 109, 115). For an account of Sir A. Crowley and his iron-works see Surtees, Hist. of Durham, vol. ii., 1820, p. 272. On f. 1 is a letter from Sir A. Crowley to Sir William Bowes, Bart.; Winlaton, 1 Dec. 1702. Paper; ff. 162. xvith-xixth centt. Folio.

34,556. List of "Knights Bachelors of the County Palatine of Durham," by Sir Cuthbert Sharp, of Hartlepool; arranged in order of date of creation, 1558-1817. Printed, with MS. biographical and genealogical notes, to which are added, in some cases, autograph or facsimile signatures of the Knights. On f. 1 is a list of fees payable on the receipt of Knighthood, tempp. Jas. I.-Chas. II., and at the end are added lists of Irish peers, Knights of the Garter and the Bath, etc., connected with co. Durham. Paper; ff. 125. xixth cent. Quarto.

34,557. A. SURVEY of Moreton in Thame, co. Oxon.; "by Thomas D. . ." xixth cent. Vellum roll, 4 ft. 2 in. by 2 ft. 7 in.

B. "Plan of the estates of Sir Robert Rich, [5th] Bart., being part of the manours of Rosehall and Ashmans in the parishes of Beccles, Borsham [Barsham] and Ringsfield [co. Suffolk]; 1769." Vellum roll, 16 in. by 12½ in.

The latter part of Vol. X. contains monumental and other inscriptions by Dr. Butler (f. 438), notes relating to the genealogy of the Butler family (f. 480), and poetical pieces (f. 495).

34,593, 34,594. Vols. XI. XII. (ff. 173, 276). REGISTER of letters of Dr. Samuel Butler, with occasional memoranda; 1818-1828, 1832-1833, 1836-1839. In Vol. XII., f. 275, is a copy of a letter from Rev. Thomas Butler, son of the Bishop, relative to the disposal of his father's collection of Aldine editions, 20 Jan. 1840. Quarto.

34,595. Vol. XIII. (ff. 167). SCHOOL-EXERCISES of Dr. Samuel Butler, while a boy at Rugb-, in prose and verse; 1788-1790. Lat., Greek and Engl. Autogr. Small Quarto.

34,596. Vol. XIV. (ff. 55). REVIEWS by Dr. Samuel Butler of Richard Porson's Adversaria, and of the Rev. Thomas Kidd's Tracts and Miscellaneous Criticisms of the late Richard Porson, 1817. Autograph. Apparently the first drafts of the reviews by Dr. Butler in the Monthly Review for Dec. 1817, p. 420, and Jan. 1818, p. 18. Small Quarto.

34,597. Vol. XV. (ff. 76). COMMON-PLACE book of Dr. Samuel Butler; with classical, philological, and other notes. Small Quarto.

34,598. Vol. XVI. (ff. 176). ACCOUNTS of holiday tours of Dr. Samuel Butler, viz. (1) in France and the Netherlands, including a visit to the field of Waterloo, July, 1816. f. 2;—(2) in France, Switzerland and Italy, June-July, 1819. f. 38;—(3) in France and Italy, June-July, 1822. f. 115. The first two only are autograph. Octavo.

34,599-34,601. CORRESPONDENCE and papers of Sir Henry Spelman, the antiquary; 1600-1641. With additional matter to 1660. Three volumes. Paper. Folio. With the exception of letters to his son John when a youth, the correspondence is with English and foreign scholars, and chiefly relates to Spelman's Concilia and other works. In Vol. I. (ff. 24 b, 29, 31, 34) a Henry (Spelman), nephew of Sir Henry, is mentioned as about to sail for Virginia. Probably he was the Henry Spelman who wrote a "Relation of Virginia," published in 1872. The latter first went to Virginia in 1609, and, after more than a year's captivity among the Indians, returned to England with Capt. Argall. A letter signed H.S., written from Toulon in 1619 (f. 61), is also probably from the same. Included in Vol. III. are papers connected with a royal commission on legal fees, etc., 1623-1636, of which Sir Henry was a member. At the beginning of Vol. I. are four engraved portraits of him, by Rob. White, Will. Faithorne, etc. The collection formerly belonged to Dawson Turner and to the Rev. William E. Buckley. It was bound by the former; and in the first cover of Vol. I. were inserted specimens of the seals of Spelman's correspondents. The contents have now been re-arranged, and are as follows:—

2. Papers relating to the Order of Capuchins, of which the Cardinal was protector, viz. :—(a) Proceedings by Padre Teodoro of Ancona, a Capuchin, to obtain secularization, referred to the Cardinal; 17 Aug. 1796–27 Apr. 1797. ff. 143–175;—(b) Brief of Innocent XI. for the foundation of a house of Capuchins at the docks of Civita Vecchia; 15 May, 1684. Copy. f. 176;—(c) Visitation of the house of Capuchins at Civita Vecchia by Cardinal Antonelli, Bishop of Porto, with replies to the accusations brought therein; 1802. ff. 178–248.

34,641. STUART PAPERS. Vol. VIII. (ff. 82). Register of accompts kept by Jean Waters (succeeded in 1771 by Niccola Verzura) as agent at Paris, with James Stuart, the Old Pretender, 1754–1765, with Joseph Caietan Cantini, 1765–6, and with Charles Edward Stuart, 1766–1775. Followed by separate accompts with James for sums placed annually at his disposal, from 1760–1765, by Cardinal Neri Corsini (f. 70 b), and with Cardinal Henry Stuart, 1770–1772 (f. 76 b). The disbursements are chiefly pensions to English and Irish supporters.

34,642. STUART PAPERS. Vol. IX. (ff. 191). Register of receipts and disbursements of Cardinal Henry Stuart; 1760–1768.

34,643. STUART PAPERS. Vol. X. (ff. 472). 34,644. STUART PAPERS. Vol. XI. (ff. 490). General accompts of receipts and disbursements made for Cardinal Henry Stuart by Giuseppe Aquari, his treasurer; 1797–1807. At f. 483 is a table showing the loss of income to the Cardinal occasioned by the French Revolution.

34,645. STUART PAPERS. Vol. XII. (ff. 136).¹ Report of Giuseppe Pinchetti, accountant, on the management of the property of Cardinal Henry Stuart by Abbate Vincenzo Lupi and Luigi Giammarile; 31 Jan. 1800.

34,646, 34,647. STUART PAPERS. Vols. XIII., XIV. (ff. 7, 8). Census-returns of Rome, 1763 and 1765, arranged by parishes, with religious statistics. At the end of Vol. XIV. (f. 8) is a comparative table of the various classes of the population from 1756 to 1765. Vellum binding with tooled border and the royal arms of England.

34,648. TRACT on heraldry, beg: "Forasmoch as I John have late in this worldes ende perceyved in saule many gentilmen in armes blasying slomerously to slepe and dreme . . . [to] this litill tretis oute of latyne in to englyssh, suyng the fote steppes of the right nobill predecessour Fraunces de Foueys in his boke intituled De picturis Armorum [I] have putte my vigilant penne," etc. The translator's name suggests that of John "De Bado Aureo," but the tract is quite distinct in matter from the latter's "Tractatus de Armis" (also grounded on Franciscus de Foveis) which was printed by Sir E. Bysshe in 1654. Dallaway (Science of Heraldry, 1793, p. 151) mentions a "John Dade" in connection with a translation from the Latin of F. de Foveis, but whether as the actual translator or as the scribe of a particular MS. is uncertain. The tract here is imperfect (see a later copy, without the introduction, in Harley MS. 6097, f. 1). With a few coloured drawings of heraldic bearings.

Vellum (fly-leaves, ff. 1, 2, 9, paper); ff. 9. xvth cent. Belonged to Philip [Astle, afterwards] Hills, of Colne Park, co. Essex (ob. 1830), son of Thomas Astle, Keeper of the Records. Small Quarto.

34,649. RENTAL of the manor of Lawford Hall, "alias Lalleford et Sayes," in Lawford, co. Essex, made 1 Jas. I. [1603-4], the Lord at that time being Edward Waldegrave.

Paper; ff. 11. xvith cent. With notes on f. 1 b, concerning the successive Lords of the manor from 1341 to 1806, in the hand of Philip Hills (cf. Add. 34,648). Folio.

34,650. "A COLLECTION of Original Letters addressed to the Rev^d. Philip Morant, on the subject of his intended History of Essex, in which are many curious particulars of several Parishes never published"; 1739-1768. Arranged in alphabetical order of the writers' names, with short biographical notes, and with indices of names and places, by Morant's grandson, Philip Hills (formerly Astle), of Colne Park, Essex (ob. 1830). Autograph copies of some of Morant's answers are included.

Paper; ff. 269. Folio.

34,651. "MEMORANDA relating to the family of Waldegrave, and more particularly to Sir William Waldegrave, who founded a chantry on the south side of the church of Bures St. Mary, co. Suffolk, in A.D. 1514." The contents, all in the hand of Philip Hills (see above, Add. 34,648), are:—(1) Foundation charter of the chantry; 20 Jan. 1514[5]. f. 3;—(2) Pedigree of Waldegrave, with inscriptions on tombs, etc. ff. 21 b, 28;—(3) Extracts from the parish-register of Bures St. Mary. f. 24 b.

Paper; ff. 33. xixth cent. Quarto.

34,652. COLLECTION of MS. fragments, 11th–15th centt., and of facsimiles of MSS. Contents:—

1. Leaf from the Anglo-Saxon Chronicle containing the genealogical and chronological preface found also in the Parker MS. (A) at Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, and on the single leaf (f. 178) of Cotton MS. Tib. A iii., which is believed to be taken from Tib. A vi. Some of the dates differ from both the other copies. Begins: "þy geare þe was agan fram cristes acennednesse," and ends "on wealum geedon." 11th century. The leaf measures $9\frac{1}{2} \times 7$ inches, but has probably been clipped. 6. Leaf from a Legenda containing part of a life of S. Remigius identical with that in Add. 18,628, f. 46 b. Coloured initials. Latin. Late 12th cent. f. 7. A note on f. 8 of purchase by Edw. Rede from Bryget Reynor, widow, in 1639, apparently refers to this leaf.
7. Two leaves from a commentary [on the Pentateuch?] concerning Jewish festivals. Latin. 13th cent. ff. 9, 10.
8. Two leaves containing the first and parts of the second and last letters of Book I. of the Epistles of Sidonius Apollinaris (Migne, Patr. Lat., lviii., coll. 443–468), with philological notes in the margin. Latin. 13th cent. Quarto. Heading in a later hand: "Libri Epistolarum Sidonii pro noua libraria london per me f. Johannem Lowe." ff. 11, 12.
9. Leaf from the commentary of S. Augustine on Ps. cxxxix. 3–6 (Migne, xxxvii., col. 1805). Latin. 13th cent. f. 13.
10. Leaf from a pontifical or manual containing a curious exorcismal service; with spaces left for initials and music. Latin. 13th cent. Octavo. f. 14.
11. Fragment of a leaf from a work dealing with questions of canon-law. Latin. Late 13th cent. f. 15.
12. Membrane from a roll containing a portion of the law tract

- called Brevia Placitata. Includes the writs of Covenant, Customs and Services, Villenage, etc. French. 13th cent. f. 16.
13. Leaves from two MSS. of Book V. of the Decretals of Gregory IX., with marginal commentary. 13th and 14th cent. ff. 17, 23.
14. Small fragment of Genesis in Latin, containing oh. xix. 12-15; xx. 4-9; xxii. 24-xxiii. 8; xxiii. 21-29. Coloured initials. 13th cent. f. 18.
15. Small fragments of two leaves from a Missal. Latin. Late 13th cent. ff. 19, 20.
16. Leaf from a Breviary, containing part of the Commemorations of Saints. Ornamental initials. Latin. Early 14th cent. f. 21.
17. Leaf from an index to the vocabulary of the Bible in Latin, containing Ind-Inf. 14th cent. f. 22.
18. Fragment from Books xxv. and xxvi. of some theological treatise. Latin. 14th cent. f. 24.
19. Two leaves from some treatise on canon law. Latin. 14th cent. ff. 25, 26.
20. Leaf containing the beginning of John de Bromyard's treatise on Civil and Canon Law. Latin. 14th cent. f. 27.
21. Leaf from a dictionary, containing Acin-Ador. Latin. 14th cent. f. 28.
22. Leaf from a service-book containing a part of the marriage-service. Ornamental initials. Latin. xivth cent. f. 29.
23. Two leaves from the Collationes of Joannes Cassianus, containing parts of collationes iii., iv., vi. and vii. (Migne, xlix., coll. 580, 666). Latin. 14th cent. At the foot is a draft of an indenture of apprenticeship of Raffe Snellym, of Yoxforthe [Yoxford, co. Essex?], to Margaret Borrowe and Edmund Horrynge her son, of the same town. 16th cent. ff. 30, 31.
24. Leaf of an Antiphonal, with blank spaces for music and initials, containing the services for part of Passion-week. Latin. End of 14th cent. f. 32.
25. Leaf from a Psalter containing part of Ps. xxi-xxiii. Illuminated initials. Written in England, early 15th cent. f. 33.
26. Leaf from a Legenda containing lessons for the Octave of Christmas. Latin. Written in England, 15th cent. f. 34.
27. Two leaves from an illuminated Missal containing the office for the 8th and 12th Sundays after Pentecost. Latin. Written in England, 15th cent. ff. 35, 36.
28. Leaf from an alphabetical work on civil law closely resembling Arundel MS. 437; contains the article "excommunicatio." 15th cent. The names Francis Hugson and Thomas Martin [of Palgrave] appear on the leaf. f. 37.
29. Leaf from the statutes of some college, connected with a chantry. 15th cent. A note in the hand of Thomas Martin of Palgrave records his discovery of the leaf in Rickinghale church, co. Suff. f. 38.

30. Two leaves from a collection of statutes, containing fragments of:—(a) The first statute of 1 Edw. III., dated 7 Mar. 1327 (see Statutes of the Realm, i., p. 251);—(b) “Aliud statutum editum anno primo,” an act passed, or purporting to have been passed, in 1 Edw. III. for indemnity of the Despensers’ opponents, modelled on that of 15 Edw. II. There is another copy in Royal MS. 19 A. xiv. f. 24, but the act is not on the statute-roll or in the printed editions;—(c) Confirmation of the perambulations of the forest, dated 13 Mar. 1 Edw. III. [1327]. Latin. A copy in Roy. 19 A. xiv. is in French; cf. the Patent Rolls;—(d) The statute of Northampton, 2 Edw. III. [1328]; see Stat. Realm, i., p. 257. French and Latin. Ornamental initials in red and blue. Early 15th cent. Quarto. ff. 39, 40.

31. Fragment of a notarial certificate (?) concerning a benefice at Perpignan, in Pyrénées Orientales. Latin. f. 41.

The rest of the collection, except a Hebrew fragment “from the library at Popes” (f. 42), and a leaf of a printed Breviary, circa 1510 (f. 43), consists of facsimiles, including:—(a) Drawing of King David playing on bells, by “H. H. Dec. 1815,” from a MS. in the Royal library (the reference given is wrong). f. 45;—(b) Two leaves of the vellum reproduction in facsimile type of the Codex Alexandrinus. ff. 46–48;—(c) Two leaves of a paper facsimile of the Codex Bezae. ff. 49, 50;—(d) “Specimen of the Royal and Ecclesiastical Antiquities of England,” by Joseph Strutt, London, 1772; being reproductions from the Lindisfarne Gospels (Cotton MS. Nero D iv.) and from Cotton MS. Otho B vi. f. 51;—(e) Paper facsimiles from Greek Psalters in the Bodleian library, viz.: NE B ii. 17 [now called Misc. v.], f. 165, and Cromw. 13 [now Cromw. 5]. ff. 58, 59.

34,656. "THE LIFE of Mr. Nicholas Ferrar [founder of the community at Little Gidding, ob. 1637], by the Right Rev. Dr. [Francis] Turner, formerly Lord Bishop of Ely"; or rather, as appears from the Introduction, an abridgement of Turner's Life, divided into sections, being evidently a copy or draft of the series of extracts which appeared in the Christian Magazine, 1761. See description of this MS., belonging then to Mr. Mapletoft Davis, in Nicholas Ferrar, his Household and his Friends, 1892, p. xvi.
Paper; ff. 48. xviii cent. Folio.

34,657-34,659. RELIGIOUS CONVERSATIONS at Little Gidding between John Ferrar, his sister Susanna Collet and her daughters, under the assumed names of Guardian, Moderator, Cheerful, etc. For some account of these "Conversations" see Mayor, Nicholas Ferrar, Cambridge, 1855, pp. 275, 294-301, 362-376; and Nicholas Ferrar, his Household and his Friends, 1892, pp. 147-165. Three volumes. Vol. I. also includes the following writings by the same hand, presumably that of Mary or Anne Collet:—(a) Dedication from Mary and Anne Collet to their grandmother, Mary Ferrar, dated 2 Feb. 1631[2], with her reply. ff. 2, 3;—(b) A fresh dedication, at Mrs. Ferrar's desire, to their sister Susanna, wife of Joshua Mapletoft; 2 Feb. 1631[2]. f. 4;—(c) Letter from Nicholas Ferrar to Susanna Mapletoft, confirming the gift. f. 4b. The names of the writers have been supplied by Dr. John Mapletoft, who has also inserted (ff. 4, 4b) two notes, signed and dated 22, 23 Jan. 1715[6], the second being as follows: "This book was presented by my Great Grandmother, my honoured Mothers two sisters (the daughters of John and Susanna Collet) and their vnkle Nicholas Farrar, who was my Godfather, to my ever-honoured Mother Susanna Mapletoft the same year in which I was born. And I desire my son to whom I do give it, with the Great Concordance and other story books, that they may be preserved in the family as long as may be." All the above letters, together with Mapletoft's two notes, are printed in Nicholas Ferrar, 1892, pp. 151-157. Paper; ff. 140, 187, 114. Belonged successively (see f. 1 of each volume, and N. Ferrar, 1892, pp. 150, 156-8), after the death of Susanna Mapletoft in 1657, to John Collet, Elizabeth Kestian (ob. 1715), John Mapletoft, as above (ob. 1721), and later to Richard Mapletoft (bookplate). In the original Little Gidding binding of black leather, slightly tooled. Folio.

34,660. COMMONPLACE-BOOK of theology, etc., including:—

1. "Articuli Religionis perspicua analysi explicati et firmissimis Scripturarum testimoniis confirmati (sic).²" Dated at the end 1689; but cf. R. Ford, Christianæ Religionis, sive Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ, Articuli xxxix., 1720. ff. 3-34.
2. Memoranda of rents received for estates in Bridgnorth and Calington, co. Salop, 1742-49. The writer speaks of "my brother Paul Bridgen." f. 42.
3. Inventories of furniture, plate, etc., belonging to Richard Mapletoft, 1771-1801; with receipts and payments [by R. Mapletoft?], 1791-1797. ff. 42 b, 45-48 b, 51 b.
4. Verses entitled "The Given Love" and "The Rich Rival." ff. 49, 51.
5. Notes of births, marriages and deaths in the family of Richard Bridgen, of Bridgnorth, 1655-1764, for the most part in the same hand as art. 2. The writer speaks of Richard's wife as "my mother Mary Bridgen." ff. 53 b, 54. The birth and death of Richard Mapletoft (1725-1801) have also been entered on f. 53 b. Paper; ff. 54. Late xviiith cent.-1801. At f. 1 b are the words "E Coll. Univ. Anno Dom. 1708," perhaps referring to William Bridgen (ob. 1738, see f. 53 b), who entered University College, Oxford, in 1704, B.A. 1708: see Foster's Alumni Oxonienses. Folio.

34,661. TWENTY LETTERS from Jeremy Bentham to John Tyrrell, of Lincoln's Inn; 2 Dec. 1829-13 Nov. 1831. With two engraved portraits of Bentham, and a printed invitation to the lecture on his body after his death, 8 June, 1832. A small portion of the correspondence, which relates to projects for legal reforms, is included in Add. 33,546, ff. 313-458 passim. Paper; ff. 32. Small Octavo.

The fly-leaves and linings of the covers are composed of portions of leaves from a Bible of the 12th cent., containing part of Numbers xxiii. (ff. 1, 2), and from a Lectionary of the 13th cent. (ff. 268, 269).

Vellum; ff. 269. xivth cent. (with additions). In double columns; with illuminated initials, a few of which contain delicately executed miniatures. Many more miniatures were no doubt contained on the leaves which have been cut out. Some of those that remain (ff. 19, 20) have been pasted down out of place. 9 x 5½ in.

34,663. "LIBER MISSALIS secundum consuetudinem sedis Valentie": Missal of the see of Valencia in Spain, written (see f. 1 b) in 1477. Preceded by tables of the Dominical letters, golden numbers, etc. (f. 1 b), a list of festivals "que dominus archiepiscopus Taraconensis precepit colere et observare in sua provincia" (f. 4 b), and a Calendar (f. 5). Among the saints in the Calendar are:—Vincentius [Ferrer, of Valencia], 5 Apr; Quiteria, 22 May; Alogius Martyr, 24 June; Nunilon et Alodia [of Huesca], 22 Oct.; Asciscus et Victoria [of Cordova], 17 Nov.; Paulus Narbonensis [a patron of Tarragona], 11 Dec.; and on the 1st Sunday after the Octave of SS. Peter and Paul, "fit de angelo custode ciuitatis Valentie" (f. 8, and, for the service, see f. 221 b).

The Missal proper is arranged in the following order:—(1) "Benedictio Aque." f. 11;—(2) "Dominicale," i.e. "Temporale." f. 13;—(3) Prayers of S. Ambrose, S. Augustine, etc., to be said before and after Mass, followed by the Ordinary of the Mass, with music to the "Gloria in Excelsis," "Credo," and Prefaces. f. 159 b;—(4) Canon of the Mass, with music to the "Pater Noster," "Ite Missa est," etc. f. 174;—(5) "Misse Sanctorum," i.e. "Sanctorale." f. 181;—(6) "Commune Sanctorum," ending with the Dedication of the church. f. 261;—(7) "Misse dicende infra ebdomadam." f. 267;—(8) Masses for various occasions and persons. f. 269 b;—(9) "Missa pro defunctis." f. 282;—(10) "Officium Nuptiarum." f. 284 b;—(11, 12) Offices for S. Nicholas and S. Peter Martyr, in a rather later hand. ff. 289 b, 290.

Vellum; ff. 290. A.D. 1477 (f. 1 b). In double columns; with initials of gold on coloured grounds covered with a white trailing vine pattern. At the beginning of the "Dominicale" (f. 13) is a full border in the same strongly marked Italian style, with the shield of arms gules, three Catharine-wheels or (see the list of festivals, f. 4b, where to the name of St. Catharine is added "colitur Valentie"). On the same page, at the head of the text, is a miniature of the Annunciation, $3\frac{1}{2} \times 3$ inches. At the Canon of the Mass (f. 174) is another border, with a finely executed large initial. The two leaves preceding are of coarser vellum and appear to have been inserted. The outer sides are blank, but on ff. 172 b, 173 are two nearly full-page miniatures, the one of Christ seated in Glory, surrounded by angels and the emblems of the Evangelists, the other of the Crucifixion, with the Virgin and St. John. In binding (rebacked) of boards covered with brown leather finely tooled. $15\frac{1}{2} \times 11$ in.

They were arrested on a voyage from Bermeo to San Sebastian, 18 June, 1539, on the charge of exporting coin, and sentenced to death and forfeiture. The sentence was reversed on appeal, and they were released 23 Dec. 1540. Prefixed (f. 2) is a petition to Henry VIII., presenting the above and claiming damages; 1545. Vellum; ff. 30. With an illuminated border on the first page of the "Carcta." Folio.

34,702. CORRESPONDENCE, political and private, of Sir Richard Browne, Resident at Paris (1641-1660) on behalf of Charles I. and Charles II.; 1621-1683. Consisting mainly of letters from Browne (originals and autograph copies) to John Evelyn, to his daughter Mary, who married Evelyn in 1647, to Sir George Radcliffe, and others, whose names are given in the index; with some correspondence (ff. 198-219) relative to his proposed appointment, in 1660-1, as Warden of Merton College, Oxford. Many of the letters to Evelyn are signed "Q[uem] N[osti]" (see ff. 74, 78, etc.), and some of them are addressed to "Mr. John Grefton" or to "Mr. John Richardson" (ff. 31 b, 57, etc.). At the beginning (ff. 1-8) are some letters from Browne at Oxford to his father, in Latin, 1621-1628. The main series begins (f. 11) in 1647. Paper; ff. 230. Folio.

34,703-34,708. WATERLOO CORRESPONDENCE, being original letters and statements written in reply to a circular issued, with an accompanying plan, to surviving officers engaged in the Battle of Waterloo by Capt. William Siborne, Assistant Military Secretary to the Lieutenant General commanding in Ireland, when engaged [1829-1839] upon the construction of his Model of the Battle, together with additional collections on the same subject; 1815-1848. Six volumes. Paper. Folio.

Besides illustrating the particular period of the battle represented on the model the letters describe in much detail the operations of the Allied Army on 16-18 June, 1815. The collection was utilised for Capt. Siborne's History of the War in France and Belgium in 1815 (3rd ed., 1848); and a selection of the correspondence was edited in 1891 by his son Maj.-Gen. Herbert Taylor Siborne. Among the writers are the Marquis of Anglesey, Sir W. M. Gomm, Sir Colquhoun Grant, Sir Colin Halkett, Lord Edward Somerset, Lord Fitzroy Somerset, Military Secretary to the Duke of Wellington, Sir Richard Hussey Vivian, Sir John Vandeleur, Lord Saltoun, Capt. E. C. Whinyates, many officers of the King's German Legion and of the Hanoverian subsidiary corps, etc. In Vol. I. in addition to the letters are: (a) "Réfutation en ce qui concerne le Maréchal Ney de l'ouvrage ayant pour titre, Campagne de 1815 ... par le Général Gourgaud ... par M. Gamot," printed at Paris in 1818. f. 52;—(b) Anonymous diary narrating conversations with Prince Jérôme Bonaparte and Comte Henri Gratien Bertrand on 10 May, 1823, and 23 Aug. 1824, on the conduct of Ney and Grouchy at Waterloo and the alleged general causes of Napoleon's defeat. f. 65. The names of all the writers are given in the index.

- 34,713. MISCELLANEOUS historical papers, 1642–1817, chiefly collected by T. Astle. They include many letters to and from the Earl of Sandwich, while Secretary of State (1763–1765), and to and from Richard Phelps, Under Secretary. Among them are:—
1. Warrant from Charles I. to Matthew Brodley, Paymaster-general of the Army, for payments to various regiments; Oatlands, 16 Nov. 18 Chas. I. [1642]. With sign manual. f. 1.
 2. Letter unsigned, and without address, evidently from an Englishman, from Edinburgh, on the attitude of the Scotch to Charles II.: MSS.—1895.

"... Its now (among many) become ordinary discourse, y^e better y^e King not come at all, y^e y^e not a changed man, however otherwise he should seemingly comply or tender satisfaction to us; and indeed, however particular interests and affection swayt most men to a closure with him, thow upon very easy termes, yet... methinks I see heer a tide against y^e tide, a streame against y^e streame, moving strongly, yea prevaylingly, thow but by a very few and by insensible degrees," etc., and giving details of the appointment of the Committee of the Army; Ed[inburgh], 8 Jan. [16]49[50]. f. 3. Printed, with the art. following, in the Engl. Hist. Review, vol. xi., 1896, p. 112.

3. Two letters, signed W. J., to —, on public affairs in Scotland, more particularly the movements of Montrose, the position of the King with regard to Scotland, and the attitude of the Earl of Argyll; Edinburgh, 15 Jan. 1649[50], Carlisle, 22 Jan. 1649[50]. ff. 5, 7.
4. Letter from "Philip Howard to Lord Aubigny" [? Philip Thomas Howard, Cardinal in 1675, to Lodovick Stuart, Seigneur d'Aubigny, Cardinal in 1665], urging him to come to his native country "in order to your owne concernments as the good of many more and in peticular those of our persuasion here"; London, 30 Aug. 1660. f. 16.

This and art. 5 are copies in the hand of Isaac Dorislaus, of the Post Office, the letters having no doubt been opened while passing through the post.

5. Letter from — to —, "The Act of Indemnity is past, but we are excepted, and only referd to a subsequent Act. God knowes when that will passe," etc.; London, 30 Aug. 1660. The endorsement "Philip Howard to the Lord Aubigny" refers to the previous letter, neither Howard nor Aubigny being mentioned in the Act of Indemnity. f. 18.
6. Certificate of the Commissioners for carrying out the Act of Uniformity, as to the comparison of the Liturgy with the original in the Tower; 13 Dec. 1662. Copy. f. 20.

 18. Letters from C[harles] Townshend to his brother George, Viscount Townshend, on the negotiations incident to the change in the Ministry; Adderbury, 3, 4 July, 1765. ff. 253, 255.
 19. Memoranda by George Grenville on suggested advances by the King to him and the Duke of Bedford through Lord Bute; 31 Jan.-13 Feb. 1766. Copy. ff. 263, 277.
 20. Letter from Thomas Newberry to — Dingley, describing an imperial entertainment at St. Petersburg, interviews with the Czarina, etc.; 26 Aug. 1766. f. 275.

21. "Rules to be observed by one who is intended for a Foreign Minister—written in the year 1766 by [Thomas Villiers] Lord Hyde, since Earl of Clarendon." Copy. f. 279.
22. Letters from George Grenville to his brother, Earl Temple, and to Richard Rigby, on political affairs; Wolton, 18, 20 July, 1767. Copies. ff. 290, 291.
23. Letter addressed to the Archduke Charles of Austria, on the effect of the French Revolution and the duty of the Coalition; 15 July, 1793. Copy. f. 303. Endorsed "May 10th, 1796. Presented by Sir John McPherson, Bart., to T. Astle." Paper; ff. 315. Folio.

34,714. WORKS by Sir Philip Warwick, Clerk of the Signet (ob. 1683), viz.—

1. "Memoires or Reflexions vpon the reigne of King Charles the first," with an Appendix (f. 104 b) continuing the narrative to the Restoration. f. 1. First published in 1701.
2. "Of Government, as examined by Reason, Scripture, Law of the Land"; dated at the end "August 28, 1679." f. 133. First published in 1694.

A few pages (as ff. 1, 2, 14, 15) are undoubtedly holograph; the rest is a fair copy in a more formal hand (but not improbably written by Warwick himself), with autograph interlinear and marginal additions. This is evidently the actual manuscript from which the original editions were printed: in art. 1, for instance, a passage on ff. 58–59 is marked for omission by square brackets, and is omitted in the printed edition, p. 188; see too f. 135, compared with A Discourse of Government, 1694, pp. 12, 13, and preface. Paper; ff. 180. Folio.

34,715. DOCUMENTS of, or concerning, Edward Gibbon, the Historian; 1783–1794:—

1. Bills for books supplied to Gibbon by François La Combe and others, and for binding; 1783–1789. The bills are in all cases certified by Gibbon for payment. f. 1.
2. Will of E. Gibbon, dated at Lausanne, 1 Oct. 1791. Holograph; signed and sealed. See Gibbon's Miscellaneous Works, 1814, vol. i. p. 426. f. 15.
3. Power of attorney from [John Baker Holroyd, Baron, afterw. Earl of] Sheffield, and Edward Darell, executors of the above will, to William de Sévery, of Lausanne, to act for them there; London, 25 Feb. 1794. Signed. f. 17.
4. Catalogue of Gibbon's books arranged under sizes (cf. Add. 34,716). When the catalogue was compiled there were 1978 volumes, but 40 additional entries were made by Gibbon in his own hand. f. 19.

Paper; ff. 46. Purchased, with No. 34,716, from M. William de Charrière de Sévery (cf. art. 3), of Lausanne. Folio.

34,716. CATALOGUE of the library of Edward Gibbon, the Historian, written on the backs of playing cards. Many of the entries, which are arranged alphabetically under the authors' names, are in the hand of Gibbon, but the majority are by an illiterate clerk (cf. f. 207), who has almost invariably written duplicates of the historian's cards. For another catalogue see Add. 34,715, f. 19. Paper; ff. 1677. xviiith cent.

34,717. 1. FIVE MOTETS and four short hymns or chorales for four voices, in score, with German words; anonymous. f. 1.

Three volumes. The Alms-house for twelve poor persons was erected by Sir Abraham Dawes, Knt., and endowed by his will, dated in 1639, with £40 per annum (cf. Manning's History of Surrey, ed. Bray, 1814, vol. iii. p. 301).

Paper; ff. 50, 64, 88. Quarto and Octavo. Presented by T. F. E. Walters, Esq.

34,721 A. B. TARGET-CARDS, being the archery scores pricked on cards, properly coloured, of Sir Joseph Banks and his friends; 1793-1807. The names and other details are in the hand of Miss Sarah Sophia Banks.

Paper; ff. 42, 45. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. x 3 in.

34,721 C. Two lists of the Knights of the Garter, the first taken from Joseph Pote's History and Antiquities of Windsor Castle, etc., 1749, but brought down to 1817; the second taken from Ashmole. ff. 3, 27. With lists of the Prelates (f. 22), Chancellors (f. 23), and Registers (f. 24), of the Garter Kings of Arms (f. 25), and of Ushers of the Black Rod (f. 26). At the end, reversing the volume, is a list of Knights of the Bath. In the hand of Miss Sarah Sophia Banks(?).

Paper; ff. 47. xixth cent. 18mo.

34,722. RECIPES, medical (f. 8) and culinary (ff. 44 b, 50), begun about 1650, and continued in various hands. Amongst those whose recipes are quoted are Lady Loules [Anne, wife of John, 2nd Baron

- Lovelace], ff. 3-7; Lady Franklen, f. 6; Lady Kilegre [Killegrew], f. 8; Lady Savell [Saville], f. 15 b; Lady Compton, f. 27 b; "From Hon^{ble} Mrs. Damer to Mrs. Kent," for sweet biscuit, f. 44 b; "Extracting the oil from feathers": "Mrs. Jane Richards received 20 guineas from the Society of Arts for this," f. 45 b; "For the Gout or Rheumatic Gout," "Lord Anson's receipt, given by Mr. Hunlock to Mr. Kent, Feb. 24, 1825. Lord A. gave 5 Hundred Pounds for this receipt," f. 48. On f. 88 the name of Fra. Bowles, 28 Oct. [16]74, appears as one of the writers. Paper; ff. 95. xviii-th-xixth centt. On f. 2 is the inscription "Ldy Anne Lovelace gave me this Book, Cisilia Haynes, 1659." It belonged to C. Mildemay in 1663 (f. 1), and possibly in the 19th cent. to the family of Kent. Quarto.
- 34,723. ACCOMPTS, farming and personal, of Richard Simpson, of Nether Dean, co. Bedford; 1681-1695. Included are his accompts as agent or bailiff for Henry Neale and John Neale, with acquittances from both; and at f. 76 b is an accompt of money received for Robert Montagu, Earl of Manchester, 1681. The following Nos. 34,748-34,789 formed part of the library of Sir Thomas Phillipps, Bart., of Middlehill, co. Worc., and Thirlestane House, Cheltenham.

34,748. LECTURA super Infortiato, by Bartolus de Saxoferrato [Sassoferrato, in Italy, ob. 1359], in Latin. Two parts (ff. 1, 113). Paper; ff. 273. The colophon to the second part states that it was finished on the Vigil of St. Gregory, 1378. Written in Italy by several hands in double columns. Blank spaces left throughout for initial letters. Bound in boards, covered with green vellum. Belonged in 1790 to Henry Allnutt, of Great Marlow, co. Bucks; subsequently [circ. 1824] Phillipps MS. 135. Large Folio.

34,749. THEOLOGICAL and other tracts, etc., in Latin:—

1. Beda, De Natura Rerum. Mutilated at the beginning; beg.

- "radicitus inherent" (ch. II., ed. Migne, Patrologia, xc. col. 190). A leaf is missing after f. 9, and ch. 48 ("Gnomonica de iisdem," Migne, col. 274) is omitted. f. 3.
2. "Exceptiones de Proverbiis": a collection of Biblical proverbs, chiefly from Ecclesiasticus. f. 16.
 3. "Sermo de dedicatione ecclesie"; beg. "Dum ecclesia dedicatur, xii candele sunt accense interius." The title is a later addition. f. 27.
 4. Quaestiones, on various points of theology; beg. "Queritur quomodo Deus omnipotens dicatur." f. 32.
 5. Notes on Biblical chronology; beg. "Daniel Baltasar spondenti purpura," and "Decimo die mensis Augusti concrematum est templum." ff. 35 b, 36.
 6. Sermon on the Lord's Prayer; beg. "Pater noster, etc., Hoc nomine et caritas excitatur." f. 36 b.
 7. Miscellaneous theological notes; beg. "Filius Dei assumpsit hominem." f. 39. Different sections are headed "super Ysaïam" (f. 40 b), "Gregorius" (f. 47 b), "Ambrosius" (ib.).
 8. "Incipiunt Epistole de Affectibus Anime"; beg. "Incendio domus mea corruerat." Interspersed with verses. f. 57.
 9. "Epistola magistri Walteri Map ad quendam socium suum, ut dicitur, uxoriari volentem," sc. the treatise commonly known as the "Dissuasio Valerii ad Rufinum philosophum ne uxorem ducat" [cf. Gualteri Mapes De nugis curialium, ed. Wright, Camden Soc., 1850, p. 142]; beg. "Loqui prohibeor, et tacere non possum." f. 75.
 10. "Aureolus Theophrasti liber de nuptiis"; beg. "Fertur Aureolus Theophrasti liber de nuptiis, in quo queritur an vir sapiens ducat uxorem." An abstract of the work the reading of which Map advises at the end of the preceding article. f. 83.
 11. Ovid, Artis Amatoriae I., ll. 1-95; breaks off imperfectly. f. 85.
 12. Liber Apocalipsis, of St. Jerome's version; with a few interlinear notes. f. 87.
- Vellum; ff. 120. Originally three separate volumes, the first (artt. 1-7) being of the end of the xiith cent., the second (artt. 8-11) of the xiiith, and the third (art. 12) of the xivth. The last is roughly written, in several different hands, on leaves of various sizes; at the foot of the last page is the catchword "Emula," showing that the Elegies of Maximianus originally followed. On f. 1 b is a press-mark of the 14th-15th cent., "lxiii. al. ca.," and on f. 1 one of the 19th cent., "old no. 21." Belonged to R. Bateman [18th cent., qu. the Hon. Richard Bateman, ob. 1774], J. Strutt [18th-19th cent., qu. Joseph Strutt, the antiquary], and — Yarnold [19th cent.], from whom it was obtained by Sir T. Phillipps (cat. no. 1056). Duodecimo.

34,750. HYMNAL, in Latin, with music, wanting single leaves after

ff. 1 and 7. After the Commune Hymnarii follows (f. 9) the Temporale, containing among other hymns one for Christmas day at vespers, beg. "Intende qui regis Israel" (f. 11); the Sanctorale (f. 40 b), with the hymns "Christum rogemus et patrem" for All Saints day (f. 60) and "Bellator armis inclitus Martinus" (f. 65); the Commune Sanctorum (f. 68); and some Cantica (f. 80 b), only those for the Feast of the Purification (ff. 90-94), viz. "Ave, gracia plena dei genetrix," "Adorna thalamum tuum," "Responsum accepit Symeon," "Collegerunt pontifices," and "Ave, Rex noster," being accompanied by musical notes.

Vellum; ff. 94. xiiith cent. Probably written in N.E. France or Germany. After f. 32 an additional leaf has been inserted, of paper. At the end, used to mend f. 94, is a portion of a charter of the 13th cent. Bound in wooden boards covered with pigskin, with strap. Phillips MS. 2917. Small Quarto.

34,751. Notes on English History, written temp. Eliz., the latest being 1587. The earlier entries refer mainly to events connected with London, the mayoralty, etc.; the troubles of Edw. II.'s reign are recorded more fully, but there are practically no entries between 1330 and the reign of Hen. VIII.

Paper; ff. 15. Phillips MS. 15,865. Octavo.

34,752. Poems [by William Austin, of Lincoln's Inn, 1587-1634], transcribed by Ralph Crane. The contents are: (1) "Certaine Divine Hymnes, or Carolls, for Christmas-daye." f. 4;—(2) "Divers most devout and zealous Meditations upon our Saviour's Passion, on Good Fridaie." f. 8;—(3) "Meditations upon the 1 and 13 verses of the 17th Chapter of Job." f. 21. Preceded (f. 2) by a dedication, in verse, to George [Calvert], Lord Baltimore, by "Raph" Crane himself. The third Hymn and the two Meditations on Job are signed "W. A." (in one case with the date 1621). Cf. Harl. MS. 3357, which contains all the poems in this MS., with others, also written by Crane (as also is Harl. 6930), the Hymns and Meditations on the Passion being there similarly assigned to "W. A., Esq." They were posthumously published among Austin's works (Devotionis Augustinianæ flamma, edited by Anne Austin, 1637, pp. 52, 117, 286). Crane's preface to Harl. MS. 3357, written in 1632, refers to "there not being three such [copies of these poems] any where extant, and not one (unless surreptitiously gotten) but of my pen."

Paper; ff. 32. Between 1624 (when Calvert became Lord Baltimore) and 1632 (when he died). Belonged successively to the Rev. John Brand (no. 107 among the MSS. in his sale in 1807), Richard Heber (no. 1194 in his sale-catalogue, part xi., 1836), Thomas Thorpe (no. 1310 in his catalogue of 1836), and Sir T. Phillippis (no. 9532). Bound in vellum, tooled. Small Octavo.

34,753. JOURNAL of travels in Lorraine and France, 7 Sept.-16 Nov. 1723, by Edward Southwell, with his father, the Right Hon. Edward Southwell, Principal Secretary to the Council for Ireland. The places principally described are Luneville and Paris; with a list of the English residents in Paris in 1723.

Paper; ff. 31. Belonged to Thomas Thorpe (no. 367 in his sale-catalogue of 1836); subsequently Phillippis MS. 9354. Small Quarto.

34,754. 1. "RELATION of a short Survey of 26 Counties . . . observed in a seven Weekes Journey begun at the City of Norwich and from thence into the North, on Monday, August 11th, 1634 . . . By a Captaine, a Lieutennant, and an Ancient, all three of the Military Company at Norwich." f. 1.

2. "Relation of a short Survey of the Western Counties . . . observed in a seven Weekes Journey, begun at Norwich and thence into the West, on Thursday, August 4th, 1635 . . . By the same Lieutennant, that with the Captaine and Ancient of the Military Company in Norwich made a Journey into the North the yeere before." f. 73. Both copied from Lansdowne MS. 213, ff. 315-384; with a few notes and additions in pencil.

Paper; ff. 170. xixth cent. (watermark, 1811). Phillippis MS. 18,746, acquired in 1867 from the library of the Rev. J[ohn Morewood] Gresley, [Master of Etnall Hospital, co. Derby, ob. 1866]. Folio.

34,755. DIARY of the Proceedings of the Court of Record, etc., of the town and county of Poole, [co. Dorset]; 17 May, 1660-8 July, 1680. Latin.

Paper; ff. 148. With the original limp vellum covers. Phillippis MS. 3588, acquired in 1828. Folio.

34,756. CORRESPONDENCE of Thomas Percy, D.D., Bishop of Dromore, on diocesan and private matters; 1782-1811. The names of the writers appear in the index. At the end are added: (a) Extracts from the Madrid Gazette of 19 Mar. and 14 May, 1776, translated by Dr. Percy, referring to naval expeditions to California. f. 60;—(b) Papers relating to the arrest in 1774 of the Rev. William Campbell, curate of Dromore, on a charge of poisoning his wife. f. 67.

Paper; ff. 89. Belonged to Dawson Turner (sale-catalogue, 1859, no. 372). Phillippis MS. 14,819. Quarto.

34,757. RECORDS of the town of Dunwich, co. Suffolk, including copies of several charters to the town, list of mayors and bailiffs to 18 Jas. I., etc. Another copy, of about the same date, Add. MS. 23,963, contains all except the charter of Hen. VI. (f. 1). The sources are not stated. Thomas Gardner (Historical Account of Dunwich, 1754) prints the list of mayors, etc., apparently as from a MS. "penes J. Rivett, arm.," but he does not seem to have known the charters. Add. MS. 6166 (f. 321) contains a copy of the charter of Edw. I. Paper; ff. 40. xviiith cent. On f. 1 b is the note "The present of Tho. Manning, Esq., of Bungay, to Tho. Barber, of Yarmouth, 1776—Formerly in the possession of Chas. Scrivener, Esq., of Sibton Abbey, Suffolk—Barber φύλακτος, Jan. 14, 1781." Philipps MS. 3954—"Old no. 507." Small Quarto.

34,758. LIVES of saints, etc., in Latin :—

1. Commentary on S. Dionysius Areopagita, De Mystica Theologia. Beg. "V[i]e Syon lugent eo quod non sit qui vadit ad solempnitatem." f. 2.
2. "Provinciale distinctum et ordinatum per provincias ut sequitur infra et non per alphabetum"; including lists of dioceses, arranged geographically, of Christian emperors and kings (with an account of the method of electing the Roman Emperor), and of religious and military orders. References are made to Pope Urban V. [1362-1370], apparently as dead, and to the Eastern Empire as still existing. f. 59.
3. Life of St. Gregory the Great by Johannes Diaconus, in four books, preceded by a prologue. The prologue beg. "Beatissimo ac felicissimo domino Johanni"; book 1. beg. "Gregorius genere Romanus arte philosophus." A table of chapters is prefixed to each book. Printed in Migne, Patrologia, lxxv. col. 61. f. 76.
4. Life of St. Jerome; beg. "Plerosque nimirum illustrium viros" (sic). The author is unknown. Printed in Migne, Patrologia, xxii. col. 201. f. 201.
5. Life of St. Ambrose, by Paulinus; beg. "Hortaris, venerabilis pater Augustine." Printed in Migne, Patrologia, xiv. col. 27. f. 206 b.
6. Life of St. Paul the Hermit, by St. Jerome; beg. "Inter multos sepe dubitatum est." Printed in Migne, Patrologia, xxiii. col. 17. f. 217.
7. "Vita vel obitus sancti Antonii abbatis"; beg. "Antonius cum viginti esset annorum." Not in Migne. f. 221.
8. "Vita vel obitus sancti Hylarionis monachi edita a sancto Jeronimo presbytero"; beg. "Hylarion ortus vico Thabatha." Much abbreviated, chapters 1, 15, 17-43 (except parts of 29 and 43) and 47 being omitted (cf. Migne, Patrologia, xxiii. col. 29). f. 223.

9. Narrative of the conveyance of relics of St. Andrew and St. Luke from Constantinople to Rome by St. Gregory; beg. "Temporibus Tyberii piissimi siquidem imperatoris." f. 226 b.
 10. Narrative of the privileges conferred on the church of St. Andrew at Rome through the intercession of St. Gregory; by the deacon John, "scriba beatissimi patris Gregorii." Beg. "Beatissimus ac reverentissimus pater noster Gregorius." f. 228.
 11. "De anno iubileo," evidently an extract from a chronicle; beg. "Supradicto vero anno, quia annus centesimus iubileus annus vocatus est." f. 229.
 12. "Adhortationes sanctorum patrum ad profectum perfectionis monachorum," i.e. book v. of the Vitæ Patrum (ed. Rosweyd, Migne, Patrologia, lxxiii. col. 855), with parts of ch. 1-3 of book vi. There are considerable omissions, especially in chapters 15-18; and a life of St. Marina is inserted in ch. 7. Beg. "Interrogavit quidam abbatem Antonium." f. 229 b.
 13. Inscriptions in Rome relating to the Roman Emperors; with epitaphs of Q. Fabius Maximus and C. Marius. f. 311. Vellum; ff. 311. xivth-xvth cent. Written in Italy, perhaps (see artt. 9 and 10) in the monastery of St. Andrew in Rome, between 1370 and 1453 (see art. 2). Double columns. One gathering (ff. 18-23) is in a markedly different hand from the rest. Initials flourished in red and blue. On f. 1 b is a table of contents, from which it appears that the MS. formerly contained two additional articles at the beginning, the titles of which have been erased. On f. 1 are the press-marks (18th-19th centt.) 173, 488, 1095. Belonged to Thomas Thorpe (no. 374 in his catalogue of 1836); and Phillipps MS. 9581. Octavo.
- 34,759. RETURN, made soon after 11 Chas. I. [1635], of debts due to the Court of Wards and Liveries, including arrears as far back as temp. Hen. VIII. The return consists of a series arranged under counties (ff. 4-129), and a series arranged under the headings "Arreragies of rentes for wardes landes dependinge in Super unpaid" (f. 130), "Fynes for wards dependinge in Super unpaid" (f. 132 b), and Fines for liveries and leases and "Arreragies" for rates of full age (ff. 142, 145, 147 b). At the end are notes of some grants made out of these debts, and remarks on their value. f. 172.
- Paper; ff. 172. Belonged to Peter Le Neve, Norroy, who notes that "all of Norf. and Suff. are posted," and lot 271 at his sale in Feb. 173 $\frac{1}{2}$ (pencil-note, f. 2); afterwards belonged to Tho. Martin [of Palgrave]. Phillipps MS. 19,981. Folio.
- 34,760. COMMENTARIES on St. Matthew, etc., Seneca de Fortuitorum remediis, and other tracts, epistles, etc. :—

1. St. Matthew's Gospel, with marginal commentary and introduction. The comment consists of the Glossa Ordinaria of Walafridus Strabo (see Migne, Patrol., cxiv. col. 63), with additions. The introduction beg. "Fecit deus duo luminaria." f. 4.
2. "Incipit egregii doctoris epistola Pauli / Dura quidem miseris quibus intitulatur Hebreis": commentary on the Epistle to the Hebrews, beg. "In Iudea erant ecclesie." Written in a small neat hand of about the end of the xiith century. f. 109.
3. "Seneca de Paupertate": the excerpts from the epistles of L. Annaeus Seneca as printed in F. Haase's edition (Leipzig, 1853, vol. iii. p. 458). f. 118.
4. "Liber Annei Seneca ad Gallionem de fortuitorum bonorum [sic] remediis": as printed by Haase, ibid. p. 446, but without the "additiones." For arguments for the authenticity of the tract see Haase's preface to vol. iii. The rubrics to the dialogue are "Mine" and "Responsio." f. 119.
5. Two of St. Jerome's epistles, nos. x. and vii. of Migne (Patrol., xxii. coll. 343 and 338). f. 121.
6. Epistles of Sidonius Apollinaris (see Migne, lviii. col. 445); the greater part of books i. and ii. The text is in some confusion; the original scribe breaks off near the end of ep. 7 of book i. (f. 126), and the writer of the remainder, beginning on f. 127 b with ep. 8 of book i., compresses the writing and abbreviates the text by omissions, apparently from lack of space. He also ends abruptly near the beginning of ep. 13 of book ii. In the gap left on ff. 126, 127, and on the margin of pages following, the same hand has inserted a tract on civil law, beginning "Rerum alie sunt corporales." f. 122.
7. Tract on the Trinity, beg. "Licet mens humana eiusdem nature." f. 133.
8. Theological meditations, beg. "Nulla est vita quae non sit ex deo." f. 136.
9. Note concerning fire, beg. "Tres sunt nature ignis." f. 137 b.
10. Ecclesiastes, with a marginal comment and introduction, chiefly from St. Jerome. Beg. "Verba ecclesiastes, etc. Tribus nominibus vocatus est Solomon." f. 140.
Vellum; ff. 170. Late xiith and early xiiith centt. On f. 139 b are two notes in an early 13th cent. hand: "Apud Wburne [Woburn?]. Augustinus de Confessionibus," and "Nepos abbatis, qui est persona de B[a?]rnete, habet Priscianum magnum, et summam Prisciani magistri Petri Helye, et commentum Aristotelis, et quasdam glossas super dialect[i]cam, et unam partem Elencorum, et Boecium et Ovidium magnum." On the last fly-leaf are some theological notes. A note on f. 2 signed W. Mavor, LL.D., 1810, states that the MS. came from the Wenman Library, Thame Park, Oxon.; and a note on f. 1 records its purchase at Dr. Mavor's sale at Oxford, 1838. Phillipps MS. 16,346. Quarto.

34,761. "LIBER Pedum Parcellarum," a summary of kitchen and stable expenses in the household of George I.; 1 Oct. 1722-30 June, 1723. Signed by [Sir] R[obert] Sutton. Leaves have been torn out at the beginning, and three others after f. 9.

Paper; ff. 22. Bound in vellum. Phillipps MS. 15,646. Folio.

34,762. GIRALDUS CAMBRENSIS: the Topographia Hibernica, Expugnatio Hibernica and Itinerarium Cambriae. See the edition by Rev. J. F. Dimock (Giraldi Cambrensis Opera, Rolls Series, vols. v. and vi.).

1. "Hibernica Historia": the Topographia Hibernica. The text as far as the middle of ch. xii. of Dist. i. ("inquisitionis," f. 6 b) is that of the first edition, but the rest, from "sed quoniam uindice dignus," belongs to a later text, apparently of the second or third edition. The dedicatory preface is given, but not the "introitus," the table of chapter-headings, or the letter to the Bishop of Hereford. Rubrics in the latter part have not been inserted. There is a marked change of hand at f. 59. f. 2.

2. Expugnatio Hibernica. Incomplete, breaking off in the middle of a page with the words "in Vaticiniorum libro declarabitur" (ch. xx. of bk. i.), the next four leaves being left blank. The text is of the earliest extant edition, agreeing most nearly with the Lambeth MS., but not a copy of it. Includes the "introitus" and preface, but not the table of chapter-headings. Without title or rubrics. f. 72.

3. "Itinerarium Giraldi Kambrensis et laboriosa B[aldwini] Cantuar. archiepiscopi per Walliam legatio": the second edition of the Itinerary of Giraldus, not known to Dimock except in Harley MS. 359, a 16th cent. transcript of the present MS. It contains the preface, with dedication to St. Hugh, Bishop of Lincoln, followed by the chapter called "Descriptio Baldewini," and then the rest of the text. There is no table of chapter-headings. A few lacunae in the text have been filled in since the Harley transcript was made. f. 96.

Vellum (ff. 1, 171, 172, paper); ff. 172. xiiith cent. Initials in red and green. On the paper fly-leaves are notes of farming operations, etc., in 1586, a John Browne and the "tenauntes of Bury" being mentioned. Old press-mark (f. 2), C. xvi.; Phillipps MS. 9338. 5 x 3½ in.

34,763. THEOLOGICAL TRACTS and commonplaces, in Latin:—

1. Commonplace-book including, inter alia, (a) "Quare ieiunamus in die veneris." f. 1;—(b) "De baptismo." f. 2;—(c) "De beata

- virgine." f. 2;—(d) "De satisfactione." f. 2 b;—(e) Qualities necessary for a bishop. f. 7;—(f) "Quid est perfecte uiuere." f. 8;—(g) "Qualiter homo expendet tempus suum." f. 9;—(h) Form of general confession. f. 11. With extracts from St. Augustine, Cicero, Aristotle, St. Bernard and others. ff. 1–18.
2. "Hic est libellus de emendacione vite siue de regula viuendi, et distinguitur in xii capitula"; with colophon, "Explicit libellus Ricardi heremite de Hampole, continens xii capitula, de emendacione vite. Qui obiit anno dni. millesimo ccc^o xlix apud Hampole. Scriptus vi die Aprilis anno dni. millesimo ccc^o xxx^o iiii^o." The tract De Emendatione Vitae of Richard Rolle of Hampole. Begins "Ne tardes conuerti"; and ends "ipsum eternaliter laudare, cui sit honor," etc. Printed in Speculum Spiritualium, etc., Paris, 1510, and in De Emendatione, etc., Antwerp, 1533. f. 19.
3. "Incipit tractatus qui vocatur speculum peccatoris primo a beato Bernardo compilatus." The treatise printed in the Appendix to St. Augustine's works in Migne, Patrol., xl. col. 983. Begins "Quoniam, karissime, in huius vite"; and ends "prudenter provideas" (cf. MSS. Harl. 485, Royal 6 E. iii.). f. 45.
4. Tract on Temptation. Beg. "Quia, ut ait Apostolus, sine fide"; and ends "liberabit eos dominus," etc. f. 54.
5. "Disputacio inter misericordiam et veritatem, iusticiam et pacem, de redempcione generis humani." Beg. "Divina potencia fecit duo"; and ends "nomen erat Joseph," etc. Occurs also in Royal MS. 6 E. iii. f. 16 b. f. 63.
6. "Scala claustralium"; variously attributed to St. Augustine and St. Bernard (see Migne, Patrol., xl. col. 997 and clxxxiv. col. 475), but the present copy, like that in Harley MS. 485, is apparently incomplete and arranged in a different order. Beg. "Cum die quadam"; and ends "delicatus est iste sponsus et nobilis, etc." f. 73 b.
7. "Anno dni. millesimo ducentesimo septuagesimo obiit apud tunic. Christianissimus Rex Francorum Lodowicus in castris iuxta cartaginem. Et hee sunt moniciones quas idem Rex fecit Philippo filio suo et manu propria scripsit"; the abridged Latin text of the "Enseignements de S. Louis," agreeing in substance, but not verbally, with that given by Geoffrey de Beaulieu. For a full discussion of the different texts see N. de Wailly in the Biblioth. de l'École des Chartes, xxxiii. p. 386. f. 81.
8. "Epistola presbiteri Johannis ad Emanuelem Regem Romanorum." Apparently imperfect at the beginning. Beg. "Cum enim nos hominem"; and ends "essemus repleti" (cf. MS. Harl. 215, f. 101, etc.). f. 83.

After this article are a few more commonplaces. Three leaves at the end have been torn out.

Vellum; ff. 91. Artt. 2-6 end of the xivth cent. (see art. 2), the rest xvth cent. Formerly bound in beech boards covered with leather. Belonged to "dom. Joh. Knight, Rector de Plumstyd, Norwic. dioc. [Plumstead Parva, instituted 1517], quondam canc. divi Johannis de Chelmissford," who gave it in 1527 to R. Wolston (see f. 2). It also belonged (f. 1) [in 1576?] to Jonas Jardfylde, Vicar of Stortford, co. Hertf. [1575-1580]. Phillipps MS. 11,928. Octavo.

34,764. "A TRETIS compiled out of diuerse cronicles," and ending 18 Hen. VI. [1439-40]: see f. 7, "In whos xviii yere this short treti was ended." The writer, who quotes Bede, Alfred of Rievaulx and most frequently Higden's Polychronicon, appears to be connected with Chester. The work is designed to be complete in seven parts, dealing with:—(a) the genealogy from Adam through Woden to Hen. VI. (differs slightly from Alfred of Rievaulx);—(b) the counties and provinces of England;—(c) the cities and towns of England;—(d) the see of Chester and its transference to Coventry;—(e) the history of Chester;—(f) names of kings and "other lordes noble as many as I may gader";—(g) "sepultures and the names of bodies that weren worthi fer to be beried in this lande"; but the MS. breaks off in the middle of the fourth section. The part of the history which is possibly original (Rich. II. to end of Hen. V.) is brief and unimportant, occupying about four pages. In the account of the cities (from Higden) the writer has interpolated an assertion of the foundation of Cambridge University in the 18th year of Aristotle's life.

Paper; ff. 10. xvth cent. Rough ornamental initials in red and blue. Phillipps MS. 8859. Folio.

34,765. "A Booke of entries of all such recusants as have beene granted by his majesty's letters under the signet to the seuerall persons followinge"; 1606-1611. With an index prefixed.

Paper; ff. 50. Phillipps MS. 10,450. Folio.

34,766. Lists of English knights, etc., collected [apparently by Sir W. Betham] from a MS. in the office of the Ulster King of Arms, and other sources.

1. Copies of:—(a) An ordinance of the Commissioners for the office of Earl Marshal against the misuse of arms; 10 Nov. 1618. With drawings of the seals attached. f. 1;—(b) A royal order, directing the enrolment by the Earl Marshal of all knights as soon as created; 15 May, 1622. f. 4.
2. Note of the fees paid at the knighthood of Sir Anthony Dering; 22 Jan. 1618. f. 5.
3. Alphabet of knights, drawn up by Anthony Dering (third son of Sir Anthony Dering, Kt.), who died in 1658 (cf. f. 5 b). "The original in Ulster's office. W. B." It includes the creations of

- Elizabeth, James I. and Charles I. The blazon of the arms has been added to many of the names, but in a different hand. f. 6.
4. Lists of knights and baronets made by the Protector, O. Cromwell. f. 89.
5. Lists of Knights Bannerets made:—(a) 10 Edw. IV. f. 90;—(b) At the battle of Stoke beside Newark, 16 Jan. 1486. f. 90 b;—(c) At Blackheath Field, 12 Oct. 1496. f. 91;—(d) By the Earl of Surrey in Scotland, 1513. f. 91;—(e) temp. Hen. VIII., “at the siege of Turwin [Térouanne, 1513] and at other times.” f. 91 b.
6. Lists of Knights of the Bath:—(a) made at the coronation of Rich. III., [7 July, 1483]. f. 92;—(b) made at the coronation of Hen. VII., 30 Oct. 1485. f. 92;—(c) made at the creation of Arthur, Prince of Wales, [1489]. f. 92 b;—(d) made at the creation of Henry, Duke of York, on All Hallows Even, 1494. f. 93;—(e) made at the marriage of Arthur, Prince of Wales, 1501. f. 93 b;—(d) made in the Tower, 1533. f. 94;—(e) knights executors of Hen. VIII., 1546 (from Fuller’s Eccl. History). f. 94 b;—(f) made at the coronation of Edw. VI., 20 Feb. 1546[7]. f. 95.
- Paper; ff. 95. xixth cent. Philipps MSS. 15,161 and 15,887. Folio.

34,767. RENTALS of the lordship of Langley, [co. Kent?], 2 Rich. II. [1378-9] and 13 Hen. VII. [1497-8], and (f. 12 b) of the rectory, 19 Hen. VII. [1503-4] in Latin.
Paper; ff. 13. Philipps MS. 9353. Small Quarto.

34,768. CHARTULARY of the dissolved Priory of St. Bartholomew the Great, Smithfield, “whereby the boundaries and privileges of the same place and parish and the title of Robert, now Earle of Holland [sc. Rob. Rich, 2nd Earl, 1649, 5th Earl of Warwick, 1673, ob. 1675] and his auncestors thereunto doth appeare.”

The early charters—including three of Hen. I. (two dated 1133), two of Hen. II., etc.—are given in an inspeximus of 2 Hen. VI. Except a plea of 14 Edw. II., a charter of Edw. III. and confirmations of Edw. IV. and Elizabeth, the rest of the contents refer chiefly to the period from the dissolution to 10 Chas. I. The bounds of the close are given at f. 73, the valuation of the close when purchased by Sir Richard Rich, Kt., in 1544 at f. 79, and an agreement, 4 Aug. 1561, with the city of London about water-supply at f. 140.

Vellum; ff. 182. A.D. 1663-1673. A leaf is lost after f. 55. Initials in red and gold. Philipps MS. 40. Quarto.

34,769. CORRESPONDENCE and Papers of the families of Moseley of Carburton and Rolleston of Watnall-Chaworth, co. Notts; 1619-1740.

The names of the writers appear in the index and the letters are arranged chronologically; the undated Moseley letters are placed at the beginning, and at the end the undated Rolleston letters and miscellaneous accmpts, etc., followed by a number of notes addressed to — Fentham, an apothecary at Nottingham, circ. 1739–1740. Among the contents are :—

1. Letter from John [Williams, Bishop of] Lincoln, to William Moseley and Rob. Williamson, to adjudicate in a dispute at Gampston, co. Notts; Westminster College, 23 July, 1622. f. 21.
2. Treasury acquittance for a fine for delinquency from William Rolleston of Kettleborough; 3 Aug. 1649. f. 48.
3. Order by the commissioners for settling the militia in co. Notts; 4 May, 1660. f. 58.
4. Three letters of congratulation to Robert [Sanderson], Bishop of Lincoln, on his consecration, Nov. and Dec. 1660, from the societies of Brasenose and Lincoln Colleges, Oxford, and King's College, Cambridge. ff. 59–64.
5. Copy of a letter from William [Fuller], Bishop of Lincoln, to the Aldermen of Grantham, enclosing letters from Gilbert [Sheldon], Archbishop of Canterbury, and Humfrey [Henchman], Bishop of London, about putting down conventicles; Aswardby, 28 June, 1669. f. 70.
6. Accompt of the deer in Sherwood Forest; 14 Sept. 1687. f. 89.
7. Notice by Evelyn [Pierrepoint, 5th] Earl of Kingston, concerning the lease of the manor of Edwinstone; 13 June, 1693. f. 94.
8. Licence from Thomas [Osborne, 1st] Duke of Leeds, Chief Justice in Eyre of the Royal Forests North of Trent, to the inhabitants of Arnold, co. Notts, to assart in Sherwood; 5 Feb. 1711[2]. f. 100.
9. Copy of a letter of the Privy Council to Thomas Holles, Duke of Newcastle, as Custos Rotulorum of co. Notts, concerning the pressing of seamen; 31 July, 1738. f. 105.
10. Note on the pedigree of Rolleston. f. 107.
Paper; ff. 153. Phillipps MS. 9724. Folio.

34,770. PAMPHLET written, on Charles II.'s suggestion, by James Butler, 1st Duke of Ormonde, but never printed, in answer to the Earl of Anglesey's Letter from a person of Honour . . . to the Earl of Castlehaven . . . upon his Lordship's Memoires concerning the Wars of Ireland, London, 1681. Written by an amanuensis. With autograph corrections and additions. Carte (Life of Ormond, vol. iv. p. 634) says he has read the pamphlet in MS., but does not say where.

Paper; ff. 84. Phillipps MS. 8573. This and the two following MSS. probably formed part of the Southwell Collection. See below, 34,773 and foll. Folio.

34,771. ROUGH DRAFTS of the above pamphlet, in various forms. Mostly autograph. At the end (f. 105) are some memoranda by Ormonde concerning the cabals against him in June, 1668. Paper; ff. 108. Phillipps MS. 8572. Folio.

34,772. LETTERS relating to the proceedings of the Council of Ireland in the matter of the Popish plot; being chiefly copies of despatches by the Duke of Ormonde, Lord Lieutenant, and the Council to Henry Coventry, Secretary of State, in Apr. 1679, with a narrative of proceedings (f. 7) from 30 Sept. 1678 to 5 Apr. 1679.

Included are also :—(1) Michael [Boyle], Archbishop of Armagh, Chancellor of Ireland, to Ormonde; Dublin, 18 Mar. 1673. Copy. f. 1;—(2) Examination of Hobert Bourke, of Crehanagh, co. Waterford (information against the Earl of Tyrone); 18 Mar. 1673. Copy. f. 5;—(3) Examination of Richard [le Poer, 1st] Earl of Tyrone; 20 Mar. 1673. Copy. f. 6;—(4) Ormonde to H. Coventry, applying for leave to visit England to defend himself; Dublin, 30 Apr. 1679. Copy. f. 19;—(5) Ormonde to [Anthony Ashley-Cooper, 1st] Earl of Shaftesbury; Dublin, 25 May, 1679. Printed in Carte, vol. iv. p. 575. Copy. f. 21. Paper; ff. 22. Phillipps MS. 8611. Folio.

34,773-34,778. SOUTHWELL PAPERS relating to Irish affairs, 1686-1741: being a portion of the collection of Sir Robert Southwell, who was Secretary of State for Ireland from 1690 to 1702, of his son Edward, who succeeded him, and of his grandson Edward, who was appointed to the same office (jointly with his father) in 1720 (cf. 34,775, f. 85). Six volumes. Paper. Folio and (Vol. VI.) Quarto. For other volumes of the Southwell Collection see Add. 21,122-21,138, 34,329-34,335. All these six volumes seem to have been bought by Sir Thomas Phillipps of Thomas Thorpe, the bookseller (see his catalogue, 1834, pt. iv.). The contents are :—

- 34,773. SOUTHWELL PAPERS. Vol. I. (ff. 158). Correspondence of Sir Robert Southwell, of Edward Southwell his son, and of William Blathwayt, Secretary-at-war, with petitions to the Lord-Lieutenant, etc.; 1686-1703. Phillipps MS. 8562, vol. i. Among the contents are :—

34,774. SOUTHWELL PAPERS. Vol. II. (ff. 162). Correspondence of E. Southwell and W. Blathwayt (continued), with petitions to the Lord-Lieutenant for commissions in the army, etc.; 1703-1711. At ff. 40, 42 are two lists of petitions marked A and C. Phillipps MS. 8562, vol. ii.

For these two volumes, see Thorpe's catalogue, no. 403.

34,775. SOUTHWELL PAPERS. Vol. III. (ff. 189). Register of all grants, etc., under the Privy Seal in Ireland (whether fees were payable or not), Sept. 1690-June 1741, during all which time the Southwells held the secretaryship. The register is defective from Feb. to Oct. 1694, and from Oct. 1696 to Apr. 1697. Thorpe's catalogue, no. 755. Phillipps MS. 8983, and marked also a. 12. 826.

34,776. SOUTHWELL PAPERS. Vol. IV. (ff. 81). Letters from Robert Rochfort, Sir Richard Ryves, and Richard Pyne, Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal in Ireland, to Sir Robert Southwell, Secretary of State for Ireland; 24 June-30 Aug. 1690. Among other papers included are: (1) Sir John Lowther, Richard Hampden and Sir Stephen Fox [Commissioners of the Treasury] to the Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal in Ireland; Whitehall, 23 June, 1690. Copy. f. 1;—(2) Militia Returns for the city and county of Dublin; 18 July, 1690. f. 21;—(3) Accompt of arms brought in by papists and of arms to be issued to militia; 22 July, 1690. f. 29;—(4) Henry Langford, sheriff of Meath, to the Lords Commissioners, on proceedings of the rebels; Summerhill, 31 July, 1690. f. 39;—(5) List of commissions of the Peace passed under the Great Seal of Ireland; July-Aug. 1690. f. 57;—(6) Evidence of James Lewis against Sir Tho. Beaman and others for insults to the Lords Commissioners; 23 Aug. 1690. f. 71;—(7) List of militia officers for the King's County; n. d. f. 81. Thorpe's catalogue, no. 407. Phillipps MS. 8571.

34,777. SOUTHWELL PAPERS. Vol. V. (ff. 100). Irish Parliamentary Papers; 1698-1727.

1. Opinions, precedents and resolutions relating to the disputes about the jurisdiction of the Irish House of Lords as a court of appeal; 1698-1709. The first (cf. f. 7) opinion, given in 1698, is in the autograph of Sir R[ichard] Cox [Chief Justice of the Common Pleas in Ireland]. ff. 1-12.
2. Lists of members of the two houses and memoranda about constituencies by the political organisers; 1703-1727. The list for 1703, containing the Commons only, is in MS.; the full lists for 1713, 1725 and 1727 are printed. The political memoranda are mostly undated. ff. 13-56.
3. Election petition of Sir William Fownes, Kt., and Martin Tucker, candidates for the city of Dublin; n. d. f. 57.
4. Miscellaneous addresses, petitions, proceedings and division lists of the two houses; 1709-1726, and n. d. ff. 59-94.
5. Proceedings of Convocation in Ireland; 9 Nov. 1711 and n. d. f. 95.
6. Two lists of volumes of acts, bills, etc., of the Irish Parliament in the possession of the Southwells; 1692-1728. f. 98. Thorpe's catalogue, no. 418. Phillipps MS. 8570.

34,778. SOUTHWELL PAPERS. Vol. VI. (ff. 126). Letters of Thomas Medlycott, Commissioner of Customs in Ireland, to Edward Southwell, Secretary of State for Ireland, on private and political matters; 3 July, 1703-9 Mar. 1729. Thorpe's catalogue, no. 975. Phillipps MS. 9446.

34,779. THE VISION OF PIERS THE PLOWMAN, by William Langland [circ. 1332-1400]. The last 42 lines of the poem are wanting. The text is according to the third recension (Skeat's C-text: see The Vision of William concerning Piers the Plowman, by W. W. Skeat, Oxford, 1886, vol. ii. pp. xiv.-xxi.); and a collation of the test passages given by Dr. R. Kron (William Langley's Buch von Peter dem Pfleger, Erlangen, 1885, pp. 39-50) indicates that it is akin to the Ilchester MS. [xxxii. in Skeat's list, op. cit., p. lxxi., D³ in Kron], but with many variants of its own. Numbered xliii. by Skeat, p³ by Kron, but never fully examined or collated. Vellum; ff. 94. Early xvth cent. About 39-42 lines to a page. Titles and Latin quotations in red. A hand of the 16th cent. has added some various readings in the margins. The name of Lawrence Ball (16th cent.) is written on f. 32. On f. 1 is the number "58" in the hand of Thomas Martin of Palgrave (ob. 1771), with a note referring to a MS. in the possession of [Joseph] Ames

(ob. 1759); also the names, as owners, of Matthew Lee and Thomas Huckell Lee (18th-19th centt.). Subsequently in the collection of Richard Heber (sale-catalogue, part xi., 1836, no. 974), no. 1003 in Thorpe's sale-catalogue for 1836, and no. 9056 in the Phillippes library. Small Folio.

34,780. "A Catalogue of all the [English] Plays extant, 1700: alphabetically digested." With the names of their authors.

Paper; ff. 40. Circ. 1700. Bound in red morocco, tooled. No. 504 in the supplement to T. Thorpe's catalogue, 1836; Phillipps MS. 9202. Small Octavo.

34,781. DRAMATIC POEMS on Biblical subjects, by — Boise, viz.: (1) "Pharaoh's Tyrannie," f. 2;—(2) "The Story of Jephthah," f. 29 b;—(3) "The History of Samson," f. 40;—(4) "David and Goliath," f. 62 b;—(5) "The History of Jonah," f. 70;—(6) "The History of John Baptist," f. 81;—(7) "Nebuchadnezzar's Fiery Furnace," f. 95 b. Concluding with "A Hymne of the Justice and Mercy of God," f. 116 b. All, except the last, are in heroic couplets. A note on f. 1 states that "this was compos'd by . . . Boise a Scotchman about the time of the Reformation. He was counted in those times a learned Man. He left an Estate conditionall that they should see this book printed, which not being perform'd a Law Suit is commencing to recover the Same, 1713." The poems do not appear to have been printed.

Paper; ff. 116. xviiith cent. Formerly No. 13,190 in Sir T. Phillipps' library, in the catalogue of which it is numbered 156 among the St. George and Owen MSS. Folio.

34,782. "LOVE'S LAURELL GARLAND," a romance by John Reynolds. Preceded by: (1) Dedication to Philip Herbert, Earl of Montgomery and Baron of Shurland [afterwards Earl of Pembroke, 1630], and his Countess, f. 2;—(2) "Praeface" to the "Gentelmen Readers," f. 3 b;—(3) Sonnet to the Countess of Montgomery, beg. "To you, great Countesse, Englands mirrour fayre," f. 5 b;—(4) Sonnet, in French, addressed "a Ian Reynolds sur sa Guirlande du laurier d'Amour," by "H. Guillonson, sieur du Menec, Gentilhomme Breton," f. 6. The author's name, appended to the first three of these, has in each case been struck out, but remains legible. He describes himself (f. 4 b) as being of a "profession opposyte to a scholler," and is therefore probably not to be identified with John Reynolds, Scholar and Fellow of New College, Oxford, author of Disticha Classis Epigrammatum (1611-12), but with John Reynolds or Raynolds, merchant, of Devonshire, author of The Flower of Fidelitie (1650) and probably of Dolarny's Primrose (1606); cf. the edition of the latter by A. B. Grosart, LL.D., 1880, pp. xv.-xxxviii.

The style of these works and of their dedications supports this identification. In this case the present work must have been finished before 1606, since the author describes it as "the first essayes of my muse" (f. 3); and as Philip Herbert was only created Earl of Montgomery in 1605, its completion cannot be placed earlier than that year. The subject of the romance is the loves and adventures of Philisander and Diaphania, and it includes several poems. It was evidently intended for the press, but is not known to have been printed.

Paper; ff. 169. A.D. 1605 (see above). Belonged to Arthur Haydon (1632), to Philip Collarde (17th cent., see f. 148 b), to J. Strutt (18th cent.), Richard Heber (sale-cat., part. xi., 1836, no. 1274), Thomas Thorpe (sale-cat., 1836, no. 1115), and Sir T. Phillipps (cat. no. 9242). Small Quarto.

34,783. PLEAS, temp. Rich. II., in Latin, including a few of previous reigns, with additions to the time of Edw. IV. Not arranged systematically, but references to the year and number of the Plea-roll are given, and an alphabetical subject-index is prefixed. At the end (f. 173 b) is the form of oath for the mayor of London in English, imperfect.

Paper; ff. 173. Late xivth and xvth centt. On. f. 1 are notes of the death of Adam Hervyngton in 1343 [or 4?], and concerning the manor of Sydyngton al. Knygtesmaner. Phillipps MS. 11,912. Quarto.

34,784. Accompts of the administrators of Sir Thomas Seyliard, 2nd Bart., of Pusey, co. Berks (ob. 2 May, 1692); with inventories of the goods of his widow [Margaret, daughter of Thomas Wharton, 4th Baron Wharton, married 1st to Major Dunch of Pusey, 2ndly in 1687 to Sir Thomas Seyliard, and 3rdly to Sir William Ross], including lists of family and other portraits, expenditure on estates, etc., 1687-1692, and an estimate of Lady Seyliard's income and expenses. At the end, reversing the volume, are accompts of the manor [of Charney (?)], co. Bucks, 1674-1678, and an accompt of the estate in 1692-3.

Paper; ff. 50. Phillipps MS. 20,697. Folio.

34,785. Accompt of Receipts and Disbursements of Edward Stanhope [2nd son of Sir Michael Stanhope, Kt.], on behalf of [Anne] Lady Stanhope his mother; Lady day, 1569-Mich. 1570.

Paper; ff. 8. Phillipps MS. 14,982. Small Quarto.

34,786. Comptus of the rectory of Helmingham, co. Suffolk, by Richard Goodman, rector, for the year ending Mich. 1510; in Latin.

Paper; ff. 12. Phillipps MS. 14,986. Small Quarto.

- 34,787. 1. PRESENTMENTS, rentals and other papers relating to the manor of Shodwell, in Buxted, co. Sussex, 1347-1710. f. 1.
 2. Papers relating to the manors of Socknirsh and Hollinggrove, near Brightling, co. Sussex, temp. Hen. VI.-1747; and including several relating to the family of Collins of Brightling. f. 30.
 3. Rentals of the manor of Socknirsh, 1601-1610, 1632-1665, 1666-1680, 1727-1730 (ff. 135-198); of the manor of Hollinggrove, 1607-1628, 1645-1653, 1664 (ff. 199-229); and the joint rentals of the two manors for 1742 and 1755 (ff. 230-233).
 4. Miscellaneous papers relating to property in co. Sussex, 1489-1746. f. 234.
 Paper; ff. 260. xvth-xviiith centt. Probably belonged formerly to the family of Collins, lords of the manors of Socknirsh, Hollinggrove, and Shodwell, 16th-18th centt. (cf. Add. Charters 42,631-42,665, which previously formed part of the same volume). Phillipps MS. 16,044. Folio.
- 34,788. DIARY of a journey from London, by Ipswich and Harwich, to Holland, from 21 May to 19 June, 1711, by James Thornhill [afterwards Sir James Thornhill, Serjeant-Painter to Queen Anne]. A copy, with twenty-six pen-and-ink drawings on tracing-paper, apparently transferred.
 Paper; ff. 90. xviiith-xixth cent. Belonged successively to J[ohn] Britton, the antiquary (ob. 1857), to [the Rev.] J[ohn] Mitford, 1856 (sale-cat., 1860, no. 57), and to Sir T. Phillipps (MS. 17,777). Quarto.
- 34,789. YEARBOOKS, portions of 5, 12 and 19 Edw. III., and of an eyre, in French, viz.:—(1) 5 Edw. III. [1331]. Hilary term is imperfect by the tearing of f. 3, Easter term complete, Trinity term imperfect at the end. f. 2;—(2) 12 [Edw. III., 1338]. Two leaves containing part of Hil. and Mich. terms. f. 14;—(3) 19 [Edw. III., 1345]. Four leaves containing Hilary term, probably imperfect at the end. f. 16;—(4) Pleas of an eyre in Nottinghamshire, undated, before William Herl[e], [Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, 1-3 and again 5-9 Edw. III.], [Robert? de] Thorpe, [Robert de] Malb[erthorp] and others [probably in 1329]. f. 20.
 Vellum; ff. 30. xivth cent. Many names are scribbled on ff. 1 and 30, including Radulphus, as owner, "Joh. Schirrewode armorier de Flettestrete" and "Parys de Hasted, nuper de London, grocer." Phillipps MS. 6573. Folio.
- 34,790. PLAN of Faux Hall [now Vauxhall] manor, in Lambeth, co. Surrey, by Thomas Hill, 1681, on a scale of 3½ in. to 60 poles, with list of tenants and their annual rent. This plan (on which is marked Springe Garden, the site of the Vauxhall Gardens), or probably a copy of it, was seen by W. Bray (cf. his edition of Manning's History . . . of Surrey, 1814, vol. iii. p. 490). Vellum; 2 ft. 4 in. × 1 ft. 8 in. Presented by Edward J. L. Scott, Esq.

34,791. THE HISTORY of the Patriarch Joseph: a poem by William Forest, or Forrest, chaplain to Qu. Mary, written in seven-line stanzas [in 1545] and dedicated to William [Parr], Earl of Essex [cr. Dec. 1543, Marquess of Northampton Feb. 1544]. It differs materially from the autograph copy in Royal MS. 18 C. xiii., which contains the second part of an edition finished in 1569, and dedicated to the Duke of Norfolk, the first part being in MS. lxxxviii. of University College, Oxford (see Dict. Nat. Biogr., art. W. Forrest, xx., p. 5). In this 1569 copy the author states that the book was originally composed twenty-four years before, and the present MS. no doubt gives it in its earlier form. The text is not divided, like the later and expanded edition, into two parts, but comprises twenty-three chapters, each with a brief argument in prose. The preface, addressed to Lord Essex, consists of eighteen stanzas, and has the name "William Forest" in the heading. It is of a curious character, with references to Chaucer, Gower, Lidgate and "my frende [John] Heywoode." Of the last the author writes:—

"For learynge Heywoode and I be nearo one,
But for conveyance of a fyne sentence
He shall have my prayse of all to Rome hense."

Next to the preface (f. 3) are forty-four lines of "Thargument," in which the poem is described as "the firste I ever sett forthe," and is said to be grounded not only upon the Bible narrative,

"But to delate the mateir more,
Owte of twee workes much merit therfore,
The twelve Patryarkes testament,
And a Sermon full exoellent
Made by Effrem a busshopp in Greece
Is take and gathered a great peece."

The text moreover is preceded (f. 4) by "An Invocation to God for his helpe, with an Admyration of his workes," in five stanzas; and is followed (f. 116 b) by "An excusation" [for prolixity and tediousness] in two stanzas.

Paper; ff. 116. xvith cent. [1545?]. On f. 1 is the signature (16th cent.) "Ma: Salusbury," under which is written "Margarett Salusbury of the Castle, my great-grandmother." With book-plate bearing the initials L. L. interlaced. In modern binding of green morocco Small Quarto.

34,792 A. "LIBER domini Johannis de Dynham de omnibus cartis ad suam terram spectantibus": a chartulary of the lands belonging to the family of Dynham. The property is situated almost entirely in Cornwall and Devonshire, and the charters are grouped under the manors of Cardinan, co. Cornwall (f. 3), and Hartland, co. Devon (f. 19 b). At f. 17 are a few charters of, or relating to, the priory of Truwardraith.

Vellum; ff. 30. xvth cent. The upper margin has been gnawed by rats, without however doing injury to the text. Small Quarto. Presented, with Add. Ch. 42,666-42,680, by G. C. Boase, Esq.

34,792 B. PAPERS relating to Cornwall, etc., viz.:—(1) Grant of land in Peasemarsch, co. Sussex; 29 Jan. 1 Mary [1554]. Copy. f. 1;—(2) Deeds relating to Gulval, co. Cornwall; 1596-1609. ff. 3-13;—(3) Will of Charles Ellis, of St. Just, in Penwith, co. Cornwall; 22 June, 1666. Copy. f. 14;—(4) Rental of the property of Thomas Ellis in Gulval, etc., co. Cornwall; 1842. ff. 18, 21 b. Paper; ff. 27. xvi-xixth centt. Folio. Presented, as above, by G. C. Boase, Esq.

34,793. TABLE of fees and allowances to the officers of the Court of Augmentations (f. 3), of the Duchy of Lancaster (f. 6), of the Court of First Fruits (f. 7), and of the Court of Wards and Liveries (f. 7 b), to the Judges (f. 8), to the officers and servants of the Royal Household (f. 10), to the captains, etc., of towns, castles, bulwarks, etc. (f. 19), and (the beginning wanting) to the keepers, etc., of castles, houses, parks, etc. (f. 23). Apparently a copy, made circ. 1600, of an earlier Establishment List compiled within the last ten years of Henry VIII.: see the mention of Sir Ralph Sadler, as Gent. of the Privy Chamber (f. 13), and the reference to "the Kinges late parcell of L. Husses landes attaynted," sc. in 1537 (f. 29). Many leaves are here wanting, e.g. the first three, which contained the heading Exchequer, four between ff. 8 and 9, two between ff. 22 and 23, and three between ff. 23 and 24. On f. 2 in a 17th cent. hand is a note of payments in an execution for debt on — Shellton.

Paper; ff. 37. The vellum covers bear in the centre a crescent surrounded by a Garter and surmounted by an Earl's coronet (badge of Percy, Earl of Northumberland). On the upper cover is also the name of Major Gen. John Eyre, R.A. Folio. Presented by Miss Agnes S. Griffith.

34,794-34,797. HISTORICAL works and essays by Sir Francis Palgrave (ob. 1861), Deputy-Keeper of the Public Records: copies, chiefly in the hand of Lady Palgrave (see vol. i. f. 8), with autograph corrections and notes. Four volumes. Paper. Quarto. Presented by Francis Turner Palgrave, Esq., son of Sir Francis. The contents are:—

- 34,794. Vol. I. (ff. 493). HISTORY of the reign of Henry I. (see also vol. iv. f. 134). Included also are letters from F[rancis] T[urner] Palgrave to Sir E. M. Thompson, Principal Librarian of the British Museum, 22 May, 1 July, 1895, ff. 1, 7; and from J[ohn] R[ichard] Green, the historian, to F. T. Palgrave, 18 July, 1871, f. 3. The latter, in criticising these unpublished remains of Sir F. Palgrave, writes: "The 'Henry I.' seems to me a work of real historical value, especially in its constitutional and Scottish portions. I don't know that I ever read a more brilliant as well as learned bit of work than the description of Scotland under King David."
- 34,795. Vol. II. (ff. 333). HISTORY of the reign of Stephen. At f. 284 is another draft, without beginning (cf. ff. 21 and 284-5), and at f. 330 are rough chronological memoranda, 1135-1138.
- 34,796. Vol. III. (ff. 203). LIFE of Thomas Becket. ff. 1, 64;—Essay on "Papal Elections." f. 71;—On "Church and Clergy." f. 127;—On the "Middle Ages." f. 156;—"Settlement of the Northmen," ending imperfectly. f. 171;—"Progress of Normandy." f. 186.
- 34,797. Vol. IV. (ff. 237). HISTORY of Wales under William I., William II. and Henry I. f. 2;—Sketch for the history of Henry I. (on the dispute regarding investiture), followed by another history of Henry I. ff. 125, 134.
- 34,798. COLLECTION of rubbings made by Miss Christian MacLagan, of Ravenscroft, Stirling, from the sculptured stone-monuments of Scotland. Numbered 1-298 and taken from stones in the following counties, etc.:—

Paper rolls mounted on canvas. Presented by Miss Christian MacLagan.

34,799. "MEMORIALS of my Embassy in Constantinople," by Sir William Trumbull. Autograph. Trumbull arrived at Constantinople as Ambassador on 17 Aug. 1687, and stayed there till 31 July, 1691 (see f. 2); but the narrative breaks off at 28 Apr. 1688 (f. 37 b), with a few disconnected notes on subsequent events. Much of the substance of these "Memorials" was seen by Sir Paul Rycaut in Trumbull's letters home and used in his History of the Turks (in continuation of Knolles), 1700: see pp. 187-290 passim, and see f. 33 of this MS.

Paper; ff. 41. Small Quarto.

34,800 A-C. THREE-PART MUSICAL COMPOSITIONS, consisting of Fantasias by Thomas Morley, Edward Blakes, Orlando Gibbons, Henry Loosemore, and Michael Este; with selections from Byrd's "Gradualia," and some anonymous part songs. In parts.

Paper; ff. 54, 53, 53. xviii cent. (after 1618, see A, f. 51 b). Belonged in the 17th cent. (see C, f. 2) to William Kinge [organist of Winchester Cathedral and afterwards of New College, ob. 1680], and in the 19th cent. to Vincent Novallo. Other names scribbled at the beginning or end are those of John Gibson; — Pindar, of Brookmans, near Hatfield, Herts (A, f. 54); Geo. Bird (B, f. 2); and Henry Sheldon (C, f. 1). Small Octavo.

34,801. COLLECTION concerning the office of Earl Marshal and the Admiralty; in French (except art. 12). Parts of the same contents will be found in Cotton MSS. Nero D. ii., Tib. E. viii., Add. MSS. 28,549, 29,901, in the Black Book of the Admiralty (ed. by Sir T. Twiss, Rolls Series), and elsewhere.

1. "Ceo sont les surnomes les linages de graunt en William le Conquerour en Engleterre": names of Norman families arranged in couples, "Aumarle et Ayncourte, Bartram et Buttecourte," etc. Printed by Leland (Collectanea, ed. Hearne, 1774, i. p. 206). f. 3. This art. is an addition, the volume proper beg. at f. 6.
2. Treatise on the foundation (by Caesar) and duties of the College of Heralds, with their oaths of office. Beg. "Selon les diz des philosophes." For other copies see Cotton MS. Nero D. ii. f. 254 b (which is, however, incomplete), Add. MS. 29,901, f. 40; cf. Add. MS. 28,549, f. 54, and The Black Book, ed. Twiss, vol. i. p. 295. f. 6.
3. Order of battle in a court of chivalry. The first few words are corrupt: see the copies in Cotton MSS. Nero D. ii. f. 257, Tib. E. viii. f. 39 b. The copy in the Black Book (with dedication to Rich. II. by Thomas of Woodstock, Duke of Gloucester) is somewhat different (Black Book, vol. i. p. 300). f. 14 b.
4. Statutes of the order of the Garter: the form of the statutes which - is attributed to Henry V. Printed by Ashmole (Appendix to his Institution of the Order of the Garter, 1672). f. 19.

5. Form of a Cry of Tourney or proclamation of jousts. Other copies are in Cotton MS. Nero D. ii. f. 258, and (with names given) in Lansd. MS. 285, f. 44. f. 28 b.
 6. "Cy commence la maniere de faire ch[ua]ler selon la coustume d'Angleterre en temps de paix et de bayn": order for the creation of Knights of the Bath. Printed by Anstis (Observations upon the Knighthood of the Bath, 1725, p. 106). f. 30.
 7. Fantastic forms of challenge for jousts. Another copy is in Cotton MS. Nero D. ii. f. 260 b. f. 36.
 8. "Cest la copie des Jugemens et Rolles de Ollerum": the maritime code known as the Laws of Olleron, including, besides the original twenty-four (contained in the Liber Horn of the Guildhall library, cf. Cotton MS. Nero A. vi. f. 157), five others partly identical with those added in the Black Book (ed. Twiss, vol. i. p. 120). f. 43.
 9. Rules for the Lord Admiral: twenty articles agreeing in substance with the first section of the Black Book (ed. Twiss, vol. i. pp. 1-22) and Cotton MS. Vesp. B. xxii. ff. 10-13 b. f. 51.
 10. "Sens[uiuent] les finz app[ar]ten[ans] au clero de l'admiralte": table of the clerk's fees, not quite the same as that in Cotton MS. Vesp. B. xxii. f. 94 (printed by Twiss, op. cit., vol. i., appendix, p. 402). f. 55.
 11. Rules for the Lord Admiral in time of war: twenty-one articles agreeing with the twenty which form the second section of the Black Book (ed. Twiss, vol. i. pp. 24-38) and Cotton MS. Vesp. B. xxii. ff. 13 b-16 b. f. 55 b.

The remaining articles are additions in later hands.

12. "This is the ordinaunce and guydyng that perteyneth unto þe Worshipfull beryyng of ony astate to be done in maner and fourme ensowyng": the manner of burying great personages. f. 58 b.
13. Ordinance of Thomas of Lancaster, Duke of Clarence, Grand Seneschal of England, concerning Herald's fees; Caen, 3 Sept. 1417. Cf. Lansd. MS. 285, f. 47 b. f. 60 b.

On the fly-leaf (f. 2) is a fragment (15th cent.) from the English Metrical Romance of King Robert of Sicily: cf. Add. MS. 22,283 and Catalogue of Romances, vol. i. p. 763.

Vellum (f. 1, a 16th cent. table of contents, paper); ff. 61. Early xvth cent. With illuminated initials and borders of English style. The first initial (f. 6) contains the arms of Mowbray, Dukes of Norfolk and Earls Marshal; and the MS. was probably written in the time of, and possibly for, John Mowbray, Earl Marshal 1405, and Duke of Norfolk 1424, ob. 1432. On the fly-leaf at the end (f. 61) is the name of Anthony Widville, Earl of Rivers (1469-83), perhaps as owner. Bound in wooden boards covered with brown leather, stamped with panel and bands, the latter having a dragon and gryphon and the binders' cyphers G. W. and I. G. (circ. 1520); rebacked. Octavo.

34,802. EXTRACTS from MS. Add. C. 280 in the Bodleian library, Oxford, viz.:—(1) “Vita Sancti Albani de Allemannia, secundum dominum Johannem Mandeuille militem gallice scripta.” Apparently translated from the Latin legend ascribed to Transmundus (Potthast, Bibl. Hist. Medii Ævi, 1862, p. 588). Beg. “Pur ce q’ioe Iohan Mandiuille fu de la ville Seinte Alban.” f. 1. Another copy is in Sloane MS. 1464, f. 161 b (early 15th cent.), following Mandeville’s Travels;—(2) A fragment of a herbal. French. f. 6. Paper; ff. 8. “Transcribed by George Parker, of the Bodleian library, about 1884.” Small Quarto. Presented by E. W. B. Nicholson, Esq., Bodley’s Librarian.

34,803, 34,804. MISCELLANEOUS VOCAL COMPOSITIONS by John Lodge-Ellerton and in his own hand. Two volumes. A few pieces, mostly autograph and some of them incomplete, are added, viz.: by Charles Henry Nottingham (vol. i. f. 75), E. Silas (i. f. 79), Karl Friedrich Zelter (i. f. 86), J. B. Cramer (ii. f. 20), Cipriani Hambly Potter (ii. f. 30), and James Coward (ii. f. 32). Paper; ff. 93, 33. xixth cent. Quarto and Obl. Folio. Presented by Richard A. Streetfeild, Esq.

34,805. “HADASSAH: or the History of Queene Hester; Sunge, in a sacred and serious Poeme: and divided into 10 Chapters. By Francis Lenton, Gent: The Queens Ma^{tie} Poet: Together with the Translation, and Illustration, of the 83. psalme . . . 1638.” Dedicated “to the worshipfull and worthy of honour, the prudent, pious and courteous Thomas Coteel, Esquire” (the name partly obliterated), whose arms, in colour, are on f. 3 b. The poem, which was never published, begins “When the stiffneck’t and stubborne Israelites.”

Paper; ff. 84. xviiith cent. In contemporary binding of dark-brown morocco, tooled. A description of this and of two other copies is in W. Carew Hazlitt’s Collections and Notes, 1867-76 (1876), p. 255; whence it appears that Mr. [Richard] Heber procured this MS. at Mr. Thomas Hill’s sale in 1811. See Heber’s sale-cat. 1836, part xi., lot 724. Book-plate of F. W. Cosens, F.S.A. (sale-cat. 1890, lot 214). Small Quarto.

34,806 A-C. RUBBINGS of sepulchral brasses in various parts of England; collected by the Rev. Charles Henry Hartshorne, F.S.A., in 1838, 1839. The names of persons and places are given in the index. Three volumes.

Paper; ff. 47, 34, 98. Atlas Folio. Presented by Albert Hartshorne, Esq.

17. Letter from Henry II. to the Prior and Convent of Christ Church, Canterbury, revoking all his encroachments on the liberties of the English Church; dated 1164 (obviously a blunder for 1172), in the presence of the Cardinal-Legates Albert and Theodwine. f. 95.

- This letter (an insertion at the foot of the page) is not mentioned by the chroniclers, nor does the original appear to be extant. It was evidently written in fulfilment of the last of Henry's oaths of purgation, as given by Gervase of Canterbury, Chronica, Rolls series, vol. i. (1879) p. 239. Printed, Engl. Hist. Rev. xiii. 1898, p. 507.
18. Mandate from Henry II. to the English Bishops, and præcipe to the sheriffs, for the seizure of the revenues and goods of Becket's clerks; [Christmas, 1164]. f. 95 b. Printed in Materials for the Hist. of T. Becket, Rolls series, vol. v. (1881), pp. 151, 152.
 19. Edict issued by Henry II. against the Pope and Becket; [Michaelmas, 1169]. f. 95 b. Pr. in Mat. for Hist. of T. Becket, vol. vii. p. 147. The tenth article is not in the present copy.
 20. Constitutions of Clarendon; dated the 4th day before the Purification of the Virgin, [2 Feb.] 1164. f. 96 b. After the first clause are the words: "Hoc dampnavit sanctus thomas et non solum ipse sed sancta romana ecclesia sub Alexandro tertio"; and after each succeeding clause either "tolleravit" or "dampnavit," as in Mat. for Hist. of T. Becket, vol. v. p. 73.
 21. Note on the four modes of interpreting Scripture. f. 99 b.
 22. Tables of lessons throughout the year. f. 100.

- Vellum; ff. 137. xvth and early xvth centt. English binding, late 15th cent.: wooden boards covered with brown leather, blind-tooled: the inner panel diapered with lozenge-shaped compartments stamped with fleurs-de-lis; border of circular stamps bearing an eagle with outstretched wings. Belonged in the 16th cent. to Robert Johnson (f. 29), and subsequently, it would appear, to Nathanael Chadwick (ff. 39, 39 b, 40 b), and (17th cent.) to John Hartley (ff. 135, 137 b). The name Samson Rogerson also appears on ff. 1, 137 b. Octavo.

34,808. "A View and Survey of all her Ma^{ties} Ordinaunce, shotte, powder, saltpeter, sulphure, smalle gones and theire furniture," etc., "at her highenes Tower of London and at the wharfe there, at the Minorites, at the gonnefounders houses, and at the Artillary garden," also at the storehouses at Woolwich, Rochester and Upnor Castle, "at Chatham wharfe and diverse skonces neare adioyning," and in the Queen's ships, whether "lying in harborowe" in the Medway and Thames, or "serving abroade on the seas." 34,809. TREATISE on Geometry, in French, beg. "En la science de geometrie sont a considerer quatre parties." In three books, "des lignes," "des plaines superficies," and "des figures corporelles ayans longueur, largeur et profondeur," followed by "aucunes questions en la pratique de geometrie." Closely resembling the Geometrie practique of Charles de Bouelles, Paris, 1549. With a few architectural diagrams at the end (ff. 101-105). At ff. 1 b, 100 are verses, the former (26 ll.) addressed "a la noble grace du Roy [Hen. VIII.: see below]," the latter (8 ll., in the same hand as the text), beg. "Quiconque tu soys qui desires | Parler a prince ou a seigneur."
Paper; ff. 105. xvith cent. Bound in white skin, gilt-tooled; on each cover the words "VIVAT REX . GEOMETRIA," and on the edges of the leaves, in gold letters, "REX . IN . AETERNVM . VIVE . NEEZ." Evidently bound by Thomas Berthelet for Henry VIII.: cf. a copy of Elyot's The Image of Governance, 1541, in the Royal Collection. Folio.

34,810. ABSTRACTS of wills and administrations relating to various counties, but chiefly to Devon and Cornwall, 1519-1784, by Col. John Lambrick Vivian: supplementary (vol. viii.) to the series in Add. 34,546-34,552, and containing names beginning with Y, followed by miscellaneous entries and an index of names.
Paper; ff. 194. xixth cent. Quarto.

MUSTER-ROLLS of the companies of Lieut.-Colonel John Clobery and Captain William Yardly, in Colonel Thomas Read's regiment of foot, signed by Ambrose Mason (ff. 1), Henry Lyne (ff. 3-9), and Josiah Stubbin (ff. 11-35), muster-masters (?); 26 Apr. 1658-21 Nov. 1659. Followed at f. 38 by some military accompts of Capt. Yardley, 1659-1660. Paper; ff. 41. Folio. Presented by R. C. Winthrop, Esq., Junior.

34,820. LITURGY of St. Basil, in Greek. Imperfect at beginning and end; beg. Θυσιαστήριον εἰς ὁσμήν εὐωδίας (cf. Brightman, Eastern and Western Liturgies, vol. i. p. 318), ends in the middle of the rubric (differing from that printed by Brightman) following the words Πλήρωμα Πνεύματος ἁγίου (ib. p. 341). Vellum roll, 10 ft. 6 in. × 8½ in., with wooden roller. *XIII*th cent. Opisthograph. In the prayer for the archbishop, a later hand (15th or 16th cent.) has inserted the name Metrophanes; but there were several archbishops of this name in various sees. Initials and rubrics written in gold.

34,821-34,854. "THE ELEMENTS and Practice of Agriiculture," by Arthur Young, F.R.S., Secretary to the Board of Agriculture (ob. 1820), prepared for the press, apparently in 1818, but not printed. In thirty-four volumes, the last consisting of an analytical list of contents of Parts I.-X.

The work is divided into Eleven Parts (the eleventh part, however, not being intended to be included in the printed work), each Part being divided and subdivided into chapters, sections, sub-sections, etc. The subjects of the various Parts are as follows:—Part I. (Vol. I.) Soils. Part II. (Vol. II.) Plants. Part III. (Vol. II.) Purchase and occupation of land. Part IV. (Vol. III.) Means of cultivation. Part V. (Vols. IV.-XII.) Of improving land. Part VI. (Vols. XIII.-XXIII.) Arable land. Part VII. (Vols. XXIV, XXV.) Grass land. Part VIII. (Vol. XXV.) Gardens, orchards, and fish-ponds. Part IX. (Vols. XXVI.-XXXII.) Live stock. Part X. (Vol. XXXIII.) Connexion and mutual dependence of the arable, grass, live stock and manure of a farm. Part XI. (Vol. XXXIV.) Meteorology.

Paper; ninth cent. Folio and (the last volume) Small Quarto.

34,855-34,864. TRANSCRIPTS of Parts I.-X. of "The Elements and Practice of Agriculture," by Arthur Young, contained above in Add. 34,821-34,854, "edited from the Originals by W[alpole] de St. Croix," who has added a preface in Vol. I. (ff. 3-14), 1852-1855. Ten volumes. Each volume contains at the end an analytical list of its contents. Vol. I. also contains (f. 2 b) an engraved portrait of Arthur Young and (ff. 15-30) a biographical memoir of the same by John Ayrton Paris, M.D., written circ. 1820-1823. At the end of Vol. II. (ff. 227-363) are the original drawings or engravings, for illustration of the intended work, preceded by a descriptive list and instructions for insertion.

Paper. Folio. Presented by Mrs. Sarah Young, of Bradfield Hall, Suffolk.

34,865. "A SURVEY of the Parish of Ore in the County of Sussex, and a Valuation of the great and small Tithes belonging to the Rectory," by T. J. Tatham, 1817. Interspersed through the volume are coloured plans of the various properties, and on f. 81 is a plan of the whole parish.

Paper; ff. 81. Folio. Presented by George Frederick Barwick, Esq.

34,866-34,873. COLLECTION by Thomas Willement, F.S.A., of drawings, etc., partly by his own hand, of ancient and modern stained glass, ecclesiastical and domestic, chiefly in Great Britain and France. Most are in water-colour, and have notes and dates by the collector, 1815-1864, but there is no systematic arrangement. Included are many engravings, etc., 18th-19th cent.; also a few original designs for window-panels, and drawings of subjects, of the Swiss and German schools, early 16th-early 17th cent. (Vol. II. f. 210; Vol. III. ff. 104, 106; Vol. V. ff. 1, 22, 23, 24, 78, 79.) In eight volumes. Vols. I.-V. (ff. 424, 133, 199, 209, 110) Ancient glass. Vols. VI.-VIII. (ff. 465, 215, 291) Modern glass, chiefly T. Willement's own designs (see Works executed in Stained Glass by T. Willement, 1840). The names of the principal places are given in the index.

Paper; ninth cent. Atlas folio.

THE GIBBON PAPERS.

34,874-34,887. THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY, journals, essays and correspondence of Edward Gibbon the historian (1737-1794); with additional correspondence and papers of his friend and executor John Baker Holroyd, 1st Baron Sheffield (1781) and Earl of Sheffield (1816), from whose grandson, the 3rd Earl, the collection was purchased. [For other Gibbon Papers, see above, 34,715, 34,716.] Fourteen volumes, arranged as follows:—

34,874. GIBBON PAPERS. Vol. I. Six autobiographical sketches by Edward Gibbon, all holograph, being the materials from which Lord Sheffield arranged the "Memoirs" as published in the Miscellaneous Works (quarto ed., 1796, vol. i., octavo ed., with further extracts, 1814, vol. i.). The six sketches are marked A to F, and are preceded by a short account of them (ff. 1-3) by Dr. W. A. Greenhill. The period covered by each and its probable date are as follows;—

A. "The memoirs of the life of Edward Gibbon, with various observations and excursions by himself." This goes no further than an account of the family. Being written before Gibbon saw the article [by Sir Egerton Brydges] in the Gentleman's Magazine for 1788 (p. 698), its genealogy is probably incorrect, but the account of Gibbon's aunts and of Edward Law is rather fuller than in the edited memoir. The date is the fifty-second year of the writer's age [1788-9]—see the opening of the printed text. The sketch occupies sixteen quarto leaves, and prefixed is a copy of the silhouette (cut by Mrs. Brown in the last year of his life) reproduced in vol. i. of the quarto edition. f. 4.

B. "My own life"; thirty-two quarto leaves, ending with Gibbon's departure from Lausanne for Italy in 1764. This sketch is obviously intimately related to the two following, which have very little independent value, and Dr. Greenhill seems to be right in determining, on critical grounds drawn from the marginal corrections, that this, the more lengthy version, is the earlier. The date is roughly fixed by the statement that it was "two [on an erasure of "three"] years" since he received John Gibbon's book (in A, "not two years"), by the mention of Hester Gibbon as still living (she d. June, 1790), and by the description of Necker as "the minister and perhaps the legislator of the French Monarchy" (he was Director-General 25 Aug. 1788, but the phrase would be more natural in 1789). Giving more detail than C and D, B has naturally been largely used by Lord Sheffield. f. 22.

- C. "Memoirs of the life and writings of Edward Gibbon"; twenty-one folio leaves, of which nearly fifteen cover the same ground as B, the rest (from f. 72 b) continuing the narrative to Oct. 1772. The whole is in three sections, viz.: i. 1737-1758, ii. 1758-1770, iii. (incomplete) 1770-1772. The date is fixed in the life-time of Hester Gibbon as before, as "about three years" after the receipt of John Gibbon's book, and (as after 6 Aug. 1789) by the title of "first minister of finance" given to Necker. f. 58.
- D. Without title; seven folio leaves, evidently an abridgement of C, covering precisely the same ground in less detail. There is nothing to fix the posterior limit of date. f. 80.
- E. "My own life": ten folio leaves of text and six of notes. Of these ten two are a yet briefer abridgement of D; the rest continue to 1789, and form the basis of the latter part of the memoirs. Dated Lausanne, 2 Mar. 1791. f. 87.
- F. Without title; forty folio leaves, containing a sketch of the earlier life to a considerable extent independent of the others and nearly all incorporated by Lord Sheffield. It has three chapters on (i) the family, (ii) childhood, (iii) Oxford. The date is after Hester Gibbon's death (see above), but it is unsafe to press the phrase "after the lapse of forty years" used in speaking of Oxford. Gibbon seems to have intended to add notes to this sketch, and the scraps of paper (ff. 124-129) contain outlines from which they were to be drawn up. f. 103.
- At the end are a few miscellaneous papers, viz.: (a) a fragment of a memoir in French. Holograph. f. 130;—(b) a small scrap of notes or annals of events in Gibbon's life, 1753-1758. Hologr. f. 132;—(c) Original hologr. will, dated Sheffield Place, 14 July, 1788, marked as "cancelled" (see the final will, 1 Oct. 1791, in Add. 34,715, f. 15, and a copy below, 34,887, f. 26); with seal, the signature cut out. f. 133;—(d) Letter of Thomas Dampier, Bishop of Rochester, to Lord Sheffield, dated Bromley House, 19 July, 1807, concerning matriculations at Cambridge, and enclosing a letter from the Rev. Geo. Borlase, Registrar, to the Provost of King's College, with a table of the numbers matriculated yearly, 1759-1807. f. 135;—(e) A similar table for Oxford, 1700-1800; these being apparently intended for a note to the autobiography. f. 138.
- In the cover is bound up a lock of Gibbon's hair.
- Paper; ff. 139. Folio.

34,875. GIBBON PAPERS. Vol. II. "Journal de mon [Edward Gibbon's] voyage dans quelques endroits de la Suisse," at the age of eighteen; 1755. In French. Partly autograph, partly (ff. 18-22) a copy. The first five pages are both in the original and, appended at the end (f. 23), in the copy. The tour lasted a month, 21 Sept.-20 Oct. 1755, and extended over most of the N.E. cantons (Zurich, Bale, Neuchatel, etc.).

Paper; ff. 24. Small Quarto.

34,876-34,879. GIBBON PAPERS. Vols. III.-VI. Journals of Edward Gibbon; 17 Aug. 1762-Dec. 1764. Written partly in French, partly in English. Autograph. Four volumes. There were originally five, beginning with 24 Aug. 1761, but the first volume is now lost. Excerpts were printed by Lord Sheffield in two portions of his edition of Gibbon's Works, viz. biographical particulars in the notes to the memoir (vol. i. of each edition), and literary and historical memoranda separately (vol. ii. ed. 1796, vol. v. ed. 1814). The former has the French text with a translation, the latter the translation only. Paper. Octavo. The contents of the several volumes are:—

34,876. Journal. Vol. I. (f. 64), 17 Aug. 1762-Mar. 1763, entitled "Ephemerides or Journal of my actions, studies and opinions. Volume the second." The first part, which is in English, is a regular diary of the last few months of Gibbon's militia service, etc., ending 28 Jan. 1763, when he reached Paris. Here he adds a note explaining his reason for continuing in French and in less detail, the narrative being written six months after the events and purporting to give an "Idée generale de mon sejour à Paris." It ends abruptly.

34,877. Journal. Vol. II. (ff. 97), 17 Aug.-30 Nov. 1763 (part of his second visit to Lausanne), entitled "Ephemerides ou Journal de ma Vie de mes Etudes et de mes Sentimens, vol. iii." In French. The volume is particularly full of literary and historical notes.

34,878. Journal. Vol. III. (ff. 99), 1 Dec. 1763-15 June 1764, completing the period of his stay at Lausanne, and including the first part of his Italian tour. French.

34,879. Journal. Vol. IV. (ff. 83), 15 June-Dec. 1764, containing a further portion of the tour in Italy. The diary, in French as before, continues, with some omissions, to the arrival at Rome, 2 Oct. The notes on Rome, written in December, are in English and arranged by subjects or places.

34,880-34,882. GIBBON PAPERS. Vols. VII.-IX. Miscellaneous Works and Commonplace Books of Edward Gibbon, mostly printed in the

Miscellaneous Works. Three Volumes. Holograph, except where otherwise noted. Contents:—

- 34,880. Miscellaneous Works. Vol. I. 1. Early commonplace book, begun at Lausanne, 19 Mar. 1755, and probably all written before 1758. Chiefly French, but some of the earlier extracts are translated into very defective English. Excerpts are printed in the Misc. Works (ed. 1814), vol. v., pp. 487–522. f. 1.
2. Various observations and essays, written at Lausanne or Buriton, 1756–1758. In French. f. 84. The chief of these are: (a) Notes on the Mémoires posthumes of M. [Jean Philippe Loys] de Chéseaux, dated 10 Dec. 1756, printed vol. v. p. 48. f. 86;—(b) On passages of Virgil, two tracts dated 1 Apr. and 13 May, 1757 (vol. iv. pp. 441, 446). ff. 90, 93;—(c) On a passage in the “Poenulus” of Plautus (iii. 3, 50), dated 4 May, 1757 (vol. iv. p. 435). f. 101;—(d) On the date of Catullus’s death, n. d. [1757, cf. the correspondence with Gesner, vol. i. p. 486]. f. 104;—(e) On an early census of the population of Rome, dated 25 Oct. 1757, not printed. f. 107;—(f) On certain prodigies, dated 10 Nov. 1757 (vol. v. p. 53). f. 111;—(g) On Caesar’s sacerdotal office, n. d. (vol. v. p. 61). f. 113;—(h) Comparative table of Newton’s and the vulgar chronologies, and comments on Newton’s work, dated 13 Jan. 1758 (vol. iii. p. 150). f. 116;—(i) Extract concerning ancient measures, not printed. f. 124;—(k) Extract from [Jean Philippe René] de La Bleterie on the succession to the Roman empire, dated 20 Feb. 1758 (vol. iii. p. 169). f. 126;—(l) “Reflexions sur l’Étude des Belles-Lettres,” begun at Lausanne, 20 Mar. 1758; this is part of the first draft of the “Essai sur l’Étude de la Littérature,” printed in 1761. Other portions of the MS. will be found below (ff. 150, 175). f. 130;—(m) Remarks on Sallust, Caesar, Nepos and Livy, of earlier date, being begun 19 Jan. 1756 (vol. iv. p. 399). f. 142 b;—(n) Continuation of the “Essai” (see above, f. 130), with additional passages for insertion. ff. 150–159;—(o) Further extracts from the Abbé de la Bleterie, not printed. f. 158.
3. “Extraits raisonnés de mes Lectures”: two note-books, in use from 14 Mar. 1761 to 12 Sept. 1762. Besides the preface (f. 160) and diary (ff. 187, 188) of reading from 24 Aug. 1761 to 8 Feb. 1762 (vol. v. pp. 209–216), they contain several tracts printed separately, viz.: (a) “Recherches critiques sur le titre qu’auroit Charles VIII à la couronne de Naples,” dated 14 Apr. 1761 (vol. iii. p. 206). f. 164;—(b) An addition to

- the "Essai" (see above, art. 2, 1), dated 23 Apr. 1761. f. 175;—(c) "Idée de quelques sujets pour une composition historique," dated 26 July, 1761 (vol. v. p. 487). f. 185. These three are in French;—(d) Criticism on [Dr. Richard] Hurd's edition of Horace's Ars Poetica (2nd ed., Cambridge, 1757), dated Devizes, 8 Feb. 1762. f. 189;—(e) Notes on the anonymous Vita Homeri (ed. T. Gale, Amstelod. 1688), dated Beriton, 12 Sept. 1762. French. Not printed. f. 219.
4. "Recueil de mes observations et pièces détachées sur differens sujets": a similar note-book, in use 23 Dec. 1763 to 29 Dec. 1764. It contains: (a) Four essays on Epic Catalogues, Silius Italicus, Journey to Brundisium, etc., and Ovid's Fasti, dated 23–25 Dec. 1763 and n. d. (vol. iv. pp. 327–358). f. 220;—(b) Remarks on Addison's Dialogue upon Medals (vol. v. p. 35). f. 226 b;—(c) Remarks on L. Guazzesi, Lettera Critica, etc., to Dr. Antonio Cocchi (Arezzo, 1752), dated 5 Aug. 1764 (vol. iii. p. 222). f. 227 b;—(d) On Roman triumphs, dated 28 Nov. –13 Dec. 1764 (vol. iv. p. 359). f. 230;—(e) On a MS. treatise by Abbate Giovanni Vincenzo Gravina, Del Governo Civile di Roma (Naples, 1828), dated 29 Dec. 1764 (vol. v. p. 39). f. 238 b.
 5. "Outlines of the History of the World," from the 9th to the 15th century inclusive (vol. iii. p. 1); assigned by Lord Sheffield to 1758–1763, apparently from the character of handwriting only, though this seems to suggest a somewhat later date. f. 239.
 6. Two papers (not autograph), viz.: (a) Note on the Man in the Iron Mask, dated 27 May, 1774 (vol. v. p. 41). f. 260;—(b) "Digression on the Character of Brutus" (vol. iv. p. 95). f. 264.
 7. Autograph scraps containing extracts, chronological tables, lists of books, etc., mostly written while Gibbon was working at the History. One (f. 290) is the beginning of a projected classed catalogue of his library. ff. 273–293.
 8. "Antiquities of the House of Brunswick"; printed, with some excisions, in vol. iii. p. 358. f. 294.
 9. On the position of the Meridional Line and an Inquiry into the supposed circumnavigation of Africa by the ancients; with some additional notes in the hand of Dr. William Vincent, Dean of Westminster (1802–1815). Both are printed in vol. v. pp. 170, 595. f. 355.
 10. "An Address," etc.: letter recommending the proposed publication of "Rerum Anglicarum Scriptores" under the editorship of John Pinkerton; printed, with a letter from Pinkerton, vol. iii. p. 559. f. 367.
Paper; ff. 377. Folio.

34,881. Miscellaneous Works. Vol. II. Contents:—

1. "Principes des Poids, des Monnages et des Mesures des Anciens, avec des tables construites sur ces principes": unfinished drafts of two treatises (the second including medieval Europe) written in 1759, printed in vol. v. p. 66. At the end are additional drafts of some portions. Some notes belonging to f. 1 will be found at f. 64 b. French. f. 1.
2. "Remarques critiques sur le nombre des habitans dans la cité des Sybarites"; written between 1758 and 1763 (vol. iii. p. 178). Fr. f. 62.
3. "Du Gouvernement Féodal, surtout en France"; probably about the same date (ibid. p. 183). Fr. f. 65.
4. "Mémoire sur la Monarchie des Mèdes pour servir de supplément aux dissertations de MM. Fréret et de Bougainville"; written about the same date (ibid. p. 56). Fr. f. 76.
5. "Nomina Gentesque Antiquae Italiae"; written 1763–1764 (vol. iv. p. 157). Fr. f. 121 b.
6. "Introduction à l'Histoire Générale de la République des Suisses"; written in 1767 (see the Memoirs and letter from Hume, with a supplementary note on the Tell legend by — von Haller, son of Gottlieb Emmanuel von Haller, who began the attack on its authenticity (vol. iii. p. 239). Fr. f. 169 b.
7. "Relation des Noces de Charles, Duc de Bourgogne, avec la Princesse Marguerite, sœur d'Edward IV., Roi d'Angleterre"; probably written circ. 1770 (ibid. p. 202). Fr. f. 215.
8. Critical abstract of Blackstone's Commentaries, bk. i.; written about 1770. A few excerpts are printed, vol. v. p. 545. f. 216 b.
9. Another copy (not autograph) of the "Digression on the Character of Brutus" (see above, 34,880, f. 264). f. 242.

At the end are some notes on the Antiquities of the House of Brunswick (f. 249) and on the English Universities (f. 250), a printed speech to the electors of Petersfield, 1761 (f. 251), and two official returns concerning the population, etc., of France, viz.: (a) "État des sépultures par ordonnances de Police, des supplices, et des Bannissemens hors du Royaume survenus dans les Généralités cy-après désignées (année commune de 1773 à 1775 inclusivement)" and (b) Statistics of births in French cities (similar annual average, 1770–1774), with an estimate of population derived from these data. ff. 252–253.

Paper; ff. 253. Folio.

34,882. Miscellaneous Works. Vol. III. Contents:—

1. "Remarques critiques sur un passage de Plaute," see above, 34,880, art. 2 c; another copy, not autograph. Fr. f. 1.

2. Letter to —, on the Government of Berne, probably circ. 1758 (printed, vol. ii. p. 1). Fr. f. 4.
3. "Doutes Historiques sur la Vie et le Regne du Roi Richard III, par M. Horace Walpole, 1768"; not autograph. Written for the Mémoires Britanniques in 1768, and reprinted in Misc. Works, vol. iii. p. 331. Fr. f. 11.
4. "Index Expurgatorius"; written circ. 1768-9 (with two exceptions, in vol. v. p. 548). f. 27.
5. Brief note of a conversation on immortality between G[ibbon?] and H[olroyd?]. f. 49.
6. "L'étude de la Littérature"; notes, not autograph, of additions apparently intended for a new edition. Fr. f. 51.
7. Lists of authorities cited and places mentioned in the History: five separate note-books, in three of which the names and references have been taken down in order as they occur in the volumes, while the other two contain the names alphabetically arranged but without references. f. 60.
8. Small memoranda for the History as published and for additions and corrections which the author never completed. f. 160.
9. "Hints," written on cards (vol. v. p. 536), followed by a few other similar notes, commonplaces, and memoranda. f. 187.
10. Autobiographical memoranda: three cards (ff. 253-255), the first containing notes for "sect. iv." and "sect. v.," probably of memoir C (see above, 34,874), and the other two notes of journeys to and from Switzerland, etc., and (f. 256) a paper containing "reasons for and against accepting" a diplomatic post at Paris.
11. A printed sheet (LL) of the Miscellaneous Works (ed. 1814). f. 257.
12. A narrative of the war in Switzerland in 1476 from P. Matthieu's Histoire de Louis XI. Not in Gibbon's hand. Fr. f. 265.
Paper; ff. 273. Folio.

34,883-34,885. GIBBON PAPERS. Vols. X.-XII. Original Letters (a few are drafts) of Edward Gibbon; 1750-1794. The great majority are addressed either to Lord Sheffield or to Gibbon's step-mother, but there are also letters to his father, his aunts Miss Porten and Hester Gibbon, Lady Sheffield and her daughter Maria, George Deyverdun, Dr. Priestley (three drafts), Dr. Robertson (draft) and others. Three volumes. Folio. Vol. I. (ff. 372), 1750-1774; —Vol. II. (ff. 329), 1775-17 Sept. 1783 (when Gibbon left England for Lausanne); —Vol. III. (ff. 236), 18 Sept. 1783-1794.

Selections are printed in vols. i. and ii. (1814 ed.) of the Miscell. Works.

34,886. GIBBON PAPERS. Vol. XIII. Original letters addressed to Edward Gibbon; 1755–1794. The names of the writers will be found in the index. They include, besides his family and intimate friends, Madlle. Curchod, both before and after her marriage, her husband Jacques Necker and her daughter Madame de Staël, etc., the following well-known personages:—David Garrick; David Hume; Sir William Jones; Sir John Macpherson (ex-Governor-General of India); Frederic, Lord North; Dr. Joseph Priestley; Dr. William Robertson; Adam Smith; Edward, Lord Thurlow; Horace Walpole; and Alexander Wedderburn, Lord Loughborough.
Paper; ff. 435. Folio.

34,887. GIBBON PAPERS. Vol. XIV. Miscellaneous Papers and Letters relating to Gibbon and his family or to his friend and executor Lord Sheffield. The principal contents are:—

1. Documents, accompts, etc., concerning Edw. Gibbon personally, including (a) Certificate of admission as a Freemason, 19 Dec. 1774. Partly vellum. f. 1;—(b) Accompts and agreements with Strahan and Cadell for the publication of the History, the latter dated 1 June, 1780 and 16 Aug. 1787. ff. 3–6, 10–13;—(c) Power of attorney to Lord Sheffield, 6 Sept. 1783, followed by two others (1789, 1790), with private accompts and notes of hand, the last on the backs of playing-cards. ff. 7–9, 14–25;—(d) Copy of Gibbon's will, dated Lausanne, 1 Oct. 1791. (See the original, Add. 34,715, f. 15.) f. 26.
2. Materials relating to Gibbon, collected by Lord Sheffield, including (a) An unsigned account of his childhood and personal habits. f. 40;—(b) Account of his illness and death (derived from his valet), and medical report on the post-mortem examination. ff. 28, 42;—(c) "Contents of Mr. Gibbon's MSS. Book i."; this is a list of papers not included in the present collection. f. 46.
3. Genealogical papers relating to the Gibbon family, including a letter from Samuel Egerton Brydges [1st Bart., 1814] to Gibbon, dated 14 Aug. 1793 (f. 57), numerous pedigrees, arms, and notes. f. 48.
4. Letters, the most important of which are as follows:—(a) M. Pavillard, Gibbon's tutor, to Gibbon's father; 1753–1758. Fr. Seven letters;—(b) J. B. Holroyd [afterwards Lord Sheffield] to his relations in England during his travels; 9 May, 1763–10 Jan. 1766. Thirty-three letters;—(c) Gibbon's father to James Scott; 23, 26 Feb. 1769;—(d) G. Deyverdun to Mrs. Gibbon, 19 June, 1775, and to Lord Sheffield, 30 Sept. 1783. Fr.;—(e) Correspondence of Lord Sheffield with Mrs. Gibbon; 1782-1787. Eight letters;—(f) Hester Gibbon to Lord Sheffield; Cliff, 7 July, 1788;—(g) Jacques Necker to Lord Sheffield; Copet, 8 Sept. 1791;—(h) [Trophime Gérard, Marquis de] Lally-Tollendal and other émigrés to Lord and Lady Sheffield; 1792-1793. Thirty-four letters. French (except one);—(i) Correspondence of Lord Sheffield with his publishers and others, relating to the publication of the Miscellaneous Works, 1794-1819;—(k) Dr. Samuel Parr to Lord Sheffield, concerning Gibbon's epitaph, 1797. Three letters:—(l) Dr. W. A. Greenhill to the 2nd Earl of Sheffield, 27 Jan. 1872. The names of the writers, with references, will be found in the index.

Paper (except f. 2); ff. 405. Folio.

34,888, 34,889. CORRESPONDENCE and papers of the family of Paston, of Paston, co. Norfolk, during the reigns of Henry VI.—Henry VII., supplementing the collection in Add. MSS. 27,443-27,446. This portion comprises the letters published (but not in their integrity) in 1789 in vols. iii. and iv. of Original Letters, edited by Sir John Fenn, from which source they were reprinted by James Gairdner in his Paston Letters, 1872-1875, and also those of which abstracts alone are given by Gairdner in Appendix III. to the Paston Letters. The names of the writers are given in the index. Paper; ff. 221, 232. xvth cent. Belonged to John Tudor Frere, of Roydon Hall, Norfolk. Large Quarto.

34,890. THE FOUR GOSPELS, in Latin, of the Vulgate version; with the chapters, Ammonian sections and references to the Eusebian canons marked in the margins.

Preceded by: (1) "Epistola sanctissimi Hieronimi presbiteri ad Damasum," etc., beg. "Nouum opus me cogis facere." f. 1;—(2) Prologus eiusdem," beg. "Plures fuisse." f. 2 b;—(3) "Epistola Eusebii ad Carpianum," beg. "... Ammonius quidam." f. 4;—(4) "Hieronimus Damaso papae," beg. "Sciendum etiam." f. 5;—(5) "Praefatio sancti Victoris episcopi Capuae ciuitatis," beg. "Cum fortuitu in manus meas": the preface of Victor, Bishop of Capua, to his Latin version of Tatian's Diatessaron. f. 5 b. Before each Gospel is the usual argument, "Matheus ex Iudæa" (f. 7 b), etc., and a table of chapters. St. Matthew is divided into 28 chapters, but, a leaf being lost after f. 9, the table, which begins "Natiuitas Christi. Magi cum muneribus" (f. 8), ends with ch. xxv., "De ouibus a dextris." The table of St. Mark (13 chapters) begins (f. 46) "De Ioh. Bapt. et uictu et habitu eius"; two leaves being lost after f. 46, it ends with ch. x.,

"De peccatis fratrum remittendis" (properly part of ch. ix.). "Interrogatus," etc. The tables of St. Luke (xxi., beg. "Zacharias uiso angelo," f. 70) and St. John (xiv., beg. "Phariseorum leuita," f. 113 b) are complete.

Of the text of the Gospels the following passages are missing :—Matt. vii. 22 "et in nomine—ix. 18,—sed veni" (two leaves lost after f. 17); Mark i. 1–16 (two leaves lost after f. 46); Luke i. 1–2, "ipsi viderunt" (the text within the border not filled in). The Gospels are followed (f. 145 b) by a "Capitulatio Evangeliorum" or table of Lessons throughout the year, beg. "In vigilia Domini de nocte," and ending "die xxiiii mensis Decembris." The names of no specially English saints are included. At the end (f. 158), in a different but contemporary English hand, is a copy of a letter from Fulk, Archbishop of Reims, to King Alfred, recommending Grimbald, a monk of St. Bertin, who was invited by Alfred to England (circ. 893), where he became first Abbot of Newminster, Winchester, dedicated in 903. He died in the same year and was venerated as a saint. The letter was printed from this MS. by F. Wise in his edition of Asser's Annales, Oxford, 1722, p. 123 (cf. preface, and below). See also E. Edwards, Liber de Hyda, 1866, p. 31.

Vellum; ff. 161. Written in England, probably at Newminster, Winchester (see above), early in the xith cent. With initials in gold; and titles in red, blue and gold uncials. The opening words of each Gospel are in gold capitals, with an elaborate initial, enclosed within a highly decorated border of gold, silver, and colours; and on the opposite verso page is a miniature of the Evangelist within a similar border. In the case of St. Mark the two ornamented leaves are lost (see above), and in St. Luke only the initial Q has been written in. The finest borders are those of St. John (ff. 114 b, 115), which include figures of Christ and the Virgin and numerous angels, saints, kings, etc., in the best style of English art of the 11th cent. The borders of St. Matthew and St. Luke are of a more conventional design, with clusters of foliage at the corners. The Evangelists are represented seated at desks, with their eyes directed towards their respective emblems. The draperies are of blue, green and pale lilac, St. Matthew and St. John having under-tunics of gold. The use of silver (now much tarnished) in the borders, as well as gold, is noteworthy. The letter of Archbishop Fulk is in a more characteristically English hand than the rest of the MS. In the initial G, of red, blue and green, is depicted a man fighting with a dragon and a wolf-like animal. The volume is bound in oak-boards, cut flush with the leaves and bevelled at the edges, attached to the back by thongs of white skin. On ff. 1, 161 is written "Tho. Ford his Book," with the date 1721. Ford was vicar of Banwell, Somerset, and Prebendary of Wells (see Wise, op. cit.). The MS. subsequently belonged to the family of Carew, of Crowcombe Court, Somerset. $12\frac{3}{4} \times 9\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Essex, dat. 26 —, 15 Chas. [II., 1663]. Bookplates of Horace Walpole [4th Earl of Orford, 1791] and James R. Scott. Quarto. Presented by Sir A. Wollaston Franks, K.C.B.

THE NELSON PAPERS.

34,902-34,992. CORRESPONDENCE and papers of Admiral Horatio Nelson, Baron Nelson (1798), Viscount Nelson and Duke of Bronte (1801).

The collection passed on Nelson's death (21 Oct. 1805) to his brother, the Rev. William Nelson (cr. Earl Nelson 20 Nov. 1805); and on the death of the latter (1835) it descended, together with his own correspondence (see 34,992), to his daughter and heir Charlotte, wife of Samuel Hood, 2nd Baron Bridport. It was purchased for the nation, by a special grant of Parliament, from her son Alexander Nelson Hood, Viscount Bridport (cr. 1868).

While in the possession of Earl Nelson the Nelson papers were freely used by the Rev. J. S. Clarke and J. McArthur for their Life of Admiral Lord Nelson, K.B., from his Lordship's Manuscripts, 1809. Subsequently Sir N. Harris Nicolas also had access to them for The Dispatches and Letters of Vice Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, 1844-1846; but some portions (since recovered) could not then be found, and for their contents he was compelled to rely upon Clarke and McArthur's extracts.

The collection is now divided into ninety-one volumes, arranged as follows:—

34,902. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. I. Autograph letters and papers of Lord Nelson, written for the most part when on active service; 1786-1805. For his private and family correspondence, v. Add. 34,988. The letters, which are holograph copies or drafts, are addressed, among others, to Prince William Henry, Duke of Clarence [King William IV., 1830], Earl Spencer, 1st Lord of the Admiralty, and Admirals Lord Hood, William Hotham and Sir John Jervis [Earl of St. Vincent, 1797]; the papers consist of personal memoranda, drafts of official instructions, notes of occurrences, etc. Four letters (ff. 185, 190, 194, 196) are in Lady Hamilton's hand. Included are:—

1. Statement of conversations with the Duke of Clarence, commanding the Pegasus, at Dominica; Dec. 1786. f. 1.
2. List of the French line-of-battle ships in Toulon, with names of the commanders and remarks on their antecedents and political principles; August, 1793. f. 42.
Journal of Nelson's proceedings, 24 Feb.-31 Mar. 1794, immediately before the siege of Bastia. [Quoted by Sir N. H. Nicolas in the Dispatches and Letters, ed. 1844-6, as Journal B, v. vol. i. p. 348, note.] f. 44.
4. Brief notes of services, 19 Aug. 1793-13 July, 1794. [Quoted, op. cit. p. 349, as Journal A, but said to begin 21 Jan. 1794.] f. 51.
5. "Transactions on Board His Majesty's ship Agamemnon and of the Fleet, as seen and known by Captain Nelson," 8-14 March, 1795, containing an account of Adm. Hotham's engagement with the French fleet, 13, 14 March. f. 54.
6. "A few remarks relative to myself in the Captain, in which my Pendant was flying on the most glorious Valentine's day, 1797" [the battle of Cape St. Vincent]; followed by a copy of a similar, but not identical, account signed by himself, Capt. Ralph Willett Miller and Capt. E[dward] Berry. ff. 116, 119.
7. "Services performed this War by Capt. Nelson of His Majesty's

- ship Agamemnon," 19 Aug. 1793-14 Feb. 1797; followed by a similar account, with the addition of "particular services I have been employed upon by Admiral Lord Hood, Admiral Hotham and Sir John Jervis, the Three Commanders of the Mediterranean Fleet," to 25 July, 1797. ff. 123, 125.
8. Rear-Adm. Nelson to "The Governor or Commanding Officer at Santa Cruz," in Teneriffe, with terms of capitulation, etc.; [20 July, 1797]. f. 141.
9. Nelson to Earl of St. Vincent, after losing his arm in the attack on Santa Cruz; Theseus, 16 Aug. 1797. "... A left-handed Admiral will never again be considered as useful, therefore the sooner I get to a very humble cottage the better and make room for a better man to serve the State"; Theseus, 16 Aug. 1797. [Probably the earliest letter of Nelson written with his left hand now known to exist.] f. 150.
10. "Memorandum of what passed with the Deputies of the Island of Malta and myself"; 24 Oct. [1798]. f. 158.
11. Journal, 26 Feb.-10 Mar. [1800]. ff. 175-177.
12. Nelson to Pope Pius VII., congratulating him on his return to Rome, etc.; Leghorn, 24 June, 1800. f. 179.
13. Nelson to [Sir John Eamer,] Lord Mayor of London, on the neglect of the Corporation to recognise the services of the fleet at Copenhagen, 20 Nov. 1801, 21 June, 8 Sept. 1802; followed by his letter to the Lord Mayor Elect and Sheriffs declining, on the same ground, their invitation to the Guildhall banquet, 8 Nov. 1802. ff. 183, 190, 192, 194.
14. Instructions to Capt. [Hon. Henry] Blackwood; Victory, off Cadiz, 20 Oct. 1805. Signed. f. 215.
Paper; ff. 219. Folio.

34,903-34,932. NELSON PAPERS. Vols. II.-XXXI. General correspondence of Lord Nelson, consisting chiefly of original letters, reports, etc., addressed to him when on active service, 1762-1805, but especially from 1793, when in the Mediterranean under Lord Hood and the Earl of St. Vincent, commanders-in-chief, and when he was himself in command of the Mediterranean Fleet in 1803-1805. Arranged chronologically in thirty volumes. Paper. Folio. The names of the writers appear in the index. The extreme dates of the several volumes are as follows:—

34,937. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. XXXVI. Original letters and signed official orders to Lord Nelson, from Admiral Samuel Hood, Viscount Hood; 1784-1797. Except a few at the beginning and end, the letters are confined to the period of Lord Hood's command of the Fleet in the Mediterranean, 1793-1794 (Nelson then being Captain of the Agamemnon), and relate to the blockade of Corsica, which began in January, 1794, and ended with the surrender of Calvi in the following August. Paper; ff. 209. Folio.

34,938-34,940. NELSON PAPERS. Vols. XXXVII.-XXXIX. Original letters of Sir John Jervis, Earl of St. Vincent; 1795-1801. Three volumes. Vols. I., II. and III., ff. 1-126, contain letters written by him, as Commander-in-Chief of the Mediterranean Fleet [Nov. 1795-June, 1799], to Lord Nelson, who was with the fleet with various commands during nearly the whole of that period. Lord St. Vincent was appointed to the command of the Channel Fleet at the end of 1799, and Vol. III., ff. 138-226, contains his General Orders to his Captains, etc., Jan. 1800-Jan. 1801, followed by (a) a few letters to Lord Nelson, then Vice-Admiral and second in command (ff. 227-244), and (b) four letters (three of them addressed to Lord Nelson) from Lieut. James Vivion, R.A., written from Malta, 31 May-1 July, 1799, on the state of that island (ff. 249-257). Included in the same volume (f. 247) is a draft, corrected by his own hand, of Lord Nelson's General Letter to the Captains, Officers, etc., employed in the unsuccessful attempt on the French fleet off Boulogne on 15-16 August, 1801. Paper; ff. 283, 200, 258. Folio.

34,941-34,951. NELSON PAPERS. Vols. XL.-L. Foreign correspondence and papers, connected chiefly with the two periods of Lord Nelson's command in the Mediterranean, viz., 1798-1800 and 1803-

1805, and consisting of letters addressed to him by officers and others connected with the allied army, memorials and petitions to him from French and Italian prisoners or their friends, reports of secret intelligence, intercepted letters, official and private, found on board the ships of the French and Italian Republics, etc.; 1792-1805. Paper. Folio. Eleven volumes, arranged chronologically, as follows:—

| 34,956. Vol. LV. (V. ff. 413). 25 May-25 Aug. 1804. | |

At the beginning of each volume is a rough alphabetical list of names of the persons to whom the letters are addressed. Vol. VII. formerly belonged to, and was presented to the Museum by, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Sir H. Nicolas used none of these letter-books, with the exception of the latter part of Vol. VII., 18 June-16 Aug. 1805 (ff. 381-462), which was then separate from the rest of the volume, and in the possession of John Wilson Croker, Secretary to the Admiralty. Nicolas, however, printed many of the letters from originals and other sources. At the end of Vol. IX. were inserted loose two letters (pressed copies) from Lord Nelson to William Haslewood (one of his executors), both dated Victory, 7 May, 1805 (now inserted in their proper sequence in Vol. VIII. ff. 355, 357), and one relating to two codicils to his will in favour of Lady Hamilton (cf. Pettigrew, Memoirs, etc., of Lord Nelson, ed. 1849, ii. p. 472). Paper; Quarto and Folio.

34,961. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. LX. Letter-book of Lord Nelson, containing copies of letters sent and received, 22 Oct. 1781-5 May, 1786. The first eleven letters from Nelson were written from H.M.S. Albemarle, 22 Oct. 1781-11 Nov. 1782, the remainder from H.M.S. Boreas, to which Nelson was appointed in March, 1784, for service in the West Indies. At the other end, reversing the volume, are copies of letters received by him between the same dates (1781-1786), with a few of his replies and one autograph draft to Adm. Sir Richard Hughes, 8 Sept. 1784 (f. 35 b). The MS. was apparently not used by Sir N. H. Nicolas, though he includes some of the letters from other sources. Paper; ff. 49. Folio.

34,962. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. LXI. Letter-book of Lord Nelson, containing copies of letters written by him when commanding H.M.S. Agamemnon in the Gulf of Genoa (see f. 9 b), 18 July-21 Nov. 1795. Three of the copies (ff. 2, 8 b, 13) and a few memoranda (f. 6) are in his own hand. Some of the letters are printed by Sir N. H. Nicolas, but from the originals. Paper; ff. 53. Folio.

34,963. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. LXII. Letter-book of Lord Nelson, containing copies of his letters and despatches to [John Jervis,] Earl of St. Vincent, [George John Spencer,] Earl Spencer, First Lord of the Admiralty, Sir William Hamilton and others, 17 May, 1798-20 Nov. 1799. On f. 10, at the end of a letter of 22 July, 1798 (a few days before the Battle of the Nile), to "The Commander of any of His Majesty's Ships," is the following note in the hand of Lady Hamilton: "The Queens letter privatly got by me got him and his fleet victuled and waterd in a few days. Emma Hamilton." Sir N. H. Nicolas has printed many letters from this and the following letter-book. At the end is an alphabetical index of names arranged chronologically under each letter. Paper; ff. 195. Folio.

34,964. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. LXIII. Letter-book of Lord Nelson, containing copies of his letters and despatches to Sir E. Nepean, Bart., Secretary to the Admiralty, the various officers of the Mediterranean Fleet under his command, and others, 20 May, 1803-6 Oct. 1804. Paper; ff. 125. Folio.

34,965. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. LXIV. Letter-book of Lord Nelson, containing a selection from his other letter-books and correspondence (cf. a pencilled note on f. 1 by Rev. James Stanier Clarke, joint-author of The Life of Adm. Lord Nelson), 10 June, 1803-23 July, 1805. Not used directly by Sir N. H. Nicolas. Preceded by an alphabetical index of names arranged chronologically under each letter.

Paper; ff. 91. Folio.

34,966-34,968. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. LXV.-LXVII. Private Diary of Lord Nelson when on board the Amphion and Victory in command of the Mediterranean Fleet, 24 July, 1803-18 Aug. 1805. Holograph. This is probably the "Diary" or "Private Journal" from which extracts are given by Clarke and McArthur, though the extracts are not verbatim (cf. extracts for 25-31 Oct. 1803 in Vol. II. p. 499, ed. 1840). Sir N. H. Nicolas, who quotes the extracts made by Clarke and McArthur, states that "this private Journal has not been found" (Nelson Dispatches, vol. v. p. 273, ed. 1845). The Diary, which begins 24 July, 1803, and practically ends with the anchoring of the Victory at Spithead, 18 Aug. 1805, consists of thirteen small memorandum-books numbered 2-13, with one, containing a few notes made apparently in October, 1805, unnumbered. No. 1, which contains the diary from 18 May, 1803, when Nelson took command of the Fleet at Spithead, to 23 July, 1803, is missing (but see below, Add.35,191); and that another book is missing at the end, containing the diary for the remaining portion of Nelson's life, is apparent from the fact that extracts from the "Private Diary" of a later date than 18 August, 1805, are given in the above-mentioned and other printed works. Three volumes. Vol. I. (nos. 2-6), 24 July, 1803-5 July, 1804. Included are:—(a) (reversing the volume) Similar notes of events on 11-20 July, 1803. f. 17;—(b) Lists of "Prizes and supposed value" taken 21 May-5 Aug. [1803]. f. 55;—(c) Names of officers recommended to Lord Nelson. f. 64. Vol. II. (nos. 7-10), 6 July, 1804-5 Mar. 1805. Included are Tables drawn up by Capt. William Tatum, "Assistant Adjutant General of the Windward and Leeward Colonies," showing the proportion of officers and men dead or invalided to Europe, 1 Mar. 1796-31 Dec. 1802. f. 31. Vol. III. (11-13, and no number), 6 Mar.-18 Aug. 1805. Included are: (a) Plan, "belongs to Capt. Cockburn," of the harbour of Lampedosa, by William Surney. f. 2;—(b) Table of the "Latitudes and Longitudes from which the actual position of the Esquerquies are fixed." f. 28;—(c) Accounts of "Sick and wounded prisoners of war at Fort Royal, Martinique," 1 Mar. 1796-15 Sept. 1802, and of "Seamen and Marines received as patients into the Naval Hospital

- at Fort Royal," 22 Aug. 1795-15 Sept. 1802. ff. 50, 50 b;—(d) Return of deaths of rank and file and of officers, in the Windward and Leeward Islands, 1796-1799. f. 51.
Paper; ff. 87, 76, 71. Small Octavo.
- 34,969. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. LXVIII. Signal-Log of H.M.S. Amphion, 8-30 July, 1803, followed (f. 7) by the Signal-Log of H.M.S. Victory, 31 July, 1803-26 April, 1804. Nelson shifted his flag from the Amphion to the Victory on 31 July, 1803.
Paper; ff. 90. Folio.
- 34,970. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. LXIX. Order-Book of Lord Nelson, Commander-in-Chief in the Mediterranean, on the Amphion and Victory, 30 May, 1803-24 Oct. 1804, being copies of orders issued by Lord Nelson or by Capt. [Rear-Admiral, 24 Apr. 1804] George Murray, his First Captain of the Fleet, to the respective captains and commanders of vessels.
Paper; ff. 34. Folio.
- 34,971. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. LXX. Log-Book of Lord Nelson on board H.M.S. Victory, 20 Jan.-12 Mar. 1805. It is not identical with the "Victory's Log" quoted by Sir N. H. Nicolas in the Nelson Dispatches.
Paper; ff. 42. Folio.
- 34,972. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. LXXI. Register of Commissions issued by Lord Nelson on board H.M.S. Victory, 14 Dec. 1804-19 Oct. 1805.
Paper; ff. 21. Folio.
- 34,973. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. LXXII. "Proceedings of the Fleet" under Lord Nelson, 14 Sept. (the beginning of his last cruise)-2 Oct. 1805.
Paper; ff. 9. Folio.
- 34,974. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. LXXIII. Log of H.M.S. Vanguard, bearing the flag of Rear-Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson, 1 Aug.-30 Nov. 1798; recording, inter alia, the Battle of the Nile, 1 Aug. (f. 3), Nelson's arrival at Naples, 22 Sept. (f. 29), the blockade of Malta, Oct. (ff. 37-40 b), the taking of Leghorn, 29 Nov. (f. 48 b). Followed (f. 50) by "An Account of Stock, Wine, &c., expended weekly on board the Vanguard," 7 Apr.-13 Oct. 1798.
Paper; ff. 55. Folio.
- 34,975-34,987. NELSON PAPERS. Vols. LXXIV.-LXXXVI. Official copies of the Logs of the various vessels composing the Fleet in the Mediterranean, sent to Lord Nelson, Commander-in-Chief, 1803-1805, with two earlier logs in Vol. I., to which are added (Vols. - 34,991. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. XC. "Sketches of the State of manners and opinions in the French Republic, towards the close of the eighteenth century. In a series of Letters." By Helen Maria Williams. The printed edition, London, 1801. Two volumes, now bound in one. In those letters which relate to the Revolution and Counter-Revolution in Naples, 1798–1799, the flight of the King and Court, under Lord Nelson's protection, to Sicily, the subsequent punishment of the rebels, etc., and particularly where his own movements and actions are concerned, Lord Nelson has written in the margins brief but caustic notes on the inaccuracy of Miss Williams's statements. The notes are inserted as follows: Vol. I. pp. 127, 129, 130, 131, 143, 144, 206, 222, 223. Vol. II. pp. 308. 315. There are also pencilled notes in the hand of Rev. J. S. Clarke in Vol. I. pp. 124, 127, 140, 181, Vol. II. p. 306.

34,992. NELSON PAPERS. Vol. XCI. Correspondence of Rev. William Nelson, D.D., vicar of Hilborough, co. Norf. (1797), Prebendary of Canterbury (1803), 1st Earl Nelson (1805-1835), consisting of letters addressed to him, with a few holograph draft replies, but not including letters from or to his brother Viscount Nelson (see above, 34,988); 1799-1835. The names of the writers will be found in the index. Included (f. 3) is a copy of Viscount Nelson's Diary from 13 Sept. 1805 (when he left Merton for Portsmouth) to 21 Oct. (the day of his death), including his last codicil made on that day; with a certificate of its correctness by Earl Nelson, dated 8 Feb. 1806.

Paper; ff. 297. Folio.

34,993-34,995. LETTERS and papers of Julius Schneider, "Königlicher Musikdirector, Professor und Orgelrevisor," relating to the post which he occupied, under the Minister of Religion, in the German Empire. Three volumes. Vols. I. and II. contain chiefly estimates for new organs, or notes of repairs, in numerous German towns, with letters from organ-builders and others interspersed. Vol. III. consists principally of the dimensions of organs and organ-pipes, etc., price-lists, and a few notes and letters. In Vol. III. f. 1, is a list of musical works, probably in the library of Julius Schneider, whose name appears as the composer of some of them, with a note of the number of times they were performed in 1836-1839.

Paper; ff. 23. Circ. 1744. Obl. Folio.

35,022. MEMORANDA and correspondence relating to Bach's Fugues in the preceding volume, beginning (f. 2) with an account by Sarah H. Emett, "How I became possessed of the Bach MS." From this it appears that the MS. was purchased by her father John George Emett at the sale of the effects of Muzio Clementi (ob. 1832). He left it to his son, who parted with it to a half-sister Clarissa [Mrs. Edward] Clarke. The latter sold it to Miss S. H. Emett in 1879, retaining, however, one of the Preludes and Fugues (No. 9). This has since been acquired for the Museum, and is inserted at the end of the volume (f. 22). Nos. 4, 5 and 12, which were also missing, have not been recovered. Miss Emett bequeathed the MS. to Eliza Wesley, on the understanding that it should ultimately come to the British Museum. Included also are letters on the subject of the MS. from:—S. H. Emett to E. Wesley, [1879]. ff. 8, 11, 14;—

W. S. Rockstro to S. H. Emett, with particulars of a visit in 1842 with J. G. Emett to Mendelssohn, who pronounced the MS. to be in Bach's autograph, [1880]. ff. 16, 20, 22.
Paper; ff. 25. Small Quarto.

Purcell. f. 3;—(c) "Tantum Ergo," with bass by V. Novello. f. 14;—(d) "Credo" by Pietro Guglielmi. f. 16;—(e) "Lauda Jerusalem," by a "French priest." f. 18;—(f) Aria by A. Sandron. f. 21;—(g) Pianoforte pieces by Haydn, Tho. Linley, sen., and [Samuel?] Arnold. ff. 23, 24, 25 b;—(h) Violin exercise by Handel. f. 27;—(i) Instrumental Trio by Pergolesi. f. 28;—(k) Violin concerto by G. M. Giornovich and S. Wesley. f. 32.

Paper; ff. 69. XVIII.—XIXth cent. Obl. Folio.

35,025. COLLECTION of minuets, airs, etc., arranged for the pianoforte or harpsichord, apparently in the hand of I. H., whose initials are on f. 2. The names of the composers given are Lady Powis, Handel, Stanley, Felton, Aylward, Scarlatti, Galuppi, Dr. T. A. Arne, Giardini, and J. Baidon. At the end there are two Italian duets, of which the second (f. 28 b) is by S. Wesley and in his autograph, dated 1783.

Paper; ff. 30. XVIIIth cent. Belonged to "Samuel Wesley, 1783." Obl. Folio.

35,026. MUSICAL autograph album of Eliza Wesley, containing short pieces, inscriptions and signatures of numerous composers, musicians, singers and others, English and foreign, written between 1836 and 1895. At the beginning are a few miscellaneous autographs, including (f. 6) some verses by Thomas Hood addressed to Charles Dickens "on his departure for America," 31 Dec. 1841. The names of all the writers are given in the index.
Paper; ff. 73. Quarto.

35,027. COLLECTIONS by Eliza Wesley relating to English and foreign composers, musicians, singers and others, consisting of engraved portraits, photographs, newspaper-cuttings, and other printed matter, with a few original letters, etc. The names are all given in the index.

35,028. GLEES, songs, etc., in score, by Samuel Wesley, copied in 1860 by Eliza Wesley from the originals in the possession of John Wesley.

Paper; ff. 62. Quarto. Presented by Robert Glenn Wesley, Esq.

35,029. FIVE HOLOGRAPH LETTERS of Charles I., viz. :—

1. Charles I. to "Ned Hyde" [cr. Earl of Clarendon, 1661]; Oatlands, 19 Aug. 1647. Hyde's letter from Jersey, 27 July, to which this is an answer, is in the Clarendon State Papers, vol. ii. p. 371, and his reply to the King's, 15 Sept., ib. p. 375. f. 2.
2. Two letters in the King's ordinary hand, unsigned, written from Carisbrooke in response to offers of service. The person addressed (who is not named) was perhaps Henry Firebrace (see Hillier's Narrative of the Attempted Escapes of Charles I., 1852, and the original letters in Egerton MS. 1788). The date is probably before the attempt made about 30 Mar. 1648. The second letter is dated "Saturday night." ff. 3, 4.
3. Letter [to the same?] also in the King's natural hand, unsigned, written apparently after the escape of the Duke of York [21 Apr. 1648], of which the King professes ignorance. f. 5.
4. Letter signed "J," in the feigned hand used by Charles at this time [cf. Egerton MSS. 1533, 1788], and addressed to "L" [Richard Osborne]; Tuesday, 18 July, 1648. It is mentioned as an enclosure in a letter to "D" [H. Firebrace] of the same date (Eg. MS. 1788, f. 32). f. 6.

Included also is :—

5. Letter from an anonymous Cavalier to Charles II., on the state of affairs in England; 13 Mar. [1648]. Written (perhaps in sympathetic ink) on white silk. It represents the Parliamentarians as planning "a presbyterian commonwealth; if a single person, Richard or Monk, you in the last place, if the currant of the nations loyalty beare them downe." f. 7.

The history of the letters is given in a note (f. 1) dated 4 Oct. 1764, by R. Bourk, who says, "They were given to my mother by Mr. George Fairfax, who had them from my Lord Clarendon's family. The letter on white Persian [sc. art. 5] was wrote to his Majesty during the siege of Exeter [this is a mistake: see above]. Given to me by my ever honour'd mother, Jane Fitzgerald."

Paper and silk; ff. 7. Enclosed in a purple velvet bag, with embroidery and silver braid.

35,030. THE FOUR GOSPELS, in Greek; with prologues, tables of κεφάλαια, τίτλοι, Ammonian sections, marginal references to the Eusebian canons, and subscriptions. Preceded by the tables of Eusebian canons, imperfect (f. 1), and by a ἐρμηνεία τῶν τεσσάρων εὐαγγελίων ἀπὸ φωνῆς Θεοφυλάκτου ἀρχιεπισκόπου Βουλγαρίας (f. 6), beg. οἱ μὲν πρὸ τοῦ νόμου ἐκείνοι, ending ἀρξώμεθα δὲ ἤδη τοῦ ἔθνους (Migne, Patr. Graeca, cxxiii. coll. 144-148); followed by short notes on the thirty pieces of silver and the women at the Cross (f. 282 b), and by a Synaxarion, imperfect (f. 283). The table of κεφάλαια to St. Matthew is followed by four στίχοι εἰς τοὺς δ' εὐαγγελιστάς (f. 11 b), beg. ἡ τέτρας ὡδε τῶν μαθητῶν τοῦ λόγου.

Vellum; ff. 284. xiith cent. With well-executed (but much rubbed) miniatures of the Evangelists, the Eusebian tables decorated in colours, headpiece and initial to each Gospel in gold and colours. Small Octavo.

35,031. "THE PEDIGREE of the Bayleys of Willaston, c^o. Chester, and of the various branches of that family, or an account of the descendants of Anthony Bayley, of Batchacre, co. Stafford, compiled by C[harles] W[illiam] Stretton [a descendant], 1894."

Four large paper sheets, 4 ft. 9 in. × 6 ft. 2½ in. and one 2 ft. 6 in. × 1 ft. 11½ in., mounted on cloth, bound in a folio volume.

Presented by Charles William Stretton, Esq.

35,032-35,037. NOTES AND DRAWINGS made or collected by Professor John Henry Middleton, chiefly for his work The Remains of Ancient Rome (1st ed. 1885, 2nd 1888, 3rd, in two vols., 1892). Many sketches and measurements are included which do not appear in the work. Six volumes. Paper. Quarto and (Vol. VI.) Folio. Presented by Mrs. J. H. Middleton.

tion are grouped together many illustrative sketches which in the book are distributed by locality.

35,034. MIDDLETON COLLECTIONS. Vol. III. (ff. 404). Notes, etc., on (a) The Forum Romanum and surroundings. f. 1;—(b) Capitoline Hill. f. 343;—(c) Imperial Fora. f. 376.

35,035. MIDDLETON COLLECTIONS. Vol. IV. (ff. 286). Notes, etc., on (a) Theatres and Circi. f. 1;—(b) Baths, the Pantheon and Domus Aurea. f. 89;—(c) Miscellaneous Buildings. f. 171;—(d) Tombs. f. 222;—(e) Monuments. f. 248;—(f) Roads and Bridges. f. 276. The account of the Campus Martius, which should be in this volume, is for convenience in binding placed in Vol. VI.

35,036. MIDDLETON COLLECTIONS. Vol. V. (ff. 212). Notes, etc., on (a) Water Supply. f. 1;—(b) Aurelian's Wall. f. 42;—(c) Churches, etc., of Mediaeval Rome. f. 89. The last are of course not used in the printed work.

35,037. MIDDLETON COLLECTIONS. Vol. VI. (ff. 88). Addenda, including (a) Notes on the Campus Martius. f. 1;—(b) Notes and illustrative sketches bearing on Vitruvius. f. 18;—(c) Rough outline for the article on Rome in Encycl. Brit., 9th edition. f. 34;—(d) Miscellaneous plans, sketches and photographs too large for insertion in the earlier volumes or not bearing directly on the subjects. At f. 79 is a large waxed paper plan of the Pantheon by Prof. G. Aitchison, dated 19-21 Oct. 1888.

35,038, 35,039. ANTHEM, songs, and other compositions by Charles Wesley, Samuel Wesley, and a few others whose names are given in the index.

Paper; ff. 64, 80. A.D. 1770-1835. Quarto. Presented by Robert Glenn Wesley, Esq.

35,040. COLLECTION of harpsichord and organ pieces, etc., which belonged in 1773 to Samuel Wesley, a few of them being probably his own juvenile compositions. The names of the composers appear in the index.

Paper; ff. 48. Presented by the same.

35,041. "PROCEZ VERBAL de l'assemblée generale du Clergé de France tenue à Paris au Convent des Augustins en l'année M.DC.XXV." [23 May, 1625-22 Feb. 1626]. See Collection des Procès-verbaux des Assemblées-Générales du Clergé de France, Paris, 1768, vol. ii. p. 385. Paper; ff. 444. Late XVIII cent. Belonged to the Jesuits' College at Paris. Folio.

35,042. "PROCEZ VERBAL de l'assemblée Generale du Clergé de France tenue à Paris au Convent des Augustins en l'année mil six cents trente cinq" [25 May, 1635-27 Apr. 1636]; with tables of names and matters. Apparently copied (see f. 1) from a printed report, Paris, 1635 (sic). At f. 320 b is the entry "Collationné page pour page sur l'original imprimé, tiré des archives, par moi pretre soussigné nommé par deliberations des assemblées de 1723, 1725 et 1726 pour faire les tables des procès verbaux à Paris ce 2^e feurier, 1728. Laumosnier." In substance the MS. agrees with the report in the Collection des Procès-verbaux, 1768, vol. ii. p. 643, the arrangement, however, differing entirely. Paper; ff. 363. XVIIIth cent. Folio.

35,043. ORIGINAL PIECES and arrangements for violin or flute, by John Channing; 1694-1697. Included are a few songs with words and numerous fragments of incidental music by Henry Purcell and others, whose names are given in the index. Most of the latter, however, appear to have been arranged as suites or lessons, and in almost all cases only the treble is given. Paper; ff. 125. On the back of the old cover "John Channing, 1694." Belonged to Alexander Pytler in 1779, and to Alfred Moffat of Edinburgh in 1896. Small Folio.

35,044. "ORESTES": a tragedy, in five acts, by Peter Bayley. Autograph. First performed at Covent Garden, 20 April, 1825 (Genest, English Stage, ix. p. 305); and printed, with the cast, under the title Orestes in Argos, London, 1825. The title rôle is described (Dict. Nat. Biogr., iii. p. 444) as one of Charles Kemble's most successful impersonations. At the end (ff. 53-56) are some drawings of classical design by P. Bayley. At ff. 83, 84 are letters to the compiler on the merits of the work from (a) Basil H. Thomson; Dartmoor, 14 Jan. 1897;—and (b) Alfred P. Maudslay; London, 28 Mar. 1897. Paper; ff. 89. Duodecimo. Presented by Richard Inwards, Esq.

35,090. PHOTOGRAPHIC reproduction of an Irish MS. in the Royal Library at Stockholm bearing the press-mark "Vitterbet Engelsk II." On f. 1 is a list of the contents in the hand of Dr. Whitley Stokes, for whom the reproduction was made. The contents are:—
(1) A glossed copy of the poem "Fil and grian Glinne hoti." f. 2;
—(2) Imram Brain, or the Voyage of Bran, ending imperfectly (cf. Kuno Meyer, The Voyage of Bran son of Febal, 1895, p. ix., for which work the MS. was collated). f. 2 b;—(3) A decision of two Brehons about a cow. In another hand. f. 6;—(4) A Latin note concerning the MS. by Johann Gabriel Sparwenfelt, to whom it was given in 1693 by Fr. Philip Magwier (Maguire), a Franciscan. f. 6;—(5) Entries of the baptisms, in 1599, 1606 and 1617, of the three sons of Domhnall Riabhach. f. 6 b;—(6) "Note by Muiris O Muiri about the age of two men." f. 6 b.

The MS. is described, with copious extracts, by Ludw. Chr. Stern in Zeitschrift für Celtische Philologie, 1896, 1 Band, 1 Heft, p. 115, where, on the authority of W. M. Hennessy, it is ascribed to the 15th century.

Paper; ff. 6. Octavo. Presented by Dr. Whitley Stokes.

The following nos. 35,091–35,108 formed part of the library of Sir Thomas Phillipps, Bart., of Middle Hill, co. Worcester, and Thirlestaine House, Cheltenham. (See above 34,748–34,789, and below, 35,110–35,118.)

35,091. MISCELLANEOUS TRACTS in prose and verse, chiefly theological, in Latin, viz.:—

1. "Visiones Trugdali" (so the later title on f. 1 b), beg. "Incipit narracio uisionis de situ Hybernie cap. primum. [H]ybernia insula est in ultimo": the uncondensed version of Tundal's vision (see Cat. of Romances, vol. ii. pp. 416, 746), as in Albrecht Wagner's edition, Erlangen, 1882, but wanting the preface. f. 2.
2. Part of the metrical biblical histories of Petrus Riga of Reims (ob. 1209): the original text, without the additions of Aegidius Parisiensis. f. 20.

Of this work short extracts only appear to have been printed (Migne, Patr. Lat. cccii.). The fullest text is contained in Harl. MS. 747, which distinguishes the additions by marks in the margin. Other copies of the original text are in Royal MS. 2 D. xxxi., Arund. 228, Harl. 4066, etc. A biographical notice of the author is in Sloane MS. 1726. The books in hexameters probably did not form part of the original work entitled Aurora, but they seem to be in the main the work of Petrus, not of Aegidius. The books included are: (a) Song of Solomon, in rhyming hexameters, chiefly taken from St. Jerome's translation of Origen's homilies. Pref. beg. "Solus Origenes cum doctos uicerit omnes," and text "Omni plena bono Salomonis cantica regis." f. 20;—(b) Gospel History in elegiacs. Pref. beg. "Post legem ueterem respira, Petre, refulget," and text "Claruit Herode ius regis agente sacerdos." f. 30 b;—(c) Job, in rhyming hexameters. Pref. beg. here, "Non alius nisi Job hunc librum scripsit et egit," and text "Nomine Iob uir erat simplex et iuris amator." f. 47 b;—(d) Story of Susanna, in elegiacs, extracted from Daniel, beg. "Hactenus arrisit Susanne gratia fame." f. 52 b;—(e) Genesis, in elegiacs, preceded by the prose "prologus in Pentateucum Moysi," attributed in Harl. 747 to one Albert of Reims, beg. "Omnis scriptura diuinitus inspirata, Paulo attestante" (f. 54), and also by Peter's own prose preface (f. 54 b), beg. "Frequens sodalium meorum petitio." Text beg. "Primo facta die duo celum terra leguntur"; ends at the close of Genesis, "remittit eis." f. 55.

3. "Versus Bernhardi de contemptu mundi": the satire in three books, in leonine hexameters, beg. "Hora nouissima tempora pessima sunt vigilemus"; preceded by the brief prologue beg. "Materia auctoris est Christi aduentus," and the dedicatory letter, "Domino et patri suo Petro [Venerabili] dignissimo abbati fratrum [Cluniacensium] Bernhardus eius filius, eorum frater." f. 68.

The author of this work, which is the source of several well-known hymns, is difficult to identify with certainty. The 16th cent. table of contents of this MS. (f. 1 b) calls him "prior monasterii Cluniacensis," an identification rejected by the writer of the article in the Hist. Litt. de la France, vol. xii., probably on insufficient grounds. There were two Bernards at this time (c. 1125–1156) in the mother-monastery of Cluny, both described in charters as uncle to Bernard Le Gros, seigneur of Uxelles (Dept. Jura), viz. Bernard the prior and Bernard de Mileto (al. de Melei). If therefore the 12th cent. MS. Add. 22,287 and others are correct in giving the author's name as Moruallensis, this might well be Morval (Dept. Jura). If on the other hand the reading Morlanensis (Cotton MS. Cleop. A. viii., etc.) is correct, it might be referred to Morlas in Basses-Pyrénées, where there was at one time a small Cluniao Priory of S. Fides. There is nothing to connect Bernard with Morlaix in Brittany, nor is there any good authority for the appellation of Saint, though given by a later hand in the present MS. The poem is said to have been printed in the 15th cent. (Paris, 1483, acc. to Liron, Sing. Hist. iii. 351, see also Hain, nos. 2904–5, 4391, 4393, but these may not be the same poem). It was edited by Flacius (Varia Poemata, 1557, reprinted 1754) and independently by N. Chytraeus (Bremen, 1597, republished Rostock, 1610, Rinteln, 1626, Lüneburg, 1640), and lastly, from three unnamed sources, which seem to be (A) the Cotton MS., (B) another MS., probably the Bodleian, and (P) the Lüneburg edition (but the collation is inaccurate), by T. Wright, Satirical Poems, Rolls Series, 1872, vol. ii. Cf. also Julian, Dict. of Hymnology, p. 533. Other copies are in Add. MSS. 16,895, 22,287, Cotton MS. Cleop. A. viii.; also at the Bodleian, Digby 65, f. 42; at St. Omer, 115; at Toulouse, 162, f. 56; and at Vienna, see Michael Denis, Cat. MSS. Theol. Bibl. Pal. Vind., nos. 293, 614. A peculiar feature in this MS. is that the poem seems to be

- arranged as a dialogue, the letters s. n. being alternated in the margin throughout this article and the next four.
- Art. 4-7 are written continuously with art. 3 in the same hand.
4. Verses on the Creed: seventy-three leonine hexameters, preceded by the text "Sapite et intelligite ac nouissima prouidete" [Deut. xxxii. 29]. Beg. "Salus Petre bone, Petrus esto fide ratione," and ends "Ad uerum lumen defigere mentis acumen." f. 112.
 5. An elegiac quatrain on the martyrdom [of St. Thomas?]. Beg. "Quis moritur? presul. Cur? pro grege. Qualiter? ense." f. 113.
 6. A metrical version, in nineteen elegiac couplets, of the miracle-story of the rustic and the beehive, cf. ch. i. of bk. i. of Petrus Venerabilis (see above) De Miraculis (Migne, Patr. Lat. clxxxix. col. 851) and many other collections. The bread does not here take the form of a child, but the bees build it a shrine. Beg. "Scribimus indoctis indocti nobile signum." f. 113.
 7. Verses (twenty-nine elegiac couplets, but one of the hexameters is wanting) on an earthquake at Mainz and a somewhat similar mishap at an unnamed town. Beg. "Quaestio discurrit ueteres apud unde ruinae." f. 113 b.
 8. Interpretations of Greek words, chiefly from St. Jerome's prefaces to the biblical books and his other works. Beg. "Homerocentonein uel homerocentra." f. 115.
 9. "Excerpta de arte predicandi composita a magistro Alano": an abridgment of the Summa de Arte Predicandi of Alan of Lille (the "Doctor Universalis," d. at Cîteaux 1202), printed in Migne, Patr. Lat. ccx. col. 109. Of the introduction, which begins "Vidit Iacob scalam a terra (etc.). Scala ista profectus est uiri catholici," only a few sentences are extracted, but forty-two out of the forty-six model sermons are given in various degrees of fulness. Ends (with the sermon ad Virgines) "Regni eius non erit finis." f. 117 b.
 10. A brief note on confession, beg. "[V]erus peccati confessor," with the verse formula "Quis, quid, ubi, quotiens, per quos, cur, quomodo, quando?" f. 162 b.
 11. Scribbled on the last two leaves are (a) the first half of the Vision of St. Paul (see Cat. of Romances, vol. ii. p. 405), beg. "Interrogandum est quis primus." f. 162 b;—(b) a recipe for "incaustum de gallis." f. 163 b.
- Vellum; ff. 163. xiiith cent. One small ornamental initial (f. 54), others in red, blue and green. Belonged in the 15th cent. (see ff. 2, 162 b) to the Carthusian monastery of St. John in Seyts [Seitz in Styria], and bears (f. 1 b) an old press mark B. 13. On f. 67 is the name of "Antonius a Wolscheck, 1792." Bound in boards covered with white skin, with press-mark O. 1 (?) affixed, on paper, to the under-cover and the number 117 in red on the back. Bought by Sir T. Phillipps of Thomas Thorpe in 1838 (see Thorpe's catalogue, 1838, pt. vi. no. 33). Phillipps MS. 22,941 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 1251). $5\frac{3}{4} \times 4$ inches.

35,092. CHRONICLE of the Brut in French, to the death of Hen. III.: a text very closely agreeing with Cotton MS. Cleop. D. viii. After the rubric "Coment Brut vint primes en Engleterre e conquist la terre ci put hom oir," beg. "En la noble cite de graunt Troie," and ends "le Roi e martir, lan del incarnacioun nostre seigneur Ihesu Crist moolxxii annz, de qi alme Deu eit mercy amen."

Vellum (except ff. 1-4, 145); ff. 145. Mid. xivth cent. Initials in red and blue. On f. 144 b is the inscription "Usque satis," followed by a fancy signature, apparently Edm. Saunders [? Edmund Saunders, Chief Justice of the King's Bench 1683]. Belonged to [George Townshend, 2nd] Marquis of Townshend, and bought at his sale by [Thomas] Rod[d], from whom it passed (26 June, 1812, see f. 1 b) to C. Yarnold. At Yarnold's sale it was bought by Sir Thomas Phillipps (f. 4). Phillipps MS. 1050 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 9). $4\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{4}$ inches.

35,093. WARDROBE DAY-BOOK (imperfect) for the year 1 Edw. II. (1307-8). Latin. On f. 2 is the title, "Vn[de] r[espondetur] de anno primo per W[alterum] R[eginaldi]," i.e. Walter Reynolds, Bishop of Worcester [el. Jan. 1308], the Treasurer. A set-off on f. 1 b (properly the last page of the MS.) shows that the same volume originally contained also the accompt of Ralph de Stok, "prouisor" of the Great Wardrobe. The items are ticked off as entered in the classified accompt, e.g. "intratur titulo necessariorum," "clericus mar[escalcie] oneratur," "oneratur [J. de] Brok. nuper custos garderober R. defuncti." A similar book of Reynolds, as treasurer for the prince the previous year, is in Add. MS. 22,923. Vellum; ff. 10. Phillipps MS. 34,479 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 436). $13 \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

35,094. YEAR-BOOKS of 1-19 Edw. II. (1307-1326). French (except the first term, which is Lat.). The MS. belonged to Sir John Maynard, Serjeant-at-law (for a few weeks First Commissioner of the Great Seal, 1690), and was the sole basis of the edition printed in 1678. The MSS. differ greatly in contents, dating and arrangement of cases, and, being usually composed of single years or groups of years from different sources bound together, have no constant relation to one another. The present MS. is divided into the following parts, viz. the years 1-3, 4-7 (Hil.), 7 (Hil.)-8, 9, 10-13, 14, 15, 16-17 (Pasch.), 17 (Trin.), 18, 19 Edw. II. The two parts containing Hilary term of 7 Edw. II. overlap (f. 112), and Mich. term of 8 Edw. II. is repeated at f. 221 b. For other copies see

Add. MS. 25,183, Harley MSS. 835, 1062, 3639, Hargrave MS. 210, etc.

At the end of the book is the imprimatur, "I doe as much as in me lyeth allow the printing of this booke," of [Sir] Richard Raynsford [Chief Justice of the King's Bench], dated 28 Aug. 1676.

Vellum (except ff. 1, 2); ff. 342. Temp. Edw. II. Sir John Maynard's name, in an imitative 14th cent. hand, is on f. 284 b, and elsewhere. The MS. probably belonged to one of the Inns of Court (see an erased inscription on f. 198 b). Other names inscribed (16th cent.) are Joh. Ramsey de Greis Inne [admitted 1539] and Henry Grene, armiger, de Staple Inne (f. 208 b), and Joh. Wyse, draper, de ciuitate noue Sar. (ff. 198 b, 208 b). It afterwards belonged to Sir Gregory Osborne Page-Turner, 4th Bart., of Battlesden, co. Worc., in whose library it bore the no. $\frac{737}{3}$ (sale-cat., 1824, lot 2713). It passed to Sir Tho. Phillipps in Mar. 1827. Phillipps MS. 3123, afterwards 22,029 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 439). $10\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

35,095. YEAR-BOOKS and Forms of Pleading, temp. Edw. III., in French, viz. :—

1. Narrationes (formulae for counts or declarations): the standard collection, found, with variations, in many MSS., and printed under the title Novae Narrationes by Pynson (1515, 1516) and Tottell (1561). Beg. "[C]eo vous monstre W. de K. par soun acciouun." Imperfect, ending in the chapter on writ of debt. At the foot of the first page is a couplet beg. "Mees, molyn, terra, pree, boscus, pascua, mora" (cf. Royal 11 A. viii. f. 89). f. 3.
2. Year-books of 1-4 (Easter term) Edw. III. They differ considerably from the printed editions of 1596 and 1679, especially in dating, e.g. the Easter and Trin. terms of year 1 in the MS. are printed as Hilary and Easter, the Easter of year 2 includes most of what is printed as Easter and Trin., with other cases not printed. Imperfect. f. 16.

Vellum (except f. 1); ff. 69. xivth cent. With old sale-catalogue nos. 2 and 1629. Phillipps MS. 6573, afterwards 26,209 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 441, where it is said to have belonged to Samuel Heywood, serjeant-at-law, ob. 1828). $14\frac{1}{2} \times 9$ inches.

35,096. ORIGINAL RETURN of "Nomina beneficiorum ecclesiasticorum taxatorum ad x libras et ultra, ac nomina capellanorum cantariarum vii marc. vel ultra obtinentium aut salarium siue stipendium vii marc. vel ultra aut cum cibariis xl s. per annum recipientium, infra ciuitatem et dioc. London., certificata per epm. London. term. hillar. anno viii^{mo} Regis Henrici quinti" [1420]. Probably made for the purpose of the half-tenth granted to the king by the clergy in 1419 (see Goodwin's Hist. of Hen. V., p. 215).

Vellum roll (seven skins); 17 ft. 9 in. × 9 in. From the collection of Craven Ord (sale-cat., 1830, lot 1052). Phillipps MS. 4117 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 616).

- 35,097. LETTER-BOOK of John Scudamore, 1st Viscount Scudamore, ambassador at the court of France; ^{28 Aug.} 1635 to ^{25 Jan.} 1635, ^{7 Sept.} 1635 to ^{4 Feb.} 1635. The letters are addressed to the Secretary of State [Sir John Coke?], and are chiefly of general news, the special negotiations being at the time in the hands of the Earl of Leicester, as ambassador extraordinary. A few passages are in cipher.

Sir Thomas Phillipps had one sheet of the letters privately printed at Middle Hill (see a note on f. 1 b, headed "McGilmour"). For Lord Scudamore's original instructions, dat. 9 June, 1635, together with other correspondence during his embassy, see Add. 11,044, f. 57.

Paper; ff. 153. Phillipps MS. 10,536 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 1053). In the folio cat. of the Phillipps MSS. described as "ex Bibl. Ducissæ de Norfolk" [Frances, grand-daughter and heir of the last Viscount Scudamore, 2nd wife of Charles Howard, Duke of Norfolk; she d. 1820]. Folio.

- 35,098. ORDER-BOOK of the Committee for Sequestrations of Delinquent's Estates in co. Warwick; 25 Aug. 1646-26 July, 1649. Entitled on the vellum cover (f. 1) "The Book of Sequestrations, 1646." Under 31 Aug. 1647 (f. 64) is the discharge of William Dugdale, the antiquary; and under 31 Mar. 1648 (f. 92) that of William Shackspeare, of Rowington, who was sequestered because his daughter Mary was bred a papist. Paper; ff. 141. Phillipps MS. 18,817 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 205). Folio.

- 35,099-35,101. SOUTHWELL PAPERS; supplementary to the series in Add. 34,329-34,335, which relates to the business of successive British envoys to Portugal, viz. Sir Robert Southwell himself (1665-1669), and afterwards Francis Parry, who wrote to Southwell as Clerk to the Council (till 1679). For other Southwell collections see 21,122-21,138, 34,329-34,350, 34,770-34,778, and below, 35,104-35,017. The chief contents are:—

35,099. SOUTHWELL PAPERS, 1654-1699, including:—

1. "Articles of Treaty with the Kings of Portugal, read and approved the 23th of June, 1654": artt. 1-24 of an English draft or translation of the treaty signed ¹⁰/₂₀ July, 1654. The

- full Latin text, with another translation, is in 34,329 (ff. 18, 38). f. 3. Followed (f. 11) by a "Copy of the 25 article of the [same] Portuguese treaty," in another hand.
2. 35,100, 35,101. SOUTHWELL PAPERS. Letterbooks of Francis Parry, who accompanied Sir R. Southwell to Portugal in 1668 and remained as Resident till 1680 (except from Sept. 1676 to Nov. 1677, when he was in England). They comprise copies of official and other letters to many correspondents, including Henry Bennet, Earl of Arlington, Secretary of State (1662-1674) and Lord Chamberlain (1674-1681), Joseph (afterwards Sir J.) Williamson, Clerk to the Council and (1674-1678) Secretary of State, Robert Spencer, Earl of Sunderland, Ambassador extraordinary to Spain (1671-2), Secretary of State (1678-1681), William (afterwards Sir W.) Godolphin, Envoy and (from 1671) Ambassador to Spain, Henry Howard, Lord Howard of Castle-Rising (afterwards 6th Duke of Norfolk), Ambassador to Morocco, John Middleton, Earl of Middleton, and William O'Brien, Earl of Inchiquin, successively Governors of Tangier, Sir "Leonell" [i.e. Leoline] Jenkins, British Plenipotentiary at Nymwegen, Dr. Robert Newlin, President of Corpus Christi College, Oxford, Dr. Thomas Barlow, Provost of Queen's College, Oxford, afterwards (1675-1691) Bishop of Lincoln, Edward Meredith, the Roman Catholic controversialist, secretary to Sir W. Godolphin, Humphrey Henchman, Bishop of London (1663-1675), Sir Robert Southwell, Samuel Pepys, and others. Two volumes. Vol. I., $\frac{20}{30}$ July, 1668 — $\frac{3}{13}$ Feb. 167 $\frac{1}{2}$; Vol. II., $\frac{3}{13}$ Feb. 167 $\frac{1}{2}$ — $\frac{21 \text{ Nov.}}{1 \text{ Dec.}}$ 1680.

Paper; ff. 284, 273. Bought from the Southwell collection by the bookseller Thomas Thorpe (see his catalogue, 1834, pt. iv., no. 739). Phillipps MS. 8914 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 222). Originally in vellum covers. Folio.

35,102. ORIGINAL DAY-BOOK of Proceedings of the Trustees appointed 14 May, 1656, "for satisfying of the armyes arrears due for service in Ireland since the 6th of June, 1649, as also English arrears satisfiable in Ireland by Act of Parliament." Preceded by an attested copy of the resolutions of the Council for Ireland, 9 May, and of a Council of Officers, 9, 12 May, for their appointment, and a copy of the actual appointment by the Council for Ireland. The commission, of which the most active member was Dr. William Petty (knighted 1662), sat from 19 May, 1656, to 29 Mar. 1659.

Paper; ff. 83. On f. 1 b is a note that the old cover was marked K. From the library of Austin Cooper, F.S.A., sold in Dublin, 1831 (sale-cat. MSS., lot 10). Phillipps MS. 6466 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 745). Small Folio.

35,103. "ABSTRACT of Royal Grants from May, 1672, to April, 1706": an (apparently official) abridged transcript from the docquets, compiled probably at one time but in two hands (see f. 146). Paper; ff. 168. The old rough calf binding bore a label with the no. 16. Phillipps MS. 10,373 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 246). In the Phillipps folio-cat. said to have been purchased from T. Thorpe. Folio.

35,104. LETTER-BOOK of Edward Conway, Earl of Conway, Secretary of State for the N. Department, during his tenure of the office; 8 Feb. 1682-2 Feb. 1683. In the hand of his secretary, William Blathwayt, afterwards (Aug. 1683-1704) Secretary at War. Besides the letters to British Residents at the Northern courts, letters are included to James Butler, Duke of Ormonde, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland (ff. 25 b, 29 b), to William, Prince of Orange (f. 71), and some others.

Paper; ff. 88. From the Southwell Collection (see T. Thorpe's catalogue, 1834, pt. iv., no. 180). Phillipps MS. 8861 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 217). Old rough calf binding. Folio.

35,105, 35,106. Correspondence of the Rev. John Robinson, D.D., British Agent (from 1696 Envoy extraordinary) in Sweden [Bishop of Bristol 1710, of London 1714-1723, Lord Privy Seal 1711-1713] with William Blathwayt, Secretary at War, acting as Secretary of State with King William during the king's journeys abroad; 1692-1701. The correspondence is consequently intermittent (see below). It consists of Robinson's original letters, with drafts of some of Blathwayt's replies. Many letters are in cipher, usually deciphered; the key is in 35,105, f. 10 b. Two volumes. Paper. Folio. From the Southwell Collection (T. Thorpe's catalogue, 1834, pt. iv., no. 781, and below, 35,105, f. 1). Phillipps MS. 8743 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 259).

35,105. Vol. I. (ff. 149). 1693-1698.

1. Correspondence between Dr. Robinson and W. Blathwayt; 4 Jan. 1693-4 Nov. 1693. ff. 8-124. Prefixed (f. 6) is the decipherment of part of an undated letter of Robinson [31 Dec. 1692]. Enclosed in Robinson's letters are copies of three written by him to Secretaries of State, viz. two to Daniel Finch, Earl of Nottingham (ff. 33, 37), and one to Sir John Trenchard (f. 103). One letter (11 Jan. 1693, f. 16) is a private acknowledgment to Blathwayt for the appointment of the writer's brother [Christopher Robinson] as Secretary of Virginia.

2. Correspondence between the same in 1696, viz. two letters of Robinson, 10 June, and (private) 16 Oct., and two (drafts) of Blathwayt, $\frac{1}{7}$ and $\frac{1}{17}$ June. ff. 127-132. Prefixed (f. 125) is a memorandum of a conference between Dr. Robinson and Swedish commissioners, concerning the position of English merchants in Sweden, 27 Apr. 1696.
3. Correspondence between the same, 10 Aug.-14 Dec. 1698. ff. 135-145. Preceded (f. 133) by a copy of a letter of Robinson to James Vernon, Secretary of State, 1 Jan. 1697; and followed (f. 146) by a translation of a representation, by [Franz Ottokar] Count von Stahrenberg [Imperial envoy], Baron [Walraven] van Heekeren [Dutch envoy to Sweden], and Dr. Robinson, to the Elector of Brandenburg against his secretary, — Winckler, n. d.
4. Key to a numerical cipher in French, probably for use by an envoy to Poland. f. 148.

35,106. Vol. II. (ff. 170). 1699-1702.

1. Correspondence in continuation of art. 3 above, 17 Jan.-15 Feb. 1698. ff. 2-8. Included (f. 7) is a copy of a letter to Dr. Robinson from — Ehrenstolpe, minister of the Duke of Holstein, Stockholm, 13 Feb. 1699.
2. Correspondence between the same, 7 June-4 Nov. 1699. ff. 9-76. Included are copies of letters to Secretary Vernon, 7 June, 4 Oct. (ff. 9-60), and a letter (f. 56) to Robinson from G— Holmer, minister of foreign affairs to the Duke of Holstein, 23 Sept. 1699.
3. Correspondence between the same, 26 June-6 Oct. 1700. ff. 77-135. Included are copies of letters to Sec. Vernon, 17, 20, 26 June (ff. 77, 79, 85), a relation of the Swedish descent upon Zeeland, 25 July, 1700 (f. 104), and copies (ff. 132, 133) of two memorials presented to Sweden by the French ambassador, 22 Sept., 6 Oct. 1700.
4. Correspondence between the same, 13 June-8 Nov. 1701. ff. 136-168. Included are a translation of a notification of the strict blockade by Sweden of the ports of Courland, 28 June, 1701 (f. 137), and a project of a treaty between Sweden and Poland (f. 160). At the end (f. 169) is a private letter from Robinson to Blathwayt, 27 Aug. 1702.

35,107. PRIVY COUNCIL Memoranda, 1660-1708, chiefly in the hand of Edward Southwell, Clerk to the Council, afterwards Secretary of State for Ireland. (Cf. Add. MS. 34,350.)

1. "Order of Council for soliciting for the old Portugal Debt": copy of a minute, 3 Dec. 1669, about measures to be taken to obtain the sums due from Portugal. f. 3.
2. Copies of minutes, etc., endorsed "Extracts out of the Council Books of (sc. relating to) Treatys signed there, or brought to Council and referr'd by them to particular committees, from 1660 to 1679." f. 5. With a similar minute (f. 12), 23 May, 1682, about the treaty with Algiers.
3. Rough notes of evidence of witnesses before the Council, (a) endorsed "Minutes at the Council, 10 Nov. 1693," about naval business, and (b) without endorsement, about prisoners [in connection with the conspiracy of 169 $\frac{1}{2}$?], etc. ff. 13, 15.
4. "Order of Council on the King of Denmarks protocol," 15 Nov. 1694: a copy of the protocol about Captain Barfood, of the Guldenlew frigate, who had refused to strike his pennant to an English vessel in the Downs, and the resolution thereon. f. 16.
5. Memorandum in the hand of Edw. Southwell of a remark of the king at the Council board about Robert Frampton, the non-juror, ex-bishop of Gloucester; dated 2 Apr. 1695, but endorsed 1696 (cf. below, art. 11). f. 20.
6. "Minutes in Col. Dongan's business relating to my Lord Athlone's bill, Council, 31 Oct. 1695": the claims of Thomas Dongan, colonel of an Irish regiment in the French service, to the forfeited estates of his father, William Dongan, the attainted 1st Earl of Limerick, which had been granted to Godart de Ginkel, Earl of Athlone. f. 21.
7. "Minutes of persons sworn in my Lady Slane's business, Council, 31 Oct. 1695"; respecting claims for portion by Anne, wife of Christopher Fleming, Baron Slane, attainted 1691 and 1695. f. 23.
8. Memorandum:—"Council Booke the 33 & 34 of H. 8. Council Books of Ed. 6. 3 vols, the last ending the 16 June 1553." f. 25.
9. Report of a committee appointed by the Privy Council on a petition of — Bridgar, the king's sailmaker; 13 Jan. 169 $\frac{1}{2}$. f. 26.
10. Petition of William Chaloner, who offered evidence about false coins produced by workmen at the Mint; followed by notes in Edw. Southwell's hand of Chaloner's evidence before the Council, 3 Feb. 169 $\frac{1}{2}$. f. 28 b.
11. Rough notes endorsed (a) "Notes at Council, 5 Mar. 169 $\frac{1}{2}$," f. 32;—(b) "Minutes," 9, 17, 30 Mar., 22 Apr. 1696. ff. 33, 37, 39, 41. The last (f. 41) refer to the charges against Bishop Frampton (see above, art. 5);—(c) Minutes "to be laid before the king, 9 Mar. 1698[9]." f. 48;—(d) Minutes, relating to the Bermudas; 31 Aug. 1699. f. 52.
12. Memorandum in Edw. Southwell's hand of the king's views about the Association, and of his striking the names of the Marquess of

- Normanby, the Earl of Nottingham and Sir Edw. Seymour off the Council-list; 12 Mar. 169 $\frac{3}{4}$. f. 35.
13. Note of "Fees for Mr. Povey's Patent," July, 1697, probably the fees of John Povey on his appointment as a Clerk of the Council. f. 43.
14. Printed address of the House of Commons to William III. for measures against the Papists; 1698. f. 46.
15. Some curious notes in Edw. Southwell's hand, probably referring to speeches at a public dinner; 9 Feb. 169 $\frac{3}{4}$. f. 47 b.
16. List of the Lords Lieutenants of all the counties in England and Wales; [circ. 1699]. f. 50.
17. List of the Privy Council; [1701]. f. 54;—Oath of the Privy Councillors; temp. Anne. f. 56;—Attendance lists; May, 1706–May, 1707. f. 58 b;—List of the Privy Council and the three sworn Clerks of the Council after the union with Scotland; 10 May, 1708. f. 61.
- Paper; ff. 62. From the Southwell Collection, marked "lot 489" (cf. Phillipps folio-cat. under 10,042). Phillipps MS. 10,042 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 241). Folio.

35,108. "MELANGES SUR L'ANGLETERRE" by a young Frenchman [François, Comte, afterwards Duc, de la Rochefoucauld, son of the Duc de Liancourt, born in 1765: see Young's Annals of Agriculture, ii. 81, 105] resident in England with his brother and a tutor, M—de Lasowski, chiefly at Bury St. Edmund's, co. Suffolk, in 1784. French. A somewhat minute account of English provincial social customs, with remarks on political and other matters and especially on agriculture, including an account of a short journey in the Eastern counties in company with Arthur Young. The author's other chief acquaintance was John Symonds, Professor of Modern History at Cambridge. Mention is also made of [Elizabeth Hervey] Countess of Bristol, wife of the Bishop of Derry, Lord Cornwallis [Charles Cornwallis, 2nd Earl, afterwards 1st Marquess] and others. The journal, which ends abruptly, is addressed to the writer's father. In the margin are a few criticisms in pencil, probably by the tutor.

Paper; ff. 213. xviiith cent. Phillipps MS. 23,868, also marked B 35, 1208 (sale-cat., 1896, lot 475). Folio.

35,109. "LIBER SALUSTII CRISPI": the Catilinarian and Jugurthine Wars of Sallust. The MS. contains the chapters (Jug. 103–112) wanting in the earliest codices. Its text generally appears to resemble that of the Arundel MS. 234, but with many small variants. Title: "Incipit liber Salustii Crispi. Salustius in Catellinario feliciter incipit." On f. 32 b, "Explicit liber Catilinarii.

Incipit liber Jugurtini." Colophon: "Factum est hoc anno a natiuitate dni. mill. cent. nonag. secundo, indictione decima. Ego Milus notarius scripsi hunc librum. Qui scripsit scribat, semper cum Domino uiuat. Explicit Liber Salustii Crispi. Quisquis ignotum Iugurthe noscere letum (?) | Tarpeie rupis pulsus ad yma ruit," etc.

Vellum; ff. 97. A.D. 1192 (see above). In an Italian hand. Initials in red and green. At the end is an erased ownership note (end 15th cent.) of "— Rugeriis filii quomdam Antonii de Rugeriis qui erat filius quomdam — de Rugeriis"; also the initials P. M. $8\frac{1}{4} \times 5\frac{1}{4}$ inches.

The following nos., 35,110–35,118, formed part of the library of Sir Thomas Phillipps. (See above, 35,091–35,108.)

35,110. LIVES OF SAINTS, connected with the Augustinian order or with England, in Latin; in part divided into lessons by marginal notes of later date. Several of the lives are extracted from Bede's Ecclesiastical History.

1. Life of St. Augustine, Bishop of Hippo, from various sources, viz.:—(a) "Prologus in conuersione Sci. Augustini Ipponensis episcopi magni doctoris" (cf. Arund. MS. 36, f. 12 b), beg. "Beatum Augustinum magnum fuisse doctorem." f. 3;—(b) "Vita excerpta a mag. Iuone Carnotensi episcopo de Confessionibus beati Augustini," beg. "Beatus itaque Augustinus ex prouincia Affricana ciuitate Tagatensi de numero curialium." An article under the title "Excerptiones Iuonis... de confessionibus et uita b. Aug." occurs in a MS. at Peterhouse, Cambridge (see Cat. MSS. Angliae, no. 1836), and another was in the burnt Cotton MS. Vitellius D. xiii. Another set of excerpts, which are actually joined on to the latter part of Possidius' life, occurs in Add. MS. 15,621, f. 2 b. f. 3;—(c) "Liber de uita necnon et de transitu sancti patris nostri Augustini," etc.: the life by St. Possidius, Bishop of Calama (397–430), printed in Migne, Patr. Lat., xxxii., col. 33. The whole of the letter to Honoratus is here given. Prologue beg. "Inspirante rerum omnium factore," and text, "Ex prouincia Africana." f. 9 b;—(d) Summary list of Augustine's works, much briefer than that printed in Migne, xlv., col. 5. f. 28;—(e) A set of lectiones for the first translation of St. Augustine, beg. "Beatus Augustinus dum in Ypponiensi sepultus esset." f. 29 b;—(f) Another set for the same, beg. "Quidam uir catholicus fuit qui omni die." f. 30.
2. Lives of St. Cuthbert, Bishop of Lindisfarne (685–687), viz.:—(a) "Incipit prologus venerabilis Bede presbiteri in librum uite beati patris nostri Cuthberti Lindisfarnensis ecclesie episcopi": the prose life printed in Stevenson's edition of Bede, vol. ii. p. 45 (Migne,

- xciv. 733), with prefatory letter to Bishop Eadfrid. f. 30 b;—
 (b) "Item de quo supra ex quarto ecclesiastice gentis Anglorum libro": an extract from Bede's Hist. Ecol. lib. iv. capp. 31, 32, ed. Stevenson, vol. i. p. 328. Beg. "Erat in eodem monasterio frater," and ends "actumoris apparuisset." f. 61;—(c) Written as if continuous with the foregoing is the anonymous "Historia Translationum S. Cuthberti," printed from several MSS. (Cotton, Nero A. ii. and others) by I. H. Hinde, Surtees Society, li. p. 158. Ch. xxi. of the edition comes in this MS. between ch. xvii. and xviii. Beg. "Deus omnipotens iuste misericors." f. 62 b;—(d) "Excerpta de uita et miraculis Sci. Cuthberti": the "Brevis relatio de S. Cuthberto," printed from Nero A. ii. and other MSS. by Hinde, op. cit. p. 223, but ch. 30–36 are here omitted. Beg. "Venerabilis igitur domini famulus." f. 88;—(e) List of the bishops of Lindisfarne (Chester-le-Street and Durham) down to Hugh [Pudsey, 1153–1195]. f. 96 b.
3. Life of St. Columba by Adamnan: a text of the longer recension, very closely akin both to Cotton MS. Tib. D. iii. (f. 192) and to Royal MS. 8 D. ix., though the three seem to be independent of one another. See Reeves's edition, Bannatyne Club, 1857. It includes the genealogical paragraphs at the end ("Hec sunt xii virorum nomina") common to the two MSS. named. Prologue beg. "Beati nostri patroni Christo suffragante," and text, "Vir itaque uenerandus." f. 96 b. At the end (f. 143) are added: Extracts on St. Columba from Bede's Hist. Ecol. (lib. v. cap. 9 and lib. iii. capp. 4, 5, etc.), beg. "Sanctus igitur Columba erat primus," and ending "fidem Christi perceperint."
 4. "Hic describitur vita et miracula gloriosissimi et sanctissimi regis Oswaldi, sicut in libro ecclesiastico gentis Anglorum continetur": extracts on St. Oswald, King of Northumbria (634–642), from Bede, Hist. Ecol. lib. iii. 1–3, 6, 9–13. Beg. "Successores Edwini Regis," and ends "gloriam predicabat." f. 144 b.
 5. "Vita Sci. Aidani Lindisfarnensis ecclesie antistitis sicut in tertio ecclesiastice historie gentis Anglorum libro continetur": on St. Aidan, Bishop of Lindisfarne (634–651), from Bede, op. cit. iii. 3, 5, 15–17. Beg. "Est insula que uocatur Hii," and ends "cum sancta ecclesia credebatur." f. 150.
 6. "Incipit prologus in uita Sci. Aedwardi Regis et Confessoris ad iuniorem regem Henricum": the life of Edward the Confessor by Ethelred al. Ailred, Abbot of Rievaulx (1146–1167), printed (after Twysden, Scriptores Decem) in Migne, P. L. cxv. col. 757. The work was written at the request of Lawrence, Abbot of Westminster, and is dedicated to "gloriosissimus rex Henricus," i.e. the young prince, although several years before his coronation, for Ethelred died (see the anonymous life in Migne, cxv. col. 197, and MS.—1897.

the Melrose Chronicle) 4 Jan. 116§ and Henry was not actually crowned till 1170. The life is here not divided into books. Preface beg. "Multis veterum studio fuisse didicimus," and text "gloriosi ac deo dilecti Regis Edwardi." Ends "corda commouit." f. 153.

7. "Incipit prefacio Elredi Rieualensis abbatis in librum lamentationis sue pro morte regis David Scottorum, et in librum genealogie Henrici ducis Normannie, futuri regis Anglorum": the Genealogia Regum Anglorum printed in part by Twysden, op. cit., from two MSS. (the burnt Cotton MS. Otho D. vii. and one of Ussher's), cf. Migne, P. L. cxcv. col. 711. Imperfect, containing only a part of the preface, ending "consequi merearis. Adieci etiam de genealogia tua libellum unum quo potentissi—" [the words after "merearis" are not in Twysden's text]. f. 186.

Vellum; ff. 187. Late xiith cent. (ante 1195). In double columns. Initials in red and green. Old binding of wooden boards covered with white skin. "Liber fratrum heremitarum ord. Sci. Augustini de Nouo Castro" [Newcastle-on-Tyne] (f. 2 b). Belonged to Sir Henry Savile, Provost of Eton, or some of his family, being sold in the Savile sale, 1861 (lot 59). Phillipps MS. 26,075 (sale-cat., 1897, lot 241). 11½ × 7½ inches.

- 35,111. BARLAAM AND JOSAPHAT: the Latin translation of the Greek romance attributed to John of Damascus, being a Christianised version of the legendary life of Buddha. See Catalogue of Romances, vol. ii. p. 111. The title here is "Incipit liber gestorum Barlaam et Josaphat seruorum dei ex Greco sermone edictus a Johanne Damasceno uiro sancto et erudito." The text generally is of the same character as Add. MS. 17,299, Harl. MSS. 3958, 5293. Beg. "Cum cepissent monasteria." The prayer "Conuersus ad te," which forms the last paragraph, here ends "filium tuum dominum nostrum, qui tecum uiuit et regnat in unitate spiritus sancti deus, per omnia secula seculorum. Amen." Colophon, "Christus scriptorem saluet per matris honorem. Lector dic Amen, poscens ab utrisque iuuamen." On the same folio are six hexameters on the names for sounds produced by animals, beg. "Trensat olor, clingit anser, crocitat quoque coruus." On the fly-leaf (f. 1) is a short treatise on preaching, consisting of an amplification in prose of the distich "Exponas thema, distingue, proba, rationes, | Addas, conuenias, conuertas, proprietates."

Vellum; ff. 136. xiith cent. Ornamental initial (f. 2) in red, blue and green; others in red. Binding (15th cent.) of wooden boards covered with stamped pigskin as in Add. 24,077. In the back is a vellum fragment from a 12th cent. MS. Belonged ("Liber S. Petri a. in Augia," f. 1 b, and "Biblioth. Weissenav." f. 2) to the Premonstratensian Abbey of Weissenau, near Ravensburg, in Suabia. Bookplate of monastic arms (18th cent.) as in Add. 24,077 (the arms in Add. 11,877 are not the same). Sold in the Savile Sale, 1861 (lot 92), but not from the Savile collection. Philipps MS. 20,640, also marked A. 35,111 (sale-cat., 1897, lot 242). $9\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

35,112. "MARIALE": a collection of sermons, miracles, hymns, and prayers relating to the Virgin, compiled in the 12th century (post 1158), and belonging to the Abbey of St. Martin of Tournai (see Sanders, Bibl. Belgica, pt. i. p. 123). At the end are a life of St. Martha and a collection of verses on various subjects.

1. Eight rhyming hexameters introductory to the collection, beg. "Nomen in hoc uelut in reliquis uis scire libellis | Appella Mariale quod est de laude Marię." Followed by a hymn, "Ave virgo semper pia dei genitrix Maria." f. 1 b.
2. "Tractatus magistri Hugonis super Tota pulchra es": discourse on passages from the Song of Songs, by Hugo de S. Victore (Migne, P. L. clxxvii. col. 1209). Preface beg. "Accipe, frater carissime," and text "Verba ipsa nota sunt." f. 1 b.
3. Four sermons, viz.: (a) "Sermo uenerabilis Bede presbiteri de natiuitate b. Marię semper uirginis"; not included in Migne's collection, either among the real or spurious homilies. Beg. "Natiuitatis glorioſę genitricis dei." f. 8 b;—(b) "Sermo de purificatione glorioſę," etc. [by Hildebert of Le Mans, printed in Migne, P. L. clxxi. col. 611]. Beg. "Postquam impleti sunt (etc.). Consuetudo, fratres, hæc erat." Another copy is in Royal MS. 12 F. xv. (f. 134). f. 13;—(c) "Sermo in annuntiatione," etc. Beg. "Gaudeamus in domino, fratres." f. 15;—(d) "Sermo quare in Sabbatis fit memoria b. Marię": the discourse on Saturday which occurs in many collections of miracles of the Virgin (see Cat. of Romances, vol. ii. p. 616), but omitting the tale of the miraculous image. Beg. "Sollennem memoriam sacrosancte virginis." f. 17.
4. "Descriptio qualiter Vultus Domini de Iherosolimis ad Lucanam ciuitatem sit delatus": the story of the Volto Santo in St. Martin's (the cathedral) at Lucca. How it was revealed to "Guallefridus subalpinus episcopus" at Jerusalem that a crucifix made by Nicodemus was preserved there. How it was miraculously conveyed by ship to Spezia, and there received by John, Bishop of Lucca [780–803—this agrees with the traditional date 782]. The last paragraph relates that the writer Leobinus, "hum. diaconus ven. Guallefridi subalpini episcopi" (a later Guallefridus?), when at Jerusalem with the bishop heard of the portion of the crown of thorns and other relics concealed in the crucifix. The date of the arrival at Lucca is given inconsistently (see above) as A.D. 742,

"tempore Karoli et Pipini . . . anno regni eorum secundo." The Latin text has perhaps not been printed, but Bart. Beverini apparently used it in his account of the legend (Annales Lucensis urbis, 1829, i. p. 84). It is in general agreement with two Italian poems printed sine l. et a. (circa 1550), but these place the discovery of the inclosed relics in 1090 and call the discoverer Stephen. Beg. "Leobinus diaconus seruorum dei minimus." f. 18. Another copy is in the library at Charleville, no. 168 (see Mussafia, Studien, Heft ii. 1888, p. 49).

5. Two miracles of images of Christ, viz.: (a) an image at Constantinople, stolen by a Jew, bleeds and stains his clothes and the water of a well into which it is thrown;—(b) Another stolen image is tracked by its bleeding. The two are preceded by a preface, "Postquam ille triumphalis regis regum titulus videlicet Jhesus Nazarenus." For both stories see Cat. of Romances, ii. p. 705. The former is that found in Combesis, the latter is taken from Gregory of Tours. f. 20.
6. "Incipit prologus miraculorum s. dei genitricis semperque virginis Marię": a series of about fifty-eight miracles of the Virgin, a few of which are in verse. All will be fully described in the Catalogue of Romances, vol. iii. The first part of the collection agrees almost exactly with the Paris MS. Lat. 14,463 (formerly St. Victor 248, see Mussafia, quoted in Cat. of Romances). The latter half has also nearly all the stories in common, but the order is different. Among the recent miracles related are those of Soissons, 1128–1131 [by Hugo Farsitus, printed in Migne, P. Lat. clxxix. col. 1777], f. 60, of Arras, 1142, f. 37 b (these are both in the St. Victor MS.), and of Anchin, 1158 (in the Paris MS. 12,593, from St. Germain; see also a short version in Vincent of Beauvais, Spec. Hist. vii. 98), f. 41. There are two or three more miracles below, which may be connected with this article (see artt. 8, 9, 11). Prologue beg. "Ad omnipotentis dei laudem cum sepe recitentur." f. 21.
7. "Libellus de infantia Saluatoris": the pseudevangelium as printed by Thilo, Codex Apocryphus, tom. i. p. 340, forming the first 24 chapters of the Evangelium Pseudo-Matthaei of Tischendorf, Evangelia Apocrypha, p. 50. No introductory epistles. Beg. "Erat uir in Israel nomine Joachim." f. 80 b.
8. "Relatio miraculorum domini nostri Jhesu Christi quę per imaginem ipsius facta sunt in Beritho ciuitate v. Id. Nov.": the "libellus Athanasii, archiepiscopi Alexandrinę urbis, de passione imaginis domini qualiter crucifixus est in urbe Beritho temporibus Constantini iunioris et Hyrene uxoris eius" (the last five words are erased), a spurious sermon of Athanasius, printed with other versions, Greek and Latin, in Migne's Patrol. Graeca, xxviii. col. 811 (see Cat. of Romances, ii. p. 702). The preface here speaks of it as

- read by Peter, metropolitan of Nicomedia, at a synod at Caesarea in Cappadocia, but see Migne, l. c. f. 87.
9. "Miraculum de corpore domini nostri Jhesu Christi": of transubstantiation made visible to a priest named Plegils. Beg. "Fuit quidam presbiter religiosus ualde Plegils nomine." f. 90 b.
 10. A hymn to the Virgin, beg. "Alma serena pia preclara beata Maria." f. 91 b.
 11. Two miracles of the Virgin in verse, found like those of art. 6 in the St. Victor MS., viz. (a) Deaths of rich man and poor widow. Beg. "Fuit ecclesia cuius parrochie." f. 92;—(b) Incest of mother and son. Beg. "Erat Romę vir quidam nobilis." f. 94.
 12. More hymns to the Virgin, viz.: (a) "Virgo mater melliflua." f. 98;—(b) "O regina sanctitatis." f. 98 b;—(c) "O Maria mater pia fons misericordię." f. 99;—(d) "Stella maris, lumen orbis, fidei preconium." f. 99;—(e) "Ave, stella mater solis." f. 99 b;—(f) "Virgo, maris stella, Iesse de stirpe puella." f. 99 b;—(g) "Maria uirgo regia sponsa regis et filia." f. 100;—(h) "Vale, uirgo regia." f. 101;—(i) "Imperatrix reginarum." See Mone, Latein. Hymnen, ii. 421. f. 101.
 13. Prayers to the Virgin, some of which, as indicated in the rubrics, have been referred to above in the stories of art. 6. f. 101.
 14. "Oratio bona": the hymn "Iuste iudex Jhesu Christe" (see Mone, op. cit. i. 359). f. 102 b.
 15. Theological verses, 60 hexameters, beg. "Quem uult indurat deus et cui uult miseretur." f. 102 b.
 17. Theological verses, 100 hexameters, beg. "Jesse fuit radix, David arbor, Virgo Maria." f. 103.
 18. "Vita S. Marthe, hospite Christi": a life of which the substance is apparently taken from that by Rabanus Maurus (see Migne, P. L. cxii. col. 1431) and which seems to be the source of the short life in Legenda Aurea. Other copies are in Add. MS. 18,361, Harl. MS. 3597. Beg. "Sancte ecclesie tipum b. Martha." f. 104.
 19. "Versus magistri Alani de beata dei genitrice": from the Anticlaudianus of Alanus de Insulis, lib. v. cap. ix. (Migne, P. L. ccx. col. 538). Beg. "Hec est que proprium pariendo lege pudorem." In a 13th century hand, the MS. having originally ended with art. 18, if not with art. 17. f. 111 b.
The following articles are in a hand of circ. 1200.
 20. "Liber de mundi philosophia": a cosmographical poem in about four hundred hexameters, divided into two books. With diagrams. Preface beg. "Mens celer armatur doctrinis philosophorum," and ends "Palluit inuentor dum cuderet ista labore | Cuius habes nomen si uersum legeris olim." f. 112.

21. "Versus de duodecim ventis Tranquili ph[ilosophi]": beg. "Quatuor a quadris uenti flant partibus orbis." f. 115 b.
22. Rhyming verses on the death of Charles the Good, Count of Flanders (1127), printed in Migne, P. L. clxvi. col. 1045. Beg. "Proh dolor ducem Flandrie defensorem ecclesie." f. 116.
23. "Quod femina et aurum et honos subuertant mentes hominum": the elegiac poem De Tribus Inimicis, printed among the works of Marbodius, Bishop of Rennes (1096-1123), in Migne, P. L. clxxi. col. 1491, and also among the miscellaneous poems of Hildebert of Le Mans at col. 1427 of the same volume. Beg. "Plurima con [sc. cum] soleant mores euertere sacros." At the end are appended eight lines containing proverbs on the subject of women. f. 117.
24. Epigrams on some of the fathers. Beg. "Ille Origenis ego doctor uerissimus olim." f. 117 b.
25. Verses (41 hexameters) on the family of Christ. Beg. "Cognati Christi fuerant, ut dicitur, isti." Followed by a prose note on the same subject based on St. Jerome. f. 117 b.
26. Epigrams (a) on Urban II. and the first crusade, "Urbanus papa pax et crucifixio mundi." f. 118;—(b) On the vanity of human wishes, "O mortalis homo, mortis reminiscere casus." f. 118;—(c) On fortune as a wheel, a couplet which, altered and expanded into four lines, is printed in Migne, P. L. clxxi. col. 1429: beg. "Glorior elatus, descendo minorificatus." f. 118 b;—(d) Three epigrams on lions, "Talis naturę leo fortis dicitur esse" (5 lines), "Quando leo dormit oculi sunt eius aperti" (2), "Per triduum natus leo dormit non animatus" (4). f. 118 b;—(e) On Mt. Olympus, "Regis Alexandri regio Machedonia magni." f. 118 b;—(f) On the fish "mora," "Est paruus piscis echinus semipedalis." f. 118 b;—(g) On asbestos, "Nomen ab igne suum lapis est sortitus abeston." f. 118 b;—(h) On "fingites," "Fingites lapis est translucens durus et albus." f. 118 b;—(i) On ductile glass, "Ingeniosus homo fertur fecisse per artem." f. 118 b;—(k) On St. Eucherius, Bishop of Orleans, Charles Martel and Pepin le Bref, "Presulis Eucherii manifestat uisio sancti." f. 118 b.
27. "Versus venerabilis Bede presbiteri in laude Heldeldride regine et virginis Christi": the verses on St. Etheldreda, Bede, Hist. Eccl. iv. cap. xx. (ed. Stevenson, vol. i. p. 294). f. 118 b.
28. Epigrams, etc., (a) On the sea, "Non uia terrarum, sed me uia terret aquarum." f. 119;—(b) On the creation, "Primus in orbe dies lucis primordia sumpsit." f. 119;—(c) Moral maxima, "Quis diues? qui nil cupit. Et quis pauper? auarus." f. 119;—(d) Four lines incorporated in Albertus Magnus, De Secr. Mul., and in the Schola Salernitana (v. 1795-1798 of De Renzi, Coll. Salern. tom. v. 1859), "Susceptum semen sex primis pene diebus." f. 119;—(e) On the vanity of human wishes, "Gloria mundana nichil est nisi visio uana." f. 119;—(f) On the ten plagues, "Prima rubens unda clades, raneque secunda." f. 119 b;—(g) On the Evangelists, "Prefert nostra dei facies humana Mathei." f. 119 b;—(h) On the vanity of human wishes, "Gloria mundana mundique potentia vana." f. 119 b;—(i) On the same as 26 (d), "Exanimem triduo catulum lea sernat in antro." f. 119 b;—(k) On misers, "Nov sibi, non aliis prodest dum uiuit auarus." f. 119 b;—(l) On quarrelsomeness, "Iurgia clamores tibi gloria, gloria lites." f. 119 b;—(m) On reverence for parents, "Tu bene facta tui tanquam male facta parentis." f. 119 b;—(n) On inconstancy, "Non bene firmatur radix que sepe mouetur." f. 119 b;—(o) On jealousy, "Emule ue soli qui dum cadit ipse leuantem." f. 119 b;—(p) On the same, "Frangis amicitiam dum Turdale rodis amicum." f. 119 b;—(q) On backbiting, "Cur maculas alios, maculosior omnibus Albi." f. 119 b;—(r) Ad Gallum, "Crimina nulla tibi quoniam sunt, Galle, superbis." f. 119 b;—(s) On the vanity of human wishes, "Non bene discernis qui prefers ima supernis." f. 119 b;—(t) Ad Ermilianum, "Que crescit ramis et non radicibus arbor." f. 119 b;—(u) Ad Pelea, "In tenui panno nulla est facundia, Peleu." f. 119 b;—(v) On distinction of words, "Fla facit ardorem, sed fra largitur odorem." f. 119 b. Vellum; ff. 120. xiith and xiiith centt. Large ornamented initials in red and green. "Liber S. Martini Tornac[ensis]; Seruanti benedictio, auferenti maledictio" (f. 1). Phillipps MS. 11,902 (sale-cat., 1897, lot 320). A note by Sir T. Phillipps on the fly-leaf, "Ex Bibl. Monasterii de Alna" [Aulne sur Aube]. This is repeated in his folio-catalogue, but is probably a mistake. 11½ × 7½ inches.

35,113. CHRONICLE of the Brut, in French. A version of the same class as Cotton MS. Cleop. D. vii. In the later reigns it combines passages peculiar to different MSS. of this class, e.g. Harl. 200 and the addition to the Cotton MS. The metrical introduction is wanting. Title in a later hand, "Cy commenceits le Recite de toutz les Rois d'Engleterre et d'Esc[osse]." Begins "En la cite de graunt Troie." Breaks off with the execution of the Earl of Lancaster (1322), the miracles connected with it, and the levy of the sixth penny, "Et taunt furent les miracles qe dieu ouierst" (cf. Harl. MS. 200, f. 76). At the end (f. 92 b) is a (15th cent.) Latin genealogy of Edward I.

Vellum; ff. 92. xivth cent. Probably belonged to Sir Roger Twysden, being sold (lot 1120) with Sir John Sebright's books in 1807 and bought by Richard Heber. At Heber's sale in 1836 it was bought (lot 501) for Sir T. Phillipps. Phillipps MS. 8141 (sale-cat., 1897, lot 191). $10 \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

35,114. WARDROBE RECEIPT-BOOK of the latter part of 17 Edw. II. [1323-1324], being the first accout of Robert Wodehouse on succeeding to the office of Keeper of the Wardrobe, approved by Robert de Holeden as Comptroller. It comprises the following portions:—(1) Receipts in money [out of the Exchequer], from 20 Oct. [1323], when Wodehouse succeeded Roger de Waltham (cf. Stowe MS. 553). Latin. f. 2;—(2) "Recepta forinseca," similar receipts from other sources. Latin. f. 3;—(3) Inventory of stock and accout of receipts and outgoings in kind. Latin. f. 5;—(4) Inventory and accout of "Jocalia et vessellamenta" (jewels and plate, etc.) for the same term, with notes of gifts made by the King, e.g. to the Queen, to St. Edward's shrine, Westminster, to St. Wulstan's shrine, Worcester, to the tomb of Gilbert de Clare, Earl of Gloucester, at Tewkesbury, etc. The inventory of things in the Tower is in French, the rest in Latin. For some of the entries cf. an Inventory of the same year printed by Palgrave, Antient Kalendars and Inventories, 1836, iii. p. 123. f. 7. At the end (f. 15) is a paper sheet containing some transcripts in an 18th cent. hand. Vellum (except ff. 1, 15, 16); ff. 16. A.D. 1324. Folio. Belonged to Thomas Tanner (Bishop of St. Asaph, 1732-1735), the antiquary (f. 16). Also in the collection of Craven Ord (sale-cat., 1830, lot 1007, "from the collection of T[homas] Martin" [of Palgrave], bought by Payne, the bookseller). Phillipps MS. 4098 (sale-cat., 1897, lot 294). 13×9 inches.

35,115. WARDROBE BOOK of 16-17 Richard II., being the accout of Baldwin Radyngton, Comptroller of the Wardrobe of the Household, for the third year of office of John Carp[enter?], Treasurer of the Household and Keeper of the Wardrobe, viz. for the year ending 30 Sept. [1393]. Latin. It comprises the following heads:—(1) "Recepta scaccarii" (cf. 35,114, art. 1). f. 2;—(2) "Recepta forinseca" (cf. ibid. art. 2). f. 4;—(3) Day-book of expenses in the several departments of the Household, without particulars, but showing the court's itinerary. f. 6;—(4) Classified heads of expenditure, in detail. f. 33;—(5) "Prestita et remanencia." f. 46;—(6) "Liber Jocalium" (cf. 35,114, art. 4). f. 47. Vellum; ff. 52. A.D. 1393. Phillipps MS. 13,649, marked also B. 14. 1066 (sale-cat., 1897, lot 626). In the Phillipps folio-cat. noted as acquired from the bookseller Payne. $13\frac{1}{2} \times 10$ inches.

35,116. PLEAS, temp. Edward I. and Edward II.: a compilation arranged by subjects under names of writs and assises (De noua disseisina, De brevibus de possessione, De brevibus de ingressu, De forma donacionis, etc.). French and Latin. Imperfect by loss of leaves after the title De aduocacionibus and at the end. Ff. 268-291 are misplaced by the binder. Many of the pleas have dates and references to the original roll. None are later than 5 Edw. II. [1311-1312], and nearly all fall between 1300 and 1312. The compiler sometimes speaks in his own name ("Ego quesui," or the like) and quotes opinions of various persons, e.g. Ric. de Alburn, — Wallingford (f. 35 b), "Robert Sturrey me dist que il ly auoit debat entre Sire W. de Leyborne et Sire Robert de Burgeisse" (f. 35 b), — Lancaster, — Hautebere (f. 57 b); and at f. 36 b is a reference to the text-book Paruum Hengham. A dictum of Ralph de Hengham is given at f. 61 b in English.

In the margins are some proverbs in verse, "Wer prebet flores, flos fructum, fructus hodores | Sic studium mores, mos sensum, sensus honores" and "Raro datur muto libera terra puto," f. 64; and in English, "Selde erende; wel pe lope | and selde plede; wel pe wrope," f. 24 b.

Vellum; ff. 292. Circ. 1312. On f. 1 b is a (15th cent.) recipe for "Aqua pro oculis," in Engl. and Latin. The name Topclyff (late 14th cent.) is in the margin of f. 174, and the name of Thomas Nowell of Preston (late 15th cent.) on f. 1 b. Other owners' names are "John Denton de London," "Thomas Denton," "Thomas Cary (?) . . . professor, medii templi" (16th-17th cent.), f. 292. Afterwards belonged to George Petre (? d. 1829, grandson of Robert Edward, 9th Baron Petre), being marked no. 1. Phillips MS. 7086, marked also F. 34, 889 (sale-cat., 1897, lot 12). Bound in wooden boards covered with stamped leather. In the binding is a fragment of a 13th cent. MS. of Civil Law. 14½ × 10 inches.

35,117. REGISTER of Royal Warrants, and other precedents, probably for use in the office of the Secretary of State (cf. Sloane MS. 856). Two compilations, the later containing a more varied collection of documents, including bills of ambassadors' expenses, passports, etc. The earlier entries are chiefly warrants for Great Seals, Privy Seals, and other grants, arrests, etc. The dates included are:—(1) Oct. 1661–Jan. 166½. f. 7;—(2) Sept. 1674–Aug. 1682. f. 216. In the latter part of this section there is some attempt at classification, under the headings (a) "Warrants, 1679. 1st copy." f. 283;—(b) Ambassadors' extraordinaries, etc., 1679. f. 286;—(c) "Letters, 1674, 1675. 1st copy." f. 287;—(d) "King's Letters, 1679[–1682]. 1st copy." f. 295;—(e) "Military Warrants," Feb. 167½–Apr. 1682. "1st copy." f. 302. An index rerum has been planned and begun at f. 2 b, but only carried out for the letters A, B. Paper; ff. 311. Belonged to Francis Gwyn (Clerk to the Council, 1679-1685, and under-secretary to the Earl of Conway, Sec. of State, 1681-3), of Ford Abbey, co. Devon, whose bookplate of arms (dated 1698) is within the cover. Bought by Sir T. Phillipps at the Ford Abbey sale, on the death of John Fraunceis Gwyn, in 1846 (sale-cat., lot 235). Phillipps MS. 12,125 (sale-cat., 1897, lot 114). Folio.

35,118. CORRESPONDENCE of Richard Brinsley Sheridan, and other papers concerning his family or Drury Lane Theatre; 1770-1827. Sheridan's own letters, with those of his second wife and of his son Thomas, are mostly addressed to Richard Peake, treasurer of the theatre, and belong to the latter part (post 1792) of his life, while those addressed to him belong to the earlier (1770-1792). At the end (f. 215) are prologues and epilogues to plays, etc., including "Manuel" (f. 225), "Raising the Wind," by James Kenney (f. 231), "The Carib Chief" (f. 240), "Lost Life" (f. 245), "The Honey-moon," by James Tobin (f. 247), "De Montfort," by Joanna Baillie, the prologue said to be by Francis North, afterwards 4th Earl of Guilford (f. 252); several of later date (see the water-marks) than Sheridan's time. Cf. for the correspondence Eg. MSS. 1975, 1976, for the other papers Add. MSS. 25,906-26,036. The names of the writers will be found in the index. At f. 217 is an engraving of "Marmaduke Momus." Paper; ff. 281. Phillipps MSS. 18,472 and 18,504 (sale-cat., 1897, lot 702). Folio.

35,119, 35,120. "THE BRIDES OF VENICE," opera in three acts, in full score, by Joseph Francis Duggan. Autograph. Vol. II. contains the libretto in English (by John Brougham), French and Italian. Paper; ff. 510, 240. A.D. 1868. Folio. Presented by Mrs. Julia St. George.

35,121. Seven arias from operas, in score, by Baldassare Galuppi. Paper; ff. 48. Late xviiith cent. Oblong octavo. Presented by R. A. Streetfeild, Esq.

35,122. JOURNAL of a tour through France and Italy in 1770, made in order to collect materials for a history of music; by Charles Burney, Mus.Doc. Autograph. On this journal Dr. Burney based his Present State of Music in France and Italy, 1771, omitting, in deference to the advice of his friends, "all that was miscellaneous of observation or of anecdote" (see Madame d'Arbly, Memoirs of Dr. Burney, 1832, vol. i. p. 224). With an imperfect index at the beginning. Paper; ff. 185. At f. 4, "Edward Francisco Burney, the gift of his sister-in-law Mrs. Burney." Quarto.

35,123. OCTATEUCH in Greek, with marginal catena. Wanting two leaves containing (a) Exod. xxi. 23-32, after f. 146; (b) Joshua xix. 47-xxi. 2, after f. 416. The text in the Pentateuch seems commonly to agree with A D F against B, and with D F against A. In the later books it does not follow the more striking variations of F or A. The commentary is nearly identical with that which forms the basis of the collection published (Leipzig, 1772) by Nikephoros Theotokes under the title Σεφὰ νὰ ὑπομνηματιστῶν, the chief sources being Theodoret, Basil, Chrysostom, Severianus, Bishop of Gabala, Severus, Patriarch of Antioch, Acacius, Diodorus, Gennadius, Isidorus Pelusiota, Cyril, Origen, Gregory of Nyssa, Gregory Nazianzen, Eusebius, Symmachus, Irenaeus, Apollinarius and others. At the end (f. 467 b) are notes on the several παράδοσεις of the Old Testament (from Theodoret), on the conquests of Judaea, Hebrew names for the Deity, etc., all printed by Theotokes, op. cit.

Flyleaves contain: (a) One leaf of St. Matthew (ix. 32-x. 16), in a good early 13th cent. hand. f. 469;—(b) Twelve leaves of a synaxarium, in a 13th cent. hand. ff. 1-3, 470-472. At the end (f. 467) is an anathema in a 13th cent. hand, "Ὅστις ἂν ἀφέγγῃ τὸ παρὸν βιβλίον τὴν ὀκτάτευχον ἀπὸ τοῦ τόπου ἔνθα κείται τὸ ταπεινὸν σῶμα ἐμοῦ Θεοδοσίου τοῦ Πρίγκιπος ἔστω ἀφορισμὸς ἀλώτῳ καθυποβεβλημένος ἀπὸ πατρὸς καὶ υἱοῦ καὶ ἁγίου πνεύματος, καὶ ἡ μερὶς αὐτοῦ μετὰ Ἰουδα τοῦ προδότου."

Vellum; ff. 472. Late XII.-XIIIth century, in several hands. In wooden boards covered with stamped leather, rebacked. 12½ × 9½ inches.

35,124. MEMORANDA of John Winthrop [afterwards Governor of Massachusetts], as attorney in the court of wards and liveries, 1623-1630, including (ff. 8-19) a list of cases and clients.

Paper; ff. 29. Small folio. Presented by R. C. Winthrop, Esq.

35,125. LAUDERDALE PAPERS. Supplement to the collections in Add. MSS. 23,108-23,138, 23,242-23,251, etc., of which selections were published by O. Airy (Camden Soc., 1884). Besides original official correspondence, etc., of John Maitland, 2nd Earl and 1st Duke of Lauderdale, Secretary of State in Scotland, 1661-1682, they contain several original papers of Sir William Maitland of Lethington, Secretary of State under Mary, Queen of Scots, and papers of other members of the family. The names of all the writers will be found in the index. The more important contents include:—

1. Warrant of Francis I. of France for payments to René Trouvé, his goldsmith, and others; Chasteaubryant, 21 May, 1532. Fr. Signed. Vellum. f. 1.
2. Letter of James [Hamilton, 2nd Earl of Arran], Governor of - Scotland, to [William Sinclair, 5th] Lord Sinclair; Stirling, 14 Nov. s. a. [1547]. Signed. f. 3.

3. Mary, Queen of Scots, to [Patrick Gray,] Lord Gray, acknowledging receipt of his "wryting for our servand Robert Leeslye," and announcing her intention to come and "leif amanges our subiectes in all concord and amitie"; Orleans, 8 Jan. [1561]. Signed, "Zour gud freinde Marie." f. 4.
 4. H[enri] Cleutin [Sieur d'Oysel et de Ville Parisis, French Ambassador to Scotland] to Card. [Charles] de Lorraine; Paris, 31 Jan. 1561. f. 3.
 5. [Claude] delaubespine [Secretary of State in France] to Mary, Q. of Scots; St. Germain, 30 Sept. 1561. Hologr. f. 6.
 6. [Sir] W[illiam] Maitland [of Lethington] to Lord Robert Dudley, reminding him of the motion made to Q. Elizabeth by the writer at their last conference. Such an accord would increase the reputation which Dudley by his virtuous and gentle behaviour hath already conquered. Has "espyed in her hyghnes a certain naturall disposition to love dearly the Q. Majesty my maistresse," etc.; Edinburgh, 14 Nov. 1561. Hologr. f. 8.
 7. James Steuart [already created, 30 Jan. 1564, Earl of Moray, but the patent was not made public, afterwards Regent] to the same: takes opportunity of Lethington's coming to write. Has given the Queen of England's messages to his Queen, who is very well disposed to her. The Queen has had a fall from a horse, but the letters from England have been her best medicine. She is marvellously well contented also with Dudley's "guid remembrance towartes hir in providing of hir hienes hacquenais," etc.; Edinburgh, 23 May, 1562. Hologr. f. 10.
 8. Dalendouze [Claude le Parcheminier, Sieur de Landouze, Sec. to Q. Mary] to Mary, Queen of Scots, on arrangements for obtaining her pension, etc.; has seen Ronsard, who promises books; mentions other new publications; Paris, 4 Nov. 1563. f. 12.
 9. Thomas Randolph, ambassador to Scotland, to the Earl of Leicester, reporting the Queen's return to Edinburgh, recommending the "poore Rebelles that not longe since were counted the honesteste men in Scotlande," etc.; Edinburgh, 19 Oct. 1565. f. 14.
 10. Matthew [Stuart, Earl of] Lennox, to John Wood, secretary to the Regent Moray; Cheswick, 29 July, [1568, endorsement]. f. 16.
 11. James Hamilton, [2nd] Earl of Arran, and [George Gordon, 5th Earl of] Huntly, to [Patrick Gray,] Lord Gray; Edinburgh, 22 May, 1571. f. 17.

Paper and canvas rolls. Bequeathed by the collector.

35,138. THIRTY LETTERS of the Rev. Gilbert White to Thomas Pennant, containing the original form of most of the first part of the Natural History of Selborne (which comprises 44 letters to Pennant and 65 to Daines Barrington, cf. Add. MS. 31,852); 10 Aug. 1767-8 July, 1773. The majority of the letters are originals with Pennant's endorsements, but some appear to be autograph drafts or copies with preliminary corrections by the author for the edition and also suggestions, in pencil, by another hand, which were mostly not adopted. The order of the topics and in some cases the date of the letters are altered in the book, and among the omissions are four whole letters (ff. 37, 44, 51, 52) and a large part of a fifth (f. 56), the reason being either that the subject is the Zoology of Gibraltar or that it is repeated in the letters to Barrington. At f. 54 is a letter to Pennant from Rev. John White, Gilbert's brother, who lived at Gibraltar, dated Selborne, 16 Mar. 1773. Paper; ff. 57. Folio.

35,139. GARDEN-KALENDAR of Gilbert White for the years 1751-1767.

These are the earlier volumes of the same series used by Aikin in printing the Naturalist's Calendar (1795), which he extracted from the journals of 1768-1793 (Add. MSS. 31,846-31,851). The bulk of the Kalendar is a diary of operations in the garden at Selborne, especially on growing melons and cucumbers, but there are also notes on the weather and materials for the Naturalist's Kalendar, especially in the latter part of the 1765 diary. Autograph, except a few passages which are marked as in the hand of [Gilbert's brothers] Thomas White (f. 19) or John White, junior (f. 22). Paper; ff. 221. Quarto.

35,140. AUTOGRAPH POEMS and prose writings of Walter Savage

Landon, in English and Latin. Consisting of (a) Short poems published in Heroic Idyls, 1863 (supplementing Add. 35,070), with notes for press corrections of that volume. ff. 1-68;—(b) Pieces published for the first time in Letters and other unpublished writings of W. S. Landon, ed. S. Wheeler, 1897, including "Savonarola and the Prior of S. Marco" (f. 70), "Joan of Arc and her Judge" (f. 72), and most of the miscellaneous poems. ff. 69-154;—(c) A few short poems, published in Dry Sticks (1858) and Hellenics (1859 edition). ff. 155-161;—(d) Letters to Dr. Arthur de Noé Walker, 1858-1863, about the volumes then passing through the press (cf. Add. 35,070). ff. 162-168;—(e) Fragments, apparently never published. ff. 169-187.

35,141. AUTOGRAPH JOURNAL of Lieut. George Peard, first lieutenant on H.M.S. Blossom (Commander Frederick William Beechey) during a cruise to the Pacific and Behring's Straits in 1825-1828, including a visit to Pitcairn Island. The narrative of John Adam, alias Alexander Smith, a survivor of the mutineers of the Bounty, was first obtained in full on this occasion and is here given at some length (ff. 10 b-20). Cf. Captain Beechey's Voyage to the Pacific, London, 1831.

Paper; ff. 104. Quarto.

35,142-35,154. AUTOBIOGRAPHY, correspondence and papers of Francis Place, of Westminster, supplementary to similar papers contained in Add. MSS. 27,789-27,859. In thirteen volumes. Paper. Both collections were used by Graham Wallas for his Life of Francis Place, 1898. Presented by Francis Charles Miers, Esq.

35,142-35,147. PLACE PAPERS. Vols. I.-VI. Autobiography, comprising incidentally papers on politics, morals, manners, etc. (some printed), and original letters of Jeremy Bentham, James Mill, George and Harriet Grote, William Godwin, Joseph Hume, etc.; 1771-1847. Six volumes. Small Folio. Vols. I.-III. form a more or less continuous biography; Vols. IV.-VI. contain memoranda on public affairs, social changes, public improvements in London, etc. At the beginning of Vol. I. (ff. 3-13) is a table of the contents of the six volumes. The names of the writers of the letters are given in the index.

1898.

35,156. ATTILA, opera in four acts, in full score, by Guiseppe Verdi, produced in 1846. Autograph.

Paper; ff. 246. Circ. 1846. Belonged to F. Goring, of Florence. Folio.

35,157. THE VISION of William concerning Piers the Plowman, together with Dowell, Dobet and Dobest. The latest version, called the "C" text by Skeat, Early English Text Society ed., 1873. Begins: "In a somer sesonn when soft was pe sonne | I shoep me in to shrowdes as y a shep were." Piers Plowman ends at f. 54 b, "Explicit visio Willelmi W. de Petro le ploughman. Et hic incipit visio eiusdem de dowel." Dobet begins at f. 87 b without heading, and ends at f. 110, "Explicit dobet et incipit dobest." At the end of Dobest (f. 124), "Explicit liber vocatus Pers ploghman"; followed by the name (of the scribe?) "Preston" in red. The MS. is not mentioned by Skeat. It closely resembles Lord Ilchester's MS. (Skeat's I, see his edition, pp. xxxiii.-xxxviii., and footnotes, passim); agreeing with it in the colophon to Piers Plowman, in the titles to the several "passus," and in a large proportion of the variations from the standard text adopted by Skeat. The following dialectal characteristics may be noted:—(a) the pronoun I is almost invariably written y, not Io or Ich; (b) she is generally so written, not hue or heo; (c) the past participle usually has the prefix y-.

On a blank page at the end (f. 124 b) are two medical recipes, "contra stipacionem ventris que vocatur grind," and "to dissolue the hernia carnososa," inserted in the 16th cent.

Vellum; ff. 125. End of xivth cent. Initials in red and blue; the Latin passages underlined in red. A few lines lost by the mutilation of f. 9, and a few words on ff. 10 and 11; but the missing passages supplied, circ. 1500. Marginal notes in various hands of the 16th and 17th centt. The following names, presumably of former owners, occur: Arthur Surteys (f. 124); Thomas Thyrbekke, "clarke" (f. 124 b, 16th cent.); Francis Aiscoughe, of Cottam [co. Notts] (ff. 1, 124, 124 b, 16-17th cent.); and Maurice Johnson, of Ayscoughfee Hall in Spalding, whose book-plate of arms, 1735, is at f. 2 b, and who has prefixed some notes on the poem (ff. 3-5), stating that he had the volume re-bound in 1728. The binding is of the Harleian pattern, crimson morocco, tooled. 9 x 6 in.

35,158. TRANSCRIPT of the parish register of Normanton-on-Soar, co. Notts, 1559-1897, made by the Rev. Owen Orton, rector, 1897.

Paper; ff. 418. Small Quarto. Presented by the Rev. O. Orton.

35,159. TREATISE on the history and structure of the organ, by A[ugust] W[ilhelm] Bach; followed by three earlier sketches of the work (ff. 36, 44, 49). German.

Paper; ff. 56. After 1856 (f. 35 b). Quarto.

35,160. "AN ACCOUNT of the entrance of his most Christian Majesty Louis XVIII., King of France and Navarre, into London, on Wednesday, 20th April, MDCCCXIV., written by Sir George Naylor, York Herald, genealogist of the Bath."

Vellum; ff. 19. A.D. 1814. The title-page has an illuminated border of French crowns and fleurs-de-lys alternately, intertwined with roses, thistles and shamrocks. On ff. 16-19 are the badge, star and collar of the Order of St. Esprit in colours. In blue velvet covers, embroidered in silver-gilt wire with interlaced Ls surmounted by a French crown. Quarto.

35,161-35,163. PRIVATE LETTERS of Joseph Hunter, F.R.S., Assistant Keeper of the Public Records (1838, ob. 1861), to Thomas Asline Ward, of Sheffield, Mrs. Evans, wife of his guardian, and members of his own family; 1792-1861. Three volumes. Vol. I. (ff. 405), 1792-1814. Vol. II. (ff. 304), 1815-1845. Vol. III. (ff. 377), 1846-1861. For other correspondence of J. Hunter see Add. 24,864-24,878, 25,676, 25,677, 31,021.

Paper. Folio. Presented by Henry Julian Hunter, Esq., son of the writer.

35,164. "A COPY of the Pretender's Declaration," issued from Plombières in Lorraine, 29 Aug. 1714, beg. "James the Third, etc. In such an Extraordinary and Important Conjunction." In a contemporary hand. Followed (f. 10) by a "Copy of what some of the Pretenders Friends have wrote in his favor," beg. "The King haveing impartially considered." The Declaration was printed in French at Lyon, and extracts from it in English are in Rapin and Oldmixon.

Paper; ff. 15. Octavo.

- 35,165 A-D. RUBBINGS of sculptured stones in Scotland, by Miss Christian MacLagan, supplementary to those in Add. 34,798, viz.: A. St. Orland's stone, Glammis, co. Forfar; B. Glenhead, near Donne, co. Perth; C. D. Forteviot, co. Perth.

Paper rolls, mounted on canvas. Presented by Miss Christian MacLagan.

- 35,166. THE APOCALYPSE, in Latin, headed "Incipit textus uisionis prime apocalipsis beati Iohannis apostoli"; with a commentary, beg. "Tempus uidelicet iudicii." Preceded (ff. 1-2 b) and followed (ff. 31-38) by miracles, etc., of St. John, beg. with the letter of the "Proconsul Ephesiorum" to the Emperor Domitian, "Piissimo Cesari," etc. (see Mombritius, Sanctuarium, ii. f. 29).

Vellum; ff. 38. Written in England, late xiiith cent. Double columns, the commentary in red. Initials in gold, filled in and surrounded by colour. Fine tinted miniatures (76 in all), $6\frac{1}{2} \times 4\frac{1}{2}$ inches, in the upper part of each page, interesting for the designs and apparently of the same school as those in MS. 403 fonds français in the Bibl. Nat. at Paris and in the Bodleian MS. Auct. D. 4. 17, reproduced in colours in The Apocalypse of S. John the Divine (Roxburghe Club), ed. H. O. Coxe, 1876. There is a lacuna after f. 16, the miniature on f. 16 b illustrating ch. x. 1-7, and that on f. 17 ch. xvi. 8-9. On f. 1 is inscribed "Liber Domus Kalendarum," referring probably to some guild of Kalendars. Afterwards belonged to the family of Blois, of co. Suffolk. In vellum covers (circ. 1600), with tooled centre and corner-pieces. $11\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{3}{4}$ in.

- 35,167. GOSPEL according to St. Luke, in Latin, in the vulgate version, with the Glossa Ordinaria (of Walafridus Strabus) and Interlinearis (of Anselm of Laon). Preceded by the usual argument "Lucas Syrus Antioceus" to "fastidientibus prodesset," and a further preface, beg. "Lectorem obsecro studiose paginas recensentes." Imperfect, wanting three quires after f. 64, two leaves of the following quire and a quire after f. 70. Some of the leaves much rotted from damp.

Vellum; ff. 76. Written in England, in the xiiith century. Two ornamental initials (ff. 3, 3 b) in colours. A small half-length portrait of St. Luke, with his symbol, on f. 1 was added at a comparatively recent date. The names of former owners appear on f. 1, "Ex dono Guil. Yonge Dr Medic. 1649. Pembroch.," and "Wm.(?) Brodhurst his booke, 1650." From the library of Maurice Johnson of Spalding (ob. 1755), Librarian to the Society of Antiquaries (Sotheby's sale-cat., 24 Mar. 1898, lot 1027). Original binding of wooden boards covered with stamped leather of English work of the middle of the *xiii*th century. The covers are divided into compartments by bands adorned with eight-lobed rosettes. The centre device on the front is a lozenge-shaped panel of reticulated cable work enclosing a round stamp of a winged bull, on the back an eight-lobed rose, each lobe being an impression of a dragon. Other stamps disposed in rows include two cockatrices addorsed, their tails entrained in a fleur-de-lys, a warrior on horseback, a warrior kneeling, a bird feeding across a curved bough, a bird passing beneath two straight boughs, a hound (?) feeding, leaves, etc. (Cf. Catalogue of Bookbindings in the National Art Library, S. Kensington, 1894, English Rubbings, nos. 6, 9, where some of these stamps reappear.) 11 × 7 in.

35,168. CHRONICLE of English History from the Creation to 1225, in Latin: the same compilation of which the latter part was used by Walter of Coventry (see Stubbs, preface to Rolls edition), and which is preserved in Cotton MS. Vitellius D. xiii. (partly burnt), and in a MS. at Oxford (Magd. Coll. 36). It differs, however, from all these in beginning not with the year 1002, but with the complete work of Marianus-Florence. The chief components are therefore:—(a) Marianus Scotus, supplemented by Florence of Worcester, derived from a text akin to Lambeth MS. 42 (see Thorpe's edition of Florence) originating apparently at Abingdon (see especially the entry for 948), but including also, besides the continuation of Florence to 1131, a portion (1132–1154) of the work of Henry of Huntingdon. Besides the whole of these works, there are a few extracts from Geoffrey of Monmouth and Hugo of Fleury, notes on bishops and geographical notices. f. 3;—(b) The chronicle known by the name of Abbot Benedict of Peterborough, probably taken from Cotton MS. Julius A. xi. f. 166;—(c) Part of the chronicle of Roger of Hoveden, comprising the years 1181–1201. f. 199;—(d) The Barnwell chronicle (College of Arms MS. no. 10) for the years 1155–1169, 1177–1180, 1202–1225. ff. 165, 198, 292 b. A few extracts from William of Malmesbury also occur throughout. Imperfect, the first two leaves being much injured and the last four or five almost totally destroyed by damp. The text proves that the MS. cannot be derived from the Cotton or Magdalen MSS., while it may possibly be their origin. It also appears nearly certain that this (and not Cotton MS. Julius A. xi.) was the MS. from which extracts were forwarded by the Croyland monks to the king in 1292 (Palgrave, Documents Illustrating the History of Scotland, i. p. 77).

In the margin are various notes in 14th and 15th cent. hands. Among the latter is under the year 495 (f. 87 b): "Circa hec tempora incepit regnum Orientalium Anglorum sub Vffa, a quo omnes Orientales Anglos vocamus quos nunc Sicanos seu Sykeys vocamus." Under 716 and 756 are notes in a 14th cent. hand (ff. 101 b, 103 b) recording the foundation of Croyland. At the end are mutilated copies of several documents, viz.: (a) Letter from the English archbishops and bishops to Alexander IV., in 1259, concerning the Templars and Hospitallers. Beg. "Lignum censetur." f. 311;—(b) Quitclaim by Thomas filius Lamberti de Multon to Croyland Abbey of lands between the Welland at Brotherhouse and the Nene. f. 312;—(c) Two fines touching the same lands, circ. 1277. f. 312;—(d) King John's Bull of submission to the Pope, Oct. 1213 (Foedera, Record ed., i. 115). f. 313;—(e) Two charters of the Prior of Spalding, touching agreements with Croyland, circ. 1280. f. 314.

Vellum (ff. 1, 2 paper); ff. 315. xiiith cent. Ornamental initials in colours. Belonged to Croyland Abbey (ante 1292, v. supra), see f. 3, "Liber Croylandie"; afterwards (according to a note by M. Johnson on f. 1) to Sir Richard Ogle, of Pinchbeck and Ayscoughfee Hall, co. Linc. (ob. 1627), whose library descended to Johnson (or at least "what Dr. Bentley did not purloyn for Bp. Stillingfleet, while he was my Uncles Tutor, or my Mother dispose of"). Bookplate of Maurice Johnson, 1735 (sale-cat. 1898, lot 1016). 14 × 9½ in.

35,169. TERRIER AND RENTAL of the Manor of Fleet, co. Linc., held as of the Honour of Lancaster by Thomas de Multon [Baron Multon de Egremont], of Egremont, co. Cumb., and Moulton, co. Linc. The Terrier is dated 9 Edw. II. [1315–6], the Rental (f. 59) 10 Edw. II. The lands are distinguished as "freeland," "molkland" and "werkland," and the situations and services fully set out. There is also included (f. 39 b) a chartulary for these and other lands, including, inter alia, (a) "Allocacio Libertatum" by an eyre of 9 Edw. I. [1280–1] to Thomas fil. Lamberti de Multon in his lands in the Parts of Holland, co. Linc. f. 40;—(b) Confirmation by Hen. III. to Spalding Priory of freedom from forest dues, etc., 24 Jan. [1226]. f. 42 b;—(c) Accompts of Thomas de Multon, "nepos et heres Thome fil. Lamberti de Multon," for the lands in cos. Linc. and Cumb. to which he succeeded 29 Oct. 1294, before his minority was ended. If this Thomas is Lord Multon, the genealogy must be as stated in Baker's Northamptonshire, i. p. 673, and not as in G. E. C.'s Peerage. f. 44;—(d) Accompts of the same for dower of Margaret, widow of the above Thomas son of Lambert, in the manors of Fleet Moulton and "Bensolace," co. Linc., 1295. f. 44 b;—(e) Charters, etc., relating to the hospital at Skirbech, co. Linc., founded by Sir Thomas de Multon (see Dict. Nat. Biog.) in 1229. ff. 49, 56;—(f) Fine of the manor of Holbeach, co. Linc., between William Mandeville, Earl of Essex, and Thomas de Multon, [1220]. f. 50;—(g) Charters of Richard de Lucy, of Egremont, Thomas fil. Cospatricii and others respecting the lands in Cumberland of Lord Multon, including a grant by the former of franchises, etc., to the burgesses of Egremont [ante 1214]. f. 51 b. Vellum; ff. 74. About A.D. 1320 (an earlier fragment relating to fisheries is attached to f. 74). Belonged to Maurice Johnson (cf. 35,168 and sale-cat. 1898, lot 968). Old cover of vellum, lined with linen. $8\frac{1}{2} \times 6$ in.

35,170. REGISTER of Newstead Priory, co. Notts; containing pleas, enrolments, writs, and other documents, 3–32 Edw. III. [1329–1359], arranged in lvi. chapters. “In isto libello continentur processus et placita de communi itinere domini Regis, et de itinere foreste eiusdem Regis, et eciam plures et diuerse irrotulaciones et munimenta. breuia et alia notabilia. et memoranda statum monasterij beate Marie de Nouo Loco in Shirewode concernencia. et in facto executi et expediti ab anno regni Regis Edwardi tercij a conquestu tercio: vsque ad annum eiusdem xxxij. Et eciam diuersi processus super exoneratione auxiliorum domini Regis. de nona garbarum, vollerum, et agnorum et scutagiorum et aliorum reddituum de haya. Et diuerse assise. Que omnia per ordinem postea reperientur. singulis suis in locis conscripta. ad informationem et propter euidentiam futurorum. per Hugonem de Colyngham, quondam priorem dicti monasterij conscripta, ordinata, et executi, etc.” f. 3. Hugh de Colyngham was elected Prior in 1349, and resigned in 1356 (Harl. MSS. 6959, f. 142; 6960, f. 30 b). Ch. lvi. ends on f. 145 b; and the next few leaves are filled with additions, in various 15th cent. hands, including (f. 147 b) “Tituli et diuerse euidentie de ecclesia de Hawte Hoknall” [Ault-Hucknall, co. Derby], and (f. 150 b) a confirmation, in 1307, of a composition made in 1179 between the church of West Markham and the chapel of Tuxford.. At f. 151 b is the inscription, by the original scribe, “Iste liber est sancte Marie de Nouo Loco in Shirewode, quem dominus Willelmus de Baukwell, Prior [1415–22] eiusdem loci, de nouo fecit scribi. . . . Et scriptus est per fratrem Robertum de Sheffield suppriorum eiusdem loci. quorum anime in pace: in pace (sic) Dei requiescant. Amen.” Vellum; ff. 151. Early xvth cent. On f. 2: “John Byron of Newstede, esquier, ys the trewe owner of this present booke, per me W. B.” (16th cent.). This is no doubt the son of Sir John Byron (to whom Newstead was granted in 1540: see Dugdale, Mon. Angl., vol. vi. pt. i. p. 473), and great-grandfather of the 1st Lord Byron. At the beginning is a letter from Richard Farmer, Master of Emmanuel College, Cambridge, dated 18 Jan. 1771. From this, and from a note on f. 2, signed "R[ichard] B[lyro]n," it appears that the MS. remained at Newstead (though apparently unknown, since Tanner does not mention it in his Notitia Monastica) until the library was "furbish'd up" about 1770; that it was then "turn'd out of better company," and that it came into the hands of a Nottingham bookseller, and afterwards into those of Farmer, who gave it to his brother-in-law Richard Byron, 3rd son of the 4th Lord Byron (see Nichols, Leicestershire, vol. iv. pt. ii., 1811, p. 950). Sotheby's sale-cat. 21-26 Mar. 1898, lot 1188. 8½ × 5½ in.

35,171. COLLECTIONS relating to the Isle of Ely and Fens of Cambridge and neighbouring counties, collected by Maurice Johnson, chiefly from the records of the Commissioners of Sewers. Latin and English. In two parts, each with title and dedication, viz. :—

1. Transcript of a MS. in possession of Thomas Peirson, of the Middle Temple and of Wisbeach, clerk to the Commissioners of Sewers for Wisbeach Hundred, with notes by Johnson. At f. 37 b is mentioned a suggestion by Beaupré Bell in 1724 that the compiler was one "Richard Atkyns, sometime clerk of the Sewers at Lynn for Norfolk and the hundred of Wisbech." It contains extracts from Camden and other historians and various 15th-17th centt. documents relating to the Isle, including an inspeximus-charter to Ely Abbey, 2 Hen. VI. At the end is added (f. 38) the charter of incorporation of Wisbeach, 28 Jan. 1614. This first book is dedicated by Johnson to his "honoured kinsman" Thomas Edwards, of Wisbeach Castle. f. 2.
2. Transcripts of documents relating to the fens, from A.D. 966. This book is dated Spalding, 1710, and dedicated to Thomas Peirson, who seems to have "accommodated" Johnson with most of these copies from the collections in his office. Others were written (note on f. 43) by Richard Arney, clerk of the Sewers at Wisbeach, and presented to Johnson by his son John Arney. They are in various hands, chiefly of the 17th cent., but a few are in Johnson's own hand. f. 43.
Paper; ff. 259. xviii-th-xviii-th centt. Bookplate of M. Johnson, 1735 (sale-cat. 1898, lot 1026). 12½ × 8 in.

35,172 A, B. "SURVEYS and Particulars of the Estates of Sir Sampson Gideon, Bart. [afterwards Sampson Eardley, cr. in 1789 Baron Eardley of Spalding in the Irish peerage], in the counties of Cambridge, Lincoln, Huntingdon and Northampton, 1782. By [sc. surveyed by?] George Maxwell, [of] Graveley, co. Herts." Calligraphically written [by the same?], with sepia drawings of wild-fowl, trees, mills, etc., for headings, and finely drawn plans, on vellum. The estates lie in the North and Middle Level of the Fens, between the Welland and the Ouse. In two volumes, dealing respectively with the North Level and the Middle Level. Vol. I. also contains (f. 3) "General Remarks," giving curious particulars of management, etc. Paper and vellum; ff. 169, 209. A.D. 1782. 8 x 5½ in.

35,173. CORRESPONDENCE of William Baker, of Bridgwater, F.G.S., etc., with various (chiefly local) naturalists, together with notes and drawings of natural-history specimens, extracts from books and newspapers, etc.; 1811-1848. The names of the writers, with the principal subjects, are in the index.

Paper; ff. 352. Folio. Presented by Spencer George Perceval, Esq.

35,174. 1. "JOURNAL of a voyage to Pekin in China, on board the 'Hindustan' E.I.M., which accompanied Lord Macartney on his embassy to the Emperor," kept by William Alexander, draughtsman to the embassy [Keeper of Prints and Drawings in the British Museum, 1808]; 1792-1794. The squadron, consisting of the "Lion" [Lord Macartney's vessel], the "Hindustan" and the "Jackal" brig, sailed 21 Sept. 1792, and arrived at the mouth of the Pei-ho 5 Aug. 1793. The Journal continues the description of the voyage in junks up the river to Pekin, the reception of the embassy, and their proceedings to 26 Nov. 1793, on which day Alexander re-embarked on board the "Hindustan," being joined by Lord Macartney in the "Lion" 8 Jan. 1794. The Thames was reached 10 Sept. 1794. f. 1.

2. Another Journal of the same voyage in the "Hindustan," by W. Alexander, being a strictly nautical account of the outward voyage, 21 Sept. 1792-5 Aug. 1793, and of the homeward voyage, 25 Nov. 1793-10 Sept. 1794. Preceded by a "List of persons belonging to the Chinese Embassy" on board the "Lion" and "Hindustan" (f. 41), the "Quarter Bill" (f. 41 b) and "List of Officers and Men" on board the "Hindustan" (f. 42).

Added are, among other papers:—(a) Water-colour drawings of Chinese coast-lines. ff. 60-75;—(b) Drawings and codes of signals used in the voyages. f. 76 b;—(c) Account of the Alexander family, etc., by Edward Hughes; Aug. 1897. f. 104. For other drawings by W. Alexander and others made on the same expedition, see Add. 33,931.

Paper; ff. 105. Folio. Presented by Edward Hughes, Esq., in 1897, to the Department of Prints and Drawings, and transferred in 1898 to the Department of MSS.

35,175, 35,176. "TOPONOMIA ANTIQUA, sive vetera locorum nomina ab auctoribus maxime credendis excerpta, et ordine alphabetico digesta," by Rev. Philip Morant, author of the History of Essex (ob.

1770): an alphabetical list of ancient names of places within the British islands, with their modern equivalents and the authority for each. Two volumes. Vol. I. A.-Logh; Vol. II. Logi-Z. Holograph.

Paper; ff. 182, 150. xviiith cent. Folio.

35,177, 35,178. JOURNALS of tours, by François Brunet, Président de la Chambre des Comptes de Paris. French. Vol. I. "Voyage d'Angleterre, 1676": from Paris to London and back, with visits to Oxford, Cambridge, and a few other places, 22 Sept.-7 Nov. 1676. While in London, the writer saw something of Charles II. and his court; and his remarks on the customs prevailing there, as compared with those of the French court, are of interest. Vol. II. From Paris through Holland and Belgium, 14 Sept.-20 Oct. 1680; with descriptions added (ff. 87-94 b) of a few places omitted then, but visited later. Both volumes include copies of letters and verses written by Brunet during the tours; among them a letter to his brother the Abbé Brunet (Vol. I. f. 83 b), and a long "Épître en vers" beginning "D'Amsterdam ce septiesme Octobre" (Vol. II. f. 56 b).

Paper; ff. 213, 94. Late xviiith cent. With the author's name and arms in gold in the centre of the covers. Quarto.

35,179. LEGAL COLLECTIONS, etc., in Latin: a compilation (perhaps made in Cheshire, v. art. 11, etc.), of which a large part (artt. 10, 1, 6, 2-5) is closely akin to Harley MS. 746. Some account of the MS. relations of these articles will be found in the works of F. Liebermann cited. Artt. 4, 5 form part of the collection called "Tripartita," but in that place are joined with the other edition of art. 1.

1. "Incipit lex gloriosi Anglorum regis Ædwardi": the Leges Edwardi Confessoris in their earlier form, beg. "Post quantum annum adquisicionis" (v. Liebermann, Ueber die Leges E. C., Halle, 1896). f. 4.
2. "Incipit lex que Angli[c]e Danelage est uocata, latine uero lex Dacorum est interpretata," etc.: the Instituta Cnuti aliorumque Regum Anglorum, beg. "Hec est institutio quam Chnutus rex" (v. Liebermann in Trans. Royal Hist. Soc., N. S. vii. p. 77, and Gesetze der Angel-Sachsen, i. p. 59). f. 9.
3. De potentia Knuti regis, beg. "Chnutus rex cum xx annis regnasset": a short note including the well-known anecdote. f. 16.
4. "Decreta Willelmi Regis," beg. "Hic intimatur quid Willelmus": the Articuli Willelmi or "Hic Intimatur" (Liebermann's III. Wl., v. his Quadripartitus, p. 145). f. 16 b.
5. "Descripicio Genealogie Ducum Normannorum a Rollone," beg.

- "Primus Normannie dux Rollo qui et Robertus," etc., down to John (printed by Liebermann, Ueber die Leges E. C., p. 134). f. 17.
6. "De longitudine et latitudine Anglie," beg. "Anglia habet in longitudine dccc miliaria," etc.: on the civil, ecclesiastical and legal divisions of England (v. Liebermann, Ueber die Leges Angliae Londoniis Collectae, p. 7, note). f. 19.
 7. "Incipit Practica Equorum" (the colophon gives "Cyrn[r]gia de Curis Equorum," and a later hand inserts the title "Liber de Surgere dez Chualxz"): a tract on veterinary medicine. Includes mention of a vice "retrogradacio quod in uulgari Gallico restiuacio, in Lombardo reop dicitur," and references to "magister E" and "B de Marsilia." Beg. "Forma uirtus color in equis de iure notantur," and ends "flebotomabis eum de vena colli et erit liberatus." f. 20 b.
 8. "Incipiunt breuia de iustic[ia] et de Iudiciis": a Registrum Brevium made out in the name of Hen. III. and with dates extending to 39 Hen. III. [1253-4]. Begins with writs "De attachiacione," "De ponendo per vadia," "Propter libertatem non omittere," etc., and ends with "De die warantizato." f. 31.
 9. "Hic incipiunt casus et iudicia": select pleas, 36-39 Hen. III. (one at the end is 40 Hen. III.). The references in this, as in the preceding article, are to the county and first word of the enrolment, e.g. "Suff. Robertus," "Oxon. Job. fil. Thome." f. 36.
 10. "Incipit tractatus de legibus et consuetudinibus regni Anglie tempore Regis H[enrici] secundi compositus iusticie gubernacula tenente illustrissimo Ranulfo de Glanvilla," etc., beg. (after the table of capitula) "Regiam potestatem non solum armis": the treatise known by the name of Glanville (Chief Justiciar, 1180-1190). Contains at the end three paragraphs, beg. "Predicta uero placita siue alia qualiter uel quo iure" (purporting to be by the same author as the rest of the work), which are not in the ordinary MSS. or in Rayner's edition. f. 39 b.
 11. Another Registrum Brevium, with forms of date 39 Hen. III. Begins with "Breue de recto," followed by a regula "si terra partibilis sit," and ends with "Breue de vasto communi." Followed, in the same hand (f. 83 b), by a letter from Henry III. to Alan la Zuche, Justice of Chester, 12 July, a° 39 [1255]; in another hand, by a writ against the Bishop of Coventry, n.d.; and, in a third, by three writs of Chester Justices, of which two are dated in 1 Edw. I. [1273]. f. 74.
 12. Rules for drawing up [a manorial steward's] accounts, beg. "Primo reddatur computus de toto anno [sc. annuo] redditu tenencium." f. 84.
 13. "Prouisio de Mertonia": the Provisions of Merton, 20 Hen. III. [23 Jan. 1236], v. Statutes of the Realm (1810). i. Stat. p. 1. The last ch. (on bastardy) is omitted. Ends "regis qui nunc est in Britthaniam, et vigorem habeat ista prouisio ut supra." f. 84 b.

14. "Capitula de placitis tempore justiciariorum R. et Symonis et Gilberti et Johannis apud Hereford itinerantibus anno domini m^{cc}x^l octauo" [the Justices mentioned are perhaps Roger de Thurkilby, Simon de Wauton, Gilbert de Preston and John de Cobbeham]: the Capitula Itineris, corresponding very nearly to the first 47 articles of those printed without date in Stat. of the Realm, i. p. 233. f. 85.

On the fly-leaves are:—(a) Jingle in a 16th cent. hand, "Henricus Octavus took from us the land that our forefathers gave us and left us nought saue a bare faith to saue us, etc." f. 3. In early 14th cent. hands, (b) "De xv signis xv dierum precedentium diem iudicii": the common extract, beg. "Ieronymus in animalibus [sc. annualibus] Hebreorum" (cf. Burney MS. 357, f. 2 b). f. 87 b;—(c) Charm against mice in a granary, in Latin. f. 87 b;—(d) Assisa Panis et Ceruisiae (v. Stat. Realm, i. p. 199), with "probationes" of weights and measures and [45 Hen. III. 1260–1] of the assise of bread, for the county of Chester, with names of those who composed the courts. f. 88 b;—(e) Several writs of Prince Edward, as Earl of Chester, and of the king, 43 Hen. III. [1259]. f. 89 b;—(f) "Ces sunt les reis qui ont regne en Engleterre pus le tens Arthur" to Hen. III. f. 90;—(g) "Assisa tempore Willielmi Maynard et Nicholai le Ferur": an assise of bread at Nottingham, in part dated c. 33 Hen. III. [1248–9]. f. 90 b;—(h) Letter of the King to the barons, etc., of co. Chester, requesting conduct of his victuals to Wales, without prejudice to their liberties, 6 Aug. 30 Hen. III. [1246]. f. 90 b;—(i) Arabic numerals. f. 90 b. Vellum (except ff. 1*, 1); ff. 91. About A.D. 1300. Initials in red and blue. Belonged (f. 4) to Edward Umfreville (author of Lex Coronatoria, 1761). At f. 63 is the name (17th cent.?) of Benjamin Gardiner. Bought of Triphook, the bookseller, in 1815 by Richard Heber (Heber sale-cat. 1836, lot 117). Then belonged to Sir Thomas Phillipps (MS. 8078, sale-cat. 1895, lot 131), and to H. B. Weaver (sale-cat. 1898, lot 110). Rough calf binding. 9½ × 7 in.

35,180. "VERBUM ABBREVIATVM" of Petrus the Cantor of Notre Dame at Paris (1184, ob. 1197), with a metrical life of Thomas Becket, Archbishop of Canterbury.

super terram [Rom. ix. 28]. Si enim uerbum patris." The colophon gives the scribe's name, "Symon ei nomen, cui felix det deus omen." f. 1 b.

2. "Incipit vita sci. Thome Cantuariensis archiepiscopi" ("per rithmos a quodam clerico eleganter edita," adds the table of contents), beg. "Ante chaos iurgium indigeste molis": the poem on the martyrdom of St. Thomas as contained in Royal MS. 13 A. xiv., in Gray's Inn MS. 14, and in Digby MS. 166 at Oxford. Printed, in a mutilated form, by Thomas Stapleton (Tres Thomae, Cologne, 1612), and from the Gray's Inn MS. by Dr. Giles (Caxton Soc., Anecdota Bedae, etc., 1851). The first sixteen lines, which include enigmatic references to the author's name and origin, are here wanting, as in Stapleton's text and the Digby MS. f. 140.
3. "Incipit de magnete lapide," beg. "Magnetes lapis est inuentus apud Trogoditas": ch. xix. of the poem of Marbodius, Bishop of Rennes (1096-1123), De Gemmis, printed in Migne, clxxi. col. 1751. f. 142 b.
4. Note in French on the mariner's compass, beg. "E ki est en peril de mer e en nuile." f. 142 b.

Eight letters, the fifth of which (6 June, 1773) contains the following characteristic passage, "What can France desire more, than to see her Rival sinking every year, from being mistress of the world, land and sea, into the Bubble of her Enemies, and the Scorn of Nations? She will therefore leave us to pursue, unmolested, tho' not always unfrightend, our own plans of self-destruction, and let Peace ruin us, without risquing a war." ff. 1-18, 49;—(2) Hester [Pitt, Countess of] Chatham; 27 Apr. 1775-18 March, 1779. Fourteen letters. ff. 20, 22, 26, 28, 31-41, 45, 47, 53-61;—(3) [William Fitzmaurice-Petty, Earl of] Shelburne; 5 Aug. 1775-18 Aug. 1776. ff. 24, 29, 43;—(4) William Pitt, the younger, 27 July, 1782-10 June, 1800. Six letters. ff. 62-66, 71, 80;—(5) Henry Addington; 13 June, 1794-23 Apr. 1800. Five letters. ff. 67, 69, 75-79. Paper; ff. 80. Quarto.

35,193-35,201. BRIDPORT PAPERS. Vols. III.-XI. General correspondence of Lord Bridport, consisting chiefly of official orders and letters to him when on active service from the Admiralty and naval officers, with some holograph drafts or copies of his replies. Arranged chronologically in nine volumes. Folio. The names of the writers are given in the index.

| | 35,201. Vol. XI. (IX. ff. 372). 1800-1806. |

In the last volume are included:—(1) Correspondence and papers relating to Greenwich Hospital, 1766-1799, during which period Lord Bridport was Treasurer. f. 201;—(2) Twelve commissions to Lord Bridport, appointing him to various ranks and commands in the Navy, 1746-1795. Vellum. f. 349.

35,202. BRIDPORT PAPERS. Vol. XII. (ff. 333). Family and private correspondence, consisting of letters from members of the Hood family, Lord Bridport's estate-agents and others, with some letters and papers connected with his shares and interest in prizes, etc.; 1755-1800. The names of the writers are given in the index. Paper. Folio.

35,203. EPILOGUE to the "Idylls of the King," by Alfred Tennyson, Baron Tennyson, addressed to H.M. Queen Victoria and first printed in 1872. The original holograph MS. Paper; ff. 2. Folio. Presented by Hallam, 2nd Baron Tennyson (see his letter, 7 June, 1898, f. 3).

35,204. ISSUE-ROLL of the Exchequer for Easter term, 6 Hen. VI. [1428], "Johanne Throkmarton, ex parte Ricardi [Nevile], comitis Warr[wick], Camerario existente." Endorsed as examined 4 Oct. anno 8 [1429]. Extracts from the issues of this term are printed in Devon's Issues of the Exchequer, 1837, see p. 403 and preceding years. Vellum roll; 34 ft. × 1 ft. 7 in. A.D. 1428. Belonged to Sir Thomas Phillipps (MS. 26,412, sale-cat. 1898, lot 636).

35,205. PRECEDENTS FOR WRITS and royal letters, administrative as well as judicial, in Latin: a vellum roll written on both sides, probably for office use, apparently soon after 8 Hen. VI. [1430]. The writs are without date, but in many cases the full names are given. Many of the common writs found in a Registrum Brevium are absent, but some procedure writs (Error, Certiorari, Supersedeas, etc.) are included. Præmunire and Prohibitions are very fully represented, and Commissions of various kinds (for Inquisitions, Gaol Delivery, Oyer and Terminer, Array, Muster, various offices, etc.), Licences, Pardons, Safe-conducts, Precepts respecting *Tenth*s and *Fifteenth*s and the like are very numerous. Forms are given of the De Heretico Comburendo, and writs for the arrest of Lollards, also for the arrest of Sir John Oldcastle and for inquisition into his property, and against a band of malefactors in Surrey and Sussex under one who assumed "nomen de Frere Tuk iam de nouo vulgariter nuncupatum." At the end are added a few powers to ambassadors and other later documents, extending to 3 Hen. VII. [1487-8]. The outer sheet of the roll contains a list of gaol's and names of knights, etc., for the commissions for gaol delivery (temp. Hen. VI.?).

Vellum roll; 44 ft. 1 in. × 10½ in. xvth cent. An old sale number 467 (see folio Phillipps catalogue). Phillipps MS. 14,017 (sale-cat. 1898, lot 635).

35,206. ACCOUNT of Sir Robert Dormer, Knt., Vice-Treasurer of the Rearguard of the English Army sent against France [at Mottreul], 4 May-5 Nov. 36 Hen. VIII. [1544], for sums paid for coat-and-conduct-money, transport and pay of English troops and also of "Alluaines" under Maximilian, Count of Buren, and Irish Kernes under Lord Power [Piers Power, Baron Le Power and Coroghmore]. The accountant's duplicate, acquitted 25 Mar. 1545. Paper roll; 14 ft. 2 in. × 12½ in. A.D. 1545. Phillipps MS. 33,649 (sale-cat. 1898, lot 311).

- 35,207. A TRACT on English Trade with Germany and Eastland, addressed to Queen Elizabeth, by George Nedham, setting forth the advantage of transferring it from the dominions of the House of Burgundy (i.e. the Spanish Netherlands) to the port of Emden. Written circ. 1562 (f. 9), but incorporating "articles" drawn up earlier. Nedham appears from several papers in the Lansdowne MSS. (esp. Lansd. 35, f. 116), to have been farmer of the Custom House Quay in London. A note by him on the same subject is in Lansd. 32, f. 147, and he probably had a hand in the tract Add. MS. 29,251, addressed to the Count of East Friesland in 1564, though this last purports to be by a Frisian subject. Paper; ff. 16. About A.D. 1562. Some leaves mouse-eaten. Old press-mark E 17. From the Scudamore collection at Holme Lacy (catal. of T. Thorpe, the bookseller, 1850, no. 310). Phillipps MS. 12,395 (sale-cat. 1898, lot 357). Original vellum cover, gilt tooling. $12\frac{3}{4} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ in.
- 35,208. RETURN OF BENEFICES in the diocese of London which in 30 Elizabeth [1587-8] were in the presentation of the crown, with all the presentations since made whether by the crown or others. Dated 10 Nov. 1632. Seven vellum membranes, 2 ft. 2 in. \times 10 in., with portion of episcopal seal. Phillipps MS. 29,754 (sale-cat. 1898, lot 176).
- 35,209. ACCOUNT of money, plate, horses, etc., received by Abraham Boune in co. Warwick and the city and county of Coventry for the service of the Parliament, 3 Sept. 1642-12 Apr. 1643, with notes of payments, etc. Apparently rendered finally in April, 1647, and signed by Abraham Boune, [Colonel] John Barker and Thomas Basnet. Index of names at f. 5. The old vellum cover (ff. 1, 2) is part of a mortgage of lands in Great Packington, co. Warw., in 1641, one Adryan Shacksper being a party. A Thomas Shacksper appears in the body of the book (f. 20). Paper (ff. 1, 2 vellum); ff. 36. A.D. 1642-7. Bought by Sir Thomas Phillipps from Payne, the bookseller (see folio Phillipps catalogue). Phillipps MS. 13,651 (sale-cat. 1898, lot 178). 14×9 in.
- 35,210. CORRESPONDENCE of Pierre François Le Courayer, canon in the Augustinian house of Sainte Geneviève, author of a work in defence of the validity of Anglican ordination, the censures upon which compelled him to take refuge in England in Jan. 1728; 1727-1728. In French. The contents consist of:—(1) Original letters addressed to him after his escape by a friend in Paris; 27 Jan.-7 July, 1728. f. 2;—(2) Extracts, made by the same friend, from Le Courayer's own letters to various persons previous to his flight; 3 Sept. 1727-6 Jan. 1728. f. 14. The name of Le Courayer is written in the margin of f. 14. MSS.—1898.

rayers's correspondent [possibly the Abbé de la Vigne, see MSS. Ste. Genev. 1965-7] is throughout carefully concealed, every precaution being used to screen those who assisted in his escape. The letters are addressed to Le Courayer under the name of "Monsieur Langley," and his friends are alluded to under the names of the streets in which they lived or are otherwise disguised. Thus "M. de Bétizy" stands for the Abbé Louis Élies Girardin, "Le P. P." for the chanoine Claude Prévost, "M. de La Jussienne" apparently for Bishop Atterbury, etc.

Paper; ff. 17. A.D. 1727-8. Bought by Sir Thomas Phillipps from Cochran, the bookseller (Cochran's catalogue, 1829, no. 133). Phillipps MS. 6428 (sale-cat. 1898, lot 265). $9\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,211. A-GG. COLLECTION of coloured drawings from ancient painted glass, by Charles Winston, of the Inner Temple. For other collections by the same, v. Add. MSS. 33,846-33,849. The drawings were exhibited in 1865 at the rooms of the Arundel Society, when a catalogue was printed, to which an account of the collector is prefixed. They are now arranged topographically as follows:—

The greater part of the collection has been transferred from the Department of Prints and Drawings, to which it was presented by the collector's widow, Mrs. Maria Winston, in 1866; the remainder was presented by the same (now Mrs. Maria Poingdestre) in 1898. Atlas folio.

- 35,212. ST. JOHN CHRYSOSTOM, Homilies on Genesis. Imperfect, containing Hom. x. 7, οὐδὲ γὰρ ἦν ἄλλως ἡμᾶς συνιέναι—xvii. 2, ἐν μέσῳ τοῦ παραδείσου, with the omission of (1) xi. 3, γένηται μήτε ὁ θυμῶδης—xi. 4, ἐν γὰρ θανάτῳ, (2) xiv. 5, (ψυ)χὴν τὰ τοῦ θεοῦ μεριμνῶσαν—xv. 1, εἰπὼν τῷ Ἀδὰμ, and (3) xvi. 6, αἰσχύνῃ καὶ ταπεινότητι—xvii. 1, φιλανθρωπίαν καὶ ὅσα κέχρηται).

Vellum; ff. 43. xith cent. Double columns. A leaf is missing after ff. 5, 27, and 41, and nearly half of f. 42 is torn away. Titles in red, preceded by a small ornamental pattern in colours. 13 $\frac{3}{4}$ x 11 in.

- 35,213. CATALOGUES OF MANUSCRIPTS and Printed Books, temp. Jas. I., being part of a bundle of catalogues from the Fairfax collection at Leeds Castle.

1. Catalogue of printed books and manuscripts [belonging to John Dee, the astrologer, ob. 1608], now widely dispersed. Another list of this library (dated 1583, when it was larger) is in Harley MS. 1879, f. 20, and was printed (so far as the MSS. are concerned) by J. O. Halliwell for the Camden Society, 1842. f. 1.
2. Catalogue of a fine collection of about 270 manuscripts, chiefly historical or theological, but including several interesting English works, being the same library of which there is a list in Harley MS. 1879, ff. 1-10. In neither case is the owner mentioned. While at least thirty or forty volumes can be certainly identified among the Cotton MSS., and several in the Arundel, Harley and Thayer (now Royal) collections, a quite equal number are certainly not in the Museum collections. A distinctive mark of this library seems to be an inscription in a kind of shorthand cypher, see e.g. Cotton MSS. Vesp. D. v., Vesp. D. xix. and Claud. C. vi., Arundel MS. 231, Harley MS. 3173. Marginal notes mention Lord Carew [George

- Carew, 1st Baron, 1605, cr. in 1626 Earl of Totness] and Lord William [Howard?] as borrowing books. f. 5.
3. Autograph memoranda by Sir Robert Cotton about his MSS., resembling those in Harley MSS. 1879 and 6018. They include:—(a) “A catalogue of such books as Sir Robert Cotton had of one Jacob Chaloner,” apparently a note in answer to some official enquiry respecting Sir William Dethick’s books. f. 33;—(b) Books borrowed from Patrick Young and another person whose name is torn off. f. 34;—(c) Extracts from the old MS. catalogue of the Cotton library, as contained in Harley MS. 6018, comprising various nos. between 38 and 73. f. 35;—(d) Another fragment of a catalogue, in which, however, the numbers do not correspond to Harley MS. 6018, nor can all the MSS. be accounted for. f. 37;—(e) A note of some imperfect books. f. 41;—(f) “A note of such books and bundells of paper in the lower study that ar not inserted in the catalodg.” This includes a mention of the coins. f. 42. At the end (f. 44) is a note in another hand.
4. A classed catalogue of a library of printed books (1495–1595), written on slips and pasted in under various headings. f. 46. Paper; ff. 84. Early xviii cent. Sold at the Leeds Castle sale in 1831, lot 113. Belonged to Sir Tho. Phillipps (MS. 10,701, sale-cat. 1898, lot 400). Folio.

The following Nos., 35,214–35,221, were presented by Miss Helen Lindsay.

- 35,214. HOURS of the Virgin, etc., in Latin. The contents are:—(1) Calendar, partly in French, with SS. Vincent and Denis (20 Jan. and 9 Oct.) in gold. f. 1;—(2) Lessons from the four Evangelists. f. 14;—(3) “Passio domini nostri iesu christi secundum iohannem,” with the “Stabat mater dolorosa” and prayers. f. 18;—(4) “Hore diue virginis marie totum ad lon[gum].” ff. 29, 52;—(5, 6) “Ad matutinas de cruce” and “Ad matutinas de sancto spiritu,” between Lauds and Prime of the Virgin. ff. 48, 50;—(7) “Septem psalmi penitenciales,” with Litany. f. 85;—(8) Vigils of the Dead. f. 102;—(9) “Suffragia,” or memorials of saints, including SS. Roch, Apollonia, and Geneviève. f. 125 b;—(10) Prayers, viz. “Obsecro te,” “O intemerata,” and “Septem orationes beati gregori[i]” f. 136.
- Vellum; ff. 141. About A.D. 1500. Flemish style. Full-page miniatures at the beginning of each office, and small miniatures at the chief divisions. Illuminated borders (flowers, insects, etc., on a gold ground) and initials throughout. Bound in dark green velvet, with silver clasps and bosses, the centre boss in each cover engraved with the initials MH and date 1632. Leaf-measurements originally $4 \times 2\frac{3}{4}$ in., now $5 \times 3\frac{3}{4}$ in., each leaf being inlaid in vellum.

34,215. Hours of the Virgin, etc., in Latin. The contents are:—

(1) Calendar, in French, SS. Vincent, Lupus and Giles, and Denis (22 Jan., 1 Sept., 9 Oct.) in gold. f. 3;—(2) Lessons from the four Evangelists. f. 9;—(3) "Obsecro te" and "O intemerata." f. 13 b;—(4) "Passio domini nostri ihesu christi secundum iohannem." f. 17 b;—(5) Hours of the Virgin. ff. 27, 45;—(6, 7) Matins of the Cross and of the Holy Ghost, between Lauds and Prime of the Virgin. ff. 42, 44;—(8) Penitential Psalms, with Litany. f. 83;—(9) Vigils of the Dead. f. 97;—(10) Memorials of Saints, including SS. Roch, Claude [Archbishop of Besançon, patron of St. Claude in the Jura], and Geneviève. f. 127.

Vellum; ff. 137. Early xvth cent. Executed in France. Full-page miniatures at the beginning of each office, and small miniatures at the chief divisions. Illuminated borders and initials throughout. A full-page miniature at f. 96 b represents a man and his wife and eight children (? the patron and his family). The Calendar has miniatures of the signs of the zodiac and appropriate pursuits for each month. Book-plate and signature of Eugène Paillet, counsellor in the Cour d'appel de Paris (see H. Beraldi, Bibliothèque d'un Bibliophile, Lille, 1885, pp. ix., 2). The binding, of purple velvet, said to be by Bauzonnet, and the volume to have belonged to Ch. Brunet (Beraldi, p. 2). $7\frac{3}{4} \times 4\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Calendar, in French. f. 2;—(2) Lessons from the four Evangelists. f. 14;—(3) "Obsecro te" and "O intemerata." f. 19;—(4) "Stabat mater dolorosa," with versicles and prayer. f. 26 b;—(5) Hours of the Virgin; Memorials of Saints in Lauds, including Romanus [Bishop of Rouen] and Apollonia. f. 30;—(6) Hours of the Cross. f. 77;—(7) Hours of the Holy Ghost. f. 81;—(8) Penitential Psalms, with Litany. f. 85;—(9) "Vigilie mortuorum." f. 100 b.

Vellum; ff. 128. Late xvth cent. Executed in France. Miniatures at the beginning of each office. Illuminated borders and initials throughout. In the Calendar, each day has a separate background, blue, red, green or gold; small miniatures of the signs of the zodiac and of the occupations proper to each month. A shield of six quarterings has been inserted on f. 1 b, as follows:—1. Chadwick, of Chadwick and Healey, co. Lanc.;—2. Malveysin, of Mavesyn-Ridware, co. Staff.;—3. Cawarden, of Mavesyn-Ridware;—4. Bagot, cos. Staff. and Derby;—5. Chadwick, of Mavesyn-Ridware;—6. Sacheverell, cos. Warwick and Derby. These appear to be the arms of Charles Chadwick of Mavesyn-Ridware (Sheriff of Staffordshire, 1719, ob. 1756), or of one of his descendants: see S. Shaw, Hist. of Staffordshire, vol. i., 1798, p. 18. Another shield, apparently contemporaneous with the MS., is in the border on f. 7: gules, a saltire engrailed or between three cre-cents argent and in base a lion rampant sable. This is repeated several times on ff. 37 b, 38, with a fourth crescent in place of the lion; and it occurs also on f. 13 b (with the further addition of a bordure engrailed az.) impaled with gules, semée of estoiles or, three garbs of the second, the shield being between the initials T. M. 6 × 4½ in.

35,217. HOURS of the Virgin, etc., in Latin. The contents are:—(1) Calendar, in French, SS. Geneviève, Vincent, Lupus, Giles, Denis, Marcel (3 Nov., Bishop of Paris), in red, the distinctive colour. f. 1;—(2) Lessons from the four Evangelists. f. 13;—(3) "Obsecro te" and "O intemerata." f. 18;—(4) Hours of the Virgin. f. 26;—(5) Penitential Psalms, with Litany. f. 75;—(6) Hours of the Cross. f. 91;—(7) Hours of the Holy Ghost. f. 97;—(8) "Vigilie mortuorum." f. 101 b;—(9) Memorials of Saints, including Denis and Eustace. f. 130.

Vellum; ff. 141. Late xvth cent. Executed in France, probably in Paris. Thirteen miniatures, at the beginning of artt. 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, and of each office in art 4. Borders and initials throughout. 5½ × 4 in.

35,218. "OFFICIUM Beate Mariæ virginis secundum vsu[m] et consuetudinem almæ ecclesiæ Bisuntinæ ad longum sine require (sic) vna cum alijs officijs et orationibus deuotissimis. Gregorius de La Placa scribebat . anno M.DXXXV. Barcinone." Contents:—(1) Calendar: in red are SS. Vincent, Giles, and Denis, also Claude, Archbishop [of Besançon] and Confessor, 6 June. f. 2;—(2) Chronological tables, for finding moveable feasts, etc. f. 14;—(3) "Passio Domini nostri Iesu Christi secundum Ioannem," followed by lessons from the four Evangelists, and by antiphons, prayers, etc., including the "Stabat mater." f. 16;—(4) "Officium beatæ Mariæ virginis, secundum consuetudinem almæ ecclesiæ Bisuntinæ": Hours of the Virgin, followed severally by the Hours of the Cross and of the Holy Ghost. f. 31;—(5) "Septem Psalmi pœnitentiales," with Litany. f. 89;—(6) "Vigiliæ mortuorum." f. 99;—(7) "Officium Conceptionis beatæ Mariæ virginis." f. 120;—(8) "Loffice de nostre dame de Pitie," in French, except the Psalms. f. 125.

Vellum; ff. 132. Written at Barcelona in 1535 (see above). Full-page miniatures at the beginning of each office, executed in a style partly French, partly Flemish. Illuminated initials throughout. In the border on f. 125 b is a lozenge-shaped shield, coupé, the chief or, an eagle displayed sable, the base azure, three bezants. Bound in black leather with chased silver clasps and bosses, the clasps forming the initials BN. $7\frac{1}{2} \times 4\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,219. HOURS of the Virgin, etc., in Latin. The contents are:—(1) "Officium beate marie virginis secundum Consuetudinem Romane Curie." f. 1;—(2) "Septem psalmi penitentiales," with Litany. f. 83;—(3) "Officium mortuorum." f. 109;—(4) "Officium passionis domini nostri iesu christi compositum per Iohannem papam .xxij. [1410-1415, ob. 1419]. Quo concessit cuilibet illud dicenti penitenti et confesso unum annum de indulgentia." f. 163;—(5) "Officium sancti spiritus." f. 166;—(6) Prayer, headed: "Papa sixtus. iiij. [1471-1484] concessit cuilibet deuote dicenti infrascriptam orationem undecim milia annorum de uera indulgentia pro qualibet uice." f. 170. Colophon, "Facta fine pia: laudetur semper uirgo maria." f. 170 b;—(7) Calendar (evidently bound up at the end by mistake). f. 171. Vellum; ff. 182. Late xvth cent. (after 1484: see art. 6 above). Executed in Italy. Illuminated borders and miniature-initials at the beginnings of artt. 1-5. In the border of f. 1 is a shield supported by two amorini, gules, three stags' heads or. $3 \times 2\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,220. HOURS of the Virgin, etc., in Latin. ADDITIONAL MANUSCRIPTS

35,252. "DOCUMENTS relatifs à la mission de Henri de Taillefer, Sieur de Barrière, agent du Prince de Condé à Londres, 1652-1656," copied in May, 1895, from the Condé papers at Chantilly, under the direction of M. Gustave Macon, Librarian to the Duc d'Aumale; with a few copies of letters among the Lenet papers at the Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris. The transcripts, which were made for Prof. S. R. Gardiner (History of the Commonwealth, vol. ii., 1897, pp. v.-vi.), include the despatches of Barrière, supplemented by extracts from the correspondence of Condé with his agents elsewhere and with other persons. At f. 236 is a letter to him from Charles II., dated Cologne, 5 Nov. 1655. Prefixed is a notice of Barrière signed by G[ustave] Macon (ff. 3-6).

35,253. PHOTOGRAPH of Vatican MS. 4086, ff. 1-82 (early 14th cent.), containing:—

1. The Opus Majus of Roger Bacon, parts i.-iv. Beg. "Sapientie perfecta consideratio." f. 1. Ends "usquequo uestra reuerentia requirit principalem scripturam," omitting the section on astrology (ed. Bridges, Oxford, 1897, vol. i. p. 376). No titles to the several sections, which are marked (chapters and larger divisions alike) by ornamental initials. The text differs considerably from that of the Oxford edition, and approaches more nearly (so far as can now be judged) to the injured Cotton MS. Julius D. v., but is not a copy of it; e.g., it omits the passage in support of the study of languages (Jul. D. v., ff. 107-108 b).
2. Letter [from Roger Bacon] to Pope Clement [IV., 1265-68], containing an epitome of the Opus Majus. Beg. "Sanctissimo patri domino Clementi . . . Cum tante reuerentie dignitas." f. 149 (Vat. MS. f. 75). Ends "et a partibus ad tota." Printed in Engl. Hist. Rev., 1897, xii. 497, by the Rev. F. A. Gasquet, who regarded it as the preface to the Opus Majus; Dr. Bridges, on the other hand, preferred to call it a draft of Bacon's Opus Tertium (Opus Majus, 1897, vol. i. p. xix*.).

Paper; ff. 163. $7 \times 4\frac{1}{2}$ in. (reduced from the original). Presented by the Rev. Francis Aidan Gasquet, D.D., O.S.B.

35,254. MINIATURES and borders, taken out of Italian illuminated MSS., on vellum; formerly in the collection of the late John Malcolm of Poltalloch:—

- A. David lifting up his soul (in the form of an infant) to God, in a large initial A (Ps. xxiv.); with musical notes. Tuscan school, xivth cent. $16 \times 11\frac{3}{4}$ in.
- B. St. Michael and his Angels, in combat with the Dragon and his host; below, the miracle of Monte Galgano. From a choral book, with musical notes (App. ii. 1 in the Descriptive Catalogue of . . . the collection of John Malcolm of Poltalloch, Esq., by Sir J. C. Robinson, 1876, p. 277). Tuscan school, xivth cent. $17\frac{1}{2} \times 12\frac{3}{4}$ in.
- C. The Annunciation, in a large initial R (Descr. Cat., App. ii. 2). Tuscan school, xvth cent. $13\frac{1}{2} \times 11\frac{1}{2}$ in.
- D. The Resurrection, in a large initial R. Milanese school, circ. 1500. $12 \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ in.
- E. Adoration of the Magi, in an initial C. Milanese school, circ. 1500. $7\frac{3}{4} \times 7\frac{3}{4}$ in.
- F. The Last Supper, in an initial N. Milanese school, circ. 1500. $7 \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.
- G. The Nativity, in an initial P; below, the Annunciation to shepherds (Descr. Cat., App. ii. 3). Umbrian school, late xvth cent. 16×13 in.
- H. Scroll-work border; from a MS. formerly in the Vatican (Descr. Cat., App. ii. 5). xvth cent. $14\frac{1}{2} \times 10$ in.
- I. Border, containing the arms and device (a ring with three feathers) of Cardinal Giulio de' Medici [Cardinal, 1513; Pope, as Clement VII., 1523; died 1534]; within are an initial T enclosing a miniature of a cardinal performing mass, and an inscription "Julius de Medicis, Cardin. Electus Sum. Pontif. (Clemens VII.) Anno Dom. m^odxiiii." (Descr. Cat., App. ii. 6). North-Italian, xvth cent. $13\frac{3}{4} \times 9\frac{3}{4}$ in.
- K. Ornamental border, containing figures of a pope, a cardinal, and two bishops: within are two small miniatures, (1) Angels adoring the Host, (2) the Last Supper. Executed by Giulio Clovio, ob. 1578 (Descr. Cat., App. ii. 11). $13\frac{3}{4} \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ in.

- L. Assumption of the Virgin; enclosed within a border of arabesque with eight medallions, four of which contain the arms and devices of Pope Clement VII. (Cat., App. ii. 7). 1523-34. $12\frac{3}{8} \times 10$ in.
- M. Martyrdom of St. Blaise; evidently from the same book as L above, having a similar border (Cat., App. ii. 8). $12\frac{1}{2} \times 10$ in.
- N. Five borders of birds, flowers, etc., on gold backgrounds, apparently from a single MS. (Cat., App. ii. 9). Circ. 1500. Mounted on a leaf measuring $15\frac{1}{2} \times 11\frac{3}{8}$ in.
- O. The Last Supper; in the border are the arms and portrait of Pope Paul III. [Alessandro Farnese, 1534-1549] (Cat., App. ii. 10). $13\frac{1}{2} \times 10\frac{3}{4}$ in.
- P. Border, with medallions of the four Evangelists; attributed to Giulio Clovio (Cat., App. ii. 12). xvith cent. $14 \times 10\frac{3}{8}$ in.
- Q. A papal ceremony (creation of cardinals?): Paul IV. [Giampietro Caraffa, 1555-1559] stands in front of the papal throne, reading from a book which two cardinals hold open; a third cardinal, with a cardinal standing on each side of him, kneels on the steps before the throne holding a book open; four other cardinals and several dignitaries stand or kneel about the Pope. Executed by Apollonio di Bonfratelli: the letters "A P" are on the right hand side of the miniature, and in cartouches on the right and left hand borders are "APP" and "D. B. F." ("Appollonio di Bonfratelli fecit": see Cat., App. ii. 13). Circ. 1555-59. $12\frac{3}{8} \times 9\frac{3}{8}$ in.
- R. David kneeling, before a vision of God; within a border filled with amorini, peacocks, stags, etc., and containing the arms of Cybo of Genoa. Circ. 1500. $5\frac{3}{4} \times 3\frac{3}{8}$ in. (Cat., App. ii. 14.)
- S. Henry VIII., holding a roll [? the bull, dated 11 Oct. 1521, which gave him the title "Defender of the Faith"] and supported by a Cardinal [? Wolsey] holding an open book [? Henry's book against Luther], is disputing with Charles V. before Pope Leo X. [1513-Dec. 1521]; in the foreground, in front of Charles, is a dragon transfixed by a spear-head. 35,256. FORTY-NINE original letters from Charles Lamb to Bernard Barton, the Quaker poet; 11 Sept. 1822-21 Apr. 1831. Hologr., except f. 37, which is a copy by Barton, the original verses "For Lucy Barton's Album" having been taken for insertion there. They include all but two of Lamb's letters to Barton printed in The Letters of Charles Lamb, ed. Ainger, 1888, vol. ii. pp. 43-269 (the two exceptions at pp. 104, 106), and also (f. 57) a note concerning Mitford's china (cf. Ainger, ii. pp. 116, 155), which has not been printed. The dates are in most cases only supplied by the post-marks; Canon Ainger has mistaken three of these, viz. 5 Mar. for 5 Apr. 1823; 3 July for 3 June, 1829; and 30 Apr. for 21 Apr. 1831 (ff. 13, 82, 94, Ainger, ii. pp. 68, 227, 269). At the end is a list, made by Mrs. Edward FitzGerald [Miss Lucy Barton].

Paper; ff. 97. Quarto. Presented by the Rev. Bernard Barton and Mrs. A. FitzPatrick, residuary legatees of Mrs. Edward FitzGerald.

35,257. IMPRESSIONS from the sepulchral brass of Sir Anthony Fitzherbert, Justice of the Common Pleas (ob. 1538), at Norbury, co. Derby, and of his second wife and family; with its palimpsest reverses.

Eight paper rolls. Presented by the Society of Antiquaries.

35,258. ANECDOTES, notes of events, etc., circ. 1770-1799. On f. 1 b is a note by Dr. R[ichard] Garnett: "This MS., bought from Mr. John Taylor, bookseller, of Northampton, is a transcript, made between 1850 and 1860, of notes of conversations held between 1770 and 1790 [but the date 1799 occurs on f. 132]. The original writer moved in good society.... As there is no chronological order in the notes, they must have been set down on separate sheets of paper." Conversations are not reported fully; only particular items which interested the writer are noted, and the authorities are only cited occasionally, as "Mr. Duane to me, Ap. 17, 1775" (f. 13), "I had these memoranda from Mr. Astle himself" (f. 118), "Lady Saville told me" (f. 16). Topham Beauclerk is frequently cited (ff. 13, 15, etc.). There are a few legal and many medical anecdotes; the rest is for the most part mere gossip.

MSS.—1899.

Paper; ff. 44. Folio. Presented by Spencer G. Perceval, Esq.

35,263-35,265. ORIGINAL LETTERS to George Thomson, of Edinburgh, the friend of Robert Burns the poet, and editor of several collections of Scottish, Welsh, and Irish songs, from composers, poets and others, relating to these publications, with copies of a few of his replies; 1793-1847. The composers are Leopold Kozeluch, Franz Joseph Haydn, Ludwig van Beethoven, Henry Rowley Bishop, Carl Maria von Weber, and Johann Nepomuk Hummel (for the music composed by some of these for Thomson, see below, 35,270-35,279). The poets (whose letters deal mainly with Thomson's requests for songs, and with his criticisms upon those written for him, and enclose many of the songs themselves) include Sir Walter Scott, Thomas Moore, Thomas Campbell, James Hogg, Joanna Baillie, Amelia Opie, Sir Alexander Boswell of Auchinlock, John Gibson Lockhart, and a few others of less note, the most voluminous correspondent being William Smyth, of Peterhouse, Cambridge, Professor of Modern History, of whom Thomson remarks in an endorsement, "He has been a second Burns to me, God bless him!" (35,265, f. 34b). There are a few letters from members of Burns's family, including his widow's answers (post 1800) to a series of questions as to the identity of the heroines of his songs (35,265, f. 341). The names of all the writers, with full references, will be found in the index. For Thomson's own letters, see below (35,266-35,269). Many extracts from the correspondence are contained in J. C. Hadden's George Thomson, the Friend of Burns, 1898. Three volumes, arranged chronologically, as follows: Vol. I. (ff. 323) 1793-1810; Vol. II. (ff. 326) 1811-1817; Vol. III. (ff. 345) 1818-1847, and undated.

Paper. Folio.

35,266-35,269. LETTER-BOOKS of George Thomson, relating to his collections of songs; 1803-1851. Containing copies, mostly autograph, of his letters to the writers of the preceding volumes, 35,263-35,265, and to others. Four volumes. Vol. I. (ff. 141) 1803-9 Oct. 1809; Vol. II. (ff. 188) 13 Oct. 1809-3 Mar. 1817; Vol. III. (ff. 187) 29 May, 1817-12 Sept. 1828; Vol. IV. (ff. 154) Nov. 1829-3 Jan. 1851.
Paper. Folio.

35,270-35,279. COLLECTION of Scottish, Welsh, and Irish airs for one or two voices, with symphonies and accompaniments for violin, violoncello, and pianoforte (and in 35,270-1 flute also), and a few sonatas introducing Scottish airs for the same instruments, composed for, and most of them published by, George Thomson, of Edinburgh (see above, 35,263). The first four volumes are in score; in the others the string parts are separate.

35,270. THREE SETS of Scottish songs, by J. N. Hummel. The first twelve (ff. 2 b-36 b) were composed in 1830; five (ff. 45 b-53) in 1826; and three (ff. 55, 55 b) in 1831 (?). The corrections and emendations (ff. 40-44), and the last three songs, are autograph.
Paper; ff. 56. Circ. 1826-1831. Small quarto.

35,271. SCOTTISH SONGS, with German translations, by Carl Maria von Weber; with autograph corrections on ff. 9, 9 b.
Paper; ff. 9. Circ. 1825 (supposed date of composition). Oblong duodecimo.

35,272, 35,273. SCOTTISH AIRS for one or two voices, by Franz Joseph Haydn, chiefly in the hand of his amanuensis J. Radnitzky, with autograph additions, vol. i. ff. 21-22 b.

35,274. FOUR SETS of Welsh airs for one or two voices, by the same, in the same hand, with an autograph note by the composer at the beginning, in which the date 1804 is assigned to the harmonies.

Paper; ff. 44. Circ. 1804. Oblong octavo.

35,275. 1. THE VIOLIN and violoncello parts of the airs in the preceding volume. ff. 1-26 b.

2. "Six [Scottish] Airs with variations . . . by Joseph Haydn, 1805," of which the first is autograph. ff. 27-42 b.

3. Six sonatas by Ignaz Pleyel. Autograph. Late 18th cent. ff. 43-96.

Paper; ff. 96. xviiith-xixth centt. Oblong folio.

35,276. SCOTTISH AIRS for one or two voices, by Ignaz Pleyel, almost entirely autograph.

Paper; ff. 33. Late xviiith cent. Oblong folio.

35,277. THREE SETS of Scottish airs for one or two voices, by Leopold Kozeluch. Autograph.

Paper; ff. 51. Late xviiith cent. Oblong folio.

35,278. 1. THE VIOLONCELLO parts of the Scottish airs in 35,276, by Ignaz Pleyel. ff. 1-3 b.

2. The violin and violoncello parts (with a corrected version of the latter) to the Scottish airs in 35,277 (ff. 16-29), by L. Kozeluch. Autograph. ff. 4-26.

3. Two other Scottish songs, wanting the violoncello parts, by the same. ff. 27, 27 b.

4. Irish airs for one or two voices, by the same; 1809. ff. 29 b-38.

5. Welsh airs for one or two voices, by the same; 1809. ff. 40 b-66 b.

6. Two sets of three sonatas with Scottish airs, by the same. ff. 67-105 b.

Paper; ff. 105. Late xviiith cent., 1809, etc. Oblong folio.

35,279. THE VIOLIN and violoncello parts to the Scottish airs in 35,277 (ff. 30 b-45) and the sonatas in 35,278 (ff. 67-105 b), by L. Kozeluch.

Paper; ff. 112. Small quarto. Presented by W. E. Miller, Esq.

The following Nos., 35,283-35,298, belonged to the collection of MSS. formed by Bertram Ashburnham, fourth Earl of Ashburnham (ob. 1878), being comprised in the particular section known as the "Appendix" (see the Catalogue of the MSS. at Ashburnham Place, Appendix). They were purchased at a sale of a portion of the "Appendix" at the auction-rooms of Messrs. Sotheby, 1 May, 1899.

35,283. PSALTER, in Latin and French. The volume contains:—

1. Calendar, in Latin. f. 1. Clearly executed for a Benedictine house in the North of England. An insertion (late 13th cent.) at 10 May, "Dedicacio ecclesie de Emyldon" [Embleton, co. Northumb.], suggests Finchale Priory, near Durham (cf. Bateson, Northumberland, vol. ii., 1895, pp. 19, 23, 27). This suggestion is borne out by the Calendar, which includes, in red, Cuthbert (20 Mar.) and "Translacio beati patris Cuthberti" (4 Sept.), Boisil (7 July), Oswald (5 Aug.) and Ebba (25 Aug. and 2 Nov.); and, in black, Benedict Biscop (12 Jan.), Godric (21 May) and Oswin (20 Aug.). St. Edmund of Canterbury (16 Nov., canonized 1246) also appears. Many obits of the family of Lee, or de La Lee, have been inserted, e.g. "Obitus Ricardi de la Lee in anno pestilenciali anno domini mccc. lxxj." (21 Oct.), "Le obbite Alice feme Ricard de Lee m^cccc. lxxj." (16 June), and "Obitus Tristremi Lee anno domini millesimo cccc^{mo} lxxix. et ille dedit istud psalterium Abbati et conuentui beate Marie de Whalley" (17 July). Mention of this family occurs frequently in Whitaker's Hist. of Whalley (ed. 1872-4, vol. i. p. 121, vol. ii. pp. 60-64, etc.) and in the Coucher Book of Whalley Abbey (Chetham Soc., 1847-9). On 21 June is the entry "Obitus Ade de Sint Philibert" (? Ada, widow of John de St. Philibert, ob. 1349. See Gage, Hist. of Thingoe Hundred, p. 43. Or her son Adam de St. Philibert, ob. 1352? See Kerry, Hist. of Bray Hundred, pedigree facing p. 86).

2. Psalter and Canticles: the Vulgate text and French translation in parallel columns. f. 7. Heading: "Ynnorum uel Soliloquiorum prophete de Christo. liber primus incipit." The French version begins "Beneit seit li ber ki ne ala el conseil des feluns." It belongs to the class represented by the Oxford MS. Douce 320, edited in 1860 by F. Michel, Libri Psalmorum versio antiqua Gallica. For other MSS. see S. Berger, La Bible Française au Moyen Âge, 1884, pp. 13-18, 321 seq., and L. Delisle in Notices et Extraits, xxxiv. (1891), p. 259. There are lacunæ after ff. 54, 62, 83 and 85; the passages wanting are Pss. xlix. 6-lxvii. 14, lxx. 14-lxxvii. 57, xcix. 4-ci. 4, cii. 13-cxv. 4, amounting probably to 51 leaves in all. The Canticles are as follows: (i.) "Canticum Ysaie prophete," beg. "Ieo regehirai a toi sire." f. 113;—(ii.) "Canticum Ezechie prophete," beg. "Jeo dis en la meiented." f. 113;—(iii.) Canticum Annæ, beg. "Esleecat li miens cuers." f. 114;—(iv.) Canticum Moysis, beg. "Cantums al seignur." f. 114 b. Breaks off at v. 21, "en parmanabletet regnerat e ultre" (cf. Michel, p. 238). f. 115 b.
3. Litany, in Latin. Imperfect at beginning. f. 116. Among the martyrs are Alban, Oswald, Edmund; among confessors, Nicholas comes first, in capitals, and is repeated; there are also Erchenwald, Cuthbert, Dunstan, Columban, Macutus and Maclovius. Ends "Benedicite. Dominus. Parlum de Joie" (f. 117 b). Vellum; ff. 117. Artt. 2 and 3 are early XIIIth cent., art. 1 somewhat later. Headings in red, and initials in red and blue and (at the chief divisions of the Psalter) gold. Belonged probably to Finchale Priory, afterwards to members of the Lee family, and to Whalley Abbey (above, art. 1). Subsequently Ashburnham MS., Appendix, No. 35 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 8). The name "Cristofer Smyth" is written (16-17th cent.) on a blank space on f. 1. 7 × 5 in.

35,284. PSALTER, with Canticles and Litany, in the later Wycliffite version. Imperfect at beginning and end, wanting also two leaves after f. 4 (Pss. l. and li.) and one leaf after f. 44 (part of Pss. lxxxviii. and lxxxix.). Begins (Ps. xlv. 1): "Oure god pou art refuyt and vertu." The Litany ends "We synful men praie pee to heere us pat pou" (breaking off at the foot of f. 114 b).

Vellum; ff. 116. Early xvth cent. Headings in red, and initials in red and blue. Belonged in 1665 to Thomas Harrison, of Barmby-on-the-Marsh, in Howden, co. York, and apparently in 1664 to Robert Close, of the same place (see ff. 19 b, 20, 42 b, 105, 107 b, etc.); but many other names have been scribbled on the margins. Appendix 227 in the Ashburnham library (sale-cat. 1899, lot 156). $4\frac{3}{4} \times 3\frac{1}{4}$ in.

35,285. MISSAL, etc., of the Augustinian Priory of Gisburne, or Guisbrough, co. York:—

1. An insertion, 15th cent., containing (a) Office "De sollempnitate corporis Christi," with antiphons, etc., set to music. f. 3:—(b) Lessons in commemoration of the Virgin and SS. Augustine, Peter and Paul, Cuthbert, William [Archbishop of York], and for use during the octave of Corpus Christi. f. 10 b;—(c) "Sequencia de corpore Christi," beg. "Lauda syon saluatorem" (Kehrein, Lat. Sequenzen, 1873, p. 125), imperf. at end. f. 14 b.
2. Antiphonal for the Temporale. f. 15. At the end (f. 106) is a Tonale, added by a later hand.
3. Missal, sc. (a) Temporale (Canon Missæ wanting, probably in lacuna after f. 120). f. 107;—(b) Proprium Sanctorum, including SS. Cuthbert, John of Beverley, Oswald, Edmund of Canterbury [canonized 1246], Hilda, and other English saints. f. 138;—(c) Commune Sanctorum. f. 154;—(d) Missæ Votivæ, Memoræ Communes, etc. Memoræ of SS. Bridget, Augustine (transl.), Wilfrid and William added at the end by a somewhat later hand, and John of Bridlington [ob. 1379] later still. f. 161 b.
4. Calendar. Among double feasts are Cuthbert (20 Mar.), William (8 June), Thomas the Martyr (7 July and 29 Dec.), and Commemoration of Relics (19 Oct.), also—an insertion—John of Bridlington (10 Oct.) The nine-lesson feasts include John of Beverley (7 May), Oswald (5 Aug.), Hilda (25 Aug.) and Edmund of Canterbury (16 Nov.). The translation [in 1283] of St. William is entered on 9 Jan., but seems to be an insertion. Obits of priors and benefactors of Guisbrough have been entered, apparently circ. 1400, in parallel columns. The priors include "W[illelmi] primi prioris," 3 Aug.;—"Radulfi [de Ireton] episcopi Kar[leolensis], prioris," prid. kal. Mar. [1292];—"Johannis Horworth, prioris," 9 June [resigned 1393, see Guisbrough Chartulary, Surtees Soc., ii., 1894, p. xliii.];—and "Walteri de Thorp, quondam prioris," 9 Mar. [Horworth's successor, ib.]. Among the benefactors are "Roberti de Brus, fundatoris," 11 May, [1141], "Agnētis uxoris fundatoris," 18 Nov., "Johannis de Fauconberg," 17 Sept., and many other members of the Bruce and Falconbridge families, besides others whose names are given in the index. A similar, but not identical, list of benefactors' obits, extracted by Robert Glover (ob. 1588) "from a Calendar belonging to the Priory of Gisburne," was printed in Coll. Top. et Gen., iv. p. 261. At 16 May is the entry "Incendium ecclesie nostre anno domini m^o cc^o lxxx^o ix^o xvi^o kal. iunij prima die Rogationum," and at 19 May "Incendium lxix domorum fumalium in Gyseburne anno domini m^o cccc^o xiiij^o" (see Guisbrough Chartulary, ii. p. 353). f. 168.

5. Covenants between Guisbrough and other religious houses, for the interchange of spiritual benefits. f. 174. Followed by a later note on the chronology of the Bible, ending "et a natiuitate Christi transacti sunt anni m.ccc.xx.ij" (f. 175) and (in a 15th cent. hand) eight rhyming hexameters, invoking by name the eight archangels, beg. "Letificans Michael nos noxas destrue diras" (f. 175 b).
6. Psalter (imperf. at beginning) and Canticles, with Litany, including SS. Oswald, Cuthbert, Wilfrid, William, Edmund [of Canterbury] and Hilda. f. 176.
7. "Ordo ad catecuminum faciendum." f. 207 :—"Ordo ad sponsalia facienda." f. 209 ;—"Visitacio infirmi." f. 210 b ;—"Commendacio anime," with music. f. 211 b.
8. Several musical settings of the Psalm "Venite exultemus." f. 217 b.
9. Antiphonal :—(a) Proprium Sanctorum ; a few collects inserted by various hands in the margins. f. 222 ;—(b) Commune Sanctorum. f. 281. Added at the end (14–15th cent.) are the antiphons, etc., for the Eleven Thousand Virgins, and an invocation of St. Katherine. f. 294.
10. Lectionary :—(a) Temporale. f. 295 ;—(b) Proprium Sanctorum. f. 316 ;—(c) Commune Sanctorum. f. 335 b. After the colophon, "Explicit legenda sanctorum," three lessons for the Eleven Thousand Virgins have been added. f. 338 b.
11. "Suffragia Sanctorum," followed by other prayers, and by the salutations of the Five Wounds. A 14th cent. addition, imperfect at beginning. f. 339.
12. Processionale, with music ; preceded by a Tonale in a later hand. f. 342.

At the beginning (f. 1) is a leaf from F. Grose's Antiquities, iv. (1776), containing an engraving and description of Guisbrough Priory. Vellum (except f. 1) ; ff. 347. xiiith cent. (after 1246, see art. 3), with additions xiv.–xvth centt. Initials in red and blue, more rarely gold and other colours. Many of the margins have been cut away, slightly mutilating the text. Bound in oak boards with modern covering ; from the confused order (see especially artt. 2, 9) it would seem that the binding is not original. On f. 175 b are names (? of former owners) Fra. Kay, John Whitehead. Belonged successively to William Hamper (defaced book-plate, and signed note on f. 1 b, sale-cat. 1831, lot 494), C. W. Loscombe (sale-cat. 1854, lot 1159, and the Earl of Ashburnham (Appendix 44, sale-cat. 1899, lot 12). $9\frac{3}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in.

35,286. THE CANTERBURY TALES, by Geoffrey Chaucer. Imperfect; see below. The following is the order:—

- (1) Prologue. f. 1. Wanting two leaves (153 lines) at the beginning, and two more (ll. 234–396) after f. 1: see Skeat's Complete Works of Chaucer, Oxford, 1894, vol. iv. pp. 5, 8, 12;—(2) “the knyghtes tale.” f. 7 b. Wanting eight leaves after f. 12 (ed. Skeat, A., ll. 1269–1898);—(3) “the Millers tale.” f. 28;—(4) “the Reues tale.” f. 37 b. Wanting a leaf after f. 37 (A., ll. 3859–3933);—(5) “th[e] Sergeantes tale.” f. 43. Wanting a leaf after f. 107 (E., ll. 1236–1308);—(12) “the squyers tale.” f. 122 b. Breaks off as usual at l. 672, leaving most of f. 131 b blank, but with no division after l. 670 (cf. Skeat, p. 480);—(13) “the frankeleyn.” f. 132;—(14) “the maister of phisikes tale.” f. 144 b;—(15) “pardoners tale,” preceded (f. 148) by “the prologe of the reheytyng of our hoost.” f. 148 b;—(16) “the shipmannes tale.” f. 157 b. Prologue omitted, as in the Ellesmere and some other MSS. (Skeat, p. 165); the last seventeen lines lost through a lacuna of one leaf after f. 162;—(17) “the Prioress tale,” wanting (see above, No. 16) the words of the Host and all but the last stanza of the Prologue. f. 163;—(18) “Chaucers tale of syr Topias,” preceded by “the reheytyng of our hoost.” f. 166;—(19) “Chaucers tale of Melibee and prudence,” preceded (f. 168) by “a reheytyng of our hoost.” f. 168 b;—(20) “the monkes tale.” f. 188;—(21) “the tale of the nonnes preest.” f. 200 b. Epilogue omitted, as usual (Skeat, p. 289);—(22) “the maunciples tale.” f. 209 b;—(23) “the cookes tale.” f. 214 b;—(24) “the Chanons yeman,” omitting the first two lines of the Prologue (Skeat, p. 527). f. 215 b;—(25) “the personnes tale.” f. 228. Wanting a leaf after f. 231, two leaves after f. 237, and several at the end (Skeat, pp. 576, 591, 597), ending “the richesse of a man is cause of . . .”

It may be noted that this MS. agrees with the Ellesmere MS. in containing ll. 3155–6 of Group A. and ll. 1493–8 of Group F., and in the arrangement of Group B., ll. 3565–3956 (see ff. 28 b, 142 b, 195–200 b, Skeat, pp. 90, 504, 256–268); but on the other hand it omits E., ll. 1510–11, and C., ll. 41–3, 81–2 (ff. 110 b, 145, 145 b, Skeat, pp. 434, 291, 292).

Vellum; ff. 238, 36 to 42 lines to a page. Beginning of the xvth cent. Headings in red, and initials in red and blue; a few initials in gold with slight ornamentation. On the margins are the following names (? of former owners):—Charles Agarde, f. 28 b;—"Gulihelmus Agard," and date 1571, f. 92;—"George Hegynbothom of Marpull" [Marple near Stockport, co. Chester], f. 131 b;—"Rychard Normenton of Asheburye," f. 166;—"Mr. Whythall," f. 204;—and Roland Rudgleye or Rudgleis, ff. 62, 152, 238 b. Belonged to Benjamin Heywood Bright (sale-cat. 1844, lot 54); afterwards Ashburnham Appendix 125 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 73). $12\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{3}{4}$ in.

35,287. THE VISION of William concerning Piers the Plowman, together with Dowell, Dobet and Dobest. The "B" text: see Skeat's ed., Early English Text Society, 1869. Beg. "In a somer seoun ⁊ whanne softe was the sonne / I shoop me in [to, interl.] shroudes ⁊ as I a sheep were." Dowell is headed: "Passus octauus de visione. Et incipit inquisicio prima de Dowell" (f. 36). Dobet and Dobest have no headings but "Passus xv." and "Passus xix." respectively (ff. 69, 91 b). Colophon: "Explicit hic dialogus petri plowman. Penna precor siste ⁊ quoniam liber explicit iste"; and below, in another hand, "Explicit iste liber. qui obsecro transeat liber." f. 104. Described by Skeat (p. xv.), and in close agreement with his text, though not one of the MSS. on which it is based. The passages printed within square brackets, from the Rawlinson MS. alone (see p. xii.), are omitted. The line giving the date of Chichester's mayoralty has "thries [over an erasure] twenty" instead of "tweis thretty" (f. 61 b, Skeat, p. 225). Other peculiarities are the spaces between the paragraphs, and the word "cor" or "cored" at the ends of quires (ff. 8 b, 16 b, etc.). Vellum; ff. 104. About A.D. 1400. Initials and headings in red, and red lines enclosing the Latin passages. On the last page, among other scribblings, is a Latin couplet followed by the monogram DEN and date 1545. Formerly Ashburnham Appendix 129 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 77). $12 \times 7\frac{3}{4}$ in.

35,288. THE ROMANCE of Partonopeus de Blois, translated from the French into English verse. Nearly 12,000 lines, beginning

"Hoo so luste olde stories to rede
He shalle fynde withowten drede
Meruellys and wonders mony and fele
Off myrthe ioye dyssese and welc." f. 2.

A leaf is lost after f. 19, containing probably about 80 lines (cf. the French text, Partonopeus de Blois, ed. Crapelet, 1834, vol. i. pp. 46-7); otherwise the MS. is complete. It ends with the marriage of Partonopeus and Melior, and does not mention the two other weddings which took place at the same time in some of the French versions (see Cat. of Romances, i. p. 699). The concluding lines are:—

“But in hye plesaunce I lete hem be
And pray to god of love pat he
His seruaunte departe so of his grace
That they may stonde in þe same case
In which faire melior and her love hath be
And þus Endeth þe Romans of partonope.” f. 154.

The version is, on the whole, that of which 7530 lines were edited (from three Oxford MSS.) by the Rev. W. E. Buckley for the Roxburghe Club in 1862, and of which another fragment, containing 41 additional lines, was published by R. Wülker (from Lord Robartes's MS.) in Anglia, xii. (1889), p. 607; not the shorter version which was edited for the Roxburghe Club, from a very incomplete MS., in 1873. But the present MS., besides supplying over 1400 lines at the beginning (l. 1 of Buckley's ed. is here f. 20, l. 10), over 200 at the end, and several hundreds more in various lacunæ (cf. Buckley's ed., pp. 58, 61, 100, etc., with the present MS., ff. 44–45 b, 46 b, 63–65, etc.), is much fuller in many places. Among the additional passages may be noted one on ff. 28 b–29, coming between ll. 629 and 630 of Buckley's ed. and containing the lines

“For y am comawndyt of my souereyne
Thys story to drawe fulle and playne
Because yt was ful vnkowthe and lytel knowe
Frome frenche yanne to yngelysche that beter nowe
Hyt myȝth be to euery wyȝhte.
There fore y do alle my myȝhte
To saue my auctor yanne suche wyse
As he that mater luste deuyse
Where he makyth yanne grete compleynte
In frenche so fayre thatt yt to paynte
In Engelysche tungge y saye for me
My wyttys alle to dullet bee
He tellyth hys tale of sentament
I vnderstonde noȝth hys entent
Ne wolle ne besy me to lere
There fore strayȝhte to the matere
I wylle go of partonope.”

Paper (ff. 2–19 vellum); ff. 154. Late xvth cent., in several hands. Among other scribblings on ff. 153 b–154 b occur the names (? of former owners) Fraunciase Vavasour and Robarte Gascoyg[ne], and the entry “Altherton Thomas a Christo sit benedictus.”

Formerly Ashburnham Appendix 247 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 169). Folio.

35,289. ASPREMONT: a Chanson, describing Charlemagne's expedition to Aspremont against the Saracen king Agolant. French. In 10,071 lines of ten syllables, in monorhymed stanzas of varying length.

Begins:

"Plaist nus oir . vne chancon vaillant.
De charlemaine le roi sor poant.
De dux naines que li reis ama tant." f. 2.

Ends:

"Chante nus ai dagolant et delmon
E de karlemaine . a la fiere fatun
E de G. fiz al dux bosun
De la bataille que fu en aspremon
Desore enauant . ci remeint la chancun
Ici finist . ke ia plus nen diron." f. 63 b.

Followed by the inscription "ke cel livre escrit eyt la benecun," in another hand. For an account of the chanson (of which only extracts and fragments have been printed), see Cat. of Romances, i. pp. 598-602, where two other MSS. are described, the one an abridged version, the other a very imperfect MS. See also an article by Paul Meyer in Romania, xix. (1890), p. 201, containing a description of the present MS. (then Ashburnham MS., Appendix 220), and an extract of 71 lines from f. 3. Complete MSS., like the present, are exceedingly rare: see Bibl. de l'École des Chartes, ser. v. vol. ii. (1861), p. 277, Romania, xxviii. 475.

Vellum; ff. 63. XIIIth cent. In double columns of 40 lines. Initials in red and blue. Bound in oak boards covered with skin. Belonged to St. Augustine's Abbey, Canterbury: "Liber fratris Antonij Qui dicitur Aquilant [sc. Agolant]. De librario sancti Augustini Cant. Dist. xvj. Gradu iiii." (f. 1). The old catalogue of St. Augustine's library mentions three copies of "Liber fratris Antonii de Alta Ripa, in gallico, qui dicitur Aquilant" (Notes and Queries, 2nd series, vol. i., 1856, p. 485). In the Savile library (sale-cat. 1861, lot 26) and in that of Libri (Catalogue of the reserved portion of the Libri Library, 1862, lot 3). Afterwards Ashburnham Appendix 220 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 150). 10 × 7 in.

35,290. YORK MYSTERY PLAYS: the unique MS. of forty-nine plays, forming a series from the Creation and the Fall of Lucifer to the Last Judgment and the Coronation of Our Lady (the last an addition), performed on Corpus Christi Day by the crafts of York.

Edited by Miss L. T. Smith, York Mystery Plays (Oxford, 1885). Its contents are as follows:—(1) "The Barkers." f. 4;—(2) "Playsterers." f. 7 b;—(3) "Cardmakers"; in duplicate. ff. 9 b, 12;—(4) "The regynall of the Fullers paygant," in a 16th cent. hand. f. 13 b;—(5) "The Coupers." f. 16 b;—(6) "The Origenall perteynyng to pe Crafte of Armouryers." f. 19 b;—(7) "The Originall perteynyng to the Craft of glouceres." Two leaves cut out after f. 22, and some of the missing lines supplied, 16th cent., on ff. 23, 23 b (see Smith, as above, p. 37). f. 22;—(8) "The Shipwriters." f. 24 b;—(9) "The Fysshers and Marynars." f. 27;—(10) "The Parobemyners and bokebynders." f. 32;—(11) "The Hoseers." f. 38;—(12) "Th[e] Spiceris," with a 16th cent. note at the beginning, "Doctour, this matter is newly mayde whereof we have no Coppy." f. 44;—(13) "The Pewteres and Foundours." f. 48;—(14) "The Tille thekers." f. 53;—(15) "The channделers." f. 56;—(16) "The Masonns" ("Mynstrells" added, 16th cent., see Smith, pp. 123, 125). f. 59 b;—(17) "Golde Smythis"; followed (f. 70) by a 16th cent. note respecting the Hatmakers', Masons' and Labourers' play (below, No. 41, and Smith, p. 433). f. 64;—(18) "The Marchallis." f. 71;—(19) "The Gyrdillers and nayers." Note at beginning (16th cent.): "This matter of the gyrdlers agreyth not with the Coucher in no poynt, it begyunyth Lysten Lordes vnto my Lawe" (cf. Smith, p. 146). f. 76;—(20) "The Sporiens and lorimers." f. 82;—(21) "The Barbouris." Note at foot of f. 87 b: "Her wantes a pece newly mayd for saynt John Baptiste." At the end, "Hic caret fine. This matter is newly mayd and devysed wherof we have no coppy Regystred," and (later, circ. 1600) "The Shavors. T[homas?] C[utler?]." f. 87;—(22) "The Smythis" (altered to "Lokksmythis"). At the end (circ. 1600), "The Smythes. R[ichard?] N[andicke?]." f. 90. Following this are some blank pages with the running title "The vinteners," having the opening words "Loo this is a yoyfull day," etc., on f. 92 b (ib. p. xv.);—(23) "The Coriours." f. 96. Followed by several blank pages, the first two of which have the title "The Ironmongers" (ib. p. xv.);—(24) "The Cappemakers, etc." ("and hatmakers" added). Wanting two leaves, after ff. 102, 104 (ib. pp. 195, 199). f. 102;—(25) "The Skynners." f. 106 b;—(26) "The Cuttelores." f. 113;—(27) "The Baxsteres." Wanting a leaf after f. 122 (ib. p. 236). f. 121 b;—(28) "The Cordewaneres." Wanting a leaf after f. 125 (ib. p. 242). f. 125;—(29) "The Bowers and Fleochers." f. 132;—(30) "The Tapiteres and Couchers." f. 140 b;—(31) "The Lyststeres." f. 152;—(32) "The Cokis and Watirlederes." f. 160 b;—(33) "The Tyllemakers" ("Mylners" substituted, 16th cent.). Wanting a leaf after f. 173 (ib. p. 335). f. 167;—

(34) "The Shermen." Wanting a leaf after f. 176 (ib. p. 341). f. 175;—(35) "The Pynners" ("and paynters" added). f. 181;—(36) "The Bocheres." f. 187;—(37) "The Sadilleres." f. 193 b;—(38) "The Carpenteres." f. 200;—(39) "The Wynedrawers." Title erased on first page, and replaced by the note "Wevers assygnyd in anno Domini m^d.liij^d. William Cowplande then maior"; this too has been struck out, and "Sledmen" and "Palmers" written by different hands (ib. p. 421). f. 206 b;—(40) "The Sledmen" (substituted for the original title "Wyne-draweres": see preceding no.). f. 209;—(41) "Hatmakers Masons and laborers," a 16th cent. insertion (see above, No. 17). f. 212 b;—(42) "The Esoreueneres." f. 218;—(43) "The Tailoures." f. 221 b;—(44) "The Potteres." f. 226;—(45) "The Draperes." f. 230 b;—(46) "The Wefferes"; music on ff. 235 b–6, 238, 241, 241 b (ib. pp. 517–528, and plates i.–iii.). f. 234;—(47) "The Osteleres" ("alias Inholders" added). f. 242;—(48) "The Merceres." f. 246;—(49) "The Inholders," a later fragment. f. 252.

Vellum; ff. 254 (fly-leaves mouse-eaten). Late xvth and xvith centt. Bound in oak boards covered with skin, now repaired and rebaked. On f. 253 is the inscription (circ. 1600) "Corpus Christi playe (repeated). Thomas Cutler, Richarde Nandicke." These two names also occur repeatedly on ff. 1 and 2 (see too Nos. 21, 22 above). On f. 254 b are the names William Pennell, John Willson. On f. 3, "H. Fairfax's Book, 1695" [Henry, 2nd son of Henry, 4th Baron Fairfax]. On f. 3 b, in Thoresby's hand, "Donum Hon^{mi} Hen: Fairfax Arm: Rad^o Thoresby" (No. 17 in the 1715 catalogue of Thoresby's MSS., Ducatus Leodiensis, p. 517, not in the earlier catalogue, Catalogi Librorum MSS. Angliæ, 1697, vol. ii. p. 229). In 1764 (Thoresby's sale-cat., lot 41) it was bought by Horace Walpole (book-plate, f. 3 b, see Letters of H. Walpole, vol. ix., 1891, p. 525, Strawberry Hill sale-cat., 1842, 6th day, lot 92), in 1842 by Benjamin Heywood Bright (see his sale-cat., 1844, lot 277), and afterwards by the Earl of Ashburnham (MS. Appendix 137, sale-cat. 1899, lot 85). For further details as to the history of the MS., see the introduction to Miss L. T. Smith's edition. 11 × 8 in.

35,291. WARDROBE BOOK of 28 Edw. I. [1299], being the accompt of John de Drokenesford, Keeper. The corresponding comptroller's book exists, though in a less perfect state, in the library of the Society of Antiquaries, and was printed in 1787, Liber Quotidianus Contrarotulatoris Garderobæ, ed. J. Topham. The two MSS. were compared in 1881 by H. S. Milman (Archæologia, xlviii. pp. 281–3). The comptroller's book is defective in the first section (omitted altogether in pr. ed.), which here fills ff. 2–11 b, headed "Recepta Garderobe Regis E. de anno regni sui xxviii^o. tempore domini J. de Drok[enesford] Custodis. De scaccario." It also wants the final sections, "vnde r[espondetur]," "Qui non sunt," and "Prestita militum," etc., which occupy ff. 146-164 of the present MS., coming after the "Summa totalis exituum et expensarum Garderobe per istum librum de anno xxviii^o. vna cum expensis hospicii Regis eiusdem anni." Various lists of jewels are included (ff. 133-141), among them (f. 140 b) being "vna petra magna super quam Reges Scocie solebant coronari," said to have been found in Edinburgh Castle. The last list (f. 141) comprises jewels "que fuerunt domine Blanchie de Hispania" [? Blanche of Castille, widow of Louis VIII. of France], including "vna corona magna . . . que assignatur ad portandum super capita Regum Anglie in exitu ecclesie et ad prandium die coronacionis eorundem."

Vellum; ff. 164. Sold by Puttick and Simpson, 23 June, 1848 (sale-cat., lot 216). Afterwards Ashburnham Appendix 115 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 63). $13\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,292. "JORNALE GARDEROBE de receptis et exitibus eiusdem," 7 Apr. 31 [Edw. I., 1303]-26 Apr. [33 Edw. I., 1305]: daily receipts and expenses of the Wardrobe, in parallel columns. The balance left over each day is carefully noted; this amounted to twopence only on 3 Dec. 1303 (f. 17 b). At the foot of the first page are the words "Examinatur usque huc," and a pen has been drawn through the expenses down to 24 July, 1303. Vellum; ff. 67. Puttick and Simpson's sale-cat., 23 June, 1848, lot 217. Ashburnham Appendix 116 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 64). $13\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{3}{4}$ in.

35,293. WARDROBE ACCOMPT-BOOK, 32 [Edw. I., 1303-4], of payments under the following headings:—(1) Pantry and buttery, to Dom. Peter de Cicestria, clerk. f. 3;—Kitchen, to Robert de Wodehouse, clerk. f. 9;—(3) "Marescalcie," to Dom. Adam de Blyda, clerk. f. 19;—(4) "Vadia scutiferorum allocata in rotulo hospicii Regis." f. 22;—(5) Alms, to Dom. Henry de Bluntesdon, King's Almoner. f. 27 b;—(6) "Vnde r[espondetur]." f. 29;—(7) "Qui non sunt." f. 48;—(8) "Prestita mi[litum]." f. 52;—(9) "Prestita balist[ariorum]." f. 57;—(10) "Prestita sc[utiferorum]." f. 60;—(11) "Prestita falcon[ariorum]." f. 70;—(12) "Panni ad aurum." f. 74;—(13) "Soluciones debitorum." f. 76;—(14) "Hobelarii." f. 85. At the end of some of these divisions a balance is struck with the allowance "in rotulo hospicii Regis" (ff. 8 b, 18, 26). Many entries are struck out, sometimes with a marginal explanation, e.g. "cancellantur quia intrantur titulo de donis per preceptum Regine" (f. 38), "Iste particule cancellantur quia ponuntur super eodem libro de compoto ad compotum factum Londoniis xix. die Martii anno r. R. E. fil. R. E. primo" (f. 36 b), etc. A large proportion of the entries have reference to the expedition into Scotland.

Vellum; ff. 86. Puttick and Simpson's sale-cat., 23 June, 1848, lot 218. Ashburnham Appendix 117 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 65). $13\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,294. "LIBER domini Johannis de Berewyk de expensis in Garderoba Regine [Alianore] anno regni Regis E[dwardi I.] xviii^o." [1289-90]. At f. 3 are the "Recepte denariorum in Garderoba illustris Regine Anglie consortis domini Regis tempore domini Johannis de Berewyk thesaurarii eiusdem," Michaelmas, a^o 17 [1289]—F. of St. Edmund of Canterbury, a^o 19 [1290]. The "Expense" begin at f. 4, and are dated from 30 Sept. 1289 to 30 Dec. 1290. The Queen's death, "Decessus Regine," is noted, on 28 Nov. 1290, and the remaining entries refer mainly to expenses connected with her funeral, among them being "pro vno bussello ordeï empto ad ponendum in corpore Regine, vii d." The items of expenditure have short titles in the margins, as "Donum," "Caragium," "Percamenum," etc.; the last-named item appears several times, usually "ad literas Regine et ad libros Garderobe" (f. 5, etc.), sometimes in conjunction with "cera rubea emptā ad sigillum priuatum Regine" (f. 6 b). Several payments are made to Godfrey "pictor" for gold, colours, gum, etc., for the Queen's books. At ff. 2 b, 17 (the inner sides of the original vellum covers) are memoranda of the delivery of gold vessels, ornaments, etc., from the Wardrobe on various occasions, e.g. "de vno cipro aureo plano liberato domine Alianore filie Regis ad bibendum inde die nupciarum domine Margarete filie Regis [9 July, 1290] precepto Regine" (f. 2 b).

Vellum (except f. 1, a modern paper leaf); ff. 17. Puttick and Simpson's sale-cat., 23 June, 1848, lot 215. Ashburnham Appendix 118 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 66). $12\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,295. A COLLECTION of romance and English History, in Latin, made in or soon after 1422 by John Strecche, a canon of the Augustinian Priory of Kenilworth, co. Warwick, containing:—1. Poem on the fall of Troy, in leonine elegiacs, beg. "Pergama flere volo fato Danaum data solo." f. 3. The first leaf very imperfect, containing only seven lines on the first page and ten on the second. With marginal glosses. The same poem, on the whole, as the 128 "Versus Magistri Hildeberti" in Cotton MS. Cleop. A. viii. f. 56 (see Cat. of Romances, i. p. 30) and the 90-line poem "De excidio Trojæ" printed by B. Hauréau, Mélanges Poétiques d'Hildebert de Lavardin, 1882, p. 207. After the last line of Hauréau's text the present MS. has 46 additional lines, beg. "Viribus arte minis danaum troia data ruinis," and almost identical (but for the omission of ll. 187, 188) with the lines numbered 153-200 in Leyser, Hist. Poet., pp. 404-5. They end "Victa reso traci. dempta dolis ytaci." f. 4 b.

2. Historia Trojana, by Guido delle Colonne. See Cat. of Romances, i. p. 40. In 37 books, with prologue and epilogue. The divisions of the text agree with Royal MS. 12 D. iii. (see Cat. of Rom. i. p. 49), but books 9, 10 and 27 are not numbered (ff. 50, 51, and 105 b or 106). Prologue headed, "Prologus operis sequentis," and beg. "Licet cotidie vetera recentibus obruantur." f. 6. The work itself headed, "Incipit liber De peleio rege inducente Jasonem ut iter arripiat ad aureum uellus habendum," and beg. "In regno thessalie de predictae scilicet pertinencijs romanie." f. 7. A leaf is wanting after f. 8. Lib. 37 is followed by the epitaphs on Hector and Achilles (f. 135 b), and by the epilogue (f. 136), headed "Conclusio operis" and beg. "Ego autem Guydo de columpna," and ending "ad presentis operis perfeccionem efficaciter laboravi. Factum est presens opus Anno dominice Incarnacionis Millesimo Ducentesimo Octuagesimo septimo. eiusdem prime Indicionis feliciter et Anno Amen. Explicit historia troiana Scripta per manum Johannis Aston." Followed by the rubric "Explicit Bellum troianum et historia obsidionis eiusdem ciuitatis secundum Guidonem de columpna Et sequitur historia de Regno Britonum," etc. "I. Strecche." fol. 136 b.
3. Historia Regum Britannie, by Geoffrey of Monmouth. See Cat. of Rom. i. p. 203. In eight books, lib. vii. answering to libb. vii. and viii. of Giles's ed., 1844, and lib. viii. to libb. ix.-xii. Heading: "Incipit historia Britonum. Et quomodo Brutus primus Rex Brutannie venit in istam insulam cum gente sua post troiam destructam," etc. f. 136 b. The prologue beg. "Cum mecum multa," and the work "Britannia insularum optima." f. 137. En's "Hoc modo in latinum sermonem transferre curauj." Colophon: "Explicit historia libri Britonum que in octo libris continetur." f. 228 b. There are a few contemporary marginal notes. At the end of lib. v. cap. 4, after the words "Saxonice uero golabroc nuncupatus fuit," the gloss "id est colbrok in london" has been added in the text (f. 168 b). Artt. 2 and 3 are in the same hand, and both have the corrector's (? John Strecche's) note "cor" at the end of each quire.
4. History of England, with special reference to Kenilworth Priory, to the death of Henry V. Heading: "Incipit historia Regum omuium Anglorum ante monarchiam et post expulsi Britonibus usque ad tempus Regis Henrici post Conquestum sexti. Que in quinque libris continetur." f. 228 b. In five books, preceded by (i.) Brief history of England from Brutus to 827, beginning "Apud Britones inconcussa stetit insule istius Monarchia." f. 229;— (ii.) Albina and her sisters (see Cat. of Rom. i. p. 198), headed "Hic incipit historia quomodo hec insula et ex quibus fuerat inhabitata ante aduentum Bruti primi Regis Britonum," and beg. "Hic vtique est notandum." f. 230. Lib. i. is headed "Incipit historia de regno Saxonum in Anglia, quomodo primo regnare ceperunt ante Monarchiam Et quomodo quinque Reges de Saxonibus in Anglia fuerunt Sed primo de Regno Cantuariorum." It begins "In Britannia maiori Vortigerno Rege regnante." f. 233. Lib. ii. is headed "Incipit liber secundus de Regibus Saxonum post monarchiam regnantibus Et primo de Rege Elfredo siue Alredo qui obtinuit primo in Anglia monarchiam." f. 239. Lib. iii., "Incipit hic liber tercius de regno Dacorum quomodo Kenutus Danicus inuasit coronam Anglie." f. 242 b. Lib. iv., "Incipit liber iiij^{us} de conquestu Normannorum." f. 247. Lib. v., "Incipit liber quintus huius operis De Rege Henrico quarto filio domini Johannis Gaunt Ducis quondam Lancastrie," etc. f. 262. The period treated most fully is the life of Henry V. (ff. 265–279 b); the concluding chapter describes his death, and ends with sixteen verses (hexameters and elegiac couplets) in praise of him, beg. "Hic Rex Henricus in bellis semper aprius," and ending "Set fortunatus victor vbique stetit." f. 279 b. The compiler has interspersed short pieces of verse, by himself and others, throughout the chronicle. There are lacunæ after ff. 248, 252, 270.

At the end of Lib. iii. (f. 246 b) is the following rubric: "Explicit liber iiij^{us}. In quibus tribus libris nomen compilatoris huius operis continetur / in literis capitalibus capitulorum dictorum trium librorum immediate precedencium Incipiendo ab Hengisto," etc. This clue gives the compiler's name as "Johannes Strecche Canonicus"; and the continual notices of events in the history of Kenilworth make it clear that he was a canon of that house. His monogram IS appears at the head of art. 2 (f. 6) and almost fills f. 2 b, having there a couplet below, with the initial letters (in red) forming the name "Ion Strecche." At ff. 1 b, 5, are fragments of a Calendar.

Vellum; ff. 280. xvth cent. (in or after 1422, see art. 4). Artt. 1 and 4 probably written by Strecche himself, artt. 2 and 3 written by John Aston, but apparently revised by Strecche (see art. 3 above). With headings in red, and initials in red and blue. At f. 6 is the name Thomas Morrow (16th cent.). Formerly Ashburnham Appendix 236 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 163). 10½ x 6½ in.

35,296. REGISTER of Spalding Priory, co. Lincoln: the first of two volumes (Vol. ii. is now Harley MS. 742). Compiled in or soon after 1331, probably under the direction of Prior Walter de Halton, concerning whose election in 1318 a long series of documents is to be found on ff. 74 b–83 b; with some additions of later date (e.g. see f. 166 b). A charter at f. 71 b is dated 1397, but clearly by mistake for 1297. Many of the pieces have been printed in Dugdale's Monasticon (ed. Caley, vol. iii. pp. 215 seq.), either directly from this MS. or from transcripts made by W. Cole in 1772 (now Add. MS. 5844, ff. 73 seq.). At the beginning is a table of contents for the whole Register, headed “Kalendarium Tractatus sequentis.” Of the five Parts three are in this volume (ff. 8, 87, 280; Parts iv. and v. are in Vol. ii. (Harl. 742, ff. 2, 321). After Part iii. is an Appendix, headed “De suplecione omni-sorum tangentium primam partem secundam et tertiam.” f. 421. It is in various hands of the 14th and 15th centt., and contains, among other things:—(1) Notices of the Priors down to Clement de Hatfeld (ob. 1318). ff. 421, 428 b;—(2) Valuation of the lands and rents owned by the Priory under Prior John (1253–1274). f. 422;—(3) “Concessio Prioris Clementis pro solacio minutorum.” dated 11 Kal. Jun. 1294. f. 430;—(4) “Quedam ordinaciones facte tempore Clementis Prioris,” chiefly touching matters of diet. f. 431;—(5) “Carta Regis . E. tercij de pauagio,” granting the levy of customs for the paving of Spalding, dat. Hauering atte Boure, 8 Mar. anno vi. [1332]; followed by many other charters and writs. f. 433;—(6) “Inquisicio capta . . . apud Gosberkirk in Holland in com. Linc.,” Friday in Whitsun-week, 23 Edw. I. [27 May, 1295], concerning the repair of ditches, walls, gutters and sewers in the marshes of Holland and Kesteven. f. 435 b;—(7) “Firme domorum,” “terrarium d[omi]nicalium,” etc., in Sibsey [co. Linc.], 1491–2. f. 443 b.

On the fly-leaves at the beginning are: (1) Bull from Pope Victor [II., 1055–7] to King “Edgar” [or rather Edward the Confessor, cf. Cole’s transcript, Add. 5844, f. 74], confirming the privileges of Ely convent. f. 1;—(2) Charter from Richard I. to the church of Ely, 21 Mar. anno i. [1190]. f. 1;—(3) “De inchoacione siue fundacione prioratus Spalding”: a summary of its early history (printed in Dugdale, iii. p. 215.) f. 2.

Vellum (a few paper slips inserted, 17th cent.); ff. 449. xiv–xvth centt. In the original binding, oak covers, rebacked. At f. 447 b is a note of the number of leaves, signed “per me Ricardum Ogle” [of Pinchbeck, Clerk to the Courts of the Abbot of Croyland in 1538, ob. 1555: see Genealogist, i. p. 321]. His grandson Sir Richard Ogle (Sheriff of Lincolnshire 1608, died in the Fleet 1627) apparently owned the MS.; at f. 1 are statements signed by him and by Sir John Denham [Baron of the Exchequer] that it was shown to him on his examination, 27 Nov. 1622. In 1659 it belonged to John Oldfeild (see note on f. 446 b, and Dugdale, iii. p. 215), and afterwards to Maurice Johnson of Spalding (see Tanner's Notitia, 1744, p. 251, and "Introduction to the minute-books of the Spalding Society," p. 14, in Bibl. Top. Brit., vol. iii., 1790). In 1772 it belonged to Mrs. Wingfeild of Stamford, who lent it to W. Cole and was advised by him as to its sale (see Add. 5844, ff. 73, 232 b, 233). On f. 1 b is a certificate that this book was shown to Samuel Wilkinson on his examination in the case of the Duchess of Buccleugh v. William Ayre, 14 Oct. 1720. Formerly Ashburnham Appendix 237 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 164). 13½ x 9 in.

35,297. "A DAY-BOOKE of some speciall passages and mercyes both personall and nationall, particular and generall, since these troubles in the kingdome began, Anno Domini 1640." A journal of the Civil War, 1642-49; by John Syms, incumbent of Sheepstor, co. Devon, 3 May 1623-14 Nov. 1643, expelled then by the royalists, appointed on 1 Aug. 1646 to Dean Prior in the same county, and afterwards, apparently, to the neighbouring parish of Buckland-in-the-Moor (see ff. 178 b, 179). On 3 Aug. 1644 Syms took refuge on board H.M.S. "Providence," where he stayed for several months (ff. 40 b-58). Copious extracts are given from the newspapers and other publications of the time. At the beginning are "A true Relation of the most remarkable passages in and at the last seidge of Plymmouth," 15 Sept.-25 Dec. 1643 (f. 2);—"Certaine passages at and betweene the severall seidges of Plymmouth," 29 Nov. 1642-6 Oct. 1643 (f. 14);—and notes on the government after the dissolution of Parliament in Dec. 1653 (f. 17). At the end, reversing the volume, are lists of "bookes lent" and "the bookes I haue heer and the bookes I bought in London and at Plymmouth" (ff. 183, 182 b), chiefly theological, with prices noted in many cases; also entries of the writer's marriage and of the births and deaths of his children, etc., 1623-1661 (ff. 178 b, 179). Paper; ff. 183. xviii cent. Formerly Ashburnham Appendix 119 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 30). Inside cover: "A. 1858. Catal. No. 187." Duodecimo.

35,298. "LEGENDA SANCTORUM in Englysshe": the English version of the Legenda Aurea of Jacobus de Voragine, with additional lives, chiefly of English saints. Other MSS. of this version, much less complete, are Add. 11,565, Harl. 630 and 4775, and Eg. 876. For descriptions of these, and of two other imperfect MSS. (Douce 372 and Lambeth 72), see Pierce Butler, Legenda Aurea, etc. A study of Caxton's Golden Legend, with special reference to its relation to the earlier English prose translation (Baltimore, 1899), pp. 50-75, 150-154. The present MS. is perfect, but for the loss of a leaf or two at the end (see below).

The table of contents is headed "The Calendyr of the lyves of Seyntys." f. 1. The title on f. 2 is followed by the rubric "Here begynneth the boke of þe lyfe of Seyntis. callid in Latyn Legenda Sanctorum." The Lives of Saints are in 194 chapters, beginning with St. Andrew and ending with the Dedication of the Church. The life of St. Dominic has the usual misleading reference (f. 95) to the French translator Jean de Vignay, "for I fryour John of Renyngnaye translatour of this boke wolke no more put here," etc. (cf. Stowe MS. 51, f. 18 b, and Butler, p. 146); and the life of St. Germanus has the usual hiatus (f. 90 b, l. 41, Butler, p. 73). A blank space is left after Ch. 93 (Apollinaris), and Ch. 94 (Edmund the Confessor) begins a new leaf (f. 73) in a different hand. The life of St. Thomas of Canterbury (Ch. 10, at f. 9) is that of the Legenda Aurea, not the longer one in Add. 11,565 (Butler, pp. 65, 105). The additional chapter on St. Jerome, beginning "Seint Jerom seith þat who so woll here or tell holi scripture," which follows Pentecost in most of the MSS. (e.g. see Harl. 630, f. 141 b), is omitted here. Ch. 85 (St. Peter) has here an appendix, "The pardoun of al þe Chirchis in Rome," beg. "In the cyte of Room ben iiiij^l.lxvij parysh churchis" (ff. 65-66 b), which is not in the other MSS. Peculiar to this MS. also are three lives, viz. Ch. 79, Edward the Confessor, beg. "In olde tyme the Reame of ynglonde." f. 48;—Ch. 80, Winifred, beg. "After that a holy man Benno." f. 53;—and Ch. 81, Erkenwold, beg. "In olde tyme when the kyngdom of ynglond." f. 53. Eight others occur only here and in Lambeth MS. 72, viz. Chapp. 94-101 (ff. 73-76 b), Edmund the Confessor, Bride, Edmund the Martyr, Frideswide, Edward the King and Martyr, Alphege, Augustine of Canterbury and Oswald the Bishop (cf. Butler, p. 151).

The Dedication of the Church is followed, without a break, by (Ch. 195) "The Lyfes of Adam and of Eve" (= Harl. 4775, f. 256 b, Eg. 876, f. 316). f. 162;—(Ch. 196) "The v. wyles of kyng pharao þat he vsid ayenst the children of Israel" (imperf. in Harl. 4775, f. 262, and Eg. 876, f. 320). f. 165;—(Ch. 197) "Holy Aduent" (= Harl. 4775, f. 251 b, Eg. 876, f. 314 b). f. 167;—(Ch. 198) "Here folowith certein tretys that declarith whate the churche betokenyth and dyuers oper maters": expositions of the symbolical meaning of church furniture and ceremonies, etc., and of the Decalogue, the seven deadly sins, etc. f. 168 b. The section-headings (68 in number) are all given in the table of contents. The last section ("Howe a man shulde werke in þe xii. articlis of the feith with al mekenes") breaks off imperfectly, but hardly more than one leaf can be wanting.

Vellum; ff. 174, double columns of 68 to 79 lines. Middle of the xvth cent. Illuminated initials, and border on f. 2; headings in red. On f. 1 is the signature of William Browne the poet (ob. 1643?); also "Thomas North Knight" [? Sir Tho. North, translator of Plutarch] in an earlier hand, and the signature of William Herbert the bibliographer, with date 1776 (sale-cat., 15 Mar. 1796, lot 7). Arms of Elias Ashmole (ob. 1692) stamped on the covers. Book-plate of arms of Augustus Frederick, Duke of Sussex, 6th son of George III. (sale-cat. 1844, Bibliotheca Sussexiana, pt. ii. lot 323). Afterwards Ashburnham Appendix 91 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 1). $16\frac{1}{2} \times 11\frac{3}{4}$ in.

35,299. JOURNAL during a visit to France, 10 Oct.-5 Nov. [1775], by Dr. Samuel Johnson. Autograph. The "small paper-book" printed by Boswell in his Life of Johnson, vol. ii. (ed. G. B. Hill, 1887), pp. 389-401, where he says incorrectly that he has "deposited the original MS. in the British Museum" (p. 399 note). For a full account of the MS., and of its history so far as is known, see Athenæum, 6 Aug. 1898.

Paper; ff. 17. Entitled "France 2" on the leather cover. Inside the cover is a note signed by Edmond Malone: "Delivered to Mr. Boswell, by desire of Dr. Scott [William Scott, cr. Lord Stowell in 1821, one of Johnson's executors], July 21st, 1787." Afterwards belonged successively to Samuel Rogers the poet (ob. 1855), and to his nephew William Sharpe. Duodecimo. Presented by the daughters of the late William Sharpe.

The following Nos., 35,300-35,309, were bequeathed by Colonel John Barrow, F.R.S., formerly Keeper of the Records of the Admiralty. The bequest also included six volumes now in the Department of Printed Books, viz. (1) An Atlas of plates and maps illustrating the Earl of Macartney's embassy to China, 1796;—(2) Ten coloured views, by Lieut. W. H. Browne, on the Arctic expedition of H.M. Ships Enterprise and Investigator, 1850;—(3) Play-bills, etc., printed on board the ships of the Arctic squadrons, 1851-4;—(4) Facsimile of the "Illustrated Arctic News," published on board H.M.S. Resolute in search of Sir John Franklin, edited by Lieut. Sherard Osborn and Geo. F. McDougall, 1852;—(5) "L'Illustration" for 23 Apr. 1853, containing an article on the Franklin search expedition of 1851-2;—(6) Sketches made during the voyage up Wellington Channel in search of Sir J. Franklin, with a short account of each drawing by Commander Walter W. May, R.N., 1855.

35,300. BARROW BEQUEST. Vol. I. "Original Drawings by [William] Alexander and by Samuel Daniel[1], artists of celebrity in their day." Thirty-seven water-colour drawings, made for the most part in 1792-3 on Lord Macartney's embassy to China (cf. Add. 33,931) the rest on a mission with Sir John Barrow in South Africa in 1801-2. Many of them have been engraved, either for Sir J. Barrow's Voyage to Cochinchina (1806, containing the African mission as appendix) or for his Travels in China (1804). Paper; ff. 37. Folio.

35,301. BARROW BEQUEST. Vol. II. The original MS. of Sir John Barrow's Voyages of Discovery and Research within the Arctic regions (1846). Autograph. "Written at the age of 82, and (which is worthy of remark) without the aid of spectacles" (note by his son, Col. John Barrow, at f. 5). Another note by Col. Barrow (f. 2) states that this and the two following volumes were saved by his mother, "my father invariably tearing everything up when it had passed through the press, and even this MS. is incomplete from that very cause." An original letter from Adm. Sir W. E. Parry to Sir J. Barrow, and a note by him, relating to his attempt to reach the North Pole, are incorporated (ff. 142, 147; pr. ed., pp. 313, 320). With a photograph of a portrait of some Arctic explorer at the beginning. Paper; ff. 230. Folio.

35,302. BARROW BEQUEST. Vol. III. "An Autobiographical Memoir of Sir John Barrow, Bart. (late of the Admiralty)." Published in 1847. Autograph (ff. 9, 10 are proofs with autograph corrections). Paper; ff. 254. Folio.

35,303. BARROW BEQUEST. Vol. IV. "A Supplementary Chapter to the Biographical Memoir of Sir John Barrow, Bart." An account of the Royal Society and Royal Society Club, with biographical notices of the Presidents of the Society, and of some of its most distinguished Fellows, during Sir John Barrow's association with it, from 1806 to 1848; in his autograph. "Written at the age of 85, without the aid of glasses—and upon which he was engaged on the last evening of his life. Subsequently ("printed not" inserted in pencil) published by his sons" (note by Col. Barrow, f. 16). In Add. 35,301, f. 2, Col. Barrow speaks of this as "the Supplementary Chapter, which was barely completed when my Father breathed his last, and which was printed (but not published) subsequently to his death." It appeared, however, in 1849 (London, John Murray), entitled Sketches of the Royal Society and Royal Society Club, with all the marks of an ordinary publication. At the beginning is a portrait of Sir J. Barrow, engraved after Lucas; and at the end (f. 170) a biographical notice by [Sir George Thomas] S[taunton, 2nd Bart.], reprinted from the Times of 1 Dec. 1848. Paper; ff. 171. Folio.

- 35,304. BARROW BEQUEST. Vol. V. Five water-colour views in Wolstenholme Sound, and several smaller sketches and maps illustrating the voyage of H.M.S. "North Star" (James Saunders, Master-commanding) to Baffin's Bay and Barrow Straits; 1849-50. The "North Star" was intended as a provision-ship for the Franklin search expedition under Sir James Ross. The volume also includes the following printed matter:—(1) Instructions to J. Saunders, 14 May, 1849. f. 2;—(2) Article on the "North Star," from the Illustrated London News, 26 May, 1849. f. 4;—(3) Captain Saunders's report of the voyage, dated Spithead, 28 Sept. 1850. f. 12 b;—(4) An engraved chart of Baffin's Bay, etc., 1851. f. 19. It appears from Capt. Saunders's report (f. 15 b) that the drawings and maps were executed by James J. Rutter, clerk in charge, and [John F. R.] Aylen, master's assistant. Paper; ff. 19. Large Folio.
- 35,305. BARROW BEQUEST. Vol. VI. "The Queen's Illuminated Magazine and North Cornwall Gazette. Published in Winter quarters, Arctic Regions"; 28 Oct. 1852-12 Feb. 1853. The original MS., mainly in the handwriting of Lieutenant [afterw. Rear-Admiral] Sherard Osborn, in command of H.M.S. "Pioneer" in the Franklin search expedition under Sir Edward Belcher. With numerous water-colour and pen-and-ink illustrations, and with "Advertisement" and two Play-bills (ff. 3, 19, 31) printed on board H.M.S. "Assistance." At the beginning (f. 2) is a note by Osborn, "This paper must not be published or circulated publicly without the full consent of the contributors," and below this an inscription by Col. Barrow: "This book, being the original—and not hitherto printed, or published—was presented to me by my kind and most valued friend, Captain Sherard Osborn, C.B., whose heroic conduct, in all that appertains to the search for Sir John Franklin and his brave companions, is a matter of history." Paper; ff. 68. Quarto.
- 35,306-35,309. BARROW BEQUEST. Vols. VII.-X. Letters to Colonel John Barrow from officers of all ranks and civilians, who took part in the various Arctic expeditions in search of Sir John Franklin, from Lady Franklin and from a few others; 1849-1892. Most of the letters were written during Col. Barrow's official connection with the Admiralty, but they are all addressed to him in his private capacity, and many of them contain matter of a confidential nature—especially the ex parte accounts given him by Sir Edward Belcher on the one hand, and by his subordinate officers on the other, of the conduct of that unsuccessful expedition. With many of the writers an intimate correspondence was maintained long after they had ceased to take an active part in Arctic exploration; this is especially the case with Sherard Osborn (see above, Add. 35,305), who wrote long and frequent letters from his subsequent stations during the Crimean War, Lord Elgin's embassy to China, etc. The names of all the writers will be found in the index. Four volumes. Paper. Folio. Mostly inlaid, with occasional notes by Col. Barrow in the margins; and with his bookplate in every volume. Arranged as follows:—

35,306. Vol. VII. (I. ff. 342). 1. "Captain Austin's expedition" of 1850, in H.M. Ships "Resolute," "Assistance," "Intrepid," and "Pioneer": letters from Captains Horatio Thomas Austin and Erasmus Ommanney, Lieutenants John Bertie Cator and Sherard Osborn, and others, 1850-61. f. 3;—2. "Captain Penny's expedition" of 1850, in the "Lady Franklin": almost all from Capt. William Penny, 1850-73. f. 74;—3. "Captain Forsyth's expedition" of 1850, in the "Prince Albert": from Commander Charles Codrington Forsyth, including (f. 187) a plan drawn by him of Castrics Bay in the Gulf of Tartary, "shewing the position of the Russian Squadron on the 20th May, 1855." f. 160;—4. "Captain [Edward Augustus] Inglefield, 'Isabel' and H.M.S. 'Phoenix.' Commander [Robert] Jenkins, H.M.S. 'Talbot,'" 1852-57. f. 190;—5. "Mr. [William] Kennedy's expedition, 'Prince Albert,'" 1851-52. f. 246;—6. "M. [Joseph René] Bellot," of the French navy, who served as a volunteer with Kennedy in 1851 and with Inglefield in 1853, and was drowned in the Wellington Channel on 18 Aug. 1853: letters from him and from members of his family, 1851-58. f. 254;—7. "Sir John Ross's expedition" of 1850: letters from Capt. Sir John Ross, 1850-54. f. 285;—8. "Dr. [Elisha Kent] Kane, American navy, and Mr. [Henry] Grinnell," 1853-57. f. 294.

35,307. Vol. VIII. (II. ff. 611). 1. "Sir Edward Belcher's expedition" of 1852-54. By far the longest section; it contains very outspoken accounts of the disagreements between Sir E. Belcher and the officers under him. Besides Belcher himself and Lieut. (Commander, Oct. 1852) Sherard Osborn, the writers include Capt. Henry Kellett, H.M.S. "Resolute"; Commander William John Samuel Pullen, H.M.S. "North Star"; Commander George Henry Richards, H.M.S. "Assistance"; and Dr. Robert M'Cormick; 1852-73, most of the later letters being from Osborn, Richards and M'Cormick. At the beginning are the printed instructions from the Admiralty to Capt. Sir E. Belcher, 16 Apr. 1852. f. 3;—2. "Captain [Henry] Kellett"; 12 June, 1851–10 June, 1858. f. 553;—3. "M. de Bray": letter from Madame Théophile de Bray, with one from her son Lieut. Emil de Bray of the French navy, who assisted in one of the expeditions; 1853–59 and n. d. f. 568.

35,308. Vol. IX. (III. ff. 409). 1. "Captain [Richard] Collinson, C.B., H.M. Discovery Ship 'Enterprize,' 1850"; 15 Jan. 1850–5 June, 1875: including (ff. 55–59) the printed and written notices left in the Arctic regions by previous explorers and found by Capt. Collinson. f. 3;—2. "Captain Sir Robert McClure, H.M. Discovery Ship 'Investigator'"; 1 Jan. 1855–22 Dec. 1860. f. 63;—3. "Captain [Thomas Edward Laws] Moore, H.M. Discovery Ship 'Plover,' Behring Straits, 1849–51. Captain [Rochfort] Maguire, H.M. Discovery Ship 'Plover,' Behring Straits, 1852; Dr. [John] Simpson," 28 Sept. 1849–1858 and n. d. f. 112;—4. "Captain [Henry] Trollope, H.M.S. 'Rattlesnake,' 1853"; 11 Jan. [1853]–24 June, 1857. f. 198;—5. "Captain [or rather Rear-Admiral Frederick William] Beechey," 29 Nov. 1854. f. 249;—6. "Lieutenant [William Hulme] Hooper, 1851–4." f. 252;—7. "Mr. [William] Kennedy, Discovery Ship 'Isabel,' Lady Franklin's expedition, 1853." Letters from Kennedy and from Richard Bardin, engineer of the "Isabel," 1853–1859. f. 270;—8. "Mr. [William Parker] Snow, cutter 'Thomas,' intended voyage to Behring Straits, 1853"; 19 May, 1853–17 Nov. 1892. f. 310;—9. "Dr. [John] Rae, 1852–6"; with two of later date, 12 Mar. 1861 and 24 Nov. 1875, and a printed article by Dr. Rae on "Some Physical Properties of Ice," from the Philosophical Magazine for July, 1874. f. 350;—10. "Lady Franklin": letters from Jane, widow of Sir John Franklin, and her niece Miss Sophia Cracroft; n. d., 1855–1866. f. 389;—11. "Mr. [August Heinrich] Petermann," of Gotha; 29 Mar. 1855. f. 402. At the end are four engraved maps of the Arctic regions, showing the discoveries of successive explorers, 1853–54; and a letter of thanks for the gift of Arctic objects to the British Museum, 23 Nov. 1855. ff. 405–409.

35,309. Vol. X. (IV. ff. 337). 1. "Captain Sherard Osborn, C.B. Private Letters." The first six letters (ff. 4–39) form a sort of journal of the expedition under Sir E. Belcher (see above, Add. 35,307, art. 1); the remainder are dated 21 Jan. 1859–19 Apr. 1861, and include (ff. 46–48) photographs of Lord Elgin and his staff (including Laurence Oliphant, the author), and of H.M.S. "Furious," Osborn's ship, which carried Lord Elgin's the following Nos., 35,310-35,324, form part of a large bequest to the British Museum by Baron Ferdinand Rothschild.

5,310. ROTHSCHILD BEQUEST. Vol. I. "Ordo Breuiarii secundum consuetudinem romane curie." Contents:—(1) Calendar, SS. Francis, Anthony of Padua and Bernardino in red and "duplex maius." f. 1;—(2) Temporale. f. 7;—(3) "Officium psalmiste," i.e. Psalter. f. 175;—(4) "Secunda pars breuiarii, scilicet de festiuitatibus secundum morem sancte romane ecclesie." f. 234. Colophon: "Istud breuiarium fuit inceptum placentie per me fratrem Nicolaum pignochum de bagnacuallo ordinis minorum. Completum autem fuit xxj. marcij. 1480. Tempore leticie. Mb." But artt. 5 and 6 are by the same hand. f. 366 b;—(5) "Commune Sanctorum." f. 367;—(6) Office of the Virgin, "in agenda mortuorum," communion and unction of the sick, commendation and burial, "officium sepulture paruulorum Christianorum," followed by benedictions, exorcisms, etc., and "Forma absolutionis abstracta do (sic) formulario domini pape." ff. 395 b-413. This is followed, in other hands, by services in honour of SS. Ambrose and Dominus, and by various prayers, including invocations of St. Sebastian and other saints against pestilence, by Daniel [di Birago], and a prayer against pestilence, "quam dominus rex Ferdinandus [i.e. Ferdinand the Catholic] secum fert." ff. 413-415.

Vellum; ff. 415. Written at Piacenza by the Franciscan Nicholas Pignochus of Bagnacavallo, and finished in 1480 (see above, art. 4). With fifty-three finely executed miniature-initials, and with ornamental borders on ff. 7, 175 b, 234 and 367, enclosing the Biraghi arms (gules, three bars embattled argent, slightly different from the arms usually given) with the letters D^â. B^î. The name Daniel de Birago is written in full twice (f. 104 b) on scrolls about an initial D. He was commissary-general of the state of Milan under Sixtus IV. [1471-1484], and was made a senator in 1482 by Giangaleazzo Sforza, Duke of Milan; he became Archbishop of Mitylene, and d. 1495 and was buried at Milan (Maison de Birague, p. 5, in Archives Historiques, 1856). The prayers on the last few pages are probably in his autograph. 11½ × 8½ in.

35,311. ROTHSCHILD BEQUEST. Vol. II. Breviary, in Latin, containing (1) Calendar, with St. Francis in gold (4 Oct.), his translation (25 May) in red, and stigmata (17 Sept.) in black. f. 1;—(2) Hymns to be used on certain Sundays. f. 7;—(3) Psalter. f. 8;—(4) Hymns for use on special occasions. f. 107;—(5) "Absolutiones et benedictiones totius anni." f. 120;—(6) Temporale, Advent to Easter Eve, imperfect at the beginning. f. 121;—(7) "Les festes des sains par tout lan au long," imperfect at the end, breaking off with SS. Soter and Caius, 22 Apr., and so wanting half the year. f. 341;—(8) Commune Sanctorum. f. 389;—(9) Hours of the Virgin, wanting a leaf at the beginning. f. 414;—(10) Office of the Dead, imperfect at the beginning. f. 435. Vellum; ff. 438. Early xvth cent. Very finely illuminated by French artists. Two nearly full-page miniatures, enclosed within borders. The first (f. 8) represents David adoring the Almighty while a scribe is writing out the Psalter; the second (f. 333 b) represents the Crucifixion, with the Scourging below. Forty-two smaller miniatures, and fifteen still smaller enclosed in initials; besides initials and partial borders on almost every page. The missing portions of the Temporale (Easter Eve to the last Sunday in Nov.), the Proprium (St. George, 23 Apr., to St. Catherine, 25 Nov.), and the Office of the Dead, form the latter part (ff. 154-452) of Harley MS. 2897. They include (f. 188 b) a third full-page miniature (the Ascension), in the border of which are the arms of John, Duke of Burgundy (1404-1419), and Margaret his wife. The early part of the Harley MS, which is of about the same date, contains, among other matter, a Calendar identical with that in the present MS., and a Psalter having miniatures of precisely the same designs as those here, but of inferior execution. Given in 1718 to the monastery of Lieu St. Bernard by D. Verplanken, Canon of St. Jacques at Antwerp (f. 7 b). The Harley MS. was bought by the Earl of Oxford in 1715. In modern binding of crimson velvet. $9\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,312. ROTHSCHILD BEQUEST. Vol. III. Hours of the Virgin, etc., in Latin. Contents:—(1) Calendar, in French, SS. Denis, Martin and Thomas of Canterbury (9 Oct., 11 Nov., 29 Dec.), in gold. f. 1;—(2) Lessons from the four Evangelists. f. 13;—(3) Hours of the Virgin. f. 21;—(4) Penitential Psalms and Litany. f. 69;—(5) Hours of the Cross. f. 90;—(6) Hours of the Holy Ghost. f. 98 b;—(7) "Oratio venerabilis Bede presbiteri de septem ultimis uerbis domini nostri Ihesu Christi in cruce pendentis," and other prayers. f. 102;—(8) Vigils of the Dead. f. 110;—(9) "Obsecro te." f. 141. Vellum; ff. 145. Middle of the xvth cent. Executed in France. Seventeen full-page miniatures, at the principal divisions; illuminated borders and initials throughout, the borders in the Calendar enclosing medallion-miniatures. Bound in crimson velvet, by Pascual Carsí y Vidal, of Madrid. $8\frac{1}{2} \times 6$ in.

35,313. ROTHSCHILD BEQUEST. Vol. IV. Hours of the Virgin, etc., in Latin. Contents:—(1) Calendar: the saints in red include, besides the usual Flemish saints, (14 Oct.) Donatian, Bishop [of Reims, translated to Bruges], and (1 Dec.) Giles, Bishop and Confessor [Gilles de Caen, Bishop of Coutances]. f. 1 b;—(2) "Salutatio beate ueronice," beg. "Salve sancta facies." f. 8;—(3) Lessons from the four Evangelists. f. 9 b;—(4) "Hore de sancta cruce." f. 17 b;—(5) "Hore de sancto spiritu." f. 32 b;—(6) "Missa beate marie uirginis," f. 39 b;—(7) "Obsecro te" and "O intemerata." f. 46;—(8) "Septem gaudia marie," beg. "Gaude flore uirginali." f. 53;—(9) "Hore beate marie uirginis ad usum romanum." f. 57;—(10) "Septem psalmi penitenciales," with Litany; the latter including the Spanish martyrs Emeterus and Celidonius. f. 133 b;—(11) "Vigilie Mortuorum." f. 159;—(12) Prayers in commemoration of the Passion. f. 204 b;—(13) Memoriæ Sanctorum. f. 210 b;—(14) Prayer beg. "Ave sanctissima virgo maria," headed "Papa Sixtus [IV., 1471–1484] concessit dicentibus hanc orationem ante ymaginem marie uirginis in sole .xi. milia annorum indulgentiam"; in a different hand. f. 237. Vellum; ff. 237. End of the xvth cent. Finely illuminated by Flemish artists. Seventy-five full-page, or nearly full-page, miniatures, and twelve smaller ones (chiefly of agricultural pursuits) illustrating the Calendar; initials and borders throughout, the borders usually having birds, flowers, insects, etc., on a gold ground. Some of the miniatures closely resemble in design (though inferior in treatment) the Grimani Breviary : cf. especially ff. 89 b, 90, 229 b, 220 b, with pll. xxvii., xxviii., lix., lxiv. of Facsimile delle miniature contenute nel Breviario Grimani (ed. Zanotto, Venice, 1862). Of the two miniatures illustrating the Vigils of the Dead (ff. 158 b, 159), the first depicts three skeletons in shrouds attacking with darts a hunting party, which consists of two men and, in the foreground, a lady—perhaps an allusion is meant to the death of Mary of Burgundy (1482). The second is a funeral scene; the torches borne before the corpse have the arms argent, a chevron azure. There are inscriptions in some of the borders and on the robes in some of the miniatures, but these are either passages from Scripture or else unintelligible (see ff. 44, 47, 106 b, 119, etc.). $9\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,314. ROTHSCHILD BEQUEST. Vol. V. Hours of the Virgin, etc., in Latin (except art. 8). Contents:—(1) Calendar, St. Donatian again (see Add. 35,313) in red, with other Flemish and N. E. French saints. f. 1 b;—(2) "Hore sancte crucis." f. 9;—(3) "Hore beate marie virginis secundum vsu Romanum." f. 13;—(4) "Septem psalmi penitenciales," with Litany. f. 44;—(5) "Vigilie mortuorum." f. 54;—(6) "Contemplatio de doloribus beate marie": the "Stabat mater," with versicle and prayer. f. 73;—(7) "Obsecro te," "O intemerata," and other prayers. f. 74;—(8) "Oraison a dieu le createur et redempteur," beg. "Mon benoist dieu ie croy de cuer." f. 79;—(9) Memoriae Sanctorum, the Memoria of St. Athanasius consisting of the "Quicumque vult" (f. 80 b); included are SS. Louis, King of France, Louis, Bishop [of Toulouse], and Roch. f. 80;—(10) Prayers to be used at the elevation of the Host and on other occasions. f. 87 b.

Vellum; ff. 89. End of the xvth cent. Illuminated by Flemish artists. Six full-page miniatures illustrating artt. 2-6, and six smaller ones in artt. 7-9: a few borders, chiefly flowers and butterflies on a gold ground, sometimes enclosing small drawings. $6\frac{1}{4} \times 4\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,315. ROTHSCHILD BEQUEST. Vol. VI. Hours of the Virgin, etc., in Latin. Contents:—(1) Calendar, evidently Franciscan, having in blue the three feasts of St. Francis (4 Oct., 25 May, and Stigmata 17 Sept.), also Bernardino of Siena (17 and 20 May), Louis, Bishop of Toulouse (19 Aug.), and other Franciscan saints. f. 1;—(2) Lessons from the four Evangelists. f. 9;—(3) "Passio Domini nostri Jesu Christi secundum Johannem." f. 11;—(4) "Devota contemplatio ad beatam Virginem": the "Stabat mater," with versicle and prayer. f. 15 b;—(5) "Officium beate Marie Virginis secundum morem Romane curie." f. 16 b;—(6) "Hore de Cruce." f. 47 b;—(7) Horæ de Sancto Spiritu. f. 50;—(8) "Septem psalmi penitenciales," with Litany. f. 51 b;—(9) "Officium pro defunctis." f. 62 b;—(10) "Suffragia sanctorum et sanctarum." f. 83;—(11) "Obsecro te" and "O intemerata." f. 89 b;—(12) "Dominica in ramis palmarum. Passio domini nostri Iesu Christi secundum Mattheum." f. 93;—(13) "Die Martis Passio domini nostri Iesu Christi secundum Marcum." f. 99;—(14) "Die Mercurii. Passio domini nostri Iesu Christi secundum Lucam." f. 104 b;—(15) Memoræ of SS. Cecilia and Genovefa, followed by various prayers. f. 109 b.

Vellum; ff. 117. xvth cent. Written in small italics. Every page of the Calendar is illustrated with pictures of country life, hunting, hawking, etc., and the rest of the MS. contains fourteen large and two small miniatures, finely executed by French artists. The large miniatures are enclosed in architectural borders. Each page is framed in a gold border. Bound in dark-green morocco, blind-tooled, the covers lined with red morocco richly tooled in gilt. Belonged to George Daniel of Canonbury (signature, 1848, on fly-leaf), in whose sale-cat. (1864, lot 1178) the binding is ascribed to Bauzonnet-Trautz. $6\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,316. ROTHSCHILD BEQUEST. Vol. VII. Hours of the Virgin, etc., in Latin (except parts of art. 6). Contents:—(1) "Officium beate marie uirginis secundum consuetudinem Curie Romane." f. 2;—(2) "Missa beate marie." f. 82;—(3) "Septem psalmi penitenciales," with Litany. f. 88;—(4) "Offitium sancte cruois." f. 115;—(5) "Offitium sancti spiritus." f. 119 b;—(6) Psalm cxvii. ("Confitemini Domino"), preceded by a long rubric in Italian, and each verse followed by a prayer to the Virgin in Italian; followed by Psalm xc. ("Qui habitat"). f. 126;—(7) Litany, mainly addressed to the Virgin under various epithets, and followed by the prayer "Obsecro te." f. 148. (8) "Septem gaudes beate marie composite per sanctum thomas (sic) cantorberi," beg. "Gaudo flos uirginale." f. 155 b;—(9) Lesson from St. John's Gospel (i. 1-14). f. 157 b.

With ten nearly full-page miniatures, of rather coarse execution, enclosed in floriate borders, at the beginnings of the several days, in French style. Binding, dark-brown leather, tooled, by Berthelet (cf. Royal MS. 13 B. xx., executed for Henry VIII.). Among other ornaments are medallion heads of Plato and Dido, and the motto, "Foy pour debvoir," of Edward Seymour (ob. 1552), Duke of Somerset, Protector (cf. his seal, Cat. of Seals, iii. p. 504), in a lozenge-shaped compartment in the centre of each cover. 19 x 14 in.

35,324. ROTHSCHILD BEQUEST. Vol. XV. Drawings, mostly in Indian-ink (artt. 5, 7, coloured), of funeral processions:—(1) "Funeral processions of a Knight of the Garter and a Duchess." f. 1;—(2) Anne of Cleves, wife of Henry VIII. (ob. 1557). f. 7;—(3) Sir Christopher Hatton (ob. 1591). f. 10;—(4) Mary, Queen of Scots (1587). f. 14;—(5) Lady Lumley [Joan, dau. of Henry Fitzalan, Earl of Arundel, and first wife of John, Lord Lumley]; with epitaphs, Engl. and Lat., and prayers used by her. The Latin epitaph dates her death 28 July, 1578 (cf. Manning and Bray's Surrey, ii. p. 469, where the date Mar. 1576-7 is given on the authority of the Cheam parish register). Coloured figures and banners. At the end, "A true report from Mr Richard Browne, Mr Richard Leuknor and Mr Dallender, Esquires, who had the charge of these Funeralls." f. 17;—(6) Henry Ratcliffe, Earl of Sussex (ob. 1593). f. 23;—(7) Queen Elizabeth (1603). Coloured figures, banners, etc. Another copy in pen-and-ink by W. Camden is in Add. MS. 5408, and has been reproduced by the Soc. of Antiquaries, Vetusta Monumenta, vol. iii. f. 26. In all cases, names are written against the chief figures in the processions; but there seems no attempt at portraiture, unless perhaps in the stunted figure of "The Principall Secretary, Sir Robert Cicell," on f. 35. Paper, inlaid in cardboard (formerly in rolls); ff. 39. Early xviii cent. From the library of Capt. Walter R. Tyrell (sale-cat. 7 Dec. 1891, lots 344-350). Oblong folio, 2 x 3 ft. (dimensions of drawings, as now divided, 9½ x 29 in.).

The following Nos., 35,325-35,341, were purchased (with Egerton MSS. 2818-2824, q.v.) at a sale, 5-10 June, of a further portion of the library formed by Sir Thomas Phillipps, Bart., of Middle Hill, co. Worcester, and Thirlestaine House, Cheltenham.

35,325. Two POLITICAL Tracts, in Latin, written in answer to Dante and for the Guelphic interest by Guido Vernanus of Rimini, a Dominican. Followed by excerpts from John of Salisbury and others. Contents:—

1. "De reprobatione false monarchie": a confutation of Dante's tract De Monarchia. Dedicated to Graciolus de Bambaolus, chancellor of Bologna, who died ante 1343. The name of the author [fr. Guido Vernanus de Arimino ordinis fratrum predicatorum] is erased both in preface and colophon. Printed at Bologna, 1746. Preface beg.: "Suo Rarissimo filio Graciolo," and text "Diuiditur autem illud scriptum." f. 2.
2. "Incipit tractatus . . . de potestate summi pontificis," by the same. The author's name is erased from the rubric, but remains in the text. Printed as above. Preface beg. "Quia multi ex inordinato partis affectu," and text "Sicut dicit philosophus in primo politicorum Quecumque ex pluribus." Imperfect at end by loss of one leaf. f. 10.
3. Excerpts from the Polycraticus of John of Salisbury, Bishop of Chartres 1176-1180 (v. Migne, Patr. Lat., cxcix. col. 385). Beg. "Liber iste pro parte nugis continet curiales." f. 17.
4. Notes on the Greek philosophers. Beg. "Tales primus sapiens appellatus est." f. 30.
5. A dialogue of ascetic or stoic origin. Beg. "Moreris . Responsio. Ista est hominis natura." f. 35.
6. Extracts from the Historia Monachorum (translated) by Rufinus, capp. xi.-xxxii. (Migne, Patr. Lat., vol. xxi. col. 429), the Verba Seniorum (Migne, lxxiii. cols. 801-810 and 856), the collection excerpted from Cassian (Migne, lxxiii. cols. 831-848) and other parts of the Vitae Patrum. Beg. "Fuit quidam uir sanctus Helenus nomine." f. 36 b.

7. A few extracts in another hand from the Variae of Cassiodorus. f. 45.

Vellum; ff. 47. Written in Italy, xivth cent. Belonged to the Dominicans of Rimini (see the remains of a note on the last cover recording a loan of it). Bound in wooden boards covered with red skin. Bought by the bookseller John Cochran, 1828 (cat. for 1829, no. 204). Philipps MS. 6310 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 123). $8\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ in.

- 35,326. "ΕΠΙΕΙΚΕΙΑ": a discourse on Equity, in three parts, to which is added a discourse of the "Antiquity, Honour and Power of the Highe Courte of Chauncery and of the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Greate Seale," by Edward Hake, of Gray's Inn, who signed the "Notice to the Reader" (f. 3 b) and added occasional notes (cf. ff. 2, 75 b).

This work (not mentioned in Hake's life in the Dictionary of National Biography) was written circ. 1600 (v. letters from Hake to Sir Julius Cæsar, 7 Dec. 1597, 15 Feb. 1597, Lansdowne MS. 161, ff. 233, 43) and is in the form of a Dialogue between the author, "Lovelace" and "Eliott." It was to his "Cowesen M. Edward Eliotte, Esquier, the Queenes Maiesties Surueyours of all her Honours . . . and possessions" in Essex that Hake dedicated A Commemoration of the . . . Raigne of our . . . Soueraigne Lady Elizabeth in 1575. On 6 July, 1603, he wrote again to Sir J. Cæsar about this discourse, a copy of which had been presented to the King (v. Add. MS. 12,503, f. 47).

Paper; ff. 105. Circ. 1600. In the original tooled vellum binding. Philipps MS. 9704 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 512). $13\frac{3}{4} \times 9\frac{1}{2}$ in.

- 35,327. "THE HONOUR of Fidelitie": a panegyric in verse on the married life and death of Lady Catherine Grey, by John Phillippe, "alumnus" of Queens' College, Cambridge, "dwelling in Wood-streete in London" (also known as John Phillips, v. Dict. Nat. Biog.). The poem, which ends imperfectly, begins "If duetie due to god and prince / On faithfulness do stand," and contains upwards of 800 lines. It extols the patience, resignation and piety of the lady, who had incurred the displeasure of Queen Elizabeth by her marriage (in 1560) to Edward Seymour, Earl of Hertford. It refers to her children and to Sir Owen Hopton, Lieutenant of the Tower, in whose house at Cockfield she died a prisoner, 27 Jan. 1563. With a dedication to the Earl of Hertford and an "Argumentum" prefixed.

Paper; ff. 14. circ. 1570. Philipps MS. 4846 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 984). $8\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{4}$ in.

- 35,328. WARRANT from Queen Elizabeth to John Fortescue, Master of the Great Wardrobe, for payments to be made to Walter Fyshe, tailor, John Bate, "Verthingalemaker," Adam Blande, skinner, Alice Mountague, silkwoman, Henry Herne, hosier, and others, with full descriptions of the articles supplied by the same; 10 Feb. a^o 9 [1567]. Signed at the head by the Queen; with paper signet. Included are various entries of clothes for "Jack Grene our foole." Vellum; ff. 4. Originally in the form of a roll. Phillipps MS. 8908 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 515). $17\frac{1}{4} \times 12\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,329. COLLECTIONS relating to Serjeants at Law, comprising ceremonials for the call of serjeants in 1577 and 1640 (ff. 25, 44) and accompts for the feasts, liveries, rings, etc., on several such occasions, 1552-1580. At the end are lists of serjeants 1692-1702 (f. 48), the London Gazette for 11 June, 1705, with account of a call (f. 53), references to authorities in the hand of Peter Le Neve (f. 57), and other notes.

Paper; ff. 69. XVI.-XVIIIth centt. Belonged to Peter Le Neve, Norroy King of Arms 1704-1729, Thomas Martin of Palgrave, and Craven Ord (book-plate f. 1, sale-cat. 1829, lot 515). Phillipps MS. 3825 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 501). Folio.

35,330. "THE LAMENTABLE CONFESSION of Anthony Tyrrell priest," written in 1587 during the first of the three reversions to Roman Catholicism through which he passed. Apparently an incomplete autograph copy. The original came into the hands of Robert Parsons, who prepared it for the press, but it was not published till 1875 (in Father John Morris's Troubles of our Catholic Forefathers, 2nd Series, p. 320). Although Parsons abridges some passages, the text is nearly the same as the MS. as far as Morris's p. 382, where the transcriber (Tyrrell?) abruptly ends, but he appends the text of the letters which are incorporated in the remainder of the confession.

Paper; ff. 45. Circ. 1587. Phillipps MS. 4843 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 498). 9×7 in.

35,331. AUTOGRAPH DIARY of Walter Yonge, of Colyton, co. Devon (M.P. for Honiton in the Long Parliament), from 1627 to April, 1642, being a sequel to the volume (now Add. MS. 28,032) edited by G. Roberts (Camden Society, 1848). A further continuation, Sept. 1642-Dec. 1645, is in Add. MSS. 18,777-18,780. Cf. also a parliamentary journal (not autograph) for 1625 in Add. MS. 22,474. At the end are: (a) A copy of Prince Charles's marriage treaty, 1624, from the Mercurius Gallo-belgicus. f. 83;—(b) An epigram, anagram, chronogram, etc., on the death of Buckingham in 1628 (cf. Hilton's Chronograms, vol. ii. p. 12, but the verses differ). f. 89.

Paper; ff. 90. A.D. 1627-42. The volume was apparently seized by the Royalists; see a note on f. 3: "This manuscript was founde by me one the 22th day of Aprill, 1644, in the studie of Walter Younge, Esq., in his house of Studcombe [Stedcombe in Axminster] in Devon, witnes my haunde the day & yeare first aboue-written. E. Fortescue" [probably Sir Edmund Fortescue, the Royalist defender of Salcombe]. Phillipps MS. 20,757 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 340). $11\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,332. ORDNANCE OFFICE REGISTER of "Deliveries for Land Service"; 8 June 1646-9 July 1650. Under date 20-22 Jan. 1648 (f. 118) are deliveries for the use of the High Court of Justice, viz. 200 "rich javelins with velvet and fringe," and 50 "rich partizaus, gilt."

Paper; ff. 181. Phillipps MS. 19,222 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 421). 16×11 in.

35,333. ANTIQUARIAN MISCELLANIES of the 17th century, viz.:

1. Letter on Melancholy, addressed to Thomas Blomfield and signed M. N. f. 3.
2. "An Account of Religion by Reason," by Sir John Suckling. Printed in Fragmenta Aurea (London, 1646). f. 11.
3. Two Latin speeches at Cambridge University Comitia, viz.: (a) "Prævaricatio a magistro Fuller die Comitiorum habita Juli. 1651," by Thomas Fuller, fellow of Christ's College, afterwards vicar of Navenby, co. Linc., and rector of Willingale Doe, co. Essex. The endorsement makes the date 1653. f. 29;—(b) "Oratio prævaricatoria," by "Mr. Darby," of Jesus College, [1659]. f. 33.
4. Elementary Anglo-Saxon Grammar, in Latin. Apparently in the hand of Sir Hen. Spelman (ob. 1641). f. 39.
5. The laws of Edmund and laws and canons of Edgar in Anglo-Saxon: a transcript from the Cambridge MS. (Corpus Christi College No. 201), probably made for Abraham Whelock's edition of Lambard's Archæologia (Cambridge, 1644). The date 25 Oct. 1637 occurs (f. 56) in the middle. f. 44.
6. "The arte of Characterye": a system of shorthand by Timothy Bright, M.D., agreeing (with the omission of part of the dedication and the table of synonyms) with the printed edition of 1588 (unique copy in the Bodleian, reprinted Ulverstone, 1888). A specimen of Bright's writing is in Lansd. MS. 51, f. 56 b. f. 70.
7. Arms, in colours, of the family of Moseley (of Buildwas, co. Salop) and its connexions, comprising 27 coats with particulars of births and deaths, etc.; post 1686. f. 76.
8. Account for diet of Sir Henry Spelman, as high sheriff of Norfolk, at Norwich assizes, 1605. f. 89.

9. "The answer from the officers and others appointed within the town of Hunstanton [co. Norf.] to the 40 articles given in charge by warrant from Henry Tylour and Robert Longe Esquires": a return showing various burdens borne by the town, circ. 1639-1645. The name of John Spelman occurs as well as that of (Sir Henry Spelman's brother-in-law) Sir Hamon L'Estrange. f. 94.
10. Charms against witchcraft, magical and medical recipes, contained in two Latin epistles. The first is imperf. at the beginning and is dated "ex ciuitate Prapolitana Francorum," 10 Oct. 1508. The second is entitled "Synusiastes," and is addressed by "Melanios Triandricus" to "Rex Jaymiel," dat. 20 Oct. 1508. The hand is apparently German. ff. 99, 102.
11. Antiquarian notes, of the end of the 17th cent., on place-names, church-dedication, seals, coins, etc. Included are an engraved facsimile of a charter "olim in bibliotheca D'Ewesiana" and some notes on coinage, apparently copied from a MS. of Sir Simonds D'Ewes ("huc usque propria manu domini Sim. Dewes"). f. 108. Paper; ff. 131. xviii cent. Belonged to Dawson Turner, who bound the volume (sale-cat. 1859, lot 8). A description of the contents by Sir F. Palgrave (f. 1 b) is dated Dec. 1842. Phillipps MS. 21,538 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 1090). $9\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$ in.

35,334. ANCIENT INSCRIPTIONS in Greek and Latin, copied by George Wheler (knighted 1682, afterwards in Holy Orders and Canon of Durham 1684-1723) in the course of travels in Greece, Asia Minor, etc., in company with Jacob Spon, a Lyons physician, in 1675 and 1676. The journey is described in Voyage d'Italie, etc., by Spon (Lyons, 1678), who restores some of the inscriptions, and by Wheler himself in A Journey into Greece (London, 1682). Paper; ff. 55. xviii cent. Belonged to Granville Wheler of Methley, grandson of the author. Phillipps MS. 10,602, "ex bibl. Denley" (Phillipps sale-cat. 1899, lot 1195). $12 \times 9\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,335. ORIGINAL LETTERS, political verses and miscellaneous papers, chiefly relating to Sir Robert Walpole; circ. 1700-1783. From Horace Walpole's collections. Contents:—

1. Will of Thomas Walpole, of Little Walsingham, dat. 8 July, 1531, with probate 18 Oct. 1534. Copy (18th cent.). f. 2.
2. Letter of J. Grey al. Bishop to Col. [Robert] Walpole, [father of Sir Robert], about tithes; [ante 1700]. f. 4.

- 35,336. ARMS granted to English persons, 1478–1743, in blazon, collected, chiefly from docket-books, by John Warburton, Somerset Herald 1720–1759. The collection consists of several parts, each of which had originally a separate index (but a new index to the whole has been inserted instead), viz. :—
1. "Vincent's Old Grants": 231 entries taken from a larger collection probably made by Augustine Vincent, Windsor Herald 1624–6. They are numbered between 1 and 555, and the dates range from 1478 to 1602. Among others is the Shakspeare grant. At the end is a copy of a letter from W. Camden, Clarenceux, to [William Dethick] Garter about a grant, 2 June, 1600. f. 2.
 2. "Vol. I. of Grants": 194 entries, numbered 1–434. The dates range from 16 Hen. VIII. [1524] to 1646, but the majority are grants by Sir Gilbert Dethick (Garter 1549–1584). f. 42;—"Vol. III. of Grants" (Vol. II. seems to have been torn out): chronologically arranged, 103 entries, numbered 3–347, dates 1673–1688. f. 75;—"Vol. IV. of Grants": chronological, 90 entries, 5–300, dates 1688–1699. f. 95;—"Vol. V. of Grants": chronological, 107 entries, 1–452, dates 1699–1711. f. 111;—

"Vol. VI. of Grants": imperfect at the beginning and after f. 140, chronological, 63 entries, 53-445, dates 1712-1720. f. 131;—"Vol. VII. of Grants": not strictly chronological, 110 entries, 4-588, dates 1720-1728. f. 143;—"Vol. VIII. of Grants": not chronological, 130 entries, not numbered, dates 1720-1740. f. 163;—"Vol. IX. of Grants": not strictly chronological, 28 entries, dates 1740-1743. f. 185.

Paper; ff. 194. xviii cent. Bookplates of John Warburton and of Sir William Betham, Ulster King of Arms 1820-1854, who bought the volume in Sept. 1819 from William Warburton, the author's grandson. Phillipps MS. 15,184 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 634). Folio.

35,337. PARLIAMENTARY JOURNAL of the Hon. Philip Yorke, M.P. for Reigate (2nd Earl of Hardwicke, 1764), for the sessions 1743-4 and 1744-5. Holograph. Nearly all the contents are printed in Cobbett's Parliamentary History (London, 1812, vol. xiii.). The volume contains also:—(a) "Extracts from an Authentick Narrative, drawn up (by Capt. Joseph Yorke) by Marshal Wade's order, of the Campaign in Flanders of the year 1744." f. 77 b;—(b) Minutes of a private letter from [John Montagu,] Earl of Sandwich, to [Philip Dormer Stanhope,] Earl of Chesterfield, 10 Sept. 1747. f. 110;—(c) Minutes of a private letter from [Thomas Pelham-Holles,] Duke of Newcastle, to [William Augustus,] Duke of Cumberland, 12 Sept. Yorke's letters and reports to the Duke and in his correspondence with the Earl of Sandwich, Ambassador-Extraordinary to the Hague (1746–1748), succinct accounts are given of the movements of the Allied Army in Flanders, including the actions at Fontenoy (11 May, 1745) and at Val or Laeffelt, near Maestricht (2 July, 1747), and the siege of Bergen-op-Zoom (August, etc., 1747). See also Add. MSS. 35,354, 35,363. Paper; ff. 229. Folio.

35,432. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. LXXXIV. Letters of Sir Joseph Yorke (Baron Dover 1788), when Minister-Plenipotentiary at the Hague, to Hugh Valence Jones, Under-Secretary of State; 1752–

1754. The letters, though written in an unofficial and familiar style, contain many allusions to the political matters forming the subject of his official despatches to the Duke of Newcastle, Secretary of State (cf. Cat. of Additions 1882-1887, p. 1133). Paper; ff. 245. Folio.

35,433. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. LXXXV. Political papers, with a few letters, of Sir Joseph Yorke (Baron Dover 1788), when Minister Plenipotentiary and (1761) Ambassador-Extraordinary at the Hague; 1756-1790. Among the papers, which are apparently enclosures, or copies of enclosures, sent in his official despatches to the successive Secretaries of State, are the following:—

1. "Sur les arrangemens faits pour l'exercice des charges du Stadhouder pendant la minorité de S. A. S. le Prince d'Orange, 1759," drawn up on the death of Anne, daughter of George II., widow of William IV., Prince of Orange, for the governors, etc., of William V., her son. f. 11.
2. Request of Cornelis de Witte, of Dordrecht, grandson of Jan de Witte, Pensionary of Holland, for delivery to him of the latter's correspondence "now deposited in the Chamber of Archives"; 25 Mar. 1760. f. 15.
3. Detail of ceremonies on Sir J. Yorke's "taking upon him the character of His Majesty's Ambassador-Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States General . . . at the Hague, Aug. 12th-21st, 1761." f. 19.
4. "Lettres de l'armée de France en Allemagne, interceptées" in August, 1761. ff. 31-54.
5. "Lettres trouvées sur le Courier intercepté près de Hanau . . . allant de Paris à l'armée du Marechal Duc de Broglie," Sept. 1761. ff. 55-67.
6. "Petitions générales et Etats de Guerre," of the Council of State of the United Provinces, 1766-1777. ff. 80, 88, 95, 100, 110, 165, 171, 190.
7. "Allocuzione della Santità de Clemente XIV fatta nel consistor[i]o segreto del di 17 Genn. 1774." Latin. f. 115.
8. "Report of the Trade between Great Britain and the United Provinces," 31 Dec. 1773, in a letter from Sir J. Yorke to Lord Suffolk. f. 119.
9. "Papiers relatifs au renfort des troupes de l'état envoyées à Surinam contre les Negres Marons"; 1774. ff. 128-164.
10. Memoirs from the British Government to the United Provinces to engage their neutrality in the war with America and prevent the supply of munitions of war to the rebels; 1775-1778. ff. 174-178, 184-189.

11. Resolution of the States of Holland on the request by George III. for the loan of the Scotch Brigade serving in the Netherlands for service in N. America, with a protest by Baron Johan Dirk van der Capellen; 1776. ff. 180, 182. Paper; ff. 238. Folio.

35,434. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. LXXXVI. Transcripts of diplomatic correspondence, consisting chiefly of letters of Sir Joseph Yorke (Baron Dover 1788), when Ambassador at the Hague, to Sir James Harris, Baron (1788) and Earl (1800) of Malmesbury, when Envoy at Berlin (1772-1776) and Ambassador at St. Petersburg (1776-1783), preceded by a few similar papers and letters of earlier date; 1745-1783. The transcripts were apparently made for the 2nd Lord Hardwicke from the originals lent to him by Lord Malmesbury (v. the latter's letter, 7 June, 1793, f. 1). Paper; ff. 179. Folio.

35,435-35,438. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vols. LXXXVII.-XC. Letter-books of Sir Joseph Yorke (Baron Dover 1788), Minister Plenipotentiary to the Hague, containing copies of his private and confidential letters to Thomas Pelham-Holles, Duke of Newcastle, and Robert Darcy, Earl of Holderness, successive Secretaries of State; 1753-1758. Four volumes.

35,461-35,485. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vols. CXIII.-CXXXVII. Correspondence, chiefly diplomatic, of Robert Keith, Minister-Plenipotentiary at Vienna (1748-1757) and Envoy-Extraordinary at St. Petersburg (1757-1762), with a few private letters addressed to him after his retirement from the diplomatic service; 1748-1774. The principal writers are the Duke of Newcastle, the Earls of Holderness and Bute, and George Grenville, Secretaries of State, the Earl of Sandwich at Aix-la-Chapelle, Benjamin Keene at Madrid, Sir Charles Hanbury Williams at Dresden, William Bentinck and Joseph Yorke at the Hague, Lord Stormont at Warsaw, Sir John Goodricke and Walter Titley at Copenhagen, and Andrew Mitchell in Prussia. Drafts and copies of Keith's despatches are also included, together with a large number of copies of other letters and diplomatic papers. Twenty-five volumes. Vols. I.-XXI. contain letters and papers relating to the Embassy to Germany, including the negotiations which culminated in the Peace of Aix-la-Chapelle and those relating to the election of a King of the Romans. Vols. XXII.-XXV. relate to the Embassy to Russia, the last volume also including a few private letters and undated papers, among which (f. 131) is a character of the Empress Elizabeth. For Keith's letters to the Duke of Newcastle, see the Newcastle Papers, Add. MSS. 32,811 sqq.

35,500, 35,501. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vols. CLII., CLIII. Extracts from the correspondence of David Murray, Viscount Stormont (2nd Earl of Mansfield 1793), Ambassador to Vienna, and of [Benjamin?] Langlois, his secretary, with the Secretaries of State; 1763-1772. Two volumes. Vol. I. (ff. 80) Nov. 1763-Oct. 1771; Vol. II. (ff. 64) Oct. 1771-Dec. 1772. Paper. Folio.

35,502. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. CLIV. Extracts from the correspondence of Robert Gunning (K.B. 1778, Bart. 1778), Envoy-Extraordinary to Russia, with Henry Howard, Earl of Suffolk and Berkshire, Secretary of State; 19 June, 1772-14 Dec. 1775. Paper; ff. 55. Folio.

35,503-35,548. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vols. CLV.-CXCVIII. Correspondence, principally diplomatic, of Sir Robert Murray Keith, K.B. (eldest son of Robert Keith, see above, Add. MSS. 35,461-35,495), Ambassador at Dresden (1769-1771), Copenhagen (1771-1772), and Vienna (1772-1792), and Plenipotentiary at the Congress of Sistova (1790-1791), with the Secretaries and Under-Secretaries of State, British Envoys, etc., abroad, Viennese diplomatists and others; 1752-1792.

This correspondence, the letter-books which follow (35,547-35,583) and the papers of Robert Keith above-mentioned, became at the death of Sir R. M. Keith (21 June, 1795) the property of his daughter, a minor, who as Mrs. Gillespie Smyth edited Memoirs and Correspondence of Sir R. M. Keith, 1849, 8°. Her guardian and aunt, Miss Anne Murray Keith, deposited them with the 3rd Lord Hardwicke in trust, which was apparently in 1810 converted into possession (v. 35,642, ff. 121, 137, 138; 35,648, ff. 352, 368). The names of the writers are given in the index. Forty-four volumes.

"Private and confidential" correspondence of Philip Yorke, 3rd Earl of Hardwicke, when Lord Lieutenant of Ireland (17 Mar. 1801-30 Mar. 1806), with his brother the Hon. Charles Philip Yorke, Secretary at War (Feb. 1801-Aug. 1803) and Secretary of State for Home Affairs (Aug. 1803-May, 1804); 1801-1806. The letters relate, in the main, to the civil and military government of Ireland, but they also discuss the general policy of the Home Government, the war with France (1803, etc.), the changes in the Government, and the relations between Addington and Pitt, leading up to the former's resignation and the formation of the Pitt ministry in May, 1804, in which, though Lord Hardwicke remained Lord Lieutenant, his brother held no office. Six volumes.

35,707-35,710. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vols. CCCLIX.-CCCLXII.

Official correspondence of Philip Yorke, 3rd Earl of Hardwicke, when Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, with Ministers of State; 1801-1806. It consists chiefly of the official copies or holograph drafts of Lord Hardwicke's despatches and, in most cases, the original letters of Henry Addington, First Lord of the Treasury, March, 1801-May, 1804, his successor William Pitt till his death (23 Jan. 1806), and the following Secretaries of State for the Home Department, viz.: William Henry Cavendish-Bentinck, Duke of Portland, to 30 July, 1801, Thomas Pelham, Lord Pelham, July, 1801-Aug. 1803, Robert Banks Jenkinson, Lord Hawkesbury, May, 1804-Feb. 1806, and George John Spencer, Earl Spencer, Feb.-March, 1806. (For Lord Hardwicke's correspondence with the Hon. C. P. Yorke, Home Secretary Aug. 1803-May, 1804, v. above, 35,701-35,706.) In a strongly-worded letter to Pitt, 3 Feb. 1805 (35,710, f. 9), Lord Hardwicke, in consequence of Pitt's neglecting to attend to his letters, especially with regard to the conduct of Sir Evan Nepean, Chief Secretary, and to the delay in appointing a successor to the latter, talks of "appointing Lords Justices and returning to England"; and in July (ibid. f. 168) he requests "to be relieved by the appointment of another Lord Lieutenant." It was not, however, till 21 Nov. that Lord Powys was nominated. The latter's unwillingness to assume office and the death of Pitt delayed Lord Hardwicke's departure from Ireland till the end of March, 1806, when the Duke of Bedford was appointed in his place. Four volumes.

Included are:—(a) Charter of Richard I. for "Tournies and Tournaments"; 22 Aug. 1195. Translation. f. 34 b;—(b) "Sir Robert Cotton's Discourse of the Lawfulness of Combats to bee performed in the Kings presence." f. 39 b;—(c) "Writ of Right Patent," etc., from [Sir Anthony] Fitzherbert's (ob. 1538) Natura Brevium, pr. 1534. f. 77;—(d) "Coragious Acts done by the Kings of England." f. 145;—(e) "Appeales of Treason, Murder, Rape and Feloney." f. 167. With marginal notes by Peter Le Neve. At the beginning is an alphabetical index and at the end a table of contents.

Paper; ff. 188. xviii cent. Bought by Nicholas Hardinge at P. Le Neve's sale in 1730. Folio.

35,820. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. CCCCLXXII. Two treatises on Trial by Combat, viz. (1) "The waye of Duells before the Kinge" (for another, but imperfect, copy v. Lansd. MS. 211, f. 61, where it is, probably erroneously, attributed to John Selden). f. 2;—and (2) "Particulars to be taken into consideration concearning the trialls of Appeales in case of Treason before the Conestable and Marshal by joyning Bataile." f. 8. Peter Le Neve (ob. 1729) has added notes stating that art. 1 is in the handwriting of Sir Kenelm Digby (ob. 1665) and art. 2 in that of Sir John Borough (Garter, ob. 1643). The first statement is erroneous, but the other is apparently correct.

MS. 28,028 is an exact copy) has 12 leaves missing at the beginning, and a few at the end. Paper. xviiith cent. Belonged to Nicholas Hardinge (ob. 1758). Folio.

35,830 - 35,832. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vols. CCCCLXXXII. - CCCCLXXXIV. Miscellaneous State letters and papers collected by Philip Yorke, 2nd Earl of Hardwicke (ob. 1790); 1425-1625. They include (a) many original letters written by Queen Elizabeth, Sir William Cecil, and others, to Sir Nicholas Throckmorton, Ambassador in France 1559-1564, with drafts or copies of his own letters; and (b) drafts of official letters of Sir Edward Conway, Secretary of State 1622-1625, to various Ambassadors abroad, and on domestic affairs, etc. A selection of them was printed in Lord Hardwicke's Miscellaneous State Papers, 1778, and the Throckmorton correspondence was used by Dr. Patrick Forbes in A Full View of the Public Transactions in the reign of Qu. Elizabeth, 1741. Dr. Forbes states (vol. ii., pref.) that Sir Arthur Throckmorton, son of Sir Nicholas, entrusted his father's letters to Sir Henry Wotton, who bequeathed them to King Charles I., with a view to their being deposited in the Paper Office, but that by some means they fell into private hands and, when he (Forbes) used them, were in the possession of Nicholas Hardinge, Clerk of the House of Commons, and of Alexander Strahan, of Hampstead. Hardinge's library was sold in 1759 and Strahan's in 1767, when probably they were acquired by Lord Hardwicke. Three volumes. Paper. Folio. Vol. I. (ff. 231), 1425-1561; Vol. II. (ff. 345), 1562-1599; Vol. III. (ff. 201), 1615-1625. The contents of the several volumes are as follows:—

35,830. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. CCCCLXXXII. Miscellaneous State letters, etc. Vol. I., 1425, 1553-1561. The correspondence of Sir Nicholas Throckmorton with Queen Elizabeth and Secretary Cecil, which forms the most important part of this volume, consists of drafts or copies of his despatches, some written or corrected by himself, with the original letters addressed to him. He was appointed Ambassador to France in May, 1559, two months before the death of Henry II., and his letters give detailed accounts of his interviews with Mary, Queen of Scots (wife of Francis II., who died in Dec. 1560), with Lord James Stewart (afterwards Earl of Moray and Regent of Scotland), who had been despatched to Paris by the Scottish Parliament to find out the Queen's intentions with regard to Scotland, and with Catharine de' Medici, Queen-Mother. Incidentally the correspondence throws light on the intrigues and actions of the two French religious parties. Among the other correspondents are Robert Jones, who was for some time with Throckmorton at Paris, but had now returned home, Sir Henry Neville, Henry Killigrew, etc., all of whom kept him well informed of affairs at home, court events, etc., and Thomas Randolph, Ambassador in Scotland.

35,831. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. CCCCLXXXIII. Miscellaneous State letters, etc. Vol. II., 1562-1599. The volume opens with the copy of a letter from Mary, Queen of Scots, who had safely reached Scotland in August, 1561, to Queen Elizabeth. Throckmorton's correspondence is continued only to Jan. 1563, though he remained in France till after the Peace of Troyes in April, 1564. His letters are written from Paris to Aug. 1562, when he joined the Huguenot army in Normandy. Besides chronicling the events of the war, his letters during the summer and autumn of 1562 urge the importance of sending an English force to the help of the Protestants. Condé, for this purpose, offered Dieppe and Havre, and it was mainly owing to Throckmorton that a force was sent to Havre in October, under Sir Adrian Ponynge and, later, under the Earl of Warwick. Havre was thus occupied for some months, but it eventually surrendered on 27 July, 1563, after the garrison had suffered much from assault and more from the plague. There are frequent allusions in Throckmorton's letters to the embarrassed position in which he found himself as an ardent champion of the Protestant cause, a position much aggravated by the despatch in Sept. 1562 of Sir Thomas Smith as Ambassador to France; but his urgent requests for a recall were still refused. Events in France from the Peace between France and England in April, 1564, to March, 1566 (two months before his return to England), are very fully described in Smith's journal of "Occurrences" (art. 81).

35,933. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. DLXXXV. Transcripts of state correspondence and papers relating, almost exclusively, to the Roman Catholics in Ireland; 1697-1798. From the accidental substitution by the transcriber of the date "1804" for "1697" in the second letter, and from a note (f. 14) in the hand of Philip Yorke, 3rd Earl of Hardwicke, Lord Lieutenant (1801-1806), it may be inferred that the transcripts were made for the latter's use in 1804. They are as follows:—

1. Letters of [Charles Paulet, Marquis of] Winchester, and [Henri de Massue de Ruvigny, Earl of] Galway, Lords-Justices of Ireland, (a) to Charles Talbot, Duke of Shrewsbury, Secretary of State; 3 June, 1697-20 June, 1698. ff. 1-8;—(b) to James Vernon, Secretary of State; 10 Feb. 169 $\frac{1}{2}$ -4 Mar. 169 $\frac{1}{2}$. ff. 7 b-10.
2. Memorials and correspondence relating to the settlement of 800 Protestant Palatine, or German, families in Ireland; 1710-1718. ff. 11-30.
3. Correspondence relating to the Bill for relief of the Roman Catholics in Ireland; 1777-1782. ff. 31-43.

4. Letters from R[obert] Hobart, [Earl of Buckinghamshire 1804], Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant, to Scrope Bernard, Sir Evan Nepean and others, on the same subject; 1792-1793. ff. 44-62, 66-75.
5. Letters from (a) [John Fane, Earl of] Westmorland, Lord Lieutenant, to Henry Dundas, Home Secretary; 7 Dec. 1792. f. 63;—(b) H. Dundas to Lord Westmorland; 3 Jan. 1793. f. 64 b.
6. Letters from [John Jeffreys Pratt, Earl] Camden, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to (a) the Duke of Portland, Home Secretary; 8 Oct. 1795-2 Mar. 1797. ff. 76, 77, 79 b;—(b) William Pitt; 6 Jan. 1797, 15 May, 1798. ff. 79, 83 b;—(c) the Lords of the Treasury; 3 Apr. 1797. f. 82 b.
Paper; ff. 84. Folio.

35,934. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. DLXXXVI. Letters and papers relating to Dublin Castle Library during the Lord-Lieutenancy of Philip Yorke, 3rd Earl of Hardwicke; 1801-1802.
Paper; ff. 21. Folio.

35,935. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. DLXXXVII. Extracts from the Year-books and Assizes of Edw. III. and Hen. IV. In French. The cases are put in the form of brief notes, such as were incorporated in the compilations known as "Abridgments." References added mention Fitzherbert's "Natura" and statutes or cases down to 32 Hen. VIII.
Paper; ff. 49. xvth cent. $8\frac{1}{2} \times 5\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,936. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. DLXXXVIII. Abridgment, or systematic arrangement of cases, from the Year-books, to temp. Edw. IV. In French. Like the earliest printed abridgment (1495?, attributed to Nicholas Statham) it follows the wording of the Year-books closely, but the collection is more ample than Statham's. Additions in other hands include cases from Edw. IV. to Hen. VIII. The first title is "Lou le mort le pl. ou le def. abat le bref, et lou nemy."
Paper; ff. 83. End of xvth cent. $11\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ in.

35,937. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. DLXXXIX. Law Reports, 24 Hen. VI.-44 Eliz. (1445-1602): the compilation of Sir Francis Moore, Kt., Serjeant-at-law and M.P. (ob. 1621), "ex libro . . scripto manu propria ipsius" (f. 3). In French. The contents differ somewhat from the printed edition of 1663. Index of cases at the end (f. 389). Paper; ff. 397. xviii cent. Belonged to Sir Nicholas Lechmere (Attorney-General for the Duchy of Lancaster 1654, Baron of the Exchequer 1689-1700), who bought it for 55s. (f. 2). Bookplate of Philip [Yorke, 1st] Baron Hardwicke. $12\frac{1}{2} \times 8$ in.
MSS.—1899.

- 35,938. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. DXC. Law Reports, 1-21 Henry VII. (1485-1506). In French. The reports are not the same as in the printed Year-book (1580, reprinted 1679) nor as in Hargr. MS. 105. An index of subjects precedes. At f. 224 are three medical recipes.
Paper; ff. 224. Late xvth cent. Bookplate as above. $7\frac{1}{2} \times 6$ in.
- 35,939. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. DXCI. Law Reports, undated, chiefly temp. Hen. VIII., arranged under names of writs or subjects. In French. Additions in another hand.
Paper; ff. 381. xvth cent. The cover has the initials R. G. [probably Richard Godbold, a descendant of the judge John Godbold, v. Add. 35,965]. Bookplate as above. $9 \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in.
- 35,940. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. DXCII. Law Reports, 18 Hen. VI.-15 Eliz. (1440-1573). The earlier part, to the end of Henry VIII., contains only a few scattered cases. In French. In one hand throughout.
Paper; ff. 322. xvith cent. Bookplate as above. $12\frac{1}{4} \times 8$ in.
- 35,941. HARDWICKE PAPERS. Vol. DXCIII. Law Reports, temp. Eliz. and Jas. I. In French. Several series bound together, viz. :—(1) Trin. 9-Trin. 10 Jas. - Pap. 465. FRAGMENT of a petition or letter. 2nd or 1st cent. B.C. 13 in. \times $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. Very imperfect; in a large cursive hand.
- Pap. 466. Record of the sale of a she-ass by Petosiris, son of Clodius, to Patrophilon (?), son of Apunchis, for 160 drachmas. Dated at Cercosucha, in the division of Heracleides in the Arsinoïte nome, the 28th Loius [= Pauni] in the sixth year of the emperor Titus Aelius Hadrianus Antoninus Augustus Pius [= June 22, A.D. 143]. 8 in. \times $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. Perfect; the upper part in a rather square semi-cursive hand, the lower part in a very rapid cursive hand.
- Pap. 467. SMALL fragment, dated the 2nd Pharmouthi in the reign of Antoninus and [Venus or Commodus, = March 28, A.D. 161-168 or 177-179]. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 3 in. Much defaced; in a rough cursive hand.
- Pap. 468. RECORD of payments of camel-tax by various persons, in the eighteenth year of an unnamed emperor. 2nd cent. $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Perfect; in a medium-sized cursive hand.
- Pap. 469. (a) CUSTOMS-receipt for ἐρημοφυλακία, paid at the gate of Philadelphia on a freight of wheat. Dated the 29th Hadrianus [= Choiach] in the eighteenth year of Antoninus Caesar [= Dec. 25, A.D. 154]. With portion of clay seal, showing traces of a head and inscription. $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. Perfect; in a very minute cursive hand.
- (b) CUSTOMS-receipt for duty paid by Anubion at the gate of Karanis on a freight of pulse being transported to Memphis. Dated the 30th Mecheir [= Feb. 24] in the fourth year of an unnamed emperor. 2nd cent. $1\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $1\frac{1}{4}$ in. Perfect; written across the fibres of papyrus, in a very minute cursive hand.
- Pap. 470. RECEIPT, given by Sarapion, son of Isidorus, to Antonius Tiberius, a veteran, for repayment of a loan made to the latter by the wife of the former. Dated the 13th Pachon in the eighth year of Antoninus and Venus, Augusti Armeniaci Medici Parthici Maximi [= May 8, A.D. 168]. 8 in. \times 4 in. Slightly mutilated; in a rough semi-cursive hand.
- Pap. 471. CERTIFICATE from Isidorus and the other συναλόγοι to Polion, of corn measured by them from the produce of the current year.

Dated the 12th Epeiph in the twelfth year of Aurelius Antoninus Caesar [= July 6, A.D. 172]. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 3 in. Perfect; in a thick cursive hand.

Pap. 472. CERTIFICATE from Orion, son of Apollonius, to Paousis, of payment of a tax in respect of a calf taken for sacrifice. Dated the 3rd Pharmouthi in the twenty-eighth year of Aurelius Commodus Antoninus Augustus Pius [= March 29, A.D. 188]. $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $4\frac{1}{4}$ in. Perfect; in a very cursive hand of medium size.

Pap. 473. RETURN by Sarapion, son of Ammonius (?), of the metropolis [i.e. Arsinoë], stating that he possesses a she-ass. Dated the 24th Phamenoth in the first year of Helveius [sic, for Publius] Helvius Pertinax Augustus [= March 20, A.D. 193]. $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 3 in. Perfect; in a small, very cursive hand.

Pap. 474. RETURN, addressed by Apunchia, son of Apunchia, πράκτωρ στεφανικῷ of the village of Soenopaei Nesus, to Demetrius, strategus of the division of Heracleides in the Arsinoite nome, of the sums received by him during the month of Mecheir [February] in the current year. Dated the 11th Phamenoth in the seventh year of the emperors [Lucius] Septimius Severus Pius [Pertinax] Arabicus Adiabenicus Parthicus [Maximus] and Marcus Aurelius Antoninus Pius [= March 7, A.D. 199]. $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 3 in. Nearly perfect; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. 475. RECEIPT, addressed to the σιτολόγοι of Bacchias by Chalelis, for corn paid as supplies in connection with some work, in the twenty-fourth year of an unnamed emperor [either Commodus, = A.D. 183-184, or Caracalla, = A.D. 215-216]. Pap. 476. (a) FRAGMENT of a census-return, made by Leontas, son of Chaeremon; from a reference to the preceding census of the ninth year [of Domitian], it appears that this return relates to the census of the seventh year of Trajan [= A.D. 103-104], so that it would have been written in the course of A.D. 105. 2 in. \times $3\frac{1}{4}$ in. Imperfect; in a square uncial hand.

(b) Fragment of a lease (?), dated the 20th Hadrianus [= Choiach] in the fourteenth year of the emperors Lucius Septimius [Severus Pius] Pertinax [Arabicus Adiabenicus] Parthicus Maximus and [Marcus Aurelius] Antoninus Pius, [Augusti, and Publius] Septimius [Geta Caesar Augustus, = Dec. 16, A.D. 205]. The name of Geta has been erased. $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in a small uncial hand.

Pap. 477. RECEIPT given by Aurelius Menas, πράκτωρ στεφανικοῦ of the village of Bacchias (?), to Horus, son of Heron, for the sum of 12 drachmas. Dated in the fourth year of Marcus Aurelius Antoninus Pius Felix Augustus [i.e. Elagabalus, = A.D. 220-221.] 4 in. × 3 in., the greater part being blank. Perfect; in a small cursive hand, much abbreviated.

Pap. 478. RECEIPT given by Julius Longinus and his partners, farmers of a tax connected with the property of the priests, to Stotoëtis, a priest of Socnopaei Nesus, for 100 drachmas in respect of φόρος βομῶν. Late 2nd or 3rd cent. $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. × $3\frac{1}{2}$ in., most being blank. Nearly perfect; in a very rough cursive hand.

Pap. 479. PRIVATE letter from Tithioeis (?) to Eirenion, with a reference to some camels having been requisitioned by the prefect. 3rd cent. (?). 9 in. × 4 in. Nearly perfect; in a rather irregular cursive hand of medium size.

Pap. 480. PRIVATE letter from Clematius to his brother Sabinus, on money matters. 4th cent. $10\frac{1}{4}$ in. × $2\frac{1}{4}$ in. Nearly perfect, but faded; in a good-sized cursive hand.

Pap. 481. FRAGMENT of a Latin-Greek glossary, the Latin words being written in Greek characters. 4th cent. $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. × 4 in. Considerably damaged; written on both sides of coarse papyrus, in a medium-sized cursive hand.

Pap. 482. LATIN papyrus; A.D. 130. 8 in. × $3\frac{1}{2}$ in.
Presented by Prof. W. M. Flinders Petrie, D.C.L.

ACQUIRED IN 1895.

Pap. 483. PERPETUAL lease (εμφύτευμα) granted on behalf of the monastery of Abba Patois, in the Apollinopolite nome, by the prior Menas to John, son of Phoebamman, of $12\frac{1}{2}$ arouras of arable land and 5 arouras of uncultivated land, at the annual rent of $36\frac{1}{2}$ κεράτια. The autograph signatures of the parties and witnesses are appended. Dated the 12th Mesoré in the sixth year of the emperor Flavius Heraclius, in his fifth consulship and the fifth indiction [= Aug. 5, A.D. 616]. 5 ft. 3 in. (originally 6 ft. 6 in., but 1 ft. 8 in. of blank papyrus has been cut off the bottom) × 1 ft. $2\frac{1}{4}$ in.; written in one column across the breadth of the papyrus. Perfect; in a large cursive hand, rather sloping.

- Pap. 484. (a) FRAGMENT of an account. 2nd cent. 8 in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Mutilated and defaced; in a medium-sized cursive hand.
- (b) Fragment of a deed. 6th cent. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in two hands, the first large and upright, the second small, more cursive, and slightly sloping.
- (c) Fragment, perhaps literary. 2nd cent. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. Mutilated; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand.
- (d) Literary fragment, containing the beginnings (1-3 letters) of eighteen lines, apparently of iambic verse, with accents and square breathings. Traces of a preceding column are visible. 2nd cent. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $\frac{3}{4}$ in. In a large, thick, uncial hand.
- (e) Literary fragment, containing the beginnings (1-8 letters) of fourteen lines of hexameter verse. 2nd cent. (?). $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 1 in. In a neat, square, uncial hand of small size.
- (f) Fragment of a contract, dated in the ninth year of an emperor whose name is lost. 2nd cent. $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in a thin semi-cursive hand.
- Presented by Travers Smith, Esq.*

[Papp. 485-603 form part of the collection of papyri extracted by Prof. W. M. Flinders Petrie from the cartonnages of Ptolemaic mummies found by him at Gurob in 1889-90. Pap. 485 was presented to the Museum by Jesse Haworth, Esq., the remainder by H. Martyn Kennard, Esq. Most of them have been edited by Prof. J. P. Mahaffy in the Cunningham Memoirs, nos. VIII. and IX., of the Royal Irish Academy, On the Flinders Petrie Papyri (Dublin, 1891 and 1893). References to these volumes (P.P. I. and II.) are attached to the descriptions below, in which the original order of publication is preserved. Some of the papyri which had been assigned to the Museum, when the distribution of the collection was made, were never transferred to it, having been previously mislaid. These are included in the descriptions (see nos. 505, 506, 509-512, 515), but are marked as missing.]

Pap. 485. THE Antiope of Euripides; three fragments containing 112 lines, mutilated or complete, from this otherwise lost tragedy. Written on papyrus $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. high, in columns measuring $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. in width (including margin) and containing 36 or 37 lines each, in a small, firm, but rather uneven uncial hand. 3rd cent. B.C. [P.P. I. 1 and 2.]

Pap. 486. (a) FRAGMENT from an Anthology, containing portions of four lines from Epicharmus and three from Euripides, otherwise unknown. 3rd cent. B.C. 4 in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in a rather large semi-uncial hand. [P.P. I. 3 (1).]

- (b) Fragment of a tragedy, relating to Agamemnon and the delay of the Greeks at Aulis; the beginnings of 17 lines are preserved. 3rd cent. B.C. 5 in. \times 2½ in. Written in a rather large semi-uncial hand. [P.P. I. 3 (2).]
- (c) Fragment of an epic poem, perhaps the Ἡοῖα of Hesiod; portions of six lines are preserved. 3rd cent. B.C. 2 in. \times 2½ in. Written in a rather large semi-uncial hand. [P.P. I. 3 (8).]
- (d) Homer's Iliad, xi. 502-537, with five additional lines, not found in the ordinary texts. Only the endings of ll. 502-517 are preserved, and the beginnings of ll. 518-537. The additional lines follow ll. 504, 509, 513, 519, and 528. 3rd cent. B.C. 6½ in. \times 2½ in. Written in a rather large semi-uncial hand. [P.P. I. 3 (4).]

Pap. 487. (a) FRAGMENT of a drama of the New Comedy; the name Demeas occurs in it. Portions of 20 lines are preserved, in two columns. 3rd cent. B.C. 4½ in. \times 4½ in. Written in a rather large semi-cursive hand. [P.P. I. 4 (1).]

- (b) Fragment of a drama, probably a tragedy. Small portions of 25 lines are preserved, but the papyrus is much mutilated. 3rd cent. B.C. 5½ in. \times 5½ in. Written in a large and strong semi-uncial hand. [P.P. I. 4 (2).]

Pap. 488. THE Phaedo of Plato; portions of cc. 67 E-69 A, 79 C, 80 D-81 D, 82 A-84 B, with readings differing notably from the vulgate text. 3rd cent. B.C. (the oldest classical MS. of any considerable size now extant). Written on papyrus 8½ inches high, in columns measuring 8½ inches in width (including margin) and containing 22 lines each, in a small, neat, firm, uncial hand, somewhat resembling that of Pap. 485, but finer and better written. [P.P. I. 5-8.]

Pap. 489. FRAGMENTS of a historical or philosophical treatise containing descriptions of the customs of some barbarian peoples, including the Causiani. Six fragments, the largest 9½ in. \times 3 in., none containing a complete line. 3rd cent. B.C. Written in a rather large semi-uncial hand. [The text of the three largest fragments is given in P.P. I. 9.]

Pap. 490. FRAGMENT of a rhetorical composition, dealing with the subject of friendship, and the stimulus which it may furnish to courage, as illustrated by the example of Achilles and Patroclus. Portions of three columns are preserved. 3rd cent. B.C. 6½ in. \times 6½ in. Written in a medium-sized, rather thick uncial hand. [P.P. I. 10.]

Pap. 491. WILL of Peisias, a Lycian, resident in the Arsinoite nome, and owning property there (in the village of Bubastus) and at Alexandria. It includes a schedule of the rates at which his wife is to have the several articles of her dowry made good to her, if they have been destroyed or damaged. There are traces of an adjoining column. 3rd cent. B.C., probably about B.C. 238. $6\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in a medium-sized cursive hand. [P.P. I. 12 and II. pref. p. 22.]

Pap. 492. (a) PORTION of a register of wills; two fragments, containing parts of three wills, one being that of Antipater of Cyrene and another that of Calas, a Macedonian. The name of the other testator is lost. Dated in the 12th year of Ptolemy, son of Ptolemy [Philadelphus, i.e. Euergetes = B.C. 236-235]. 7 in. \times 9 in., and $5\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $4\frac{1}{4}$ in. Written in a rather small cursive hand. Cf. also Pap. 596, which is probably part of the same register. [P.P. I. 17 (1) and (2), with an additional fragment identified by Mr. J. G. Smyly.]

(b) Fragment of a will. The names of the priest and priestess mentioned in the date, who are known from other documents, show that the date is the 10th year of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 238-237. $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 3 in. Written in a medium-sized cursive hand. [P.P. I. 17 (3).]

Pap. 493. PORTION of a register of wills, containing parts of two wills. The second, which is nearly perfect, is the will of Aphrodisius son of Heracleides, dated at Crocodilopolis in the Arsinoite nome, the 1st Xandicus in the 22nd year of Ptolemy, son of Ptolemy [Philadelphus, i.e. Euergetes, = B.C. 226-225]. $10\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $8\frac{3}{4}$ in. Written in a large semi-cursive hand. [P.P. I. 19.]

Pap. 494. PORTION of a register of wills, apparently the same as Pap. 493, being written in the same hand. The name of the testator is lost. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. [P.P. I. 20 (1).]

Pap. 495. (a) ADDITIONAL portions of the same register of wills as Papp. 493, 494, written in the same hand, and containing a date in the month Xandicus of the 22nd year. Portions of two wills are preserved, but the names of the testators are lost. In the second the names of the testator's wife Artemidora and his son Aristo[crates] are mentioned. Two fragments, forming parts of the same column, but not contiguous. 7 in. \times 3 in. and 4 in. \times $1\frac{1}{4}$ in. [P.P. I. 20 (2).]

(b) Another fragment of the same register, containing a further part of the last-mentioned will. The names of Artemidora and Aristocrates recur in it, with that of another son, Ptolemy. $5\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in., with another small fragment, perhaps from a different document. [Not published in P.P.]

Pap. 496. ADDITIONAL portions of the same register of wills as Papp. 493-495, written in the same hand, dated apparently in the same year, and twice mentioning a witness, Nicanor, who is presumably the same as the person mentioned in 494. Four fragments, measuring $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 5 in., $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 1 in., 2 in. \times $1\frac{1}{2}$ in., and $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. [Not published in P.P.]

Pap. 497. PORTION of a register of wills; remains of two columns, the second containing the will of Menon (?), son of Euphrianor, a Libyan, made at Crocodilopolis in the Arsinoite nome, probably in the 10th year of Ptolemy Evergetes, = B.C. 238-237. $6\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $9\frac{3}{4}$ in., including a narrow strip of a different document attached to the left-hand side. Written in a medium-sized hand, very cursive. [P.P. i. 21.]

Pap. 498. FRAGMENT from the beginning of a business document, containing a date in the 36th year of Ptolemy, son of Ptolemy Soter [i.e. Philadelphus, = B.C. 250-249]. $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather small cursive hand, in faded ink. [P.P. i. 22 (1).]

Pap. 499. FRAGMENTS of business documents:—

- (a) A date, 23 Daisius = 2 Thoth. 3rd cent. B.C. (probably circ. B.C. 250). $1\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written across the papyrus-fibres. [P.P. i. 24 (1).]
- (b) Certified copy of a document, dated in the 16th year of Ptolemy [Philadelphus, = B.C. 270-269]. $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $7\frac{3}{4}$ in. Imperfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather large semi-uncial hand. [P.P. i. 24 (2).]
- (c) Fragment of a document dated the 21st Pharmouthi in the 30th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 256-255]. 2 in. \times $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written across the papyrus-fibres, in a small cursive hand. [P.P. i. 24 (3).]

Pap. 500. FRAGMENT of the Μοῦσειον of Alcidas (the original form of the later Contest of Homer and Hesiod). Portions of two columns are preserved, but no complete line. 3rd cent. B.C. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $4\frac{3}{4}$ in. Written in a rather thick uncial hand of medium size. [P.P. i. 25 (1).]

Pap. 501. ORDER with reference to the transport of corn, dated the 25th Thoth in the 35th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 251-250]. Mention is made of the priests of Suchus and [Arsinoë] Philadelphus, and of the ἐρημοφύλακες. 4½ in. × 8 in. Imperfect, the left-hand portion being lost; written across the papyrus-fibres in a medium-sized cursive hand. [P.P. I. 25 (2).]

Pap. 502. OFFICIAL letter from Agenor to Theodorus, inclosing copy of a letter sent by the strategus Aphthonetus with a minute received by the latter from Andronicus, with reference to an alleged evasion of the duty of furnishing quarters to public officials on the part of the inhabitants of Crocodilopolis. Dated the 22nd Artemisius, in the 6th year [of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 242-241]. 7½ in. × 14 in. Nearly perfect; in a rather large and broad cursive hand. [Partly in P.P. I. 26, fully in P.P. II. 12 (1).]

Pap. 503. (a) LETTER from Philonides to his father [Cleon, cf. Papp. 545, 585] on private affairs. 3rd cent. B.C. 4½ in. × 9½ in. Nearly perfect; in a broad semi-cursive hand. [P.P. I. 30 (1).]

(b and c) Fragments of uncertain character, written in large and broad cursive hands. 4 in. × 3 in., and 4½ in. × 4½ in. [P.P. I. 30 (2) and (3).]

Pap. 504. PETITION from Athenodorus, a land-surveyor, to an official whose name and description are lost (probably the [ἐπιμελητής]) for redress of injuries and release from imprisonment. Late 3rd cent. B.C. 11½ in. × 5 in. Imperfect, the left-hand portion of the papyrus being lost; in a large semi-uncial hand. [P.P. II. 1.]

Pap. 505. PETITION addressed to Diophanes, the strategus, by Onetor, Asolepiades, and Musaeus, complaining of the violent conduct of Lysander, of whose land near Euhemeria, in the division of Themistus in the nome of Arsinoë, they were tenants. Circ. B.C. 261-260. [P.P. II. 2 (1); now missing.]

Pap. 506. OFFICIAL letter from Moschion to Diophanes [cf. Pap. 505], reporting his action with regard to a petition submitted by Dorimachus. Dated the 5th Pharmouthi in the 25th year [probably of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 261-260]; with endorsement dated the 10th Apellaeus, = 6th Pharmouthi. [P.P. II. 2 (2); now missing.]

Pap. 507. LETTER from Dioscurides to his father Diophanes, introducing Asclepiades to him. Circ. B.C. 260. 11 in. \times 3 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. Imperfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather large semi-uncial hand. [P.P. II. 2 (3).]

Pap. 508. LETTER to Diophanes, apparently from some member of his family, of a similar character to the preceding. Circ. B.C. 260. 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 5 in. Written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather large and irregular semi-uncial hand. [P.P. II. 2 (4).]

Pap. 509. MISCELLANEOUS fragments, resembling the preceding documents in quality of papyrus and in writing. One contains a date in the 25th year. [P.P. II. 3; now missing.]

Pap. 510. PETITION addressed to Cleon, chief commissioner of works (ἀρχιτέκτων), by the head men (δεκάταρχοι) of the quarrymen, complaining that they are overworked by their taskmaster (ἐργοδωκτής) Apollonius. Dated the 24th Phaophi in the 30th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 256-255]. [P.P. II. 4 (1); now missing.]

Pap. 511. (a) LETTER to Cleon from Apollonius, the taskmaster, with reference to the complaint of the quarrymen contained in the preceding document, recommending that they be supplied with wedges to lighten their work. [B.C. 256-255.] Imperfect, the conclusion being lost. [P.P. II. 4 (2); now missing.]

(b) Fragment, perhaps from the conclusion of the same document, mentioning the wedges. 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in a small semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. 4 (2 b).]

Pap. 512. LETTER, apparently relating to the supply of tools to the quarrymen. [B.C. 256-255.] Imperfect, the left-hand portion being lost. [P.P. II. 4 (3); now missing.]

Pap. 513. LETTER from [Clea]rchus to Cleon, enclosing a copy of a letter from a sub-commissioner of works. Two fragments, one containing the greater part of the covering letter, the other part of the enclosure. Circ. B.C. 256-255. 3 in. \times 8 in., and 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written across the papyrus-fibres in a well-formed, broad, semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. 4 (4).]

Pap. 514. FRAGMENT of a letter, presumably to Cleon, asking that money and tools may be supplied for the quarrymen. Only the end of the letter is preserved. Circ. B.C. 256-255. 2 in. \times 18 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in a very broad column across the papyrus-fibres in a rather irregular and angular semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. 4 (5).]

Pap. 515. LETTER to Cleon from Demetrius, complaining that he has been assaulted by the workmen when he went down to distribute bread to them, and strongly pressing for the punishment of his assailants. Dated the 1st Choiach in the 30th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 256-255]. [P.P. II. 4 (6); now missing.]

Pap. 516. LETTER to Cleon from Demetrius (presumably the same as the writer of the preceding document), complaining that, in addition to being persecuted on the works, he has now been put in prison, and begging that he may be released. [B.C. 256-255.] 4 in. \times 11 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. Nearly perfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a large irregular semi-uncial hand. [P.P. II. 4 (7).]

Pap. 517. (a) LETTER from Philoxenus (perhaps to Cleon) reporting that 140 quarrymen are idle, owing to their not having received some necessary supply. Perhaps part of a letter-book, since a small portion of a preceding column is visible, containing a date of the 2nd Thouth in the 30th year [= B.C. 256-255]. 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, the right-hand portion being lost; in a rather small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 4 (8).]

(b and c) Small fragments of accounts. 3rd cent. B.C. 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ in., and 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. Written in small cursive hands.

Pap. 518. (a) LETTER to Cleon from the quarrymen in Pastoutis, reporting that they have finished the piece of work assigned to them, and asking that labourers may be sent to clear away the sand from another spot, in order that they may get at the rock and be able to complete their work and leave the place. Dated the 9th Thouth in the 30th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 256-255]. 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 8 in. Nearly perfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a very rough cursive hand. [P.P. II. 4 (9).]

(b) Small fragment, in a different hand, apparently the conclusion of a similar letter. 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written across the fibres in a rather broad semi-cursive hand. [P.P., ib.; for P.P. II. 4 (10), see Pap. 532.]

Pap. 519. LETTER to Cleon from Olmous(?), on business matters. Circ. B.C. 256-255. 7 in. \times 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect, but much defaced by plaster; written across the papyrus-fibres in a thick and very cursive hand. [P.P. II. 4 (12).]

Pap. 520. LETTER, probably to Cleon, on business matters. Dated the 7th Tubi in the 31st year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 255-254]. 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 9 in. Imperfect, the left-hand portion being lost, and somewhat mutilated; written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 4 (13).]

Pap. 521. FRAGMENTS of an official letter, from a superior to his subordinate, giving instructions; but the details are lost through mutilation. Dated in Athur of the 30th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 256-255]. Four unconnected fragments, written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather peculiar semi-cursive hand of medium size. [P.P. II. 5 a and b, with two additional fragments; for P.P. II. 5 c, see Pap. 532.]

Pap. 522. LETTER from Dionysius to Dorus, enclosing copy of a minute received from Petachonsis, sub-commissioner of works, ordering the appointment of watchmen to patrol the dykes in certain places, with other measures for the safety of the embankments. Dated the 4th Athur in the 30th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 256-255]. $7\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $13\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, wanting the lower left-hand quarter; written across the papyrus-fibres in a thin cursive hand of medium size. [P.P. II. 6.]

Pap. 523. OFFICIAL correspondence, containing the end of one letter and the beginning of another from Theodorus [chief commissioner of works, cf. Pap. 526] to Diotimus, instructing him to require Androsthenes and the nomarchs to furnish the regular supply of beasts of burden for the strengthening of the embankments. Circ. B.C. 240. 6 in. \times 12 in. Written across the papyrus-fibres in a broad, straggling, cursive hand, considerably faded. [P.P. II. 9 (1).]

Pap. 524. LETTER from Hermogenes to Theodorus, enclosing copy of a letter from Harmachorus [see Pap. 525] embodying the complaints of certain workmen in some copper-mines, and recommending that they be met by transferring the men from Philoteris to Alabanthis. Dated the 9th Pauni in the 7th year [of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 241-240], with endorsement on the 11th. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $12\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather broad, even, cursive hand. [P.P. II. 9 (2).]

Pap. 525. COPY of letter [from Harmachorus to Hermogenes], reporting that the workmen under his charge are grumbling at being kept for ten months consecutively at their work. Dated the 9th Pauni in the 7th year [of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 241-240]. This is the letter referred to in Pap. 524, and originally formed part of the same sheet of papyrus, being written in the same hand. $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 1 ft. $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect. [P.P. II. 9 (3), with two additional fragments identified by Mr. Smyly, containing also the concluding salutation and date of Pap. 524.]

Pap. 526. OFFICIAL letter to Theodorus, chief commissioner of works, from Hermaphilus, enclosing a copy of a minute received from Teos with regard to irrigation works, and instructing him to carry out the works therein recommended. Dated the 3rd Epeiph in the 7th year [of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 241-240]. 4 in. \times 14 in. Imperfect, only a small part of the copy of Teos' letter being preserved; written across the papyrus-fibres in a large semi-uncial hand. [P.P. II. 9 (4).]

Pap. 527. MEMORIAL from Petubastis and Petechon to Theodorus (the chief commissioner of works), asking him to write to Theodorus the oeconomus on their behalf; the precise favour to be asked is lost through the mutilation of the papyrus. Circ. B.C. 241. 4 in. \times $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written across the papyrus-fibres in a large straggling hand. [P.P. II. 9 (5).]

Pap. 528. LETTER to Phaies, the oeconomus, from Ammonius, secretary of Phaues, a resident near Oxyrhynchus, complaining that he has been arrested while at his official work and put in prison. 3rd cent. B.C. 7 in. \times $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. Perfect; in a large, well-formed, semi-uncial hand. [P.P. II. 10 (2).]

Pap. 529. (a) PETITION, addressed to the strategus Aphthonetus, from a woman whose name is mutilated, begging for a hearing of a case in which she is concerned. Circ. B.C. 242 (cf. Pap. 502). 5 in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a rather thick cursive hand. [P.P. II. 12 (2).]

(b) Similar petition to Aphthonetus from Philippos and Ptolemaeus, likewise asking for prompt justice. Circ. B.C. 242. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 3 in. Nearly perfect; written in a thick cursive hand on bad papyrus. [P.P. II. 12 (3).]

(c) Beginning of petition to Aphthonetus from Menes; the purport of it is not preserved. Circ. B.C. 242. 2 in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in a medium-sized cursive hand. [P.P. II. p. 32.]

Pap. 530. PETITION to Cleon [cf. Papp. 510-520] from the foremen of the quarrymen, complaining that in spite of the promises of Apollonius the διοικητής, they have not received certain supplies of which they have immediate need. Dated the 19th Pachon in the 30th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 256-255].

 $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. Perfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a large, rough, semi-cursive hand, in faded ink. [P.P. II. 13 (1).]

Pap. 531. LETTER to Cleon from a person whose name is mutilated, instructing him to supply the comarch of Sebennytyus with ropes and an overseer for the repair of three sluice-gates before the time of letting out the water. Dated the 23rd Pauni in the 30th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 256-255]. $9\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times 3 in. Nearly perfect; in a thick cursive hand, closely resembling that of Pap. 519, but the writer's name, though similar in termination, is shorter. [P.P. II. 13 (2).]

Pap. 532. LETTER to Cleon from Niceratus, reporting that the wall of a prison is unsafe, and that the prisoners had better be removed pending repairs. Dated the 16th Athur in the 30th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 256-255]. 5 in. \times $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. Perfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in an even, medium-sized, cursive hand. [P.P. II. 13 (3).]

Pap. 533. LETTER, probably to Cleon, enclosing a copy of a letter from Niceratus, on the same subject as Pap. 532, urging the necessity of repairs to the prison. Dated the 27th Pauni in the 30th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 256-255]. $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a thin, wide, even, cursive hand. [P.P. II. 13 (4).]

Pap. 534. LETTER to Cleon from Panakestor, urging him to come and inspect a certain portion of the irrigation works. Dated the 21st Mesoré in the 29th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 257-256]. 5 in. \times 12 in. Nearly perfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather thick cursive hand. [P.P. II. 13 (5).]

Pap. 535. LETTER to Cleon from Archestratus with regard to some quarry work; the exact purport is lost through mutilation. Circ. B.C. 256. 10 in. \times $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. Imperfect, the right-hand portion being lost; in a thick semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. 13 (6).]

Pap. 536. FRAGMENT of a letter, perhaps addressed to Cleon, with reference to the payment of a sum of money due from Horus the ὑποσημαρχος, which is apparently to be paid through the banker Python. 3rd cent. B.C. $12\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 6 in. Written in a rather large cursive hand. [P.P. II. 13 (7).]

Pap. 537. PORTION of a letter, probably to Cleon, with reference to the opening or closing of the sluices. Dated the 5th Epeiph in the 29th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 257-256]. $3\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $7\frac{1}{4}$ in. Imperfect, the left-hand portion being lost; in a rather thick cursive hand, in faded ink. [P.P. II. 13 (8).]

- Pap. 538. (a) LETTER to Cleon, from an official whose name is lost, with reference to a request that he had received for the opening of a sluice. Circ. B.C. 256. $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $3\frac{1}{4}$ in. Imperfect, both beginning and end being lost; in a medium-sized cursive hand, in a narrow column. [P.P. II. 13 (9).]
- (b) Letter to Cleon, from an official whose name is lost, giving a list of names followed by figures, the exact purport of which is not clear. Allusion is also made to the opening of the sluices. Circ. B.C. 256. $3\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $6\frac{3}{4}$ in. Imperfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather thick cursive hand. [P.P. II. 13 (10).]

Pap. 539. LETTER to Cleon from Zenon, reporting the state of the inundation in some quarter, and applying for the opening of certain sluices. Dated the 23rd Mesoré in the 28th year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 258-257]. 3 in. \times 12 in. Mutilated; written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 13 (11).]

Pap. 540. (a and b) FRAGMENTS of letters from Cleon to Theodorus [i.e. Theodorus, sub-commissioner of works]. Only the beginnings are preserved. Circ. B.C. 257. $2\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times 6 in. Written (frag. a across the papyrus-fibres) in cursive hands. [P.P. II. 13 (12).]

- (c) Letter to Cleon from Philiscus, enclosing copy of a petition addressed to the King; but only the first line of the petition is preserved. Circ. B.C. 256. $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times 5 in. Written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather rough semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. 13 (13).]

Pap. 541. LETTER to Cleon from Harmais(?) with reference to some building operations. Dated in the month Pharmouthi in the 32nd year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 254-253]. $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $10\frac{3}{4}$ in. Mutilated; written across the papyrus-fibres in a medium-sized cursive hand, in faded ink. [P.P. II. 13 (14).]

- (b) Fragment of letter, probably to Cleon, with regard to the letting out of water. Dated the 26th Pauni in the 32nd year [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 254-253]. 3 in. \times 7 in. Imperfect, the left-hand portion being lost; written across the papyrus-fibres in a medium-sized cursive hand. [P.P. II. 13 (15).]

Pap. 542. LETTER, probably from Dionysius to Cleon, enclosing copy of a letter from Philippus to Dionysius, with regard to the distribution of the irrigation-water. Circ. B.C. 256. $7\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. Imperfect, wanting the beginning of the covering letter, and the right-hand portion throughout; written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather small cursive hand, in faded ink. [P.P. II. 13 (16).]

Pap. 543. MEMORANDUM from Cleon to Diotimus with regard to certain charges in silver and copper money, apparently connected with taxation; but the exact purport is lost through mutilation. Circ. B.C. 255-254 (the 31st year being mentioned). 9 in. \times $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in a good semi-cursive hand, well spaced out. [P.P. II. 13 (17).]

Pap. 544. Recto. Draft of letter, perhaps from Cleon, with regard to the execution of certain works at the sluice-gates, in preparation for a visit from the King. Circ. B.C. 256. 9 in. \times 6 in. Imperfect; in a rather small cursive hand, with many erasures and corrections. [P.P. II. 13 (18 a).]

Verso. Draft of letter to Nicostratus (?), with regard to inviting tenders for the contract for some public work. Circ. B.C. 256. Imperfect; in the same hand as the recto. [P.P. II. 13 (18 b).]

Pap. 545. Letter [from Philonides to his father Cleon, as appears from other letters in the same hand], expressing the warmest wishes for his welfare, and urging him to take holiday from his official duties. Circ. B.C. 256. $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 13 in. Imperfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a large, thick semi-uncial hand. [P.P. II. 13 (19).]

Pap. 546. LETTER to Cleon from Alexander, with reference to some payments that are to be made; the mutilation of the papyrus leaves the details doubtful. Circ. B.C. 256. $5\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $7\frac{3}{4}$ in. Imperfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather large cursive hand. [P.P. II. 13 (20).]

Pap. 547. OFFICIAL letter (the names of the parties are lost), reiterating a request that certain payments may be made from the royal treasury to some sailors, to prevent their dispersing. 3rd cent. B.C. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $6\frac{3}{4}$ in. Imperfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand, in faded ink. [P.P. II. 15 (1).]

Pap. 548. LETTER from Asclepiades to Hephæstion, requiring him to supply Theodorus, chief commissioner of works in the nome [cf. Papp. 523-527], with the due amounts of corn and wine for the 10th year [of Ptolemy Euergetes = B.C. 238-237]. $5\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times

6 in. Imperfect (an enclosed letter from Eutyches the διοικητής to Theodorus being absent, with the exception of a small fragment which may belong to it); written across the papyrus-fibres in a medium-sized cursive hand. [P.P. II. 15 (2).]

Pap. 549. OFFICIAL letter (the names of the parties are lost), asking for the engagement of a certain individual as workman. 3rd cent. B.C. 5 in. \times $6\frac{3}{4}$ in. Imperfect, wanting the beginning; in a rather thick and irregular cursive hand. [P.P. II. 15 (3).]

Pap. 550. LETTER on private affairs; but the names of the parties and the precise subject under consideration are lost through the mutilation of the papyrus. The names of Philonides and Polycrates [the sons of Cleon, cf. Pap. 545 and P.P. II. 11 (1)] are mentioned. 3rd cent. B.C. 6 in. \times $11\frac{3}{4}$ in. Much mutilated; written across the papyrus-fibres in a clear semi-uncial hand. [P.P. II. 16.]

Pap. 551. PETITION addressed to the King by a person whose name is lost, for an inquiry by the strategus Aristomachus into a charge of assault brought against him by a woman named Lamisca. 3rd cent. B.C. $7\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Very imperfect; in a thick semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. 17 (1).]

Pap. 552. (a-c). THREE fragments, probably from the same document or series of documents, containing the evidence of witnesses, one being named Nephthichis, in a case relating to Lamisca [cf. preceding papyrus], in the town of Crocodilopolis. 3rd cent. B.C. $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 5 in., $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $6\frac{3}{4}$ in., and $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $7\frac{1}{4}$ in. Written across the papyrus-fibres in rather small cursive hands. [P.P. II. 17 (2)-(4).]

Pap. 553. PETITION addressed to Dionysodorus, οικονόμος of the division of Heracleides [in the Arsinoite nome] by Apollonius, son of Theon, of Ptolemais Nova, complaining of an assault committed upon him by Cotys, son of Evenus, on the 21st Mesoré in the 2nd year [of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 246-245.] 8 in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. 18 (1).]

Pap. 554. EVIDENCE of a witness in a case of assault committed by Apollodorus on Serambus; many of the details are lost through the mutilation of the papyrus. 3rd cent. B.C. Three fragments, $4\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times 5 in., 3 in. \times $7\frac{3}{4}$ in., and $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $6\frac{3}{4}$ in. Written across the papyrus-fibres in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. 18 (2).]

Pap. 555. LETTER to Cleonymus from Dionysius, who is in prison, begging him to bear witness in his favour before a magistrate (apparently named Mezacus) against whom he is charged with having spoken, and so to procure his release. 3rd cent. B.C. $3\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $5\frac{1}{4}$ in., with a detached fragment, $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in a thick cursive hand, with very black ink. [P.P. II. 19 (1).]

Pap. 556. LETTER (the names of the parties are lost) in which the writer asks his correspondent to use his influence that he may not be imprisoned for failing to fulfil a contract, which he is likely to do through the laziness of his workmen. 3rd cent. B.C. 4 in. \times $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, all the upper part being lost; in a rough semi-cursive hand, in much faded ink. [P.P. II. 19 (2).]

Pap. 557. RECORD of a dispute at law between Sotaerus and Sosus, with regard to a loan from the former to the latter; with the deposition of a witness, named Diogenes, in favour of Sotaerus. The loan was made at Theogonis, in the Arsinoite nome, in the month Loius of the 15th year [probably of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 233-232]. Portions of at least two columns are preserved. Two fragments, 10 in. \times 8 in., and $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in a rather small cursive hand, in faded ink. [P.P. II. 21.]

Pap. 558. RECEIPT from Cephalon, a livery-stable keeper, to Charmus for payment of the hire of horses engaged for the use of Asclepiades the oikónómos, in accordance with the order of Artemon the ἐπιτορτὴς in Ptolemais; dated the 24th Tubi in the 21st year [of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 227-226]. $5\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. Perfect; in a small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 25 (a).]

Pap. 559. SIMILAR receipt from Cephalon to Charmus, dated the 3rd Mecheir in the same year. $7\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect at the bottom; written across the papyrus-fibres in the same hand as the preceding document. [P.P. II. 25 (b).] With a small scrap of another receipt of the same nature.

Pap. 560. (a) Receipt from Cephalon to Charmus for hay and other necessaries according to agreement. [B.C. 227-226.] $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $6\frac{1}{4}$ in. Perfect; in a thick semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. p. 74, with no. 25 (c).]

(b) Receipt [from Cephalon to Charmus] for horse-hire, similar to Papp. 558 and 559 and in the same hand. [B.C. 227-226.] $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 6 in. Imperfect at the beginning; written across the papyrus-fibres. At the bottom is another receipt similar to Pap. 560 a, but somewhat mutilated and in faded ink. [P.P. II. 25 (c).]

Pap. 561. (a) RECEIPT from Horus, a donkey-driver, to Charmus for necessities for his beasts. [B.C. 227-226.] $1\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times 4 in. Imperfect at the bottom; written in a rough cursive hand. [P.P. II. 25 (d).]

(b) Portion of receipt [probably from Horus to Charmus for donkey-hire], followed by a receipt similar to that in a. [B.C. 227-226.] $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $6\frac{1}{4}$ in. Written across the papyrus-fibres in a small cursive hand. [Ibid.]

Pap. 562. RECEIPT for horse-hire, similar to the preceding, but the names of the parties are lost. [B.C. 227-226.] $6\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times 4 in. Imperfect at the beginning; written across the papyrus-fibres in a small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 25 (e).]

Pap. 563. Fragment of a similar receipt from Horus to Charmus, dated the 24th Tubi in the 21st year [= B.C. 227-226]. 3 in. \times 4 in. Imperfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 25 (f).]

Pap. 564. RECEIPT from Apollonius [to Charmus?] for hay and other necessities. [B.C. 227-226.] $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $4\frac{1}{4}$ in. Imperfect at the beginning; in a small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 25 (g).]

Pap. 565. RECEIPT from Apollonius, son of Menelaus, a Libyan $\tau\eta\varsigma \epsilon\pi\iota\gamma\omicron\nu\eta\varsigma$, for hay and other necessities for horses and mules, dated the 2nd Athur in the 21st year [= B.C. 227-226]. $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 4 in. Imperfect at the end (possibly the beginning of Pap. 564, but apparently rather smaller in width and in style of writing; in a small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 25 (h).]

Pap. 566. CONTRACT between eleven donkey-drivers [probably of Ptolemais], in the division of Polemon in the Arsinoë nome, and Asclepiades the $\omicron\iota\kappa\nu\nu\omicron\mu\omicron\varsigma$, for the hire of 24 donkeys. Dated in the reign of Ptolemy, son of Ptolemy [Philadelphus, i.e. Euergetes, probably in the 21st year = B.C. 227-226]. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, wanting the end and the right-hand side; in a rather small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 25 (i).]

Pap. 567. (a-f) SIX fragments of receipts similar to those given in Papp. 558-565 and belonging to the same series. In one the donkey-driver Horus is mentioned. [B.C. 227-226.] $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $2\frac{1}{4}$ in., $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $2\frac{3}{4}$ in., 2 in. \times $2\frac{1}{2}$ in., 7 in. \times $2\frac{1}{2}$ in., $5\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $1\frac{3}{4}$ in.,
PAPYRI.—1894-9. 2 L

and 6 in. \times 3 in. Frag. c is written across the papyrus-fibres. Written in small cursive hands. [Not printed in P.P.]

Pap. 568. (a) REGISTER of amounts of money (in drachmas) received, presumably as taxes, on successive days (7th to 21st) of an unnamed month from various individuals in different villages of the Arsinoïte nome. Portions of eleven columns are preserved. 3rd cent. B.C. $12\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 3 ft. 9 in. Written in a clear semi-cursive hand of good size. [P.P. II. 28.]

(b) Continuation of the above account, including the 23rd and 24th days, in a different hand and on papyrus of different size. Three fragments, containing four columns. $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $5\frac{3}{4}$ in., $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 1 ft. $3\frac{1}{2}$ in., and $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 6 in. Written in a rather thick cursive hand. [Not published in P.P.]

Pap. 569. PETITION addressed to Dorotheus the ἐπιμελητής by Petosiris, a tanner, who complains that a certain tax-collector, Dionysius, has unjustly carried off property belonging to him of the value of 2600 drachmas. The text is continued on the verso, in reverse direction. Dated the 17th Mesoré in the 10th year of an unnamed king. Late 3rd or early 2nd cent. B.C. 13 in. \times $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a semi-cursive hand of good size. [P.P. II. 32 (1).]

Pap. 570. Recto. Two letters, (1) from an official whose name is lost, to his superior, complaining that a watchman who had been set to guard a ψυγμός has been assaulted by a certain Ptolemy and his friends; somewhat mutilated, and written in a rather rough uncial hand; (2) from Ptolemy, son of Protarchus to Posidonius the οἰκονόμος, complaining of a trespass by some cattle on a crop of croton; in a cursive hand, but partially obliterated. In the second document mention is made of the 5th year [presumably of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 243-242]. $13\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. [P.P. II. 32 (2).]

Verso. Drafts or copies of correspondence, including letters from Bacchius to Alexander, and Harmais to Bacchius. One letter is dated in Athur of the 6th year [presumably = B.C. 242-241]. Written in a thin cursive hand, in faded ink. [P.P. II. 32 (3).]

Pap. 571. ACCOUNT of household expenses, mainly for the months Athur and Choiach. One column is preserved, and part of another. 3rd cent. B.C. 13 in. \times $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in a rather thick cursive hand, in faded ink. [P.P. II. 33 (a).]

Pap. 572. ACCOUNT for unguents of various kinds, with sums in both silver and copper. Portions of two columns are preserved.

3rd cent. B.C. $13\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 7 in. Imperfect; in a rather neat uncial hand, approaching the literary type. [P.P. II. 34 (b).]

On the verso is another account, written in a cursive hand in faded ink, which has suffered much from being covered with plaster.

Pap. 573. REGISTER of cavalry horses, with their owners and description (colour, etc.). Dated in the 6th year [presumably of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 242-241]. Very imperfect, consisting of six irregularly-shaped fragments; in a rather large semi-uncial hand. [P.P. II. 35.]

On the verso are traces of an account in a similar hand.

Pap. 574. (a) ESTIMATE of work done in excavating a canal in the neighbourhood of Hephaestias, in the Arsinoïte nome. The calculations give the amount of earth excavated, and the measurements of length are given in σχούια, those of depth and width probably in cubits, and the product in ἀωλία, i.e. probably cubic cubits. Dated the 16th Phamenoth in the sixth year [presumably of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 242-241]. $13\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a rather small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 36 (1).]

(b) Fragment of a similar estimate, showing the number of ἀωλία excavated in a month, and giving the rate of pay as 4 drachmas per 60 ἀωλία, which is identical with the rate of pay for ναίβια in P.P. I. 23. 3rd cent. B.C. $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times 5 in. Written in a small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 36 (2).]

Pap. 575. OFFICIAL correspondence with regard to the opening of sluices in the irrigation-canals [cf. Papp. 537-542]. The writing is continued on the verso, and portions of four columns are preserved on each side. 3rd cent. B.C. 1 ft. 1 in. \times 1 ft. 5 in. Imperfect; in a rather small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 37.]

Pap. 576. COPY of a legal decision sent to Aphthonetus [cf. Papp. 502, 529] by Harmais, dated the 25 Hyperberetaeus in the 19th year [presumably of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 229-228]. The text is continued on the verso. $12\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times 4 in. Nearly perfect, but much defaced on the recto; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. 38 (c).]

Pap. 577. ACCOUNT rendered by an official named Theodotus of receipts from passengers and freight carried by boats on the canal by Ptolemais, stating the amount (generally a half) accruing thence to the royal treasury (βασιλικόν). The account (so far as preserved) is for the first twelve days of Thouth in the 22nd year

[probably of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 226-225]; and there are traces of a second column. 11 in. \times 5 in. Imperfect; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand, well preserved. [P.P. II. 39 (c).]

Pap. 578. TAX-REGISTER, including entries for φυλακτικόν, χωματικόν, οἰκονομικόν, λειτουργικόν, κ. τ. λ., apparently paid by orphans. Reference is made to the second year [presumably of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 246-245, or Philopator, = B.C. 221-220.] Four fragments, the principal one measuring 10½ in. \times 5½ in. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 39 (e).] On the verso is a portion of another account, and some demotic writing.

Pap. 579. REGISTER of tax-payments for the 36th, 37th, and 38th years [of Ptolemy Philadelphus, = B.C. 250-247], principally in respect of the embankment-tax (χωματικόν), police-tax (φυλακτικόν), and salt-tax (ἀλική). Three principal fragments, containing portions of 15 columns. 1 ft. 5 in. \times 1 ft., 1 ft. 2½ in. \times 6½ in., and 1 ft. 2¾ in. \times 6½ in.; with a small additional fragment 1½ in. \times 4½ in. Written in a thin and rather small cursive hand. [One column partly published in P.P. II. 39 (b); the remainder subsequently reconstructed by Mr. J. G. Smyly.]

Pap. 580. COPIES of official correspondence with regard to wheat stored in the granaries. 3rd cent. B.C. 7½ in. \times 7 in. Imperfect; in a rather small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 39 (g).]

Pap. 581. FRAGMENTS of an account, of uncertain character. 3rd cent. B.C. Eight fragments of various sizes, the height of the papyrus being 12½ inches; in a small cursive hand, in much faded ink. [P.P. II. 39 (h).]

Pap. 582. LETTER from Manres to a party of men, apparently on a distant station, encouraging them to hold on, and saying that relief is being sent to them. Reference is made to the hunting of elephants at Berenicé, and to the sinking of an elephant-transport. Dated the 14th Phaophi in the 24th year [of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 224-223]. 13½ in. \times 4½ in. Mutilated; in a medium-sized cursive hand. [P.P. II. 40 (a).]

Pap. 583. PORTION of a lease or sale of a house (?) and courtyard, containing a detailed description of its dimensions. 3rd cent. B.C. 8½ in. \times 3½ in. Imperfect at the beginning; in a rather thick semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. 41.]

Pap. 584. (a) NOTIFICATION from Cleandrus to the οικονόμοι, νόμαρχαι, and other officials, that he has appointed Theodorus, the sub-commissioner of works [cf. Papp. 523-527], to the charge of the dykes and sluices. [Between B.C. 254 and 246.] 5 in. × 6 in. Imperfect at the end; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. 42 (a).]

(b) Letter from Cleon [cf. Pap. 510, etc.] to Paeon, asking for an ass to be sent to him, as he is on the point of departure. [Between B.C. 254 and 246.] $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. × $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. Mutilated; in a small, rough, cursive hand. [P.P. II. 42 (b).]

Pap. 585. LETTER, apparently from Philonides (the hand being the same as in Pap. 503 a), to his father [Cleon]; too much mutilated for its subject to be ascertained. [Circ. B.C. 256.] $9\frac{3}{4}$ in. × $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Very imperfect; in a broad semi-cursive hand. [P.P. II. 42 (c).]

Pap. 586. LEASE from Dionysius, Diodorus, and another, to Metrodorus and Epicurus of a pumpkin-garden and other ground. 3rd cent. B.C. Two fragments, 9 in. × $2\frac{1}{2}$ in., and 8 in. × $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Very imperfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 44.].

Pap. 587. ACKNOWLEDGMENT by Donomazys, son of Taotius, of the receipt from Histiaeus, a mercenary soldier in the regiment of Maraeus, of the sum of 330 drachmas. Dated in Crocodilopolis, the 15th Pauni in the 13th year of [Ptolemy, son of Ptolemy] Philopator [i.e. Ptolemy Epiphanes, = B.C. 193-192]. 11 in. × 5 in. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand in much faded ink. [P.P. II. 47.].

Pap. 588. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS by ship-owners of amounts of corn received from the συναλόγος Dorion for transport down the river. Portions of three receipts are preserved, dated in Choiach and Tubi of the 18th year of Ptolemy, son of Ptolemy Philopator [i.e. Ptolemy Epiphanes, = B.C. 188-187]. $7\frac{3}{4}$ in. × $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand. [P.P. II. 48.].

Pap. 589. FRAGMENT of an elegiac poem, containing portions of 24 lines. 3rd cent. B.C. $5\frac{3}{4}$ in. × $3\frac{1}{2}$ in., with a detached fragment 4 in. × $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. Much mutilated; in a rather small and thick uncial hand. [P.P. II. 49 (a).]

Pap. 590. FRAGMENT of a drama, containing portions of 20 lines (a complete column). 3rd cent. B.C. $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. × 3 in. Mutilated; in a medium-sized uncial hand, rather irregular, and with a peculiar form of ω . [P.P. II. 49 (c).]

Pap. 591. (a) FRAGMENT of a drama, containing the ends of 21 lines and the beginnings of the same number; only a few letters are preserved in each case. 3rd cent. B.C. 5 in. \times $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in a medium-sized uncial hand. [P.P. II. 49 (d).]

(b) Fragment of a prose philosophical treatise on the subject of Humanity, containing portions of four columns. 3rd cent. B.C. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $8\frac{3}{4}$ in. Written in a rather large and square uncial hand. [P.P. II. 49 (e).] On the verso are small remains of three columns of a literary work, in a similar but less well-written hand.

Pap. 592. FRAGMENTS of a prose narrative of the adventures of Heracles. 3rd cent. B.C. Fourteen small fragments, of irregular size, in a small, firm, uncial hand of early appearance. [P.P. II. 49 (f).]

Pap. 593. LETTER from Philonides to Cleon [cf. Papp. 503 a, 585], apparently on private affairs. [Circ. B.C. 256.] 6 in. \times 11 in. Very imperfect; in a large, broad, semi-cursive hand, with very black ink. [Not printed in P.P.]

Pap. 594. FRAGMENT of a letter; the names of the parties are lost. 3rd cent. B.C. 9 in. \times $6\frac{1}{4}$ in. Imperfect, the left-hand side being lost; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand. [Not printed in P.P.]

Pap. 595. FRAGMENT of a letter, perhaps official. 3rd cent. B.C. $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand. [Not printed in P.P.]

Pap. 596. REGISTER of wills; two fragments, apparently from the same document, each containing portions of two wills, dated in the 12th year of Ptolemy, son of Ptolemy [Philadelphus, i.e. Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 236-235]. To the second will in frag. b is prefixed the number δ [14]. Apparently part of the same register as Pap. 492. 7 in. \times 3 in. and $5\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in a very regular cursive hand. [Not printed in P.P.]

Pap. 597. OFFICIAL letter from Heracleides to Sop[ater?], instructing him to advance a certain quantity of corn to the cultivators, through the medium of the κόμαρχαι and the κωμογραμματεῖς, with (apparently) a schedule of the several advances. Dated the 1st Athur in the 25th year [either of Philadelphus, = B.C. 261-260, or more probably of Euergetes, = B.C. 223-222]. 8 in. \times $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in a medium-sized cursive hand, much defaced by plaster. [Not printed in P.P.]

Pap. 598. FRAGMENTS of a letter (?); but not enough is left to indicate the subject. 3rd cent. B.C. Two fragments, $3\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. and $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times 5 in. Written in a rough cursive hand. [Not printed in P.P.; formerly attached to Pap. 589 (cf. Mahaffy on P.P. II. 49 (a)), though having nothing to do with it.]

Pap. 599. (a-g) SEVEN fragments of miscellaneous Ptolemaic documents. 3rd cent. B.C. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 3 in., $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $2\frac{1}{2}$ in., $4\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $1\frac{3}{4}$ in., $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $1\frac{1}{4}$ in., $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $\frac{3}{4}$ in., $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $3\frac{3}{4}$ in., and $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $3\frac{1}{4}$ in. Frag. a (an account) is written across the papyrus-fibres. [Not printed in P.P.]

Pap. 600. (a-e) FIVE fragments of miscellaneous Ptolemaic documents. 3rd cent. B.C. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 3 in., $4\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $2\frac{1}{2}$ in., $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $1\frac{3}{4}$ in., 4 in. \times $2\frac{1}{2}$ in., and $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 4 in. Frag. a (a receipt) is written in an uncial hand approaching the literary type. [Not printed in P.P.]

Pap. 601. FRAGMENT of a Ptolemaic document, too much mutilated for its subject to be discovered. 3rd cent. B.C. $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 5 in. On the verso is some writing dated the 26th Pharmouthi in the 7th year [either of Euergetes, = B.C. 241-240, or Philopator, = B.C. 216-215]. [Not printed in P.P.]

Pap. 602. (a) FRAGMENT of an account. 3rd cent. B.C. $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 4 in. Written in a rather small cursive hand. On the verso is a little obscure writing. [P.P. II., introd., p. 32.]

(b) Portions of two receipts, perhaps from a pawn-broker, the first referring to a hoe, a shirt, and a basket, the values of which are given. Dated in Athur of the 24th year [of Ptolemy Euergetes, = B.C. 224-223]. $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 3 in. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand. [P.P. II., introd., p. 33.]

Pap. 603. FRAGMENT of a petition asking for justice on some offenders: but the names of the parties and much of the substance of the petition are lost. 3rd cent. B.C. $6\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. Written in a medium-sized cursive hand, much defaced by plaster. [Not printed in P.P.]

Pap. 604. Roll of papyrus, formed by the conjunction of two distinct documents, the texts of which run in opposite directions:—

A. Return compiled by Besas, also named Soter, κωμογραμματεὺς of Crocodilopolis and the associated villages, of arable land irrigated by the inundation in the 7th year of Tiberius Claudius Caesar Augustus Germanicus [= A.D. 46-47], giving the names of the owners (or occupiers) and the amount of land held by each of them, the land being classified in three categories, as βασιλική, ιερά, or ιδιωτική. Portions of nine columns are preserved, four being perfect; the end is wanting. 1 ft. 2 in. × 4 ft. Written in a medium-sized cursive hand.

B. Return of land, apparently that for which seed-corn has been advanced for sowing; arranged under various headings, the principal divisions being βασιλικῶν and ιδιωτικῶν. The holders of royal land had apparently to repay an artaba and a quarter per aroura, and the holders of private land two artabas. Twelve columns are preserved, but both the beginning and end of the return are wanting. Middle of the 1st cent. 1 ft. 2 in. × 4 ft. 6 in. Written in a hand similar to that of A, perhaps identical, but rather more compact.

On the verso is an Egyptian romance, in demotic. Cf. F. Ll. Griffith, Stories of the High Priests of Memphis (Oxford, 1900). It was evidently for the purpose of receiving this text that the two documents forming the recto were fastened together.

[Papp. 605-650 are a collection acquired from B. P. Grenfell, Esq., who purchased them in Egypt in the winter of 1894-5. The texts of most of them have been published by him in a volume entitled, Greek Papyri I: An Alexandrian Erotic Fragment and other Papyri (Oxford, University Press, 1896); and the numbers there attached to them have been appended in brackets to the following descriptions.]

Pap. 605. Recto. RECORD of a loan of 100 (or more) artabas of wheat from Sosistratus, a soldier, to Druton, in the Pathyrite nome (probably at Crocodilopolis). Dated the 5th Thoth in the 8th year of Ptolemy Philometor (= B.C. 174-173), with a full list of the priests and priestesses of the dynastic cults in Alexandria and Thebes. $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. × 7 in. Imperfect, the left-hand portion being lost; in a small semi-cursive hand. [G.P. I. 10.]

Verso. Fragment of an erotic composition, in rhythmical prose, or irregular verse, divided into stanzas or paragraphs by the use of the paragraphus. It contains the lament of a woman for her faithless lover. One column is complete, and the first letters of a second column are also preserved. Written in a small cursive hand. 2nd cent. B.C., later than B.C. 174. [G.P. I. 1.]

Pap. 606. RECORD of a dispute at law between Panas and Thotortaeus, concerning the boundaries of some land in the Pathyrite nome; with the judgment of the officials before whom the case was decided. One of the documents quoted in it is dated the 25th Epeiph in the 24th year [probably of Philometor, = B.C. 158-157]. In two columns, the first being imperfect. 12 in. \times 15 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. Written in a fine semi-uncial hand. [G.P. I. 11.]

Pap. 607. WILL of Druton, son of Pamphilus, of Crocodilopolis in the Thebaid. Dated in the reign of Philometor, the exact year being lost; but the inclusion of a priest of Eupator in the list of priests of the dynastic cults probably shows that it belongs to the later years of the reign, circ. B.C. 150-146. About 12 in. \times 5 in. Much mutilated; in a small cursive hand, the names of witnesses being rather larger than the body of the will. [G.P. I. 12.]

Pap. 608. LETTER from an official to a subordinate, concerning a petition from the βασιλικοὶ γεωργοί. Dated the 15th Mecheir in the 29th year, which may be either of Ptolemy Philometor [= B.C. 153-152] or of Euergetes II. [= B.C. 142-141]. 3 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, the left-hand portion being lost; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand. [G.P. I. 13.]

Pap. 609. INVENTORY of articles deposited in a temple with the priest Patous, dated the 23rd Phaophi in the 32nd year [either of Philometor, = B.C. 150-149, or Euergetes II., = B.C. 139-138]. Written across the fibres on the recto of the papyrus; the verso contains remains of obliterated writing. 11 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. The inventory is complete, and is followed by an account of wheat, the end of which is lost; in a medium-sized irregular cursive hand. [G.P. I. 14.]

Pap. 610. RECORD of a dispute between the priests of Hermonthis and Pathyris with regard to the possession of some land; apparently in the form of a petition from the former to Ptolemy Philometor and his queen Cleopatra, recapitulating the progress of the quarrel and quoting documents and official correspondence in connection with it. The main petition is dated in Athur of the 33rd year of Ptolemy Philometor [= B.C. 149-148]. Several columns are partially preserved, but none perfectly. Written in a good-sized cursive hand. [Unpublished; cf. note on G.P. I. 10, l. 4.]

Pap. 611. (a) FRAGMENT of a petition, wanting the beginning and the left-hand portion. 2nd cent. B.C. (earlier than the document which follows). Written in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand. [G.P. I. 15.]

(b) Account of Druton, relating to corn, dated in Mesoré of the 35th year, which may be either of Philometor [= B.C. 147-146] or Euergetes II. [= B.C. 136-135]. Perfect; written across the bottom of the same sheet of papyrus as the preceding, in a small cursive hand, much abbreviated. [G.P. I. 16.]

The papyrus measures 6 in. \times 4½ in. On the verso is a corn-account of Senmonthis, similar to b above, and with the same date. Complete, but defaced by rubbing.

Pap. 612. PETITION from two women named Semminis and Senapathis (also named Heracleia) for the restitution of some property inherited by them from their father, but unjustly seized by one Callimedes. The name of the official addressed is lost, together with all the left-hand portion of the papyrus, and the conclusion of it. The 34th year is mentioned [either of Philometor, = B.C. 148-147, or of Euergetes II., = B.C. 137-136]. 6 in. \times 5½ in. Written in a rather rough cursive hand. [G.P. I. 17.]

Pap. 613. LOAN of 35 artabas of wheat from Apollonia, wife of Druton, to Apollonius, also named Psennesis, and his wife Herais, also named Tisris. Dated the 12th Choiach in the 39th year [of Euergetes II., = B.C. 132-131]; the loan to be repaid without interest in Pauni of the same year. 11½ in. \times 4½ in. Nearly perfect; in a small, regular cursive hand. [G.P. I. 18.]

Pap. 614. LOAN from Apollonia, wife of Druton, to Nechutes, of 1 talent 5030 drachmas. Dated in Pathyris the 23rd Pharmouthi in the 41st year [of Euergetes II., = B.C. 130-129]. 3½ in. \times 3½ in. Imperfect, wanting the lower part; written across the papyrus-fibres in a clear semi-cursive hand. [G.P. I. 19.]

Pap. 615. FRAGMENT of a receipt dated in the Thebaid (probably at Pathyris), in the month Mecheir in the 42nd year [of Euergetes II., = B.C. 129-128]. The names of the parties are mutilated. 6 in. \times 3 in. Imperfect at both sides; in a thick semi-cursive hand.

Pap. 616. LOAN from Apollonia, wife of Druton, to Solon, also named Saëis, son of Horus, and Harmais, his brother, with their mother, Persians $\tau\eta\varsigma \epsilon\pi\iota\gamma\omicron\nu\eta\varsigma$, of 1 talent 4000 drachmas. Dated in Pathyris, the 15th Phaophi in the 44th year [of Euergetes II., = B.C. 127-126]; the loan to be repaid at the end of Mecheir of the same year. 6½ in. \times by 4½ in. Imperfect, wanting the left-hand portion and a line or two in the middle; in a small semi-cursive hand. [G.P. I. 20.]

Pap. 617. WILL of Druton, son of Pamphilus, executed at Pathyris on the 9th Pauni in the 44th year [of Euergetes II., = B.C. 127-126].

Reference is made to a former will of the 6th year [= B.C. 165-164], which can hardly be the same as that preserved in Pap. 607. There is no mention of witnesses or counter-signature by the agoranomus, hence it is probably a draft or copy of the actual will. The names of the testator's daughters, mentioned here, recur in Pap. 401. $9\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $14\frac{1}{4}$ in. Mutilated at the left-hand side; in a rough cursive hand. [G.P. I. 21.]

Pap. 618. REPORT from Moschion to Petearsentheus, that he has received 10 talents in respect of the τοπογραφμματα, the same in respect of the κωμογραφμματα, and 30 talents as the price of 150 artabas of wheat at 1200 drachmas each. Dated the 1st Athur in the 53rd year [of Euergetes II., = B.C. 118-117]. $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 4 in. Perfect; in a neat uncial hand. [G.P. I. 22.]

Pap. 619. LOAN from Caies, son of Pates, to Harpaësis, son of Portis (both being Persians τῆς ἐπιγονῆς), of 25 artabas of wheat. Dated at Pathyris, the 15th Choiach in the 53rd year [of Euergetes II., = B.C. 118-117]; the loan to be repaid in Pachon of the same year. 8 in. \times $3\frac{1}{4}$ in. Perfect; in a clear semi-cursive hand. [G.P. I. 23.]

Pap. 620. FRAGMENT of a will, dated at Crocodilopolis in the Pathyrite nome, the 25th Choiach in some year (the exact number is lost) of Euergetes II. The list of priests of the dynastic cults indicates the latter part of his reign, after the death of Philometor [B.C. 146-117]. 6 in. \times $4\frac{3}{4}$ in. Only the date and the opening words of the will are preserved, the former in a small cursive hand, the latter in a large uncial. [G.P. I. 24.]

Pap. 621. RECORD of sale by Naomsesis, daughter of Onnophris, a priestess, and her husband Stotoëtis, priest of Suchus and Aphrodite, to Sensuchus, son of Nechutes, of 4 πηχεῖς στερεοῦ of waste land for 4000 drachmas. Dated at Pathyris, the 24 Pharmouthi in the 3rd year of Cleopatra and Ptolemy Soter II. [= B.C. 115-114]. The date contains a complete list of the Ptolemies (including Eupator and Philopator Neos) down to that time; cf. Pap. 623, which is the only other complete list extant. 6 in. \times 14 in. Imperfect, the third column, containing most of the actual record of sale, being lost; the body of the document is in a clear semi-uncial hand of good size, and is preceded by a summary of the contents in a small, very cursive hand. [G.P. I. 25.]

Pap. 622. RECORD of the repayment by Psenenupis, son of Onnophris, to Erianupis, son of Pathotes, of a loan of 56 artabas of wheat borrowed two years previously; with Erianupis' acknowledgment of the receipt, and remittance of the penalty due to him from Psenenupis for not having made the repayment earlier. Dated at Pathyris, the 16th Athur in the 5th year [of Cleopatra and Ptolemy Soter II., = B.C. 113-112]. $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 6 in. Nearly perfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a thick cursive hand. [G.P. I. 26.]

Pap. 623. GRANT by Sebtitis, daughter of Arsiesis, a Persian, to her daughter Naamsesis, of half an aroura of land. Dated at Crocodilopolis in the Pathyrite nome, the 11th Mecheir in the 8th year of Cleopatra and Ptolemy Soter II. [= B.C. 110-109]; the formula of the date includes a complete list of the Ptolemies, as in Pap. 621. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 2 ft. 6 in. Nearly perfect; written in three columns (the first being a summary of the contents), in a rather small cursive hand. [G.P. I. 27.]

Pap. 624. FRAGMENT of a loan of 10 artabas of wheat by a person whose name is lost to Phalois. Dated the 6th Phaophi in the 10th year [probably of Cleopatra and Soter II., = B.C. 108-107]. $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; wanting the beginning and the right-hand portion; in a rough, small cursive hand, followed by five lines of demotic. [G.P. I. 28.]

Pap. 625. LOAN from Sennesis, daughter of Papeous, a Persian, to Phagonis, son of Panobchunis, a Persian $\tau\eta\varsigma \epsilon\pi\iota\gamma\omega\gamma\eta\varsigma$, of six artabas of salt, without interest. Dated at Pathyris, the 30th Mesoré of the 12th year [of Cleopatra] and 9th [of Ptolemy Alexander, = B.C. 106-105]; the loan to be repaid in Choiach of the following year. 7 in. \times 5 in. Nearly perfect; in a medium-sized, rough, semi-cursive hand, followed by three lines of demotic. [G.P. I. 29.]

Pap. 626. FRAGMENT of a letter, dated the 15th Pauni in the 14th year [of Cleopatra] and 11th [of Ptolemy Alexander, = B.C. 104-103]. $6\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times 6 in. Imperfect, the upper part of the papyrus being lost; in a thin, very cursive hand. [G.P. I. 30.]

Pap. 627. LOAN from Erianupis and his $\sigma\upsilon\nu\theta\iota\alpha\sigma\iota\tau\alpha\iota$ to Nechutes of $7\frac{1}{2}$ artabas of barley. The exact date is lost, but it was executed at Pathyris in the 14th year [probably of Cleopatra, = A.D. 104-103, the official before whom it was executed being the same as in Pap. 625]; the loan to be repaid in Pachon of the same year. 9 in. \times 4 in. Imperfect, the beginning being lost; in the same hand as Pap. 625, but rather less rough. [G.P. I. 31.]

Pap. 628. PORTION of a despatch from some military authorities to certain other persons requiring them to send two men to a certain place. Dated the 2nd Pharmouthi in the 15th year [of Cleopatra] and 12th [of Ptolemy Alexander, = B.C. 103-102]. $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 13 in. Imperfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a medium-sized cursive hand. [G.P. I. 32.]

Pap. 629. RECORD of purchases of land made by Paësis, son of Peteuris, in the lower toparchy of the Latopolite nome. The latest date mentioned is in Phaophi of the 15th year [of Cleopatra] and 12th [of Ptolemy Alexander, = B.C. 103-102]. $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 6 in. Imperfect; written on both sides of the papyrus in a very rough cursive hand. [G.P. I. 33.]

Pap. 630. FRAGMENT of a sale of land in Pathyris. The names of the parties are lost. Dated in the 16th year of Cleopatra and 13th of Ptolemy Alexander [= B.C. 102-101]. 6 in. \times $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. Imperfect, wanting the right-hand portion; in a fairly regular cursive hand. [G.P. I. 34.]

Pap. 631. FRAGMENT of a letter, with reference to the delivery of some wheat. Dated at Ptolemais, the 8th Thoth in the 16th year [either of Cleopatra, = B.C. 102-101, or Ptolemy Alexander, = B.C. 99-98]. 4 in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, wanting the upper portion; in a very cursive hand. [G.P. I. 35.]

Pap. 632. SALE by Petosiris, son of Paos, a Persian τῆς ἐπιγονῆς, to Pakoibis, son of Patous, of land in Pathyris. Dated in the month Mecheir in the reign of Ptolemy Alexander [the exact year is lost, but must be between B.C. 99 and 88, the name of the queen-mother Cleopatra being omitted]. About $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 11 in. Imperfect, wanting the right-hand portion, and being much mutilated throughout; written on very thin papyrus, in a rather rough, cursive hand. [G.P. I. 36.]

Pap. 633. FRAGMENT of a petition, dated the 27th Pharmouthi in the 9th year [probably of Soter II., = B.C. 109-108]. The names of the parties are lost. At the foot of the papyrus, and continued on the verso, is the official docket. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 5 in. Imperfect, only part of the lower half of the papyrus being preserved; in a small, very cursive hand. [G.P. I. 37.]

Pap. 634. PETITION to Numenis, strategus [of the Thebaid, or of the Pathyrite nome], from Pokas, son of Onos, an unpaid policeman, complaining of an assault committed on him by Peadias, a priest of the temple of Suchus at Crocodilopolis in the Pathyrite nome, on the first of the intercalated days in the 11th year of an unnamed sovereign [either Cleopatra, = B.C. 107-106, or Ptolemy Auletes, = B.C. 71-70]. $12\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in an uneducated uncial hand. [G.P. I. 38.]

Pap. 635. Recto. ACCOUNT of waggon-loads of barley, wheat, and seeds, conveyed to Pathyris. 2nd cent. B.C. One column nearly perfect, with the first letters of another; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand.

Verso. List of names, with account of money expended on wine, etc. 2nd cent. B.C. Apparently perfect, in a slightly cursive uncial hand.

The papyrus measures $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 6 in. [G.P. I. 39.]

Pap. 636. FRAGMENTS of a letter from Didymus, εισαγωγός, to Antipater and the (other?) χηματισταί at Ptolemais. 2nd cent. B.C. About $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 10 in. Imperfect; in a large, slightly cursive uncial hand. [G.P. I. 40.]

Pap. 637. DECLARATION by Peteuris that he will pay 15 talents of copper in respect of στέφανος. 2nd cent. 4 in. \times $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. Perfect; written across the papyrus-fibres in a rough semi-uncial hand. [G.P. I. 41.]

Pap. 638. PETITION from cavalry soldiers at Diospolis Parva and Ptolemais to the strategus, asking to receive as much pay and allowances as certain troops elsewhere. 2nd cent. B.C. [probably in the first half of the century]. 7 in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, wanting the left-hand portion and the conclusion; in a rather small semi-cursive hand. [G.P. I. 42.]

Pap. 639. LETTER from Menon to Hermocrates and his brother, with reference to a mare which should have been sent to him, but had been detained by a Jew named Daniel. 2nd cent. B.C. 4 in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Slightly mutilated; in a regular semi-cursive hand. [G.P. I. 43.]

Pap. 640. FRAGMENT of a contract of sale, with the attestations of witnesses, who are priests and πρωτοστολισταί of the temple (apparently of Suchus and Aphrodite) in Pathyris. 2nd cent. B.C. $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, containing remains of two columns; the contract in a large, slightly cursive uncial hand, the attestations in a thick, semi-cursive hand. [G.P. I. 44.]

- Pap. 641. FRAGMENT of an account(?). 2nd cent. B.C. $12\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. Roughly written on the verso of the papyrus, the recto being nearly blank.
- Pap. 642. FRAGMENTS from a mummy-case, in a very neat hand of literary type. 2nd cent. B.C. (?). Attached to one of them is a document in a different hand, bearing a mutilated date apparently in the reign of [Ptolemy Alexander] and Cleopatra [= B.C. 89-88; possibly of Philometor, = before B.C. 146].
- Pap. 643. FRAGMENT of a letter from Epaenetus to his son, from the same mummy-case as the preceding. 2nd cent. B.C. (?). $3\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $6\frac{1}{4}$ in. Imperfect, only the first six lines being preserved; in a rather large, thin, semi-uncial hand.
- Pap. 644. FRAGMENTS of a business document of uncertain nature, from the same mummy-case as the preceding. 2nd cent. B.C. Written across the papyrus-fibres in a rather large semi-cursive hand.
- Pap. 645. MISCELLANEOUS fragments from the same mummy-case as the preceding. 2nd cent. B.C.
- Pap. 646. CENSUS-return by Pnepheros, son of Phanemieus, a δημόσιος γεωργός, for the 11th year of Caesar; addressed to Apollonius, κωμογραμματοῦς of Theadelphia [in the nome of Arsinoë?]. The return is annual (cf. Pap. 647) and relates to the current year; in both respects differing from the returns for the later fourteen-yearly censuses. Dated the 3rd Mecheir in the 11th year of Caesar [= 28 Jan. B.C. 19], with official docket dated the 2nd Pachon [= 27 April] in the same year. $6\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a small cursive hand, with abbreviations. [G.P. I. 45.]
- Pap. 647. SIMILAR census-return by the same Pnepheros, for the succeeding year. The official to whom it was sent is not stated. Dated the 8th Pachon in the 12th year of Caesar [= 3 May, B.C. 18]. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. Nearly perfect; in an irregular cursive hand, with abbreviations. [G.P. I. 46.]
- Pap. 648. Recto. FRAGMENT of a land-register, with mentions of dates in the 20th and 25th years [of Commodus, = A.D. 179-180 and 184-185]. About 12 in. \times $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, including portions of seven entries, none being complete; in a small, thin, cursive hand.
- Verso.* List of names, followed by the ages of each person; perhaps a census-list, but figures are prefixed to each name, the explanation of which is not clear. 3rd cent. Imperfect, parts of two columns being preserved; in a rough cursive hand.

Pap. 649. RECEIPT from Didymus Argentis (sic), a cavalry soldier of the ἐλη Γαλλική, to Stotoëtis, son of Apunchis, and the other πρεσβύτεροι of the village of Socnopaei Nesus, for barley bought by him at the usual price from the tax-collectors. Dated the 28th Pauni in the 31st year [of Commodus, = 22 June, A.D. 191]. 6 in. \times 2½ in. Perfect; in a rough uncial hand, with many mistakes. [G.P. I. 48.]

Pap. 650. TAX-RECEIPT, given by Aurelius Harpocraton, κλήρον (?) ἐξηγητής, to Philoxas, γυμνασίαρχος, for the sum of 76 drachmas paid by him through the κωμάρχης (or κωμογραμματεὺς) of Philadelphia and another village. Dated the 27th Phaophi in the 1st year of Macrianus and Quietus [= 24 Oct. A.D. 260]. 8½ in. \times 3 in., most being blank. Slightly rubbed; in a thin, very cursive hand, with many abbreviations. [G.P. I. 50.]

Pap. 651. PORTION of a lease of land, dated in Phaophi in the consulship of Flavius Ursus and Flavius Polemius [= October, A.D. 338]. 8½ in. \times 3 in. Imperfect on both sides; in a rather irregular cursive hand. Presented by Col. T. L. Fraser.

Pap. 652. COPY of a deed of sale of house-property. Early 4th cent.; the date is mutilated, but the mention in it of Maximianus without Dicoletian makes it probable that it belongs to the period A.D. 307-310. 6½ in. \times 2½ in. Imperfect at both sides and at the bottom; in a rather small, clear, cursive hand. Presented by Col. T. L. Fraser.

Pap. 653. LETTER from Heracleius to his "brothers," Paulus and Papirius, with reference to some memoranda (ὑπομνήματα) concerning the 14-year and 15-year periods, i.e. presumably the 14-year census period current under the Roman rule, and the 15-year indiction period introduced under Constantine. Early 4th cent., probably circ. A.D. 312, when the change was made. 8 in. \times 4 in. Imperfect; in a rather large cursive hand. Presented by Col. T. L. Fraser.

ACQUIRED in 1896.

[Papp. 654-666 were presented by E. R. Bevan, Esq., these, together with Papp. 667-681, having been acquired by D. G. Hogarth, Esq., in Egypt in the winter of 1895-6. The texts of most of them, together with those of Papp. 688-731, have been edited by Messrs. B. P. Grenfell and A. S. Hunt in a volume entitled Greek Papyri II: Leaves from a Ptolemaic Library and other Papyri (Oxford, University Press, 1897); and the numbers there attached to them have been appended in brackets to the following descriptions.]

Pap. 654. SALE by Patous, son of Patous, and his sister Tacmels to Zmenous, son of Psemmonthes, of a sycamore tree, for 1 talent 4000 drachmas. Dated at Pathyris, in the office of the agoranomus Dioecorus, the 11th Phaophi in the 35th (corrected from 34th) year [of Ptolemy Euergetes II., = B.C. 136-135]. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a small cursive hand. [G.P. II. 16.]

Pap. 655. LOAN from Thoteus, son of Colluthus, to Totoës and his wife Tacmels, daughter of Patous (all the parties being of Persian descent), of 5600 drachmas of copper, for three months without interest, but with interest at 24 per cent., as well as an increase of 50 per cent. in the principal, in case of default of repayment. Dated at Pathyris, in the office of the agoranomus Asclepiades, the 28th Thouth in the 44th year [of Euergetes II., = B.C. 127-126]. $11\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 5 in. Nearly perfect; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand. [G.P. II. 18.]

Pap. 656. LETTER from Hermias [?strategus of the Latopolite nome] to Demetrius [? manager of the royal bank at Pathyris], instructing him to pay the crews of boats engaged in the transport of corn, and enclosing copies of instructions to this effect from Ptolemaeus the διοικητής to Hermonax the υποδιοικητής, and from Hermonax to himself. Dated the 16th Pachon in the 9th year [presumably of Ptolemy Soter II., = B.C. 109-108], the enclosed letters being dated respectively the 24th Choiach and the 5th Pharmouthi. $12\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 8 in. Nearly perfect; in a thin cursive hand. [G.P. II. 23.]

[Papp. 657-663, 674, 675, 680 relate to the affairs of a single family of Persian descent, consisting of the four sons of Panobchunis. Papp. 659-663, 673-677, 679 are all written in the same hand, that of Hermias, the representative at Pathyris of the agoranomus Paniscus.]

Pap. 657. SALE by Taous, daughter of Harpos, her sister Sennesis (also named Tatous), and her half-sister Siephmous, daughter of Pachnumis, to Petearsentheus, Petesuchus, Phagonis, and Psennesis, sons of Panobchunis, of land in the plain of Pathyris.

2 M

All the parties are of Persian descent. Dated at Crocodilopolis, in the office of Paniscus, agoranomus of the upper toparchy of the Pathyrite nome, the 28th Phaophi in the 11th year of Cleopatra and the 8th of Ptolemy Alexander [= B.C. 107-106]. 6 in. \times 2 ft. 3 in. Perfect; in a medium-sized cursive hand, rather thick. [G.P. II. 23 a.]

Pap. 658. LOAN from Petearsemtheus, son of Panobchunis, to Psemmenches, son of Necuthes, a descendant of the Persian settlers, of six κεράμια of wine, without interest. Pap. 662. SALE by Sennesis, daughter of Psenthotes, a Persian, to Petearsemtheus, son of Panobchunis, of part of a vineyard and of some corn-land in the territory of Pathyris, which she had purchased from him two years before. Dated at Pathyris, in the office of Hermias, the 25th Athyr in the 15th year [of Cleopatra] and the 12th [of Ptolemy Alexander, = B.C. 103-102]. 12½ in. \times 6½ in. Nearly perfect; in the same hand as the preceding document. [G.P. II. 28.]

- Pap. 663. CERTIFICATE of the repayment by Petearsemtheus and his brothers to Petearsemtheus, son of Almapheus, of a sum of two talents of copper lent to them in the previous year. Dated at Pathyris, in the office of Hermias, the 4th Choiach in the 16th year [of Cleopatra] and the 13th [of Ptolemy Alexander, = B.C. 102-101]. $10\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Perfect; in the same hand as the preceding document. [G.P. II. 30.]
- Pap. 664. SUBSCRIPTION to a document (the body of the document being lost) by Timogenes, δ πρὸς τῇ ἀναγραφῇ. Dated the 19th Meecheir in the 16th year [of Ptolemy Alexander, = B.C. 99-98]. 7 in. \times 11 in., most being blank. There is a little demotic writing on the verso.
- Pap. 665. PRIVATE letter from a father to his son. 1st cent. B.C. (?). $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, the lower part of the papyrus being lost, and the right-hand portion nearly obliterated; written in a rather large semi-cursive hand. The verso is occupied by demotic writing, and there is also a little on the margins of the recto.
- Pap. 666. Official letter from Hermias [? the strategus] to the ἐπιστάτης of Pathyris, the ἀρχιφυλακίτης, φυλακίτης, βασιλικὸς γραμματεὺς, τοπογραμματοεὺς, κωμογραμματοεὺς, σιτολόγος, τραπεζίτης, πρεσβύτεροι τῶν γεωργῶν, and the other royal officials, notifying the appointment of Patseous, son of Pates, as οἰκονόμος of the village. Late 2nd or early 1st cent. B.C. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, only the beginning being preserved; in a good and rather large semi-cursive hand. [G.P. II. 37.]
- Pap. 667. SALE by Tagos, daughter of Achilles, the descendant of a Persian settler, and Ammonius her brother, to Psenthotee, son of Celes, one of the ibis-buriers of Pathyris, of $\frac{2}{3}$ of an aroua of island land in the lower toparchy of the Latopolite nome, for $2\frac{1}{2}$ talents of copper. Dated at Latopolis, in the office of the agoranomus Apollonius, the 25th Thoth in the 32nd year of Ptolemy Evergetes II. [= B.C. 139-138]; with a long list of eponymous priesthoods at the beginning. The docket of the bank at Latopolis, certifying the payment of the tax on sales, is appended. 6 in. \times 2 ft. 11 in. The first and last columns slightly mutilated. Written in a very neat and regular cursive hand of medium size. [G.P. II. 15.]
- Pap. 668. ACKNOWLEDGMENT by Patous, son of Patous, that he has received an iron cone in pledge from his sister Taomeis [cf.

Papp. 654, 655], to be returned on demand, with a penalty of 1 talent 2000 drachmae (the value of the cone) in case of failure. Written by Druton, son of Pamphilus [cf. Papp. 401, 607, 617], and dated the 9th Tubi in the 34th year [of Euergetes II., = B.C. 137-136]. 6 in. \times 5½ in. Perfect; in a thin cursive hand. [G.P. II. 17.]

Pap. 669. ACKNOWLEDGMENT of the repayment by Pmois, Psenthotes, and Psenenupis, sons of Psenthotes, to Petesuchus, son of Pasas, a descendant of the Persian settlers, of a loan of 120 artabas of barley, with interest. Dated at Pathyris, in the office of the agoranomus Heliodorus, the 1st Pauni in the 52nd year [of Euergetes II., = B.C. 119-118]. 5½ in. \times 3 in. Perfect; in the same hand as the preceding document, the docket in a thicker hand, much abbreviated. [G.P. II. 32.]

Pap. 676. SALE by Nechutes, a descendant of the Persian settlers, to Arsiësis, son of Schotus, priest of Suchus and Aphrodite, of some corn-land. Dated at Pathyris, in the office of Hermias, the 16th Phaophi in the 15th year of Ptolemy Alexander and Berenice his sister [= B.C. 100-99]. 9 in. × 5½ in. Much mutilated; in the same hand as the preceding document.

Pap. 677. GRANT by Psenenupis, son of Portis, a Persian, to Arsiësis, son of Schotus, a priest of Suchus and Aphrodite [cf. preceding pap.], of the remaining four years of a ten years' lease of corn-land held from the priests, for 2 talents 3300 drachmas of copper. Dated [at Pathyris, in the office of Hermias], the 19th Phaophi in the 15th year [of Ptolemy Alexander, = B.C. 100-99]. 5½ in. × 10½ in. Nearly perfect; in the same hand as the preceding document. [G.P. II. 33.]

Pap. 678. SALE by Petesuchus, son of Schotus, a priest of Suchus and Aphrodite, of corn-land, apparently in the neighbourhood of Crocodilopolis. The purchaser, whose name is lost, is another of the sons of Schotus, and a priest of the same gods. Dated at Crocodilopolis, in the office of the agoranomus for the upper toparchy of the Pathyrite nome, in the month Choiach in some year between the 15th and 19th of Ptolemy Alexander and Berenice his sister [= B.C. 100-96]. $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. Much mutilated; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. 679. SALE by Nechutes, son of Schotus, a priest of Suchus and Aphrodite, and his brothers, to Pacoibis, son of Patous, of their share of a παστοφόριον within the precincts of the temple at Pathyris, for 3000 drachmas of copper. Dated at Pathyris, in the office of Hermias, the 18th Tubi in the 16th year of Ptolemy Alexander and Berenice his sister [= B.C. 99-98]; with docket by Pancrates, royal banker at Crocodilopolis, certifying the payment on the 30th Tubi of the tax of 10 per cent. on sales. Perfect; in the same hand as Pap. 677, the docket in a similar hand. [G.P. II. 35.]

Pap. 680. LETTER from Petesuchus, son of Panobchunis, to his brothers Petearsemtheus and Paganis [i.e. Phagonis] and others, on private affairs. Dated the 8th Pachon in the 19th year [of Ptolemy Alexander, = B.C. 96-95]. $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $4\frac{3}{4}$ in. Perfect; in a straggling semi-cursive hand. [G.P. II. 36.]

Pap. 681. MISCELLANEOUS small fragments. Late 2nd cent. B.C.

[Papp. 682-687 were presented by B. P. Grenfell, Esq., being fragments belonging to the same collection as Papp. 605-650.]

Pap. 682. FRAGMENT of sale or lease of property in the Pathyrite nome. Dated [at Pathyris, in the office of Hermias?] the representative of the agoranomus Paniscus, in the reign of Ptolemy Alexander and Berenice [= B.C. 100-89, probably near B.C. 100]. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. Parts only of 8 lines are preserved, in a rather small cursive hand.

Pap. 683. FRAGMENTS of a petition (?) from Paous, son of Nec[pheros?] to [Dio]nysius, ἐπιστάτης of the Pathyrite nome. Late 2nd cent. B.C. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $2\frac{3}{4}$ in., and $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. Portions of the beginning of the document and of the left-hand side are preserved. Written in a rather large cursive hand.

Pap. 684. FRAGMENT of a deed of transfer of property, dated in Pha[ophi], Pha[menoth], or Pha[rmouthi], in the 34th year [of Ptolemy Euergetes II., = B.C. 137-136]. 5 in. \times $1\frac{1}{2}$ in., showing portions of upper and lower margins. Written in a small cursive hand.

Papp. 685-687. MISCELLANEOUS fragments of Ptolemaic papyri.

Pap. 688. (a) FRAGMENTS in tragic iambic verse, containing portions of 9 lines. Early 3rd cent. B.C. Two fragments, the larger measuring $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 2 in. Written in small, neat uncials, of a very early type. [G.P. II. 1 a.]

(b) Fragment containing ends of 8 iambic lines, in a hand similar to the preceding, and perhaps identical. 3 in. \times $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. [G.P. II. 1 b.]

Pap. 689. (a) HOMER'S Iliad, book viii., portions of ll. 249-253, with two additional lines between ll. 252 and 253, and ends of four lines in a preceding column, which cannot be identified with any extant passage. 3rd cent. B.C. 2 in. \times 4 in. Written in small, rather sloping uncials of very early type. [G.P. II. 2.]

(b) Homer's Iliad, book iv., portions of ll. 109-113, without variation from the vulgate. 3rd cent. B.C. $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in a medium-sized uncial hand. [G.P. II. 3.]

Pap. 690. FRAGMENTS in tragic iambic verse, containing portions of 53 lines. 3rd cent. B.C. Six fragments, the largest measuring about $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 3 in. Written in medium-sized uncials, rather thick. [G.P. II. 6 a and c.]

Pap. 691. (a) FRAGMENT in tragic iambic verse, containing portions of 20 lines. 3rd cent. B.C. 5 in. \times $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in rather large and thick uncials. [G.P. II. 6 b.]

(b) Fragment of a prose treatise. 3rd cent. B.C. $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times 2 in. Written in small, slightly cursive uncials.

Pap. 692. FRAGMENT of a philosophical treatise. 3rd cent. B.C. $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in very small uncials, and very faint. [G.P. II. 7 a.]

Pap. 693. FRAGMENTS in lyric verse, containing portions of 7 and 9 lines respectively. 3rd cent. B.C. (?). $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times 3 in. and $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in large uncials, with a somewhat cursive tendency. [G.P. II. 8 a.]

Pap. 694. FRAGMENTS in comic iambic verse, containing portions of 12 and 6 lines respectively. 3rd cent. B.C. (?). $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. and 2 in. \times 5 in. Written in large and rather cursive uncials. [G.P. II. 8 b.]

Pap. 695. (a) FRAGMENT of a drama, probably a comedy, and possibly (cf. Crusius in Mélanges Weil, pp. 81-90) the Gerytades of Aristophanes; with marginal scholia. Probably 3rd cent. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in., including a large lower margin. Written in sloping uncials of fair size, with one or two accents; the scholia in a small cursive hand of the middle or end of the 3rd cent. [G.P. II. 12.]

(b) Xenophon, Memorabilia, bk. i. ch. 3, § 15, ch. 4, §§ 1-3; imperfect, only the ends of lines in one column and the beginnings of those in another being preserved. 3rd-4th cent. 7 in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in sloping uncials of fair size, similar to those of the preceding fragment. In the margin at the top is some alien writing in a semi-cursive hand of the 4th cent. [G.P. II. 13.]

Pap. 696. FRAGMENTS of an account, consisting of proper names followed by sums of money, but with nothing to indicate their purport. 2nd cent. B.C. Four fragments, measuring about $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $12\frac{1}{2}$ in., 9 in. \times 10 in., 9 in. \times 7 in., and 9 in. \times $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in a small cursive hand.

Pap. 697. PRIVATE letter from Pasion to his father Nicon, with a request for the purchase of writing implements. Dated the 13th Pharmouthi in the "2nd and 1st year" [perhaps of Berenice III. and Ptolemy Alexander II., = B.C. 81]. $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. Slightly mutilated; written in a medium-sized cursive hand, much faded. [G.P. II. 38.]

Pap. 698. A SERIES of receipts from Psammetichus to Pasion and Semtheus, brewers (ζυρωτοί), for the tax due each month of the 2nd year of an unnamed king [perhaps Ptolemy Auletes, = A.C. 80-79]. The tax amounts in each case to 5 talents of copper. 9 in. \times 1 ft. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. Considerably mutilated; written in a rather small cursive hand. [G.P. II. 39.]

Pap. 699. DESCRIPTION of two persons, apparently inhabitants of Soenopaei Nesus. There is no indication of the purpose of the document, which seems to be complete. Dated the 18th Peritius [= 18th Choiach] in the 39th year of the rule of Caesar (τῆς Καίσαρος κρητέρας θεοῦ νόου) [= 14 December, A.D. 9]. The document has been cancelled by lines drawn across it. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 5 in. Slightly defaced; in a medium-sized cursive hand. [G.P. II. 40.]

Pap. 700. ORDER from Pyrrhus, the official in charge of the distribution of land to κατοικοί, to the συντακτικός (or official in charge of the distribution in a nome, or division of a nome), whose name is lost, with reference to apportionments to certain individuals. Dated the 17th Neos Sebastus [= Athur] in the 6th year of the emperor Domitianus Augustus Germanicus [= 18 Nov. A.D. 86]. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 7 in. Imperfect, wanting the right-hand side to a considerable extent; written in a large, irregular, cursive hand. [G.P. II. 42.]

Pap. 701. COPY of certificate of the payment by Tesenuphis, ἀρχέφοδος and ἡγούμενος γερδίων for the village of Soonopaci Nesus, to Hatres, son of Isas, a φύλαξ of Arsinoë, of his wages for the months of Pachon and Pauni [= May and June], to the amount of 80 drachmas of silver. Dated the 15th Sotereius [= Pauni] in the 11th year of the emperor Domitianus Augustus Germanicus [= 9 June, A.D. 92]. 10 in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Perfect; in a thin cursive hand. [G.P. II. 43.]

Pap. 702. FRAGMENT of an account, with amounts in drachmas. On the verso, in the same hand, is a portion of a diary, recording the movements of various persons, perhaps labourers. 2nd cent. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in a small square uncial hand.

Pap. 703. Application by Didymus, son of Heron, and his wife Isis, residents in Arsinoë, for the ἐπίκρισις of their son Anubas, he having reached the age of 14; with references to the various κατ' οἰκίαν ἀπογραφαί in which their names have appeared. The application is signed, as approved, by Apollonius, formerly ἐξηγητής and gymnasiarch, with date the 24th Hadrianus [= Choiach] in the 5th year of Antoninus Cæsar [= 20 Dec. A.D. 141]. $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, a few lines being lost at the top; written in a rather strongly marked cursive hand. [G.P. II. 49.]

Pap. 704. CERTIFICATE of the payment to Theon (?) and Demetrius, contractors for the tax on shearing and χειρωναξία, by Polion, son of Paonetis (?), a weaver of Soonopaci Nesus, of 20 drachmas in respect of the tax for the current year. Dated the 9th Choiach in the 2nd year of Gaius Pescennius Niger Justus Augustus [= 5 Dec. A.D. 193]. 2 in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, a second entry having apparently followed; in a very small cursive hand. [G.P. II. 60.]

Pap. 705. AFFIDAVIT addressed to Crenoleius Quintilianus, centurion, by Demetrius, son of Satyrus, a resident in Arsinoë, by which the latter becomes surety for the appearance, when required, of Pasis, son of Apollonius. Dated in Pharmouthi of the 19th year of Lucius Septimius Severus Pertinax, Marcus Aurelius Antoninus, and Publius Septimius Geta, Britannici Maximi Pii Augusti [= April, A.D. 211]. 9 in. × 5 in. Perfect; written in a very careful semi-cursive hand of good size, the date in a small cursive hand. N.B.—At this date Severus had been dead for two months. [G.P. II. 62.]

Pap. 706. ORDER, addressed to the ἀρχέφοδος of the village of Philadelphia, to send up two πράκτορες σιτικῶν against whom complaint had been made. 2nd-3rd cent. $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. × $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. Perfect; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand. [G.P. II. 66.]

Pap. 707. CONTRACT for the hire by Aurelius Asclepiades, son of Philadelphus, president of the village council of Bacchias, from Aurelius Theon, keeper of singing girls (προνοητὴς αἰλητρίδων?), of two dancing girls, at the rate of 36 drachmas per day, 3 artabas of wheat, and 15 pair of ψώμα. Dated in Epeiph of the 3rd year of the emperor Gaius Julius Verus Maximinus Pius Felix Augustus Germanicus Maximus Dacicus Maximus Sarmaticus Maximus and Gaius Julius Verus Maximus Germanicus Maximus Dacicus Maximus Sarmaticus Maximus Sanctissimus Caesar, filius Augusti [= July, A.D. 237]. $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. × $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a rough cursive hand. [G.P. II. 67.]

Pap. 708. GRANT by Aurelius Petosiris, son of Petosiris, undertaker (νεκροτάφος), of the city of Hibis, to Aurelius Petechon, son of Tmarsis, of the village of Cusis, of one-fourth of his business as undertaker. Dated the 25th Choiach in the 5th year of the emperors Marci Julii Philippi Pii Felices Augusti [= 21 Dec. A.D. 247]. $7\frac{3}{4}$ in. × $6\frac{3}{4}$ in. Perfect; in a rather rough semi-cursive hand. [G.P. II. 68.]

Pap. 709. RECEIPT, given by Petechon, son of Polydeuces, a freedman of Cusis, to Aurelia Senosiris, daughter of Isidora, also of Cusis, for the repayment of a loan of 1000 drachmas, with interest, which had been borrowed from his late father. Dated the 10th Phaophi in the 13th year of Valerianus and Gallienus, Augusti [= 7 Oct. A.D. 265]. $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. × $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; written in a small, rather thick, cursive hand. [G.P. II. 69.]

Pap. 710. RE-AFFIRMATION of the contract contained in Pap. 708, dated in Mesoré of the 3rd year of the emperor [Gaius] Valerius [Diocletianus] and the second year of the emperor Marcus Aurelius [Maximianus], Pii Felices Augusti [= August, A.D. 287]. $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. × $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a small cursive hand. [G.P. II. 70.]

- Pap. 711. NOTIFICATION by Petosiris, son of Petechon, and Petechon's half-brother, νεκροτάφοι of Hibis, that they have authorised Aurelius Marianus of Cusis to deposit publicly with the ἀρχιδικαστής at Alexandria a grant (χάρις, apparently equivalent to a will) made to them by their father of all his property, with provisions in favour of their sisters and other persons. Dated in the reign of the emperors [Marci Julii Philippi [Pii Felices Augusti]; the year is lost, but the original grant which is the subject of the notification is dated the 12th Thoth in the 2nd year [9 Sept. A.D. 244], and the notification itself must be between 244 and 249. $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 15 in. Two columns, of which the first is considerably mutilated; in a small cursive hand. [G.P. II. 71.]
- Pap. 712. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT by Aurelius Souris, son of Petechon, of the village of Cusis in the Hibite nome, of a loan of two talents, received from Aurelius Psentphthous, ἐξωπλίτης, of Diospolis. Dated the 13th February in a consulship (the figure is lost) of the emperors Diocletianus, pater Augustorum, and Galerius Valerius Maximianus Augustus [= A.D. 308, cf. Mommsen, Hermes, xxxii. 544]. 10 in. \times $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a rather rough cursive hand on dark papyrus. [G.P. II. 72.]
- Pap. 713. LETTER from Psenosiris, πρεσβύτερος, to Apollo, πρεσβύτερος (both being Christians), informing him of the arrival of a certain woman, whom he had committed to the charge of the undertakers until her son should arrive. Late 3rd or early 4th cent. $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a rather rough semi-cursive hand. [G.P. II. 73.]
- Pap. 714. SALE by Aurelius Heron, son of Castor, a cavalry soldier of the promoti secundi in the legion II Trajana, quartered at Tentyra, to Aurelius Apianus, son of Catus (?), ἐξωπλίτης, of the village of Cusis in the Hibite nome, of a female camel for 9 talents of silver. Dated the 30th Pharmouthi in the 18th year of Diocletianus, the 17th of Maximianus, Augusti, and the 10th of Constantius and Maximianus, Caesares [= 27 April, A.D. 302]. $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. Somewhat mutilated; in a rather small cursive hand. [G.P. II. 74.]
- Pap. 715. RECEIPT from Tapaous, daughter of Piaous, νεκροτάφη of Motheitopolis, to Casianus, son of Casianus, νεκροτάφος of the τοπαρχία of Cusis, for 20 talents of silver as remuneration for her services as nurse. Dated the 8th January in the 10th consulship of Diocletianus, "pater Augustorum," and Galerius Valerius Maximianus Augustus [= A.D. 308, cf. Mommsen, Hermes, xxxii. 544]. $10\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 5 in. Somewhat mutilated; in a rather rough cursive hand. [G.P. II. 75.]

Pap. 716. CONTRACT of divorce by mutual consent between Soul and Senpsais, daughter of Psais, νεκροτάφου from the τοπαρχία of Cusis, with acknowledgment of mutual restoration of gifts and dowry. Dated in the 14th year of Constantius and Maximianus, Augusti, and the 2nd [of Maximinus and Severus, Caesares, = A.D. 305-306]. 6 in. \times 4 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. Imperfect at the end; in a rather rough cursive hand. [G.P. II. 76.]

Pap. 717. LETTER from Melas to Sarapion and Silvanus, brothers, complaining that he has paid them for removing his brother's body, and that they have only removed his effects; he consequently demands repayment of the amounts paid to them, of which a schedule is appended. Early 4th cent. 9 in. \times 4 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a small cursive hand. [G.P. II. 77.]

Pap. 718. PETITION addressed to Satrius Arrianus, prefect of Egypt, by Syrus, son of Petechon, ἐξωπλίτης, of the toparchy of Cusis, complaining of the abduction of his wife and children, on a false assertion that they were slaves, by Tates, daughter of Ammonius, and her husband. Dated in Phamenoth of the 15th year of Maximianus Augustus, the 3rd of Severus Augustus and Maximinus Caesar, and the 2nd of Constantius Caesar [= March, A.D. 307]. 10 in. \times 5 in. Considerably mutilated; in a rather small cursive hand. [G.P. II. 78.]

Pap. 719. RECEIPT from Aurelius Victor, son of Severus, and Aurelius Colluthus, son of Mesoueria, of Antinoopolis, members of the crew of the prefect's galley commanded by Apion, ἀρχικυβερνήτης, to Aurelius Sennuthes (MS. Sinuthes), son of Victor, of Hermopolis, resident in Panopolis, rower in the said galley, for the wages of a substitute during the past indiction-year. Dated the 21st Mesoré in the year after the consulship of Flavius Vincentius and Flavius Fravitta [= 14 August, A.D. 402]. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 6 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. Perfect; in a large cursive hand, on much stained papyrus. [G.P. II. 80.]

Pap. 720. SIMILAR receipt, between the same parties, for the following year (the first indiction-year, then just past). Dated the 1st Pauni in the year after the consulship of the emperors Arcadius and Honorius [26 May A.D. 403]. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times 6 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. Mutilated; in a large cursive hand, on much stained papyrus. [G.P. II. 81.]

Pap. 721. SIMILAR receipt, from Aurelius Apion, son of Pæssius, of Antinoopolis, pilot of the prefect's galley, to Aurelius Sen-

- nuthes, for the following year (the second indiction-year, then current). Dated the 29th Phaophi in the consulship of the emperor Theodosius and Rumoridus [= 26 Oct. A.D. 403]. $11\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a large cursive hand, considerably faded, upon stained papyrus. [G.P. II. 81 (a).]
- Pap. 722. LETTER from Victor, son of Colluthus, serving in the prefect's galley, to Victor, Maximus, another Victor, and Theonas, complaining that they have compelled Sennuthes [see three preceding papyri] to serve a λειτουργία to which he is not liable, in place of serving in the galley, to which he is liable, like his father and grandfather; and threatening unpleasant consequences if they do not release him. Circ. A.D. 400, probably earlier than the preceding documents. $10\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a large cursive hand upon stained papyrus. [G.P. II. 82.]
- Pap. 723. FRAGMENT of a receipt. Early 5th cent. 10 in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Much damaged; written in a large cursive hand upon stained papyrus.
- Pap. 724. FRAGMENT of a contract or receipt, given by Aurelia Mannous, daughter of Pousi, of Arsinoë; dated at Arsinoë the 27th Pauni in the year after the consulship of Flavius Belisarius [= 21 June, A.D. 535]. $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Only the beginning is preserved, the date in a rather rough cursive, the document in a neat, upright cursive hand. [G.P. II. 85.]
- Pap. 725. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT from Aurelius Phoebammon son of John, a labourer in the hamlet of Tounkerkis in the Hermopolite nome, to Cyrus, son of Victor, an elder and hempdealer of Hermopolis, of a loan of $6\frac{1}{2}$ artabas of wheat. Dated the 19th Choiach in the 14th year of the emperor Flavius Mauricius Tiberius [= 15 Dec. A.D. 595]. 5 in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, the end being lost; in a small, sloping cursive hand. [G.P. II. 86.]
- Pap. 726. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT from Aurelius John, son of Paul, of the village of Philoxenus in the Arsinoite nome, to John, the keeper of a storehouse, of a loan, the details of which are lost though the mutilation of the papyrus. Dated at Arsinoë, the 24th Choiach in the 21st year of the emperor Flavius Mauricius Tiberius [= 20 Dec. A.D. 602]. 5 in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, the end being lost; in a sloping cursive hand. [G.P. II. 88.]
- Pap. 727. ACCOUNT of various payments of wheat, made in the second indiction by Phoebammon, son of Abraham, apparently from land belonging to the village of Macron (in the Fayum).

7th cent. (?). 5 in. \times 9 in. Perfect; in a small, much abbreviated hand. [G.P. II. 104.]

Pap. 728. RECEIPT from Aurelius Cosmas (apparently an elder), son of John, of Arsinoë, to Victor, deputy of the dux Joseph, for a payment, the details of which are lost. Dated at Arsinoë, the 2nd Mesoré in the 399th year of the era of Diocletian [= 26 July, A.D. 682]. $13\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. Mutilated; in a small, sloping, cursive hand. [G.P. II. 100.]

Pap. 729. FESTAL Letter from a patriarch of Alexandria to his clergy, fixing the date of Easter for the current year as April 25. The only years, within the limits required by the palaeography of the MS., in which Easter fell on this day are A.D. 577 and 672; and as there was no orthodox patriarch of Alexandria at the latter date, the former is most probable. $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $13\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, only the conclusion (22 lines) being preserved; in a large, handsome, uncial hand. [G.P. II. 112.]

Pap. 730. FRAGMENT of a letter, in Latin; the subject is uncertain. Dated at Fulvini, on the nones of October in the consulship of the emperor Verus (for the third time) and Umidius Quadratus [= 7 Oct. A.D. 167]. $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. Only the conclusion is preserved, written with many errors in a rather large, thin, cursive hand. [G.P. II. 108.]

Pap. 731. FRAGMENT of a receipt, in Latin, for certain expenses connected with some equites promoti; dated in the fifth consulship of Diocletianus and the fourth of Maximianus [= A.D. 293]. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect, wanting the beginning and the left-hand portion; written in a small cursive hand, rather faded. [G.P. II. 110.]

Pap. 732. HOMER'S ILIAD, books xiii. and xiv. The following lines are preserved, either in whole or in part: xiii. 1-10, 38-50, 73-87, 149-437, 456-653, 658-674, 740-747; xiv. 120-293, 322-394, 397-522. Late 1st cent. (?). The MS. originally consisted of 36 columns, measuring about 5 inches in width (including margin), of which 30 are represented in its present state. The original length of the roll must have been about 15 feet, and its height $8\frac{3}{4}$ inches. It is carefully written in a square, firm, uncial hand of medium size. Edited by A. S. Hunt, Journal of Philology, xxvi. 25-59 (1898). Specimen facsimile in Kenyon, Palaeography of Greek Papyri, pl. xix.

Pap. 733. THE Poems of Bacchylides; the unique MS. Twenty odes are represented, of which six (containing 548 lines) are perfect or admit of approximately certain restoration; of nine substantial portions are preserved; and five are mere fragments. Fourteen odes are epinikian, three of them relating to victories also celebrated by Pindar; six are Hymns, Paeans, or Dithyrambs. The MS. contains 39 columns, complete or imperfect, the number of lines in each varying from 32 to 36, besides detached fragments; and it is written in a good-sized uncial hand, clear and handsome. Probably 1st cent. B.C., and corrections and titles added in a small cursive hand of the end of the 1st or the 2nd cent. In three portions, measuring 9 ft., 2 ft. 3 in., and 3 ft. 6 in., with a greatest height of 9½ in. Edited by F. G. Kenyon (1897), with facsimile of the whole MS. in a separate atlas; subsequent editions by Blass, Jurenka, and Festa.

Pap. 734. Recto. Small fragments of a land-register. 2nd cent. Written in a very small cursive hand, with abbreviations and symbols.

Verso. Literary fragments, apparently of a philosophical treatise. 2nd cent. Written in a small, semi-cursive hand.

Pap. 735. Small fragments of miscellaneous documents. 3rd cent. Six fragments, the largest 4½ in. × 1½ in.

Pap. 736. HOMER'S ILLAD, book viii.; fragments of four columns, containing portions of lines 1-22 (line 6 being omitted), 49-52, 63-65, 95, 98-109, 111-120, 128-135, 139-144, 150-163, 173-192 (line 183 being omitted). The four columns originally contained respectively ll. 1-48, 49-94, 95-144, 145-192. Written on the verso of the papyrus, the recto containing scanty remains of accounts and other writing. 2nd or 3rd cent. The original height of the papyrus was 12 or 12½ inches. Written in a rather rough semi-cursive hand.

Pap. 737. TABLE of addition, endorsed with names of Hermias, Anubas, Sarapion, and (in another hand) Maximianus. 3rd cent. (?). 5½ in. × 6½ in. Imperfect; in a rather rough uncial hand.

Pap. 738. FRAGMENTS in a large, thin, uncial hand, of uncertain character. 1st or 2nd cent. Sixteen fragments, all small.

Eg. 2802. CHARTULARY, in Latin, of the abbey of the Holy Cross at Quimperlé, in Brittany, containing:—

1. Life of St. Gurthiern, in three parts. Part i. begins: "Haec est genealogia Sancti Gurthierni nobilis genere, incliti officio, quam quidam laicus fidelis nomine iuthael filius aidan demonstravit." f. 4 b. Part ii. beg.: "Incipit uero conuersatio Sancti Gurthierni secundum traditionem eiusdem." f. 5. Part iii. beg.: "De inuentione reliquiarum sancti Gurthierni aliorumque sanctorum." f. 7. The writer seems to have been a monk of Quimperlé, from the reference on f. 8 to "nostri monasterii." Printed in Le Duc's Histoire de l'abbaye de Sainte-Croix de Quimperlé (ed. R. F. Le Men, Quimperlé, [1880]), pp. 578-581, from a transcript of the present MS. made by Le Duc in 1728. In the preface (pp. 6-8) Le Duc says that he also used another MS., in quarto, now lost, the contents of which appear to have been almost identical with those of the present volume.
2. List of Popes, from St. Peter to Victor III. (1086-7), continued by other hands to John XXI. or XXII. (1316-1334). f. 8 b.

3. Archbishops of Tours, down to the death of Gislebertus (1125). f. 14.
4. Bishops of Nantes, to Brictius (1112-1140); continued to Franciscus Hamon (1512-1532). f. 17.
5. Bishops of Vanneæ, to Morvanus (1089-1128); continued to Cadiocus (1235-1254). f. 19.
6. Bishops of Quimper ("Cornubię"), to Rotbertus (1113-1130); continued to "Ranoldus gallicus" (1219-1245). f. 20.
7. "Nomina Cornubię comitum," from "Rimelen mur marthou" to Conan, son of Alan Fergan; continued to Anne of Brittany, the latest additions dated 1755. f. 21.
8. Annals, from the Creation to A.D. 1128; continued to 1323. f. 23. Extracts relating to Quimperlé are printed in Le Duc (as above, art. 1), pp. 581-3; but they seem, from the verbal variations, to have been taken from the lost MS.
9. "Opusculum Gurhedeni monachi." Chartulary of Quimperlé abbey; compiled by Gurheden in the first half of the 12th cent., but with additions on blank pages by 12th and 13th century scribes. ff. 52-105 b, 118-163 b. It begins with a short introduction, "Quoniam plerumque scriptorum negligentia," etc. (f. 52); this is followed by an account of the foundation of the abbey by Alan, "Consul Cornubię," in 1029 (ff. 53-57), and by copies, not in strict chronological order, of charters, papal briefs, and other documents relating to the abbey. The introduction is printed in Le Duc (as above, art. 1), p. 583, and the account of the foundation in Morice, Mémoires pour servir de Preuves à l'histoire de Bretagne, vol. i. (Paris, 1742), col. 365; and copious extracts from the chartulary are in Morice, op. cit., vol. i. cols. 366-580 passim, and in Le Duc, op. cit., pp. 584 seq. The documents relating to the dispute with Redon abbey about Belle-Isle (ff. 142-149 b, 155 b, 159-163 b) are printed both in Morice, i. 532-539, and in Mabillon, Annales Benedictini, vol. vi. pp. 631-635. Gurheden appears to have died about 1128 (see Le Duc, p. 198).
10. Life of St. Ninnoca, in the same hand as the greater part of art. 9. Beg.: "Vitam sanctę ninnocę in quodam libellulo ueteri rustico stilo digestam reperientes. maluimus potius incompositę materiei rectam simplicitatem ita scribendo seruare. quam plus iusto vel minus eam emendando seriem narrationis deprauare." f. 106 b. Printed in the Acta Sanctorum, 4 June, "ex codice MS. Monasterii S. Crucis Ord. Ben. Quimperlæi." See also Morice, op. cit., i. cols. 180-182.
Vellum; ff. 164. XIIIth cent.; with additions, XIII-XVIIIth centt. At f. 2, "D. D. Le Batard" (18-19th cent.). Belonged to the family of Le Guillou for several years in the present century, from whom it passed about 1840 to Thomas Stapleton, editor of Magni Rotuli Scaccarii Normanniæ, 1840, and afterwards to his nephew Henry Stapleton, Lord Beaumont. While in Lord Beaumont's possession, two transcripts of the whole volume were made by M. Léon Maître, and deposited in the archives of Nantes and Quimper respectively; and it was announced in 1889 that he was about to publish it. See the Bulletin de la Société Archéologique du Finistère, vol. xiv. (Quimper, 1887), pp. 26, 85; vol. xvi. (1889), pp. xlviii.-liii. $6\frac{3}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Eg. 2803. PORTOLANO, containing the following 13 coast maps: (1) the World, including a rough outline of the east coast of N. America and of S. America to about 40° S. latitude. f. 1 b;—(2) the Caspian Sea. f. 2;—(3) the Black Sea, with the seas of Azof and Marmora. f. 2 b;—(4) the east Mediterranean, from the Levant to Cape Matapan. f. 3;—(5) the Ægean Sea. f. 3 b;—(6) the Adriatic Sea and the Italian coasts. f. 4;—(7) the west Mediterranean, from Cape Matapan to Cartagena. ff. 4 b, 5;—(8) the Spanish and Atlantic coasts, from Cartagena to the mouth of the Shannon. ff. 5 b, 6;—(9) Great Britain, Ireland, and Holland. f. 6 b;—(10) Denmark and the south Baltic coasts. f. 7;—(11) the West Indies and S. America, from the mouths of the Magdalena to Trinidad. ff. 7 b, 8;—(12) the Atlantic, showing Labrador and Newfoundland in N. America, and the S. American coast from Trinidad to about 10° S. latitude, with the west coasts of Europe and Africa to beyond Cape Palmas. ff. 8 b, 9;—(13) Africa, from Sierra Leone round to Suez, with Arabia and the Persian Gulf and Indian Ocean. ff. 9 b, 10;—(14) S.E. Asia, from India to Cochin China, with rough indication of Chinese coast northwards. ff. 10 b, 11. At the end are added tables to find the days of new moon, the moveable feasts (f. 11 b), and the positions of the sun and moon in the signs of the Zodiac (f. 12). The tables are calculated from 1508 onwards, and the maps were evidently executed about that date, probably at Naples. The volume appears to be a copy of one of the early portolani of Visconti Maggiola of Genoa, and is the earliest Italian portolano now known which shows the North Atlantic coasts of America (cf. HARRISSE, The Discovery of North America, 1892, p. 469).

Vellum; ff. 12. In the original Venetian binding, with sunk centre and corner pieces. $11 \times 8\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Of these legends, no. 44 (St. Telyou) appears to occur in none of the other collections (see lists in Horstmann, opp. cit.); it is written in lines of six feet, while the rest of the collection is normally in lines of seven feet. Of the other legends, all except nos. 47, 50, 53, 56, and 64 occur in Harl. 2277 (except where that MS. is mutilated), and these numbers are found in the kindred Cotton MS., Jul. D. ix. There is a large lacuna between ff. 87 b and 88. The main body of the MS. up to f. 161 inclusive is written in one hand; but ff. 88 b-99 (beginning after the lacuna, and including the legend of St. Telyou) are in a different hand, apparently the same as that which wrote ff. 162-188. On f. 99 (the greater part of which had been left blank) a prose legend of St. Wilfrid is inserted in a charter-hand of the 15th century, and on f. 99 b is a legend of Our Lady in octosyllabic verse, in another hand of the same period. On ff. 179 b, 180 a prose legend of the birth of Judas Iscariot is inserted in a similar (but not identical) hand, and on ff. 180 b-181 b is, a poem entitled "De terminis usure," in octosyllabic verse, apparently in the same hand as f. 99 b (beg. "Okure [usury] yrow crafte of okerrers Schow hit on mony maners").

Vellum; ff. 188. xivth cent., with additions of xvth cent. At the beginning (f. 3 b) is a list of contents in a hand of the 15th cent.; and another list has been inserted (f. 2) in the hand of Richard Heber. The names of the saints have in some places been added at the tops of the pages, in their Latin forms. Belonged to Richard Heber (sale-cat. 1836, lot 1089) and Sir Thomas Phillipps (MS. 8253, sale-cat. 1898, lot 934). 9 × 6½ in.

Edg. 2811. PLEAS, Yearbooks and Eyres, tempp. Edw. I.-III. The Yearbooks are of various terms, 6-14 Edw. II., and differ much from Maynard's MS. (Add. 35,094). They are supplemented by many other pleas having no definite arrangement, although some are dated (25 Edw. I.-13 Edw. II.). The eyres are partly later (tempp. Edw. III.), and on separate quires. In French or Latin. The chief contents are:—

1. Crown-cases from the eyre held at Canterbury, 7 [or 6, see below] Edw. II. Chiefly in Latin. A different report from that given below in art. 3. Imperfect at the beginning. Followed continuously by other pleas, which do not seem to be Kentish. f. 9.
2. "Placita itineris apud Turrim London.": pleas of the London eyre of 14 Edw. II. [1320-1], beg. "Entre les altres cries." A different report from that of Harley MSS. 453, 1062. f. 22.
3. A collection in twenty quires, including a number of year-books of Edw. II., an eyre and miscellaneous pleas, partly dated, partly undated. f. 39. They include: (a) Yearbooks for Mich. 7 Edw. II.—Mich. 8 Edw. II. f. 51;—(b) Kentish eyre, 7 Edw. II. (but in MSS. Hargr. 210, ff. 50, 181, Harl. 453, f. 43, and Harl. 1062, f. 13, it is dated 6 Edw. II.). f. 111 b;—(c) Yearbooks, Mich. 8 Edw. II. continued. f. 129 b;—(d) Mich. 9 Edw. II. f. 132;—(e) Mich. 10 Edw. II. f. 137;—(f) Easter, 6 Edw. II. f. 155;—(g) Hil. 6 Edw. II. f. 160;—(h) Easter, 10 Edw. II. f. 175; (i) Mich. 11 Edw. II. (these last two dates have been altered and are uncertain). f. 177;—(k) Hil. 11 Edw. II. f. 178 b;—(l) Mich. 12 Edw. II.—Mich. 14 Edw. II. f. 187. In addition there are single pleas or small groups dated in various years of Edw. II. (passim) and a few dated tempp. Edw. I., viz., 26 Edw. I. (f. 144 b), 32 (?) Edw. I. (f. 170), 32 Edw. I. (f. 172 b), 34 Edw. I. (f. 178 b). All these differ greatly in contents, order and wording from the printed edition and from other MS. texts.
4. The eyre held at Nottingham [in 3 Edw. III., Dec. 1329] by Sir William de Herle and others. Another and less full copy - of the same report is in Add. MS. 5926, f. 1. Apparently imperfect at the beginning. At the end (f. 225 b) are the "articuli do itinere," in Latin, beg. "De veteribus placitis corone," and ending with the "articuli" respecting the Statute of Northampton. f. 209.

5. "Iter Derbeye": the eyre held by Herle and others in 1330, beg. "Piers de Querdon se pleint." Differs much in arrangement from the copy of the same report in Add. MS. 5926 (f. 11). f. 232. It is preceded (f. 228) by three pleas to which the same title has been erroneously affixed. At least two of them are of later date.
 6. The eyre held by Sir Geoffrey le Scrope and others at Northampton, 3 Edw. III. (Nov. 1329), beg. "En primes assemblez tous les Justices." A very full report of these long sittings, greatly exceeding in length the reports in Add. MSS. 5294 and 24,063. f. 243.
 7. The eyre held at Bedford [4 Edw. III., 1330?], beg. "Nicholas de T. porta un bref in consimili casu vers un Johan de F." Another copy of the same report, differently arranged, is in Add. MS. 5926 (f. 23 b). f. 337.
 8. Undated pleas, probably not chronological. Some of these appear in Add. MS. 35,094 under 10 and 13 Edw. II. f. 353. Vellum; ff. 365. Tempp. Edw. II. and III. Old binding of wooden boards, covered with white goat-skin. At the beginning (f. 2 b) are some tables of contents, with a colophon, "Finem hic capit Johannis Collys Alphabeticum," etc., dat. 14 Oct. 1518. On f. 1 is the name of John Pake (16th cent.?). Belonged to Sir Gregory Osborne Page-Turner, 4th Bart. (sale-cat. 1824, lot 2715). Bought by Sir Thomas Phillipps, Bart., in Mar. 1827 (MS. 3124, sale-cat. 1898, lot 323). 11½ × 7¾ in.

Fig. 2812. LETTER-BOOK of Edward Zouche, Baron Zouche, acting as deputy to Sir Thomas Leighton, Governor of Guernsey; 31 July, 1600–28 Apr. 1601. Headed in Zouche's hand "A booke of all such letters as I doe send to any place, begune the seventeenth of August, 1600." Zouche had puritan leanings and was a patron of the puritan divine Thomas Cartwright, who is often mentioned. There are three letters to Sir Walter Raleigh, then Governor of Jersey, establishing more cordial relations. Among other correspondents addressed are Sir Thomas and Lady Leighton, Sir Thomas Ridgeway [cr. Earl of Londonderry 1623], Archbishop Whitgift, [Thomas Grey,] Lord Grey [of Wilton], [Peregrine Bertie,] Lord Willoughby [D'Eresby, Governor of Berwick], and his sister [Susan,] Countess of Kent, Sir Robert Cecil and William Davison, Secretaries of State, and one of Davison's sons [? Walter, the poet], and Matthias de L'Obel, the botanist. The names are in the index.

Paper; ff. 142. A.D. 1600-1601. A note dated 11 May, 1668, on f. 1 runs, "Bought among my sister Smith's books for 9l." In the Fairfax collection (Leeds Castle sale-cat. 1831, lot 174); Phillipps MS. 25,520 (sale-cat. 1898, lot 593). $11\frac{1}{2} \times 8$ in.

Fig. 2813. LETTER-BOOK of Sir Dudley Carleton [or. Baron Carleton 1626, and Viscount Dorchester 1628], Ambassador to Venice; Jan.-Sept. 1615. During the greater part (Feb.-July) of this time Carleton was on a special mission to Savoy to negotiate the peace of Asti between Spain and Savoy. Prefixed are copies of his instructions for this mission, dated 5 Dec. 1614, credentials, etc. Besides Carleton's own letters, which are addressed to [Robert Carr,] Earl of Somerset, Lord Chamberlain, Sir Ralph Winwood, Secretary of State, or to the King (with one, f. 77 b, to Archbishop Abbot), there are also copies of Winwood's letters to Carleton. Some passages are in cipher.

Paper; ff. 89. A.D. 1615. Belonged to the Fairfax Collection (Leeds Castle sale-cat. 1831, lot 162), Cochran the bookseller (cat. 1837, no. 393), William Van Mildert, Bishop of Durham, and Sir Thomas Phillipps, who purchased it from Payne the bookseller in 1838 (Phillipps MS. 7433, sale-cat. 1898, lot 156). 12×8 in.

Fig. 2814. WARDROBE DAY-BOOK for the year 18 Edw. II., ending 7 July, 1325, being the Diet-Roll of Robert de Holden, Comptroller of the King's Wardrobe, the Keeper being Robert de Wodehous (cf. Add. MS. 35,114). In Latin. The roll gives for each day the expense in the several departments, but without particulars. It shows also the court's itinerary and the names of the most important guests entertained. Imperfect, ending with 11 June. Endorsed on the roll are: (a) memoranda of the entry of various servants into the household and (b) the "compotus mortui stauri" or account of the household stock, game and other articles consumed, rendered by the above-mentioned Robert Wodehous. The particulars of these expenses from stock and presents in kind, etc., are entered in the margin of the roll.

Vellum Roll, 39 ft. 6 in. \times 1 ft. $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. A.D. 1325. Bought by Sir Thomas Phillipps from Payne the bookseller (Phillipps MS. 13,647, sale-cat. 1898, lot 324). From the Farnborough Fund.

Fig. 2815. ACCOMPT-ROLL of John Pickarell, Cofferer of the Household and Paymaster of the Works to Edward Seymour, Duke of Somerset; 1 Apr. 2 Edw. VI. [1548]-7 Oct. 5 Edw. VI. [1551]. Rendered to the Court of Augmentations, 18 May, 1553, and signed by Sir Richard Sackville, Chancellor, and Sir Francis Mildmay, one of the Surveyors of the Court. It contains particulars of sums spent on the Protector's buildings at Somerset Place [old Somerset House], Syon, Banbury, Woolfall [al. Wolf Hall in Great Bedwin, co. Wilts], Odiham and Reading, also of sums disbursed for his household, amounting in all to about £50,000.

Paper Roll, 32 ft. \times 1 ft. $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. A.D. 1553. Probably belonged to Sir John Fenn, editor of the Paston Letters (sale-cat. 1866, lot 460); Phillipps MS. 32,924 (sale-cat. 1898, lot 338). From the Farnborough Fund.

Fig. 2816. ROLL of New-Year's Gifts given and received by Charles I., 1 Jan. 1624. The regular recipients are classified as "Estates and Earles, Countesses and Ladies, Vizcountes, Bishoppes, Barons, Knights, Gentlemen and Musitians"; after these follows another series of "Free Giftes." The roll includes also gifts of plate to ambassadors and others at other times in the year ending 24 June, 1627. The gifts received are similarly enrolled on the back. The roll is signed by the King in four places, also by Sir Henry Mildmay, Master of the Jewels, and Richard Wrighte, Clerk of the Jewels. For the corresponding rolls for 1 and 2 James I., see Add. MSS. 15,649 and 8126.

Vellum Roll, 14 ft. \times 1 ft. $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. A.D. 1627. Bears an old no. 581 and the mark of Cochran the bookseller, with date 31 Dec. 1828 (catalogue, 1829, no. 97). Phillipps MS. 6215 (sale-cat. 1898, lot 172). From the Farnborough Fund.

Fig. 2817. GRANT by Mahomet II., Sultan of the Ottoman Turks, to the [Genoese] inhabitants of Galata, of privileges of residence and trade; being the origin of the "Capitulations" regulating the position of foreign residents in Constantinople. Greek; with the monogram of the Sultan at the top, and the date and signature of the Vizier Saganos at the bottom, in Arabic. Dated in the year 6961 [of the Constantinopolitan era, = A.D. 1453] and in the last ten days of the month Djemazioul-akhir [should be Djemazioul-ewwel = 29 May-7 June] in the year of the Hegira 857, i.e. immediately after the capture of Constantinople by the Turks [29 May, 1453].

Paper sheet, 1 ft. $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $5\frac{1}{2}$ in., backed with silk, and mounted on a roller. From the Farnborough Fund.

EGERTON MANUSCRIPTS

1899.

The following nos., 2818–2824, belonged to the library of Sir Thomas Phillipps, Bart. (see above, Add. 35,325–35,341).

Eg. 2818. “MIRACVLA” and “Passio” of St. Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, viz.:—

1. “Incipit liber primus miraculorum beatissimi Thome martiris et Cantuariensis archiepiscopi”: the work of Benedict, Abbot of Peterborough 1177–1193, printed by Robertson, Materials for the History of Archbishop Thomas Becket, Rolls Series, 1876, vol. ii. p. 21. Imperfect, ending in bk. iv. cap. lxvi. The division into books is as in the Lambeth and Trinity College MSS., the text also agreeing generally, but a passage omitted in those MSS. (lib. iv. cap. lxxv.) is here present. Begins, after a table of capitula, “Postquam igitur beatissimus Christi martyr.” f. 2.
2. “Incipit prologus magistri Iohannis Salesberiensis, episcopi Carnotensis, in passione sancti Thome episcopi et martyris”: the Passion by John of Salisbury, Bishop of Chartres 1176–1180; printed ibid. vol. ii. p. 301. A portion of the text is divided into twelve lectiones. Preface beg. “Sacrosanctam ecclesiam iugiter impugnatur,” and text “Predictus igitur beatissimus Thomas Lundoniensis.” f. 71.
Vellum; ff. 78. Late xiiith cent. Ornamental initials in colours. Said in a note by Sir T. Phillipps to have come from Pontigny Abbey in the diocese of Auxerre. Belonged to — Allard, curé of St. Eustache, Paris. Phillipps MS. 10,227 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 136). 12½ in. x 9 in.

Eg. 2819. DECRETALS, chiefly of Alexander III., and other canon and civil law collections, viz. :—

1. Brief fragment of the end of a tract on civil law, ending "Dig. pro suo, Si alienam." Quotes Bulgarus, Jacobus and Martinus. f. 3.
2. "Incipit summa de testibus magistri G.": a civil law tract. The interpretation of the initial seems doubtful. Preface, in which the writer speaks of "J. consobrinus meus," beg. "Inter homines litium fata parit diffidendi naturalis facilitas," and text "De testibus hec sunt inspicienda Testis est ueritatis adiutor." f. 3 b.
3. A collection of legal maxims, mostly on the same subject. Beg. "Omnes hereticos infames esse." f. 9 b.
4. Decrees of the third Lateran Council held in 1179. The order of the articles does not correspond with any of the other MSS. (Royal 10 B. IV., 10 C. IV., Ar. 490) or with Mansi's Concilia (vol. xxii.). Imperfect at the beginning. f. 11.
5. Eight decretals (a later insertion), of which the first is assigned to Pope Innocent III., to whom also belong at least three of the others, viz., Potthast, nos. 698, 1324, 1403. Beg. "Dilectus filius noster abbas de Ferentillo." f. 16.
6. A compilation of decretals, probably put together in England under Lucius III. (1181-5), arranged under fourteen tituli, of which the first is "De simoniacis et indebitis exactionibus tam in ecclesiasticis," etc., and the last "De Judeis, ne monachi a laicis uel clericis firmam teneant," etc. The first few chapters (only) correspond to the Leipzig collection described by von Schulte in the Vienna Academy's Sitzungsberichte, Phil.-Hist. Classe, Bd. lxxii. p. 491. Many of the letters are not in Jaffé's Regesta, and these are chiefly addressed to England. Beg. "Cum sit Romana ecclesia cui licet inmeriti." f. 18.
7. An appendix to the preceding article, containing thirty-five decretals on various subjects, ranging in date from Alexander III. to Clement III. (23 Mar. 1188). At the end, in another hand, is one (Jaffé, no. 17,055, anno 1193) of Cælestinus III. Beg. "B. Exoniensi. Illi qui animo occidendi." f. 96. Vellum; ff. 103. Early xiiith cent. Initials in colours. Belonged to William Shaw Mason (secretary to the Irish Record Commission, ob. 1853); afterwards purchased by Sir T. Phillipps from Payne the bookseller (Payne and Foss, cat. 1837, no. 9014). Phillipps MS. 11,726 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 33). Old binding of wooden boards covered with vellum. 10½ × 7½ in.

Eg. 2820. TRACT, in English, against clerks "possessioners," attributed to John Wycliffe (so by an 18th cent. hand on f. 1 b), being an ampler recension of that printed (from a Lambeth MS.) by F. D. Matthew, English Works of Wyclif, E. E. Text Soc., 1881, pp. 362-393. Beg. "Omnis plantacio [etc., Matth. xv. 13]. Almyzti god þe trinyte fadir and sone and hooli goost bope in þe oold lawe." Imperfect at end.

Vellum (except ff. 1-3); ff. 121. Circ. 1400. An illuminated initial. Bought by Sir Tho. Phillipps from Thorpe the bookseller (cat. 1836, no. 1359). Phillipps MS. 9237 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 214). Tooled in morocco binding (18th cent.). $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. \times $3\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Eg. 2821. COMPOTUS-ROLL of John Walewayn, King's Escheator South of the Trent, for the year ending Michaelmas, 10 Edw. II. [1316]. Latin. At the end are lists of the temporalities of the see of York and of the priories of Montacute and Southwyke.

Vellum Roll, 30 ft. 10 in. \times $9\frac{1}{4}$ in. A.D. 1316. Lot 574 in some sale. Phillipps MS. 14,013 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 485).

Eg. 2822. COMPOTUS-ROLL of William Forster, treasurer of the household of Anne, Duchess of Buckingham (widow of Humphrey Stafford, 1st Duke), at Writtle, co. Essex, for the year ending 30 Sept. 3 Edw. IV. [1463]. Latin.

Vellum roll, 12 ft. 8 in. \times 11 in., written on both sides. A.D. 1463. Phillipps MS. 29,181 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 490).

Eg. 2823. CHARTULARY of the Cistercian abbey of Byland (Bellalanda) in the N. Riding of co. York. In Latin. Arranged under places alphabetically. The latest document is dated 1393 and Richard II. is described (f. 92 b) as "rex ultimus." The volume, described by Tanner and Burton under the title of Registrum, is now very imperfect, having lost the first 73 leaves and many in the middle and at the end.

Inserted at f. 90 is an original award, in Engl., by Sir Raff Ewre, Kt., and Richard Bower al. Shirley, between Byland Abbey and John Wyvell, gent., touching rent of lands at Osgodby, co. York, dat. 26 Oct. 18 Hen. VIII. [1526]. At f. 2 is prefixed an engraved view of Byland by Samuel Buck, dedicated to Thomas Bellasis, Viscount Fauconberge, in 1721.

Vellum (exo. ff. 1, 2); ff. 118. Temp. Hen. IV. Initials in red and blue. Belonged successively (according to Tanner) to Brian Fairfax, John Rushworth in 1647, Thomas Bellasis, Earl of Fauconberge, in 1698, and Sir Thomas Frankland, Kt. Entered in Sir T. Phillipps's catalogue as "ex bibl. C.D. arm." Phillipps MS. 13,843 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 1238). $15\frac{1}{2}$ \times $10\frac{1}{2}$ in.

Eg. 2824. EXEMPLIFICATION of the "Valor" of Fountains Abbey, co. York: an inspeimus made 19 June, 1605, for Sir Stephen Proctor from the records in the Augmentation Office of the survey on which the site, etc., were granted to Sir Richard Gresham [Lord Mayor of London 1537-8] in 1540. It comprises the return of Leonard Bekeweth and Heugh Fuller to letters of Thomas Cromwell, Lord Cromwell, dated 19 Sept. [1539?], and also extracts from accounts by Sir William Malorye and John Carye, "ministri" of the abbey's possessions in the archdeaconry of Richmond. Seal of the Court of Exchequer.

Vellum, 10 membranes. A.D 1605. Belonged in 1839 to W. D. Bruce. Phillips MS. 33,480 (sale-cat. 1899, lot 1257). 26 × 16 in.

EG. 2825, 2826. TREATISE ON LOGIC, by Samuel Taylor Coleridge.

In sixteen chapters, the first two dealing with the history of logic and the philosophy of education, while the rest treat at great length of the metaphysics of reasoning. The treatise is not complete, though it breaks off at the end of a chapter. Two volumes. Written by an amanuensis (probably — Stutfield, jun., see Letters, Conversations and Recollections of S. T. Coleridge, by Thomas Allsop, 1864, p. 204). A table of contents, headed "Coleridge's Logic," is prefixed to vol. i., in the hand of Joseph Henry Green, Coleridge's disciple and literary executor. A few corrections in the course of the work are probably also in Green's hand (e.g. vol. ii., ff. 174, 197). Allusions to great projected philosophical works are frequent in Coleridge's correspondence, and this is probably the largest extant portion which was actually completed in a form fit for publication. A copy of a letter from Coleridge (undated and without address, but written about 1825) is inserted at the end of this treatise (vol. ii. f. 462), referring to three works which he then had in hand, of which this is probably the first, described as "finished and transcribed for the press." See also Notes and Queries, 1st ser., vols. viii. p. 43, ix. pp. 496, 543; Samuel Taylor Coleridge, by J. Dykes Campbell, 1894, p. 251 note; Letters of S. T. Coleridge, ed. Ernest Hartley Coleridge, 1895, vol. ii. p. 753 note.

Paper; ff. 90, 467. Belonged successively to J. H. Green, E. Rig-gall, Messrs. Macmillan and Bowes, and Charles A. Ward. The last-named has written annotations and criticisms in pencil on the blank sides of many of the leaves. Quarto.
